The strangest thing is how easy a vacationist can start a green forest fire, and how hard after he gets back home it is for him to make some dry legs burn in the fireplace.

Review

God in Hebrew History spoke to the leaders, which number 15, from Ahijah to Isaiah. They tell us the unfolding and development of the good and bad in the nation. We touch seven books of the Old Testament: I Kings, II Kings, II Chronicles, Amos, Hosea, Micah and Isaiah.

1. Ahijah. He foretells the division of the Kingdom, and designates by inspiration the Leader of the ten tribes. The hand of God is shown in the selection. Jeroboam turned out to be a man "who made Israel to sin." Did God make a mistake in the selection?

2. Jeroboam; a wise and prudent man, well qualified to be a leader. But instead to maintain the worship of Jehovah and become a great leader and perpetuate his reign, he devised in his heart, to divide the people still further, and he set up two golden calves to be worshipped instead of Jehovah—for convenience sake. So he misused his chance to become great.

3. Azariah; plays a great roll in the life of Aha. He brought great encouragement to the King, telling him that God was with him, because he was with God. Result: Rehabilitation of the true worship of Jehovah and a great housecleaning, and the people entered into a covenant to seek and serve God.

4. Aha—This God-fearing man raised the standard high for the Kingdom of Judah, and the people were with him. This is proof that "one with God is a majority," and great things can be accomplished.

5. Elijah—One of the heroes of Jehovah. His life and deeds are unequalled by any other man. He undertook a work—to destroy Baal worship in the Kingdom of Israel—that only a man in league with God could do. He did it. See how God rewarded him.

6. Ahab—This weak and impotent king, who was ruled by his wife, has the stigma upon him, of having been one of the worst rulers over Israel. A petulant fellow, if he could not have his way, would pout and act the baby. His end was foretold—what was it?

7. Jezebel—The woman that ruled a king and kingdom, and was eaten by dogs. A murderess, she came to an end as she deserved. The lesson from her life is, that a long suffering God lets the evil get ripe for the judgment. A solemn warning.

8. Jehoshaphat—He shines as a star of first magnitude, of him it is said: "He walked in all the ways of his Father (Aha); he turned not aside from it, doing that which was right in the eyes of the Lord. Surely a fine biography. Such men are honored by God and man. Blessed are the people that have such leaders! Would God that we had them today. They are sorely needed.

He was eventually vindicated, his prophecy came true. Such men are rare.

10. Elisha—This gentle, kind-hearted man, is ever found on errands of mercy and helpfulness. All the thirteen miracles performed by him, are all acts of mercy. (The story of the bears and destruction of 42 children was done for the purpose of teaching the idolaters of Bethel a wholesome lesson. The elders of Bethel who condoned and practiced idol worship, knew of the coming of Elisha, who would upbraid them in the name of Jehovah; they got the young men together and sent them out to meet the prophet, ridicule and discredit him, make him the laughing stock of Bethel, and his mission of no effect. Elisha is God's spokesman and God will not be mocked—hence the tragedy).

11. Amos—This rugged herdsman is selected by Jehovah to remind the people of the northern Kingdom, that nothing is and can be concealed before God; he sees all and has his eyes especially on the poor and unfortunate, who stand no show in court, that these in power should exercise justice, because sometime they also will be called before the bar of the Almighty, and having not dealt justly with their fellowman, they will receive justice. And the idle rich are also warned by him to be careful, a day of reckoning is coming for them also.

12. Hosea—Who preaches the love of God to a backsliding and rebellious people, is a man after God's own heart, who cannot forget his wandering children.

13. Micah—Takes up the cause of the oppressed. He calls heaven and earth to witness, that God has a just cause against the people. Men receive from his bounty their daily bread, rain and sunshine, blessings from heaven above and the earth below, which men do not receive with thanksgiving—not only that, but the poor are oppressed and justice is not done them. And since God has shown man what is good and what he requires of man, no one has any excuse, when he comes into judgment.

14. Hezekiah—Is the kind of a leader who relies on God and through prayer achieves what others failed to accomplish, even by armed force. Through Hezekiah God was glorified. The great revival under his reign should be emulated by all the churches; if done, what a mighty "forward movement" the Kingdom of God would experience!

15. Isaiah—The last, for this quarter, but not the least of the great leaders of the Old Testament. He had an experience of cleansing and being purified, can tell the world: "Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow." He points out the savior, through whom "all that thirst, come to the waters, and he that hath no money, buy and eat. . . buy wine and milk without money." May God get great glory from this review!

Elmwood News

Harry A. Williams and wife of east of Weeping Water were visiting in Elmwood and as well were looking after some trading while here.

Frank Gillett and wife were visiting at Fairbury for over Sunday where they are guests at the home of their daughter, Margaret, and where all enjoyed a very fine visit.

Mr. A. H. Ward of Murdock, the manager of the bulk gas station for the Deep Rock gasoline, which he sells and delivers over the adjacent countryside, was looking after some business matters in Elmwood on last Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. A. Coatman have recently purchased a new car, this time it being a Nash sport coupe, which is just the thing for this couple who have spent many years in hard work and deserve the best when it comes to a motor car.

While Chris Backemeyer, the manager of the lumber yard was assisting in the loading of a concrete mixer, had the misfortune to have his index finger badly mashed and which was pretty sore for a time, but is getting along nicely at this time.

Emmett J. Cook who was a delegate to the reunion of the 35th infantry held at Norfolk, returned home early this week and reported an excellent time. He met many of the friends he made while in the service of this company in France.

Grandmother Piper who has been somewhat poorly for some time and was taken seriously ill last week was taken to the hospital at Lincoln last Sunday where she is under observation and treatment until such time as the nature of her malady is definitely determined.

John Bornemeier of southwest of Murdock was looking after some business matters in Elmwood on last Tuesday and speaking of the King Korn Carnival which was held at Plattsmouth last week said that he sure enjoyed his trip over there on last Friday, the day of the school parade.

Has Seeding Completed.

Wm. Bornemeier, living north of town has completed the seeding of his wheat and as well has also sown some fifteen acres of rye which will make good pasture both for this fall and the coming spring. He was over to Avoca where he bought some northern grown rye which was raised at Bone Steele, South Dakota. Mr. Bornemeier is putting in some 38 acres of wheat as well as the fifteen acres of rye.

Visits Dealer Here.

Louis Bornemeier, the representative of the Farmers Creamery company with headquarters at Fairbury, received a visit from the representative of the home office on last Tuesday, who is Mr. E. D. Taylor who was assisting in the arrangement of the store here. Mr. Bornemeier reports a very good business.

Morris Parmenter Makes Furniture

Morris Parmenter who only received instruction in manual training for a single year, has been making some very fine bits of furniture, one being a music cabinet which he made from an old organ cabinet which was more than fifty years of age, and which was for Mrs. G. G. Douglass and with which she was well pleased. Morris also manufactured a medicine chest which is at the store and which can be seen by anyone, an elegant piece of furniture and also made from an ancient organ cabinet. Better drop into the store and see how nice the cabinet is.

Entertained Odd Fellows.

The members of the Daughters of Rebekah assembly No. 188 of Elmwood were giving a party and program as an entertainment to the subordinate lodge of I. O. O. F. of Elmwood on last Tuesday evening at the hall over the bank and where they all enjoyed the evening most pleasantly. When the ladies of the Rebekah take in hand to do a thing they sure do it in the very best form.

Sustain Loss at Their Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. A. Coatman living south and a little east of Elmwood, suffered much damage to their beautiful country home on last Sunday. All was going well when of a sudden it was discovered that the home was on fire. The fire seemingly originated in the basement of the home. The family and neighbors fought the fire and also sent in a call to Elmwood, and the fire department immediately responded and had covered the four miles and were ready to work on the fire. When they arrived it was announced that the fire had been extinguished. Some from Elmwood immediately turned around and returned to town, and others were in the act of doing the same thing when it was announced that the fire had started to burn again, and the crowd, which was large by that time, began a bucket brigade and as the tank at the windmill was full and the pump working, they had plenty of water. They got the fire out, but not until a great portion of the roof had been burned away. The loss was considerable, but there was insurance on the building.

Bard Furnished Fine Music.

The Elmwood band, which is one of much worth when it comes to producing excellent music and which is composed of a number of excellent musicians who have played at many places over the country, always giving the very best of satisfaction, there being some musicians from Murdock, they also very fine musicians. This band has often changed with Weeping Water, playing there many times while the Weeping Water band has also played in Elmwood. This band was over to Plattsmouth on last Thursday where they furnished some excellent music for the thousands of people from all over the county who were there to enjoy the music as well as the other features of the carnival. All pronounced the Elmwood band as one of the very best and were high in their praise of the very fine music which it produced.

Entertained Ladies of P. E. O.

Mrs. Bess Streeter Aldrich, the authoress and one of high mark, as her books have created much praise all over the country, was hostess to some thirty ladies of Lincoln on last Monday evening at her home in Elmwood when the members of the P. E. O., a society in character, a semi-secret fraternity of women and one of very high mark, the order many years ago being organized at Mount Pleasant, Iowa, and which has spread over the country, until it has members in every state. Mrs. Aldrich proved to be an entertainer of much merit, as she provided a most pleasant afternoon for the thirty members of the order of which she is also a member and all in their departing expressed their approval of the very fine afternoon which had been provided by their genial hostess. The session consisted of a business hour, a social hour, and which was terminated by a banquet.

Speaks to the People.

Uncle George L. Berger was over to Plattsmouth to the King Korn Carnival, and on invitation consented to address the assemblage via the "mike" and told of the early days of Nebraska, both as to this county when it was new and the western portion of the state as well.

Then and Now.

Then was some thirty years ago when W. D. Skeen was doing a fine business in the harness and saddlery line, had painted and placed in front of his place of business, this sign: "W. D. Skeen, Harness and Saddles. All Work Guaranteed." Might take a peek and see if we have quoted right. Then Mr. Skeen says he sold eighteen saddles during the year when the sign was erected, but says that during the past five years he has sold not one and has only one saddle in stock. He said that he sold sixteen single buggy harness in three months, it was not a strange thing to put out a half dozen sets of harness in one day. The coming of the auto wrought many changes in the manner of business and business affairs. There was probably not one auto sold here thirty-five years ago, but many now. So it goes, one day one thing, the next something else.

Seen Many Changes.

Frank Gillett, with his parents when he was six years old came from Illinois to Nebraska, and crossed the Missouri river at Plattsmouth with sixteen covered wagons with near as many odd families coming west to look for better opportunities, crossed the river there and driving south stopped at what has been familiarly known as the O'Neill Spring, south of Plattsmouth where they camped for a few days before coming on west. The Gillett family came on west some fifteen miles where they stopped and where Frank grew to manhood, and was married in Plattsmouth in 1886. They have seen many moods of the growth of Nebraska and well satisfied with the state, the county of Cass and the town of Elmwood.

Make it the Very Best.

The meetings of the Cass County Bible School association have ever been of high character, and with always a good program and a feeling that the delegates were welcome to the town where the convention was held. This time it comes to Elmwood and we are certain that this session will be one of the very best ever held. Mrs. Howard Capwell, who is the president, is an ardent Bible school worker and one who has the ability and desire to make this the very best will have the preparations completed for the opening of the session which will be held at the Methodist church of Elmwood, on Monday, October 1st.

Will Hold Banquet.

The members of the Elmwood post of the American Legion are to hold a banquet and a very nice program Thursday evening and at which there is being had an excellent time. All members have been notified of the gathering and no doubt all will be there. Attorney J. A. Capwell and County Treasurer John E. Turner are members of this post.

Have Steak Fry Tuesday.

This is what we were informed during the afternoon of last Tuesday that a select four couples, eight persons in all, were to go to the shack of Guy Clements, which is located on the bank of the Platts river near South Bend, where they were to have a steak fry and sit by the fire as the evening was expected to be cool and after the supper to play bridge to the proper hour after which they were to return home. But it turned to raining about an hour later and the prospects were badly askew. It certainly rained all evening.

MARRIED AT SUTTON

Louisville residents have learned with interest of the marriage of Mrs. Sarah Breeden, former resident of that place, to Mr. Jacob Weber, prominent business man of Sutton, Nebraska.

The marriage occurred on Sunday at the home of Mrs. M. Egl, mother of the bride, at Sutton.

The wedding was very quiet and attended by only the immediate relatives of the parties and Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Horthman and Miss Hazel Eaton, of Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. Weber left immediately after the wedding for Chicago where they will attend the Century of Progress exposition for several days. They also expect to visit in Missouri with relatives of Mr. Weber and at Rochester, Minnesota, with a brother of the bride, a surgeon in the Mayo clinic.

They expect to make their home at Sutton where the groom has a fine modern home awaiting the coming of his bride.

FUNERAL OF JOHN PROPST

The funeral of the late John Propst was held on Tuesday afternoon at the home west of this city, a large number of the old friends and associates of this pioneer resident being in attendance.

The sermon was by the Rev. W. A. Taylor, of the Baptist church at Union, who gave words of comfort and hope to the members of the bereaved family and the old time friends.

During the services two of the old and loved hymns were given by Mrs. Hal Garnett and Frank A. Choldt, "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Rock of Ages."

The interment was at the Pleasant Ridge cemetery and the pall bearers were long time friends of the family, Carl Kunsammann, Q. K. Parmele, H. A. Schneider, Ed Helsingier, H. G. Meisinger and George A. Kaffenberger.

GLENWOOD PLANS POULTRY SHOW IN DECEMBER

Glenwood, Ia., Sept. 21.—Glenwood business leaders announce they are not going to permit drought crop damage to eliminate this year the Glenwood poultry and corn show, held annually the first week in December.

Work has been started on plans for the 1934 show. Harry Norman is president of the corn association and R. E. Humphrey leads the poultry association.

The exhibition is sponsored by the Glenwood Chamber of Commerce.

Truth is also dangerous when inflated or stretched.

Weeping Water

Emil Eidenmiller from near Wabash was looking after some business matters in Weeping Water on last Monday.

Henry H. Ragoss of near Louisville was a visitor in Weeping Water on last Monday, having some business to look after here.

Mrs. Ida Cappen and their daughter, Ida and Hugh Cappen were over to Omaha on last Monday, called there to visit with friends.

Jack Jourgesen, the trucker, was over to Avoca on last Monday where he was assisting in the delivering of corn from a farmer to the Marquardt elevator.

Elmer Michelsen and son, Buddy, were over to Omaha on last Monday evening where they were attending the wrestling match which was on the boards at that time.

Frank H. Baldwin has been suffering greatly from rheumatism during the past week which has made it almost impossible for him to look after his work at the shop.

Wm. J. Parteredge had a car of cabbage on the tracks on last Monday which he was disposing of at $1.75 per hundred pounds and for which he found many buyers.

Don Switzer and family were visiting in Plattsmouth on last Saturday night where they were taking in the King Korn Carnival as well as being guests of friends at the same time.

Mrs. Nettie Amick, mother of Sterling Amick, who has been staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Philpot, was a visitor for over the week end at the home of her son and family.

Thomas Christian who has been making his home at Murdock last week moved to Weeping Water in the hope that he might find more employment as there was not so much there as here.

Troy L. Davis, mayor of Weeping Water was a visitor in Plattsmouth accompanied by Mrs. Davis and were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Davis, and were well attending the King Korn Carnival.

Miss Agnes Rough, the milliner and beauty culturist was called to Omaha the first of the week to look after some business matters in connection with her store and to purchase some needed articles.

The Weeping Water band was over to Plattsmouth last Wednesday where they furnished music for the King Korn Carnival which was being staged there, that being the initial day and continuing until and including Saturday.

Howard E. Calkins now of Alamosa, Colorado, but formerly residing in the neighborhood of Weeping Water, but who has been away for a number of years, was visiting with friends here for a number of days during the present week.

Sterling Amick and the family were over to Plattsmouth on last Saturday evening where they were in attendance at the carnival and was well pleased with the festivities. They visited while there at the home of Mrs. Amick's parents, Carl Engelkemeier and wife.

S. D. Litton, Mrs. G. R. Binger and son Ralph, were enjoying a visit last week at Burlington and Gridley, Kansas, where they were guests for the time during Friday to Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Prokop, Mrs. Prokop being sister of Mrs. G. R. Binger and daughter of Mr. Litton. A very pleasant visit was had and a safe journey, as Ralph Binger was the driver.

Wayne Garrison who has been at the CCC camp in Oregon some time ago, received a request to come there where he assumed a position driving a truck hauling the products of a mine to a smelter and in his department he was accompanied by Ira Reeder and Lyle Reed who will also endeavor to secure work there. They departed last Sunday noon, driving in the car of Wayne Garrison.

Next Brotherhood Meeting.

The next meeting of the Brotherhood of the Methodist church of Weeping Water has been set for Monday evening, October 8th, at the church, when they will have their initial meeting of the fall and winter season, which will include a program and a banquet as well as an urgent invitation for all to come and join with them in their efforts to make the world the better.

Will Spend Month in East.

Mrs. E. A. Jamison departed early this week for Chicago, where she goes to spend a month with her daughter, Cleo, and will while there visit the Century of Progress and other places of interest in the big city.

Frank Jamison Dies at Ord.

RETURNS FROM VIRGINIA

C. F. Harris of Union, former county commissioner, has just returned from a visit back to his boyhood home at Marlon, Virginia, as well as a number of places in his native state, North Carolina and Tennessee.

Mr. Harris states that the corn crop in that section of the country has been the best in recent years and the crops in general have been excellent.

Manufacturing plants in that section, however, are not as good as the market is flooded with goods and causing some layoffs among the employes of the various plants.

The kidnap gang that followed Premier Bennett of Canada for some time, disappeared when he left for Geneva as a delegate to the League of Nations. From this we may assume that the gang has lost the trail, and the League itself is in no immediate danger of being held for ransom.
