

UNION ITEMS.

Mrs. Joseph Lindray was visiting in Omaha over the week end, being a guest of relatives and friends in the metropolis.

Pat Roddy was a visitor in Union over the week end, being a guest of his mother and other members of the family while here.

Mr. and Mrs. Rue H. Frans and the children, of Syracuse, were guests of relatives and friends in and about Union last Sunday.

Otto Wohlfarth, salesman for the Chevrolet agency at Plattsmouth, was looking after some business in Union last Monday morning.

Miss Margaret Niday, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Niday, who is employed in Omaha, was a visitor at home over Saturday and Sunday.

Joe Banning and family were visiting for the day last Sunday at the home of Mrs. Mary Taylor and her daughter, Miss Rachel, in Lincoln.

Ivan Plymale, who has been staying at Elmwood for some time past, came to Union last Monday evening and will visit for a time at the home of F. W. Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Rihn were enjoying a visit from a number of relatives and friends from Plattsmouth and Omaha last Sunday, all enjoying their visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Griffin and the children were over to Plattsmouth last Thursday, going to see the Farm parade, which was slightly interfered with by the rain.

Miss Sara Upton, who is teaching in the schools at Beaver Crossing this year, visited at home over Sunday, returning to resume her school work early Monday morning.

Mrs. Fred Burgh, of Plattsmouth, was a visitor in Union last Monday, coming down to do some trading at the Morris Grocery and as well visiting with her many friends here.

Ray Becker was in town for a short time last Monday morning, replenishing the larder as he said he had some twenty men at work on the farm cutting insilage and storing it in the silo.

Miss Gusie Robb, postmistress at Union, was a visitor in Council Bluffs last Friday and Saturday, attending the postmasters' convention at which Postmaster General Farley was one of the principal speakers.

Frank and Elmer were over to Plattsmouth last Thursday, where they enjoyed seeing the Farm parade at the King Korn Carnival, notwithstanding the fact that it rained during the time the parade was going on and they got wet.

T. E. Hatheway, who was in Omaha for a number of days, where he had another operation performed on his eyes, returned home last Sunday and is feeling much better notwithstanding the fact that his eyes are troubling him some yet.

John Clarence, who has been making his home in town for the past couple of years, was preparing last Monday to move to the farm, where he will make his home this winter. He is not intending to do the farming act, but will allow the son to do that the coming year, which will be easier on John.

Visiting in the West

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Reumann departed for Denver last Saturday, and will visit there for a time at the home of John Copes, Mesdames Reumann and Copes being sisters. They had intended to remain there for some ten days and if Mrs. Reumann continues in good health they may decide to extend their trip into Canada and other points, making of it a real vacation and one to which they are entitled. The weather will determine to a certain degree the extent of their trip.

E. M. Griffin Reported Better
Word has been received from Tulsa, Oklahoma, telling of the improvement of E. M. Griffin, who but recently moved there from Plattsmouth and who last week suffered a stroke, which was very severe and has left him in weakened condition. From the reports, however, he is now showing good improvement. This will be pleasing news to his friends here and elsewhere over the county.

Wants to Pick Corn

W. L. Stine, who is a worker at whatever job he may be employed, has dug up a husking peg which he says has served him well and faithfully through many a good season, and is looking for a job in that line this fall. Just where he would go to get one in these parts is considerable of a problem. Better lay the old peg away for another year, Will, and be ready for the 1935 crop, unless you are afraid of losing the art. In that

Guests at Leach Home
Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Tutt, of Murray, were guests of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. E. Leach, of Union, for the day last Sunday, all enjoying a fine visit together and the splendid dinner that was prepared and served by Mrs. Leach and daughter, Harriett.

Married at Nebraska City
Miss Ora Clarke, of Union, and John Guerra, of Percival, Iowa, were united in marriage at Nebraska City last Saturday, arriving here after the ceremony to tell the folks of their marriage and receive their blessing. The bride is well and favorably known here where she has grown to young womanhood. The groom, while a resident of Iowa, has been working in Union on the river work and will continue to do so and the young couple will make their home here. The Journal joins with their many friends in extending congratulations and best wishes for a long and happy life.

To Sponsor Programs of Interest
The Union Woman's club, of which Mrs. D. Ray Frans is president and Miss Augusta Robb, secretary, will sponsor some worthwhile programs during the coming fall and winter. The first of these will be on Friday evening, October 12th, at the Baptist church, presenting Miss Marie E. Kaufmann, of Plattsmouth, in travelogue with slides and moving pictures from many lands. The entertainment will be open to the public with no admission charge. This is an opportunity that no one should miss. Keep this date open for this very enjoyable entertainment.

Sealed Crib Bursts
At the home of A. J. Wilson, a crib containing a large quantity of corn, due to pressure from the grain gave way and allowed the corn to spill over the ground. A wagon standing beside the crib was caught underneath the corn and had two wheels broken. The corn will be shelled and marketed at once and the loan taken care of, but just what will be done with the remainder of the grain has not been determined.

Home from the East
C. F. Harris, who has been in Virginia for the greater part of the past summer, visiting among the familiar scenes of his boyhood days as a guest of the many relatives and friends still residing there, arrived home last Sunday. He says when he goes back there on business or to visit he always stays for a longer period than contemplated and this year was no exception. Mr. Harris reports crops as being very good there and that the people generally are enjoying good times.

Recovering from Operation
Harry McCarroll, who was taken to the hospital at Omaha some two weeks ago, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis, was able to return home last Sunday and is feeling much improved. His many friends are hoping that he may soon be entirely well again.

Mrs. Allison Still Poorly
Mrs. Mary B. Allison, who has been very poorly for some time, is still not feeling the best and is kept to her home and bed most of the time. On last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Stone, the latter a daughter of Mrs. Allison, were in from their home at Hastings to visit with the mother and found her feeling some better.

High Standards in Appraisal of Real Estate

Home Owners Loan Corporation to Launch Drive for Careful Appraisal of Property.

High professional standards in the appraisal of residential real estate are rapidly coming into existence throughout the country as a result of efforts by the Home Owners' Loan Corporation. It was pointed out by Phillip W. Kniskorn, appraisal adviser to the board of directors of the corporation, in a recent address before a group of reporters and appraisers in Trenton, New Jersey. Mr. Kniskorn is also president of the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers.

"The Home Owners' Loan Corporation in its appraisal work is mindful of many obligations," Mr. Kniskorn said. "Primarily it must protect the interest of the United States government as the sole stockholder—this means that values must be sound. Home owners in distress are entitled to relief to the fullest extent of the collateral which they can offer. For this we must find a full, fair value of the property. Of course, we know that values determined by the Home Owners' Loan Corporation will have a very marked influence on the residential real estate market for some time to come in the future. This requires that our valuation be accurately established on a scientific basis by men who not only know real estate as a commodity but also understand the economic factors involved."

"We realize that if we appraise to the present distress market prices, none of the above purposes will be accomplished. We work to the definition 'the full, fair value of the property as collateral for a long-time first mortgage loan.' This definition permits us to recognize factors in the assured future which give us values materially above the present market prices."

"The Home Owners' Loan Corporation now has a well organized appraisal system made up of men sincere and earnest in their purpose and well trained students of valuation. Two individuals make separate appraisals of each property and independent of each other. Their reports are carefully reviewed in the district office before the final corporation value is placed and the corporation is now obtaining well considered values carefully prepared in an organized procedure."

"It is a characteristic of any mortgage operation that there are many complaints against under-valuation. We check each complaint of this nature. It is necessary, however, in order to accomplish any results from such complaints to eliminate all broad and general statements and to bring the discussion to specific cases—therefore, when a complaint is received, the complainant is requested to make up his own values. Complaints when so filed are given careful, open-minded consideration. "The activities of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation have taken literally hundreds of thousands of parcels of distressed real estate off the market, have saved many others from foreclosure and have encouraged many owners not to throw their properties on the market."

SCHOOLS MAY BE CLOSED
Omaha.—Unless aid is forthcoming from the federal government, Nebraska is faced with the possibility of seeing some of her rural schools closed during the present school year, the Omaha Triangle club was told by State Superintendent Taylor. Pointing out that education had been hard hit by the depression, and citing figures to show how enrollment had increased, he said Nebraska must find some way to keep her schools going. "But it surely can't be higher taxes," he said. The federal government supplied $200,000 for rural school aid last year, he said, but has not said whether it will give any help this year.

MRS. W. SCHLEUTER DEAD
York, Neb. — Mrs. Wilhelmin Schleuter, 78, longtime resident of Seward and York counties, died Tuesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. C. Blum, south of Waco. Born in Germany, Mrs. Schleuter came to America and settled in Seward county with her parents and in 1905 she moved to York county. Surviving are three sons, Bernhard, Ernest and Julius, all of York county, and four daughters, Mrs. L. C. Blum, Mrs. F. G. Naber, Mrs. Oscar Naber and Mrs. Hugo Naber, all residing near Waco.

STANDARD OIL WILL NOT BE UNDERSOLD on VALUE

There's this about trading at Standard Oil stations or dealers when you want gasoline or motor oil: You could not possibly save money by going elsewhere. Standard Oil not only sells you the same thing at the same price—it actually sells you better products with no extra charge.

Take Standard Red Crown Superfuel, for example. You pay the same price for it that you do for "regular" anywhere else, despite its more Live Power per gallon—and it contains tetraethyl lead, the finest anti-knock fluid known!

Similarly Iso-Vis "D" is simply a 30c motor oil being sold at 25c a quart.

So it is throughout Standard's full list of gasolines and motor oils. Standard Red Crown Superfuel, Red Crown Ethyl, Reliance Gasoline, Iso-Vis "D", Polarine, and Reliance Motor Oil—all are priced below their relative value—because Standard Oil will not be undersold!
