SELECT OFFICERS

The Student Council of the high school has selected its officers for the year and the committee assignments for the various convocations have been made. Howard Hitz was elected president; Donald Cotner vice-president and Grace Louise Wiles, secretary. Mr. Patterson is faculty sponsor.

VISITING AT ATLANTIC CITY

Misses Mia and Barbara Gering of this city, who have been spending the summer in the east, are now visiting at Atlantic City, one of the best known American resort cities. They are guests at the Chalfont-Haddon hall, one of the popular hotels of that city.

The game known as bingo and beano around country carnivals became tango and moved into elaborate quarters next door to the crap and blackjack games in the big city. The attorney general singled the country game out from the pack of city cousins and pointed to the highway back to the country.

Bible School Lesson Study!

Sunday, October 14th.

By L. Neitzel, Murdock, Neb.

The Christian and His Bible

Acts 8:26-29.
Anyone contemplating a journey these days, is supplied with road maps and they are studied before and on the way—all of which is a wise thing to do, if one wishes to arrive at their destination safely. Especially is this true where one has never been over the road before.
Here now, we visualize man. He is on a journey from time into eternity; he has never gone this way before. Yet most of the people today, who are all traveling that same road, take no time to inquire about the way or study the road map. They are just drifting along, careless and indifferent—hoping to land somewhere—which they surely will! Just doing nothing—until they find their boat in the rapids and carried over the precipice. The traveler to eternity (which we all are) has been given a road map and guide that, if he will take the same precaution that he does when going on a long journey over unknown roads, will guide him safely through to his destination. It is the Bible!

Sorry to say, that so few, even professed Christians know so little of God's word, find no time to study their Road Map, are not acquainted with the way, hence have such a hard time in life, make no progress, take the wrong road, have to retrace their way, losing time which cannot be made up, and come to the marriage feast and find the "door shut."

Our lesson shows us God's wonderful leading and guiding in the lives of individuals, who are in earnest to find the way to God and joy and true happiness. A colored man (a proselyte Jew) goes 150 miles to church. When there, does he find satisfaction for his hungry and thirsty soul? How oft is that the case today. Jesus said, "Give ye them to eat" and what "hash" is often offered to men who are hastening along the highway to eternity, and have not been shown the proper route nor been given food for strength. But our colored brother can do the next thing, buy a road map—a Bible—and see how eagerly he is studying it. He needs an interpreter. God has one ready. Philip the evangelist, has just had a great revival in Samaria—his soul is on fire—he is anxious and ready to go and do anything for his Lord. He receives orders to go on a lonely road—some 60 to 70 miles. Having worked hard in Samaria, God rewards his worker with more power. There was nothing of the spirit of Jonah about Philip. Obedient to the call—he does not question the Lord, but goes. A fine example to follow. As Philip goes along the dusty road, making sure he is on the right road, he sees a chariot with quite a retinue of servants following him. Finally they come to the lonely traveler, who beholds a person traveling in state—who is the treasurer of the Queen of Meroe—

Murray

Bert Warthen is having his Ford overhauled, Arthur Hansen doing the work.

Joe Bonney was taken to the University hospital at Omaha where he was undergoing a clinic to ascertain what was the matter with him as he had been in very poor health for some time past.

Carl Vest and Verdon Kell who were at the CCC camp in Minnesota served their time out and returned to their home in Murray, Verdon remaining here while Carl re-enlisted and returned to the camp in the north.

Tom Nelson has been busy building a feed bunk for Guy White who is having an interest in the farming on his farm. Tom sure knows the art of building feed bunks, for he has built many of them during recent years.

James Hatchett, who has been very poorly for some time past still remains quite poorly and is kept to his home and bed a good portion of the time. He was taken to Plattsmouth by O. A. Davis to see the doctor on last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Davis were host and hostess to a dinner which they served on last Friday when they had as guests Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Young and Mrs. Sadie Oldham. A very fine dinner and a very fine time was enjoyed.

There was a large crowd of very interested people at the Letz roughage grinding demonstration which was held in Murray last Saturday. Mr. Carper sold a large sized grinder which is known at No. 330, Louis Mougay getting the machine.

John Frans, the painter, is doing the home of W. G. Boedcker, both on the inside and outside, which is making the home look like new and is one of the very best of insurances, as it protects against the weather as well as fire hazards and storms.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walton, accompanied the crowd of three, Mr. Henry Friedrichs, Dorothy Yost and Lois Troop when they went to the World's Fair, this making a merry crowd of young people to enjoy the wonders of this great exposition.

John Hobscheidt was down to Nebraska City this week where he dressed two hogs for A. B. Wilson who is to go to Florida this winter and who is taking his meat with him as the processing tax makes the eating of meat when it is bought, almost prohibitive.

W. C. Allen who has been employed on the section of the Missouri Pacific for some time past was not feeling so well last week and was compelled to lay off for a number of days. He however was able to return to his work during the fore part of this week.

A number of hunters in Murray are contemplating a trip to the pheasant country. They expect to go to the northern portion of the state, starting Thursday evening so as to be on the hunting grounds at sunrise Friday morning. The party is expected to be comprised of M. G. Churchill, J. A. Scotten, A. T. Hansen and John Hobscheidt, they expecting to hunt near Coleridge.

Working at Camp.

A. A. Young is at this time working on the camp north of Plattsmouth where they have retention service of those who have nothing to do and no place to go. Mr. Young as a carpenter is building some more houses, barns and shops to accommodate the growing number of people who are floating about with no home and no place to go.

Attend Meeting Here.

Mike Tritsch and mother, Mrs. Jacob Tritsch, sr., both of Plattsmouth, were in Murray on last Friday attending the corn and hog meeting and meeting with their many friends. There was a large and greatly interested crowd at the meeting which dealt with corn and hog loans.

A Good Record.

Miss Neva Lancaster was feeling quite poorly on last Sunday but nevertheless got out to Bible school which makes three and a half years she has attended and not missed a Sunday. This is doing pretty good and she says she is not going to miss any if she can help it. This is the determination which makes the Bible school and church work prosper.

Visit at World's Fair.

Henry Friedrich and Misses Dorothy Yost and Lois Troop were in Chicago for some three or four days where they were visiting at the Century of Progress exposition, driving and enjoying a good time from Friday of last week until Tuesday of this week.

Seeding Much Wheat.

Messrs. W. O. Troop and C. R. Troop, the latter of Plattsmouth, have just returned from a trip to Holyoke and other points in Colorado where they were out to sow wheat, but have grave fears as the ground is so dry there that they fear it will not germinate as the periods for rains is past in that section of the country. They visited while there at the home of Glen Rhodes at Venango where they also met George W. Rhodes who is staying there at this time.

Attend Dinner at Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. William Myers of Ashland were hosts to a number of relatives and friends to a big Sunday dinner.

Those who attended were Mrs. Myra McDonald, Mrs. Etta Omore and Margaret, Mrs. Hansena Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hansen, Gwendolyn and Rollin, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar McDonald and son Robert, Mrs. Mary Hesselow and Jimmy, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Hill, LaVaughn and Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Humble, Bert Warthen and Mrs. Henry Myers of Greenwood. All enjoyed the day very much.

Enjoyed 40th Anniversary.

On last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sporer was celebrated the passing of their fortieth wedding anniversary when all three families and Charles were gathered together and a most delightful time was enjoyed, with a very fine dinner. Mr. Wm. Sporer and Miss Lucy Edmonds were married October 3rd, 1894 and have enjoyed a very happy life.

There are three others who were married the same year, they being W. S. Smith, Murray, James Hatchett and wife, Murray, I. M. Davis and wife, Lincoln.

Visiting in Kansas City.

Mrs. E. S. Tutt departed early this week for Kansas City where she will visit for some two weeks or more. One of the very potent reasons for the visit at this time is the advent of a very fine little niece, which came to the home of her niece and which Mrs. Tutt had not as yet seen.

Visited Friends in Murray.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Scott, who make their home at Richland, Kansas and where they have resided for some time, were visiting in Murray with their friends for two days, and departed last Tuesday morning for Arnold which is well up in the state, where they went to visit friends and perchance to hunt for the festive pheasant. After completing their visit there they will return home to Kansas and will stop at Greenleaf where Mr. Scott has a brother, W. H. Scott and wife living. They will visit there for a time before returning to their home at Richland.

Enjoyed Fine Time.

Harry McCulloch and wife entertained for the day and dinner at their home on last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Hobson and children of Plattsmouth, as well as Grandfather J. W. Hobson. All enjoyed the day and dinner very much.

Attend Democratic Committee Meeting

Mr. and Mrs. George Nickles were in attendance at Weeping Water at the meeting of the democratic committee and nominees meeting which was held last Monday evening, where they mingled with the voters and other members of the committee. They listened to many addresses and enjoyed a very nice banquet. Mr. Nickles was called upon for a talk and kindly thanked the audience setting forth the things for which he stood and also said that he should be elected, and that he would like the co-operation of the citizenry in the furtherance of the interests of the whole people in the legislature.

Visited Here Over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Noell who make their home in Iowa where R. A. is employed, were over for the week end and while here Mrs. Noell was not feeling very well and remained until Wednesday when Mr. Noell came over for her.

What is the Matter With This?

John Noddelman who lives on a farm of Fred Nutzman over near Rock Bluffs, has a very fine piece of alfalfa which he cut for seed about ten acres of it, and which he had threshed by Warren Mann of Nehawka and found that he had a yield of fifty bushels, or five bushels per acre. We think this is very good and would like to hear of some that is better. Harold Hull also has some which was pretty good and is seeding enough to make thirty acres which he says pays better than a corn crop and no more work.

Surprise Birthday Dinner.

Mrs. G. E. Brubacher entertained very beautifully at a 1:30 o'clock birthday surprise dinner for twelve guests Sunday in honor of Gus Brubacher's birthday.

The table was very artistically decorated, with the large pink and white birthday cake in the center and pink candles at either end of the table, nut cups, place cards and other decorations also being carried out in the color scheme.

Meeting Postponed.

The Women's Missionary Society meeting has been postponed from Oct. 12th to Tuesday, October 16th. Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Patterson of Tama, Ia., will be present and tell of their experience in mission work in India. The public is cordially invited, Oct. 16th, 2:30 p. m.

GIVES FINE ADDRESS

The Rotary club at their luncheon Tuesday had the pleasure of an address by one of the leading figures in Omaha financial circles, J. Francis McDermott. Mr. McDermott is a vice president of the First National bank of Omaha and took as his subject, "Money." He discussed the history of money and the adoption by nations of a recognized means of exchange which through the centuries has grown into great national and international financial agreements and standards. The speaker opposed the inflation of currency and urged the adherence to the gold standard by the nations of the world, pointing out that the periods of the greatest prosperity in the nation had been under this standard of money.

"See it before you buy it."

Weeping Water

H. K. Frantz was called to Lincoln last Monday to look after some business matters for a short time. James Kivitt has been having the home made the more convenient by having some needed improvements made.

Mrs. Mathilda Laurenzen has been having a new roof placed on her home, the work being done by Albert Straubberger, the carpenter.

Dr. W. H. Tuck and George Olive were looking after some business matters in Lincoln last Monday, driving over in the car of the former.

Richard Hobson has been having some trouble with the glands of his neck and throat and has been kept to the home for a time as a result.

R. Herre, James Cook and Maynard Miller, all of Lincoln, were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Frantz and daughter.

W. J. Patterson of Murray, was visiting for a number of days in Weeping Water at the home of his brothers, A. J. Patterson and David Patterson and their families.

At a recent meeting of the American Legion post of Weeping Water they selected officers for the coming term as follows: C. W. Everett, commander; Lloyd Behrens, adjutant.

Bert Jamison and wife were over to Sargent where they were visiting for a time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hubbard on the ranch near that place. Mr. and Mrs. Jamison spent three or four days in the west.

Sterling Amick was painting the garage which is in white and which he will have trimmed in red, thus making a very pleasing combination and making the place look neat and clean.

Raymond Creamer and family of near Nehawka were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Frizzel, they being parents of Mrs. Creamer, all enjoying the visit.

Joe Bender and brother John, were over to Nebraska City last Sunday where they were seeing the town the country and as well were making purchase of apples which they were shipping to the folks at home, at Sutton.

W. W. Davis, the carpenter and builder, has been placing a new roof on the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Everett which is adding much to the value of the home and thus also making it the better for their occupancy when the rains come.

Moves to Town.

Harry Doty who has been making his home in the country since he has been in business in Weeping Water, last week moved to town and is now occupying what is known as the Wm. Dunn property. This will put him closer to his work and will not entail such a long trip home after closing hours.

Mrs. Frank Conley Dies.

Mrs. Hazel Conley, wife of Frank Conley, who has been ill for the past four years of her residence in Weeping Water and who has suffered greatly from her sickness, passed away last Friday at the age of forty-two years. The funeral was held from the Hobson funeral home Monday of this week and burial at Oakwood cemetery. The funeral was conducted by Rev. E. S. Pangborn, pastor of the Methodist church and was attended by a large number of friends. The pall bearers were selected from the members of the Weeping Water post of ex-service men of which Mr. Conley is also a member and comprised C. W. Everett, Victor Walliek, Henry Mogensen, Sterling Amick, C. J. Schwers and Ben Olive.

Preparing for Christmas.

The Weeping Water Dramatic club which expects to be very active in providing entertainment for the coming winter season, have organized and are now working on some entertainment programs for the winter season and especially for the Christmas season.

Methodist Brotherhood Meets.

Last Monday night was the first of the regular meetings of the Methodist Brotherhood which is the feature of the coming winter season, more than a hundred persons being present to enjoy the very fine program and the finer spirit of sociability. This is a move which has an influence for the betterment of the city, the broadening of the influence of the church, and a general get-together of the workers for a better Weeping Water.

By invitation there were a number of the members of the church at Nehawka present and enjoying the festivities and the good will of the members here. Among those here from Nehawka were Albert Anderson, Silas Munn, George C. Sheldon and C. E. Stimburt, superintendent of the Nehawka schools. All joined with the members here in the good time which was had. Each of the visitors responded to an invitation to address the meeting and did so with a very complimentary testimony in behalf of the work which the organization is doing in Weeping Water and also saying they thought it would be a good idea to have such an order in Nehawka.

Enjoyed Central Committee Meeting

Last Monday evening there were gathered the cohorts of the democratic party of Cass county in the personage of the members of the committees who are to be active in the furtherance of the work of the party, the committeemen and committeewomen and the candidates aspiring for election on the democratic ticket. Plans were laid for the conducting of the campaign and addresses of hope and encouragement were had as to the bringing about of better times. Sure they had something to eat and that was the closing of the very pleasant evening.

Attended Funeral in Missouri.

Mr. Clyde Flaischman and wife and L. R. Lane and wife were over to Burlington Junction, Mo., last week where they were called by the death of Troy Linville, who was killed in an accident which occurred there when a train struck a car in which he was riding. Mr. Linville was a relative of the parties who went over to attend the funeral.

Knighthood of Youth Club.

The Oxford school had a Knighthood of youth club meeting. They gave the reports of the cleanliness committee and report of health inspector. Every week we appoint someone to straighten the books in the library, one for health inspector and two on cleanliness committee. We also chose the name of "Sunshine Club" for the club. After that we named new stones for our castle. We answered the roll call by weather signs. After that we closed the meeting. The Oxford school has had a perfect attendance through the month of September.—Reporter.

Home From Vacation.

A year ago Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Keckler were in the east and on their return came very near a serious accident just across the river from Plattsmouth, and when they traveled some 5,000 miles and visited last year's Century of Progress.

This year they turned the prow of their boat toward the west, southwest and northwest, visiting southern California, seeing the Pacific coast and as well visiting the northwest, making in all some 7,000 miles on the trip. They returned home last week, well tired of the traveling, but just the same having had a wonderful trip and a good time.

IMPROVING PROPERTY

The residence property of Joseph C. Warga on high school hill is being greatly improved in an extensive remodeling program as well as being repainted and placed in first class shape. Porches of the house are being rebuilt and changes made in the interior to make it one of the most attractive homes in that portion of the city.
