

Alvo News

George Bray, the father of Mrs. Arthur Dinges, was injured while unloading a large piece of iron from the dray, as the iron slipped.

There was joy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Foreman last week, when the stork brought them a fine baby girl. All are doing nicely.

Marion McCrorey, of Elmwood, who is with the Standard Oil company, was a visitor in Alvo last Wednesday and was delivering products of his company to patrons here.

Frank R. Farnam, resident of the Nebraska Masonic Home at Plattsmouth, was a visitor in Alvo on last Wednesday, where he was calling on a number of his friends.

The Greenwood ball team was in Alvo last Wednesday afternoon and engaged in a very fine game of ball, which was closely contested, being won by the home team only after a hard struggle.

E. L. Nelson has rearranged his store to conform to the more modern methods of merchandising and now customers can get about the store themselves with the exact articles they desire after inspecting the goods.

R. J. McKenzie, pastor of the Alvo Methodist church, while he was very desirous of attending the Cass County Bible School association convention held at Elmwood last Monday, was compelled to attend a ministerial meeting instead.

Russell Bornemeier, who is attending the University of Nebraska, was a visitor at home for over the week end and states that his friend, Allen Tunison, the young man who worked in the State Bank of Alvo is liking his studies there very well.

W. H. Warner, the veteran thrasher, has been very busy during the past week with the threshing of the corn fodder which is the most popular thing extant at this time, as it is being placed in silos, left in the shock or shipped to more unfavorable parts of the country, and which has assumed almost the position of legal tender in many places.

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Tyer, of Pasadena, Calif., who have been visiting in the east and who also attended the Century of Progress in Chicago, stopped for a short visit in Alvo at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kirkpatrick. They were traveling by auto and after a brief visit with their friends here continued on to their home in the west, which they expect to reach in about ten days, stopping at various points along the way.

Friends Paid Them a Visit
Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jewell, who operate a restaurant here, had as guests at their home last Sunday, Mrs. Elizabeth Bartlett, Harry Scheeth and wife and their sons, Robert and Junior. All enjoyed the visit very much and as well they had a very fine dinner.

Taking in Series Games
A. B. Stromer and Herman L. Bornemeier departed the latter part of the week for St. Louis, making the trip in the V-8 of Mr. Stromer. The purpose of their trip was to see the third, fourth and fifth games of the world series.

Ladies Aid Society Meets
The Ladies Aid Society of the Alvo Methodist church met last Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl D. Ganz, where they enjoyed a worthwhile program, a pleasant visit and some good eats.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick Poorly
Mrs. C. H. Kirkpatrick, who was so poorly that she was compelled to remain in bed for a number of days, was able to be up again during the past week. Glen Lewis, who lives on the Kirkpatrick farm, was in to see Mr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick and offered to take Mrs. Kirkpatrick to the meeting of the Ladies Aid in his car, and although she was not feeling the best, she concluded the ride to the home of Mrs. Ganz would do her good and so went along.

Advised of Aunt's Death
A. B. Stromer received the sad news of the passing of his aunt at Barnston early last week and departed for that place, accompanied by Mrs. Stromer to attend the funeral. While they were away, R. M. Coatsman was looking after the carrying of the rural route.

Alvo School Notes
The first issue of the high school paper was distributed last Monday. "The Oriole" is the title and the paper is so-called because the oriole was chosen last year as the school emblem. The paper is mimeographed and this issue has twelve pages. It is sponsored by Supt. L. M. Hauptman and produced by a staff of high

Why Hospitals Use a Liquid Laxative

Hospitals and doctors have always used liquid laxatives. And the public is fast returning to laxatives in liquid form. Do you know the reasons?

The dose of a liquid laxative can be measured. The action can thus be regulated to suit individual need. It forms no habit; you need not take a "double dose" a day or two later. Nor will a mild liquid laxative irritate the kidneys.

The right dose of a liquid laxative brings a more natural movement, and there is no discomfort at the time, or after.

The wrong cathartic may often do more harm than good.

A properly prepared liquid laxative like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin brings safe relief from constipation. It gently helps the average person's bowels until nature restores them to regularity. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is an approved liquid laxative which all druggists keep ready for use. It makes an ideal family laxative; effective for all ages, and may be given the youngest child.

The paper is given free to adults represented in school by children and free to real estate taxpayers. It will be issued each month.

Miss Marjorie Arn was in charge of the high school convocation last Tuesday morning and presented a musical program. Margaret Jean Stroemer and Ruth Ann Ganz played piano duets; Jean Cook played a saxophone solo; Dale Ganz sang a solo and Verna Vickers, Maxine Ayers and Katherine Edwards played a clarinet trio. Miss Arn directed assembly singing and was accompanied by Ernest F. Gorr.

The Freshmen class has elected the following officers: Margaret Jean Stroemer, president; Anna Leo Lancaster, vice president, and Ruth Ann Ganz, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Gorr sponsors the class.

The Junior class chose blue and gold as their class colors at a recent meeting.

Superintendent and Mrs. L. M. Hauptman entertained the members of the faculty last Tuesday evening at a steak fry in a grove east of Alvo. The steak fry was followed by social entertainment at the Hauptman home in town.

The Board of Education held their regular meeting Monday evening at the school house.

A committee from the class of 1934 met at the school last Tuesday evening for the purpose of deciding upon their gift to the school. The committee chose a piece of statuary—a bust of Lincoln—which will be presented in a special convocation on October 16th.

The attendance in the school for the first month was 97.4 per cent perfect, which is a good record, but will stand improvement.

The Alvo high school baseball team played the high school team from Greenwood at Alvo last Wednesday and at Greenwood on Friday.

Visiting in Alvo This Week
H. A. Ingwersen, father of Mrs. R. M. Coatsman, who resides at Armour, South Dakota, arrived in Alvo last week to look after some business matters, but was most interested in a visit with his granddaughter, Miss Dorothea Coatsman, who has been ill for several weeks.

HOLD A FINE MEETING
From Saturday's Daily
The W. C. T. U. met this week at the home of Mrs. E. H. Anderson on Rock street. The attendance was checked some by the fact that a large number of the members were in attendance at the county Sunday school convention, but those present had a most interesting program awaiting them.

Mrs. George B. Mann, vice-president, presided and had charge of the program of the afternoon.

Mrs. Mann gave a fine talk on "Temperance and Missions," which was very much appreciated. She gave interesting light on the work in the mission field in foreign countries and the growth of the temperance movement through the mission work.

Miss Elizabeth Spangler gave the report of the county convention held at Union which was followed with a great deal of interest by the members.

Mrs. Anderson was selected to represent the Union at the state convention held at Fremont.

At the close of the afternoon Mrs. Anderson served very dainty and delicious refreshments which were much appreciated.

See the goods you buy. Catalog descriptions are flowery enough, but how about the goods when you get them?

Passing of Well Known Resident of Glenwood

Orin Elkins, for Many Years a Resident of the Iowa City Is Laid to Rest.

Orin Elkins, 81, died at his home in Glenwood Saturday following an illness of several months duration. He was born September 5, 1853, in Hampton, New Hampshire, being the son of Jonathan and Eliza Lamphrey Elkins. When about 19 he came west making his home for a time with an aunt in Illinois, later coming to Iowa where he worked on a farm in Harrison county.

He was married to Miss Harriett E. Garner, January 30, 1880. To them was born two children, one son dying in infancy; the daughter, Mrs. Eva Miller, who now resides in Council Bluffs. In 1891 the family located in Glenwood where in 1899 he united with the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. His wife passed away in 1913 and on October 5, 1921 he was married to Emma Ault with his daughter and three grandchildren, Orin, Maxine and L. Marie Miller, survive him.

During the 43 years of residence in this community Mr. Elkins made many friends and because of the industry and honesty he displayed he won the respect of all who knew him. He served faithfully and efficiently as janitor of the Glenwood high school building for 19 years and later was employed at the State Institution.

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning. The service was conducted by Rev. W. R. Adams of Logan, assisted by J. F. Mintun of Council Bluffs. Music for the services consisted of vocal selections by Edwin Myers with Mrs. Clyde Rhoades at the piano. The pallbearers were Frank Bender, Merle Killman, Dr. H. B. Dye, Dr. J. E. Imers, H. E. Solberg, and Dave Evans. The body was taken to Magnolia where funeral services were held and interment made that afternoon. Those from a distance attending the funeral services included Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ault, Mrs. James Ault, William Mendenhall, daughter, Mamie, and son, Tommy, Elwood Snodgrass, and Mr. and Mrs. Tony La Hoda of Plattsmouth; Mr. and Mrs. C. U. Myers, and Mrs. F. W. Myers of Missouri Valley; Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Clark of Taber, and Eugene Muller of Council Bluffs.

OPPORTUNITY FOR BOYS TO JOIN THE BOY SCOUTS
Pursuant to a meeting of the Legion Scout committee Monday night, it was decided to ascertain the exact number of boys of twelve years and older who are not now Boy Scouts and desire to join, in order to conclude arrangements for the forming of a second troop here.

Accordingly, all boys who wish to become Scouts are requested to leave their names, age and other desired information with E. H. Wescott at the Wescott clothing store not later than next Friday, October 12th.

There is already a waiting list of some ten or twelve boys who should not be denied the privileges of Scouting because the one troop now existing here is recruited to its permitted strength. As soon as the survey is completed and it can be definitely ascertained how many boys want to come into Scouting and are willing to study and work to advance in proper manner, steps will be taken to remedy the situation.

The crying need is for adult leadership, as it is difficult to find men who can give the required time to the program. The proposed troop will have to be sponsored by an organization of the town, backed by an active troop committee and led by a capable Scoutmaster, with one or more adult assistant Scoutmasters.

As soon as the survey is completed arrangements will be made so that no boy desiring to really become a Scout and put forth the effort required to remain one, will be denied that privilege.

The local Legion troop is planning on sponsoring a Marionette show in the near future at the Library auditorium to enable continuing the telephone service at the Scout cabin and meet other incidental expense connected therewith.

LEG LOST BY SCHMEDEMAN

SUES FOR DAMAGES
Mrs. Bertha Lewis, well known here, suing Ezra P. Carey for $15,032.55 in district court at Nebraska City, testified Friday to an accident she had north of Plattsmouth in October, 1932, in which the automobile swerved off the left side of a gravel stretch on U. S. 75 and overturned.

Mrs. Lewis sought the car from Mr. Carey. She alleges it was defective.

The plaintiff went into detail on the purchase of the automobile, told how she drove it to Minnesota and had trouble steering it. Upon her return she took it to the Carey garage where, she said, after repairs were made the defendant told her it was safe for her to drive.

The accident followed, in which she said she was severely injured. When the car was taken to a garage in this city she said she was shown the left front spring of the car, on which two leaves were broken in two and another almost broken.

FATALISM

Could we but only see the end Of the obscure paths we tread, It might from many a stumble fend Our steps on the way ahead.

We lay our plans, then sadly wake To find them naught but dreams; And then another view we take— A perfect course—it seems.

But "best laid plans of mice and men," Bobbie Burns said, "gang agley"; And the rock of failure, once again, Is met on the stormy sea.

Yet, even then, through flood and foam At length we reach the shore, Again to welcome friends and home, And a haven safe, once more.

So destiny, that weaves the chain Which furnishes the test, But demonstrates our schemes are vain— And that whatever is, is best. "K"

RETURN FROM COLORADO
Charles R. Troop of this city, with his brother, W. O. Troop of Nehawks, have returned home from a short business trip to Colorado. They visited the sections of the state where Mr. C. R. Troop has land interests and checked the conditions there and the prospects for the crop for the succeeding season.

Wabash News

William Reuter is having a new furnace installed at the farm, along with some other improvements and will realize much convenience from the same when the cold wintry days arrive.

Frank Colbert, Bert Austin and Lester Bothworth were over to Weeping Water last Tuesday afternoon, where they were looking after some business matters for a few hours and visiting with friends as well.

W. L. Murfin and Carl Jensen continue to go to Plattsmouth, where they are working for the Norfolk Packing company, getting in thirty hours per week sometimes and sometimes not. Traveling sixty miles to and from work is a long way, but it is better than not having any employment, they aver.

The Ladies Aid of the Wabash church were meeting with Mrs. Carl Hansen on last Tuesday afternoon, where they looked after the business demanding their attention in connection with the furtherance of the program of the church. After this part of the meeting was concluded, they enjoyed a social hour and were entertained by the genial hostess with a fine lunch.

Attains Three Score and Ten
John Browne, who says his middle name is "Careful" was born 70 ago on October 1st, and was duly celebrating his birthday anniversary last Monday, being well pleased that he has passed the allotted three score and ten years of man's span of life, and that he is able to do a day's work—not only that but he does it every day of the year. Here's to you, our old friend, John C. Brown, may you have another seventy years of good health and many friends and prosperity as well.

Hauling Much Corn Fodder
There is much corn fodder being hauled from east of Wabash, passing through Wabash and destined for Otoe county and the counties south of that. While there is little more than fodder as a crop here, people to the south are even worse off than in this section of the country and have to buy corn to feed their stock even now. It is no uncommon sight to see truckload after truckload passing through Wabash every day in the week.

To Spend Winter in South
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hammond, of Davenport, Iowa, the latter a daughter of Mrs. Henrietta Lawton, were visiting in Murdock and Wabash and were guests of Mrs. Lawton for a short time. They also departed in their car for Oklahoma City, where they will visit before returning home. Mrs. Lawton accompanied the daughter and son-in-law and will make her home in the south for the winter, at the home of her son, Fred Lawton.

Saw the World Series
John C. Browne, Herman L. Bornemeier, Albert B. Stroemer, Ivy McCrory, Ralph Door and Arthur Dinges went to St. Louis the latter part of last week, where they took in the world series baseball games Saturday and Sunday, returning home this Monday morning. Although the outcome is still undecided, they, like all true westerners, speak well of the Cardinals. We are sure they had a most enjoyable time and that getting to see the games was a real treat to each and every one of them, as they are all dyed-in-the-wool baseball fans. Glad you got to go, boys!

Royal Neighbor Convention Held at Murdock

Cass and Sarpy County Camps Are Well Represented at the Meeting Recently Held.

The Royal Neighbors of Cass and Sarpy counties held their annual convention the past week at Murdock, a large attendance from the camps of the district being in attendance.

The convention had the pleasure of having with them Mrs. Henrietta Owens, state supervisor, who also conducted the school of instruction on the ritualistic work of the order.

The members of the convention were welcomed by the Murdock ladies in their gracious and hospitable manner and the response was given for the visitors by members of the Weeping Water group.

The Plattsmouth and Weeping Water ladies staged a drill that was much enjoyed and well presented.

The memorial services and draping of the hall was in the hands of the Murdock camp and well presented.

The Springfield camp demonstrated the initiation work and the Plattsmouth camp the installation of the officers.

It was voted to hold the 1935 convention in Plattsmouth and a great gathering of the members of the order is expected.

The members of the convention enjoyed a splendid supper that was prepared and served by the ladies aid society of Murdock.

Ab Jenkins praises Firestone tires in toughest endurance run he ever made.

Lake Bonneville, Utah, Aug. 10th, 1934.

Mr. Harvey S. Firestone, Chairman, Firestone Tire & Rubber Company, Akron, Ohio.

Dear Mr. Firestone:

Under A.A.A. supervision, I have just completed a 3,000-mile run on the hot salt desert at Salt Lake City, Utah, averaging 127.2 miles per hour, breaking 77 Speed Records—without any untoward accidents. The tires gave me an absolutely superb performance, with temperatures as high as 180 degrees.

Last year I made a similar run with another make whose national advertising featured blizzard proofing. Yet, I had a blowout and made a number of time changes.

This year I also used Firestone Speed Plugs and a Firestone Extra Lower Battery with your new All-Rubber Separator. Not a Spark Plug failed and the Battery required no service of any kind.

If every car owner knew what my Firestone tires went through they would appreciate what the blizzard means in strength and heat protection. That made Firestone tires safe from blowouts. This is the toughest run I have ever made in my 13 years of breaking speed records.

Sincerely yours,
Ab Jenkins

Wilbur Shaw, driving widely advertised competitive tires, had eleven tire failures. Presenting his time-modifying records worthy of the fact he was driving.

Lake Bonneville, Utah, Aug. 12th, 1934.

Mr. Harvey S. Firestone, Chairman, Firestone Tire & Rubber Company, Akron, Ohio.

Dear Mr. Firestone:

I have just finished a 2,000-mile test on Lake Bonneville, Utah, driving a 1934 Buick with Firestone tires. The tires were developed in the laboratory and made me feel like I was driving on a smooth road.

I had a right front tire blow out. I was unable to get the tire under control. I hit a rut in the road, and the tire hit a hole.

After this experience, I appreciate the safety and protection of the Firestone tires. I have used them in the past and have made many speed records I have established.

Very truly yours,
H. G. Smith

And remember, every Firestone tire carries the Triple Guarantee—For Unparalleled Performance Records—For Life Against All Defects—For 12 Months Against All Road Hazards (Six months in commercial service).
