Cars of Old Vintage to Race to Plattsmouth

"Scrambola," "Leapin' Lena," "Scatter Bolt" and "Century of Progress" Coming Saturday.

The new all-paved highway between Plattsmouth and Omaha will be the scene of an interesting race this coming Saturday, September 22, planned as an adjunct to the closing day of the King Korn Carnival.

The cars that will participate in the mad race, starting from South Omaha at 3:30 p. m., and their respective drivers, will be as follows: "Scrambola," a 1909 "streamline" model, Joe Haney; "Leapin' Lena," Emil Stahlmer; "Scatter Bolt," Bill Stella, and "Century of Progress," Henry Lefter. The official starter is Louie Cinek, well known South Omaha coal dealer.

At least two of the cars in this race have participated in speed classics of like nature heretofore, when they have been run under power (or towed) from South Omaha to several state Legion conventions in recent years, and they are said to be in better condition than ever before to make a hot run from South Omaha to this city. The time of arrival here is a bit hard to reckon and will depend on road hazards and "time out" to keep the gas buggies in good running order. It is safe to say they will get in in time for supper.

It is planned to have them met at the outskirts of town by the ancient Plattsmouth owned Brush car of M. D. Brown, which still can get over the road plenty fast for a one-lung engine. The winner of the race and Brown may engage in a half mile race, after their arrival, provided the mantle of darkness has not yet fallen over these parts of our fair land.

James Riha, a past commander of South Omaha Legion post was here yesterday arranging with W. R. Holly of the Plattsmouth Legion post for the race and the display of the old cars on Main street during the evening, as one of the features of the closing day of the King Korn Carnival, and the event will be given much publicity in the Omaha papers during the current week.

The drivers and their mechanical aids will be attired in the long cloak-like robes that distinguished autoists back in the days when one-man tops, storage batteries, starters, etc., were some of the crowning achievements auto makers talked about in their ads.

SUES FOR DAMAGES

From Tuesday's Daily

An action was filed in the district court today by C. S. Wortman and A. L. Tidd, attorneys for Clifton Welch against Lloyd Carnicle, et al.

The action is one for damages arising from an auto accident that occurred on August 12, 1934, on the South Bend-Ashland graveled highway in Saunders county. The plaintiff in his petition alleges that the defendant was coming from the west on the highway driving his car in a reckless and negligent manner, that the plaintiff to avoid an accident had driven to the right hand side of the road but that his car was hit and overturned, the car being damaged very badly and the plaintiff suffered dangerous injuries.

As the result of the accident the plaintiff requests damages in the amount of $5,000 for personal injuries and $225 for damages to the car.

VISITED SCHOOLS IN COUNTY

County Superintendent Miss Alpha C. Peterson, was out from Plattsmouth on Monday afternoon visiting schools in this part of the county. Miss Peterson is an excellent county superintendent and is constantly on the job looking after the schools and determining points of interest for the schools. Her experience, careful work and knowledge of the office has given the schools of the county a splendid administration. And this with her faithfulness of her duties certainly entitle her to the return to the office which she seeks at the coming election on November 6th.—Elmwood Leader-Echo.

VERY PLEASANT EVENT

Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Chancellor of this city are rejoicing over the arrival at their home on Friday of a fine seven and a half pound daughter. The mother and little one are doing nicely and the occasion has brought the greatest of pleasure to all of the family circle. Mrs. Chancellor was formerly Miss Helen Amick.

Constitution Week Observed by Club Ladies

First Meeting of the Fall Season Devoted to Study of Basic Law of the Nation.

From Tuesday's Daily

Last evening the Plattsmouth Woman's club held their first meeting of the year at the pleasant home of Mrs. R. W. Knorr on high school hill. Mrs. Knorr was associated with Mrs. V. T. Arn, Mrs. O. C. Hudson, Mrs. William Heinrich and Miss Florence Beighley in the entertaining.

The club very regretfully received the resignation of Miss Lucy Edwards, recording secretary, who is leaving the city and as her successor named Miss Wilhelmina Henriksen.

Mrs. L. S. Devoe, chairman of the year book committee presented the new books and which were given out to the club members. The books gave some very fine programs for the forthcoming season.

The state convention of the Nebraska federation will be held on October 9, 10 and 11 at Fairbury and the club selected as delegates, Mrs. Robert Reed, club president; Mrs. L. S. Devoe and Mrs. L. W. Egenberger, the alternates being Mrs. James G. Mauzy and Mrs. John F. Wolf.

The president announced the county convention to meet at Avoca on September 25th and urged all members to be in attendance, a large number from here planning to attend.

The subject of the meeting was that of the United States constitution and which was under the leadership of Mrs. E. H. Wescott, who carried out the program most interestingly by a round table discussion of the constitution, its various clauses and which the ladies answered. The study of the constitution was urged as something that every American should do and to have a thorough knowledge of the basic law of the land.

The club had as guests two high school girls, Lois Giles and Rosemary Cloldt.

The evening was closed by the hostesses serving very dainty and delicious refreshments.

BREX TO REPEAT PAGEANT SATURDAY OF CORN SHOW

By popular request of many citizens and friends of the Corn Carnival the BREX employes will repeat the pageant they gave Saturday evening, September 8th. This pageant is one of the first attempts to introduce the element of drama into the activities of the Corn Carnival. So successful was this affair that it will be repeated on a more elaborate scale Saturday afternoon, the last day of the festival, immediately after the rural school parade.

This pageant is a new innovation in the field of entertainment and it is the intention of the committee to attempt to put on more pageants next year.

Harry White and E. O. Vroman will act as the directors of this production with the co-authors, Paul Vandervoort and Roy Olson.

ENTER CREIGHTON COLLEGE

Donald Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Stewart and Marvin Tritsch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Tritsch, of this city are enrolling for the term at Creighton university.

Donald Stewart is entering the pre-law school of the university and will make his home with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. S. Arion Lewis at Omaha. Marvin will enter the college of arts and sciences for the term.

Republicans Open Campaign at Louisville

Robert Simmons, Dwight Griswold and Marcus L. Potet Head List of Speakers.

The city of Louisville was the scene Monday night of a great rally of the republicans of Cass county, the opening gun of the campaign on which the party hopes to sweep from power the democratic administration.

The rally was held at the town hall where 250 were seated at the banquet board and to greet the candidates for the leading state offices as well as the nominees of the county.

Preceding the meeting the Farmers Union band served to entertain the members of the banquet party which came from all sections of the county to join in the demonstration.

The ladies of the Methodist church prepared and served the banquet which was most delightful in the fine menu and the serving.

The Plattsmouth male quartet composed of Frank A. Cloldt, H. G. McClusky, R. W. Knorr and Raymond C. Cook, gave two very much enjoyed numbers that made a real hit with the audience.

With the disposal of the fine meal provided, H. A. Schneider of this city, who had been one of the boosters of the meeting and had suggested it at the county convention, introduced Searl S. Davis, who presided over the meeting in his clever and entertaining manner.

Lee J. Mayfield, editor of the Louisville Courier, extended to the visitors the welcome of the Louisville republicans, while brief remarks were given by Marion Tucker of Nebraska, county chairman and Mrs. Ivan Balfour of Union, vice chairman of the county committee.

Robert Simmons, ten years congressman from the Sixth district and nominee for United States senator, was introduced and discussed the national issues from the standpoint of his party. Mr. Simmons attacked the actions of the national administration as violations of the constitutional government of the nation and condemned the policies that have been in vogue in the Roosevelt administration. He also challenged Congressman E. R. Burke, democratic candidate for senator to state what policies of the Roosevelt administration he approved or disapproved.

Dwight Griswold, candidate for governor, largely confined his talk to the state issues and promised that the state house would be cleaned up in the event of his election and the highway and banking departments especially given an overhauling.

Marcus L. Potet, candidate for congress spoke on the national issues and joined in the protest against the actions of the Roosevelt administration in the past two years.

One of the most enjoyed features of the banquet was the stories of J. F. McDermott, of Omaha, who kept the audience well entertained and from whom the banqueters separated with reluctance.

The county candidates present were introduced and greeted the members of the banquet party.

STUDENT COUNCIL

For a number of years, the student council has played an important part in the school life of Plattsmouth high school in having charge of the convocation programs and acting as a unifying group for the entire student body. They serve a useful purpose co-ordinating the program of the school years insofar as it touches the students and for these reasons, its growth and activity have been encouraged. The following members have been elected by their respective classes and will meet soon to elect officers and formulate plans for the year: Seniors—Donald Cotner, Howard Hinz, Grace Welch, Geraldine Griffin and Herbert Minor. Juniors—Grace Wiles, Arthur Warga, June Geist and Donald Warga. Sophomores—Geo. Hobscheidt, Rachel Robertson and Richard Yelick. Freshmen—Richard Cole and Frances Cloldt. Mr. Patterson is faculty sponsor.

The low gross scores for the 18 rounds of play were: Dr. R. P. Westover, 78; Rev. G. A. Pahl, 79; A. C. Carper, 79.

A total of eleven prizes are to be awarded the winners.

From Wednesday's Daily
George B. Lenhoff of Omaha, was in the city today for a few hours and on his return was accompanied by his sister, Miss Tillie Lenhoff, who will make a short visit in that

BIRTH OF DAUGHTER

Friends here of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hartford, now visiting in California, have received word from them of the birth of a daughter on last Friday to Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hartley, of Los Angeles. Mrs. Hartley was formerly Miss Elva Hartford and Mr. Hartley is best known as "Chick" Hartley, a former star of the Cornhusker football team.

Girls' Club Has Very Attractive Unit Display

One of the Features at the Corn Palace Is Work of Local Girls 4-H Club.

The Sunnyside 4-H girls room club of this city has a most attractive showing at the corn palace in the Bekins buildings, which shows a fine array of second year room work.

The girls entering have on exhibit units of five articles of which at least two must be articles prepared by the members of the club.

It is surprising the very artistic rugs, lampshades and other units for the girls and living room sets that are made a part of the exhibit.

The rugs have been prepared by the girls from old blankets and are real works of art and represent the excellent work of the members of the club.

One of the lampshades at the exhibit is the work of Grace Louise Wiles and was a prize winner at the state fair and goes to the national 4-H show at Chicago. Out of the five awards at Lincoln the local club received three on their lampshades, Miss Wiles being first, Virginia Trively third and Lois Giles, fourth.

Virginia Trively was one of the winners in the room judging contest at the state fair and will go to Chicago in company with Miss Frances Meier of Heeping Water, this trip being the award of their excellent work.

The exhibit here at the corn palace is well worth your time to view as it is an indication of the fine work promoted by the 4-H clubs.

WINNERS ANNOUNCED IN GOLF TOURNAMENT

The blind bogie, putting and flag contests which have been held on the course of the Plattsmouth Golf club, closed Sunday after three days of interesting play in which nearly every club member and some outsiders participated. This contest proved one of the most interesting events that has been staged by the club in many months.

In the blind bogie contest, the winning number was seventy, this being drawn and sealed by C. W. Helms before play started. Contestants chose their own handicap before starting play, aiming to bring their resultant number of strokes somewhere between 65 and 71. When the handicap had been deducted, three were found to qualify on the winning 70 and it will be necessary for them to get together and hold a putting contest to determine the ultimate prize winner. The three are A. W. Cloldt, Dr. R. P. Westover and L. F. Otto, one of the new government engineers now located here.

In the putting contest for the two official rounds of play, Rev. G. A. Pahl was the prize winner, chalking up but 21 putting strokes to attain his desired position at the cup.

The flag contest that covered the three days of play had attracted the greatest interest, and the results, as announced by the committee in charge, were: First hole, third, W. Knorr; second, L. S. Devoe; third, Ben McCarty; fourth, L. L. McCarty; fifth, Ray Meisner; sixth, E. A. Wurl; seventh, A. C. Carper; eighth, Robert Wurl; ninth, Dr. R. P. Westover.

The low gross scores for the 18 rounds of play were: Dr. R. P. Westover, 78; Rev. G. A. Pahl, 79; A. C. Carper, 79.

A total of eleven prizes are to be awarded the winners.
From Wednesday's Daily
George B. Lenhoff of Omaha, was in the city today for a few hours and on his return was accompanied by his sister, Miss Tillie Lenhoff, who will make a short visit in that

Wedding of Well Known Young People

Miss Margaret Engelkemeier and Mr. Glen Terryberry Married on Tuesday Evening.

From Wednesday's Daily

At seven o'clock last evening a pretty home wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Engelkemeier when their daughter, Margaret became the bride of Mr. Glen Terryberry.

Rev. G. A. Pahl, of St. Paul's Evangelical church, performed the ceremony before a background of gladiolas and white tapers in candleholders on either side of the altar. R. Benford of Peru, Nebr., played the wedding march.

The bride chose a dress of rust colored crepe with black accessories and a corsage of Ophelia roses. A cousin of the bride, Miss Lovisa Albert, was her only attendant. She was dressed in blue crepe, with blue accessories and wore a corsage of Red Radian roses.

Mr. James Schafer, a nephew of the groom, served as best man.

A wedding supper was served after the ceremony to a party of thirty, close relatives and friends of the bride and groom. A large wedding cake decorated the table and roses were used in profusion on the tables and throughout the rooms.

Following the ceremony the couple left by motor for a week's honeymoon in Miller, South Dakota, where the bride formerly taught school. The bride's going away costume was a suit of dark blue serge wool with a blouse of egg shell colored crepe. Her accessories were blue.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Engelkemeier of this city and the groom is the youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Terryberry of Cedar Creek. They will live on the groom's farm near Cedar Creek.

PICNIC AT NEBRASKA CITY

The members of the Sans family held their annual reunion at the Arbor Lodge state park at Nebraska City Sunday. A fine picnic dinner at noon featured the event.

Those present were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sans, Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Frans, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Frans, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Frans and children, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Frans, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Frans, Auburn; Mrs. Ted Barrows, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barrows, and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Boedeker and daughter, Jane, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boedeker, Miss Beulah Sans, John and Charles Sans, Murray; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garrison, Mr. and Mrs. George Garrison, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Farlander and children, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Garrison and children, Union; Mr. and Mrs. Grant Fallers and Patty, Syracuse; Mr. and Mrs. John Rieke and daughter, Weeping Water; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ottmat, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kotas, Mrs. Leta Ottmat and children and Mr. and Mrs. Ben James and daughter, Nebraska City.

PREPARE PARKING SPACES

Arrangements have been made for the providing of an adequate parking place for autos of visitors to the city who may be here during the Korn Carnival. The parking space is in the rear of the Soennichsen building, the entrance to the lot being on Pearl street just east of the Klingler produce company building. The grounds have been cleaned off and arranged nicely for the parking and lights installed. The Ad Club will also provide a watchman for the lot to protect the cars and the property that may be left in the cars by the owners.

HAVE FINE APPLE CROP

The World-Herald carried an excellent picture Sunday of a scene from the Red Apple farm, north of Florence, which is owned by J. J. Smith, well known here. This is one of the largest fruit farms in Nebraska and has been very successful this year despite the drouth and a fine crop of apples is looked for. Mr. Smith is father of Mrs. T. B. Bates, formerly of this city.

TO ENGAGE IN BUSINESS IN MINNEAPOLIS

James K. Pollock has resigned his position as assistant cashier of the Farmers State bank to take effect October 1st and will leave shortly afterward for Minneapolis, Minn., to engage in business with relatives in that city. Mr. Pollock will make his home there with his sister, Mrs. C. M. McElroy.

Senior English Class Boosts the Korn Carnival

Twenty-Two Students Visit the Rural Schools of County to Extend Plattsmouth's Invitation.

From Tuesday's Daily

This morning twenty-two members of the Senior English class of Plattsmouth High school went forth to visit the rural schools of Cass county in the interest of this week's Korn Carnival in Plattsmouth. Seven teams, each with a definite section of the county to be visited, left the High school at 8:30 o'clock, with the expectation of returning by 12 o'clock noon. Their specific purpose was to arouse interest and participation by each rural school in the parade to be held Saturday, September 22. Prizes are to be given for the best floats, and in addition each participating group will be rewarded for its part in this rural day parade.

Each of the seven teams has its own captain. Business men of Plattsmouth provided automobiles and are accompanying the students on their trip. The car owners going were: Robert Walling, John Hobscheidt, C. L. Pease, Henry Soennichsen, Fritz Fricke, Milford Bates, and Henry Starkjohn. Each team of three was also accompanied by a student entertainer to further please and interest their juvenile audiences.

Nor were the students entirely unprepared for their maiden efforts at stirring up enthusiasm. During part of last week, under the direction of Supt. Wayne Alvord, they were preparing themselves by studying facts and figures and outlining and rehearsing the best methods for the job. They entered into the project with a will, hoping to see their efforts well rewarded by the Saturday turnout. Cass county schools have always responded well and they will do so again this year, according to early reports reaching us on the success of today's contact trip.

Those participating were: Louise Bakke, Dorn Bowman, Bessie Carey, Edna Cariburg, Joe Case, Frederick Fricke, Francis Gamblin, Lois Giles, Geraldine Griffin, Ertle Johnson, Robert Long, Louis Kief, Frank Lepert, Louise Parsell, William Ruffner, John Rishel, William Starkjohn, Francis Stoll, Avis Sylvester and Grace Welch.

W. C. T. U. MEETS

The W. C. T. U. held a very pleasant meeting on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. L. Propst in the south part of the city, a very large number of the members being in attendance.

Mrs. George L. Farley had the devotions of the meeting and took as the topic "The Life of Daniel." One of the chief matters of the meeting was the installation of the new officials for the year, Mrs. C. R. Troop, past president, being the installing officer. Those installed were: President—Mrs. E. H. Wescott. Vice-President—Mrs. George B. Mann. Secretary—Mrs. V. T. Arn. Treasurer—Miss Elizabeth Spangler.

Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. R. B. Hayes. Mrs. Wescott, the new president, took charge of the meeting and the ladies enjoyed some time in the discussion of the plans for the ensuing year that was followed with the greatest interest.

Mrs. R. B. Hayes discussed the S. T. I. work in the schools and the fine response that it has met within the county. At the close of the afternoon Mrs. Propst and Mrs. Martha Wetenskap served very dainty and delicious refreshments.

Phone the news to No. 6.

SPEAKS ON CONSTITUTION

The Rotary club at their luncheon on Tuesday had a very pleasant feature afforded them as a part of the Constitution week observance. R. Foster Patterson, principal of the high school, gave a history of the constitution of the United States and a discussion of the group of colonists that formed the constitutional convention, a body that drew up the basic law to draw together the heretofore independent colonies of the new republic, forming them into a united group of states to carry on the work of the nation. The address was one of the greatest interest and brought out many interesting phases of the making of the constitution and the extent to which the personal influence of the members had been shown.

There was present as guests Attorney C. A. Rawls, a close student of the constitution, and Mr. Frank E. Bingham of Omaha.

The usual group singing was enjoyed by the club members as a feature of the luncheon.

RETURNS FROM OUTING

Mrs. F. W. Nolting who has been enjoying a ten weeks stay in the west has returned to her home here. Mrs. Nolting spent a great deal of her time at Billings, Montana, at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Heitzhausen and visiting with the little grandson. The family also had a fine time in touring Yellowstone park and viewing its many points of interest. The trip was one that Mrs. Nolting will long pleasantly remember in its opportunity of seeing a great deal of that portion of the country.

Every penny spent for advertising will yield a big return.
