

Nehawka

Clyde Fleischman was looking after some business matters in Omaha Monday of this week, driving over in his car.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Trotter and children were in Syracuse last Sunday, where they were visiting with his mother for the day.

Miss Laverna Ingwersen was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth for a time last Monday, driving over in her car.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gregg were out to Callaway where they were attending the convention of the church for over the week end.

Frank Lemon and wife were visiting with friends in Nebraska City on last Sunday and as well purchased some apples while there for their winter storage.

Miss Frances Hanson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hanson who is attending the University of Nebraska, was home for over the week end visiting with the parents.

Mesdames Earl Troop and E. E. Leach were over to Peru on last Friday where they visited Miss Harriet Leach and also brought her home for the week end visit.

Miss Virginia Pollard, who is employed in Omaha, was a visitor at home for over the week end, coming to visit with her mother who had been away for the past three weeks.

J. J. Pollard, the implement man, was a visitor in Omaha last Monday, where he went to secure some repairs for the patrons of his business, and was looking after some other matters of business as well.

Ole Olsen, of Weeping Water, the stone mason of Cass county, was in Nehawka last Saturday and looked after the crushing of six cars of stone to be shipped to Lincoln for use by a contracting firm there.

C. L. Pitman and family, of Plattsmouth, were guests last Sunday at the home of his sister, Mrs. Laura Fleischman, where they spent the day and also visited for a short time with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Pitman, parents of "Cordie" and his sister.

George Trunkenholz, of Eagle, was in Nehawka looking after some business matters relative to his oil interests here, but had to stop until after the ball game was over between the Tigers and the Cardinals. However, he did get the business concluded in time to get home by evening.

Sells Good Insurance.

T. M. Patterson, the insurance man from Plattsmouth, was a business visitor in Nehawka last Monday. Tom is a rustler when it comes to getting out after business, nor does his interest lag after he has sold a policy, for he is always alert to serve the best interest of his customers, even when it involves making extra trips and otherwise aiding them in getting the best value out of their policies.

Have Parade and Program

There was a parade and program in Nehawka last Saturday afternoon to lend moral encouragement to the efficient Bible schools and Bible school teachers of the community and arouse interest in the Bible school rally day planned for the following day. The parade was organized by the United Brethren schools of Nehawka and Otterbein and the Methodist Bible school here. After the parade, which traversed the principal streets, the floats and paraders pulled up at the Nehawka auditorium, where addresses were made by the Rev. Lewis Wilson of the Weeping Water Congregational church and C. A. Rawls, of the Plattsmouth Presbyterian church. A great deal of interest was manifested in the demonstration and which was reflected in increased attendance at all of the local Sunday schools the following day. Few realize the amount of work and personal sacrifice required of those who are teachers in the Sunday schools and put in their time week after week, in preparation of the lesson and direction of the class study period and they are certainly entitled to a rising vote of thanks as well as greater interest and better attendance at Bible school on the part of the general public.

The lives of the youth of our land can be moulded along right channels in the Bible school and it behooves the parents of boys and girls to at least see that the children attend, or better still that the entire family go.

Meeting with Brotherhood

The Methodist church at Weeping Water has organized a Men's Brotherhood comprising some eighty members, whose aim is to assist with the church work and such things as make for a better community and all are striving earnestly to that end. These men hold monthly meetings during the cooler portions of the year and held one of these interesting and helpful get-togethers at the Methodist church in Weeping Water last Monday night.

By invitation of the pastor of the two churches, here and at Weeping Water, a number of the members and active workers of the Nehawka church and Bible school attended the meeting and enjoyed a most pleasant evening with their co-workers at Weeping Water. Among those from here who accepted the invitation were Albert Anderson, Silas Munn, George Sheldon and Prof. C. E. Stimbirt. It goes without saying that they had a most excellent time. Let us hope that such an organization will be effected in Nehawka, composed of all men of this community who are interested in doing good.

Home from the West

Mrs. R. C. Pollard, who has for the past few weeks been visiting at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lottie Shotwell, of Seattle, Washington, a sister of Mr. Pollard, returned home late last week and was accompanied by Mrs. Shotwell, who will visit here for some time.

Visiting at Des Moines

Mrs. J. W. Miller, wife of Dr. Miller, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wessell, has been visiting in Des Moines some time with her brother, Arno Wessell and family. She will return to Nehawka in a short time. Doctor Miller is on duty with the naval forces in Cuban waters at the present time, but expects to return to their home in the west before winter sets in, when Mrs. Miller will return to San Diego, where they make their home, she having been visiting here during the greater portion of the summer, while Dr. Miller went with the Pacific fleet to Atlantic waters for annual maneuvers.

Slipped One Over

Mrs. John O. Yeiser, of Omaha, accompanied by her two boys and a pal of theirs, Master Meade Applegate, came down Saturday, Mrs. Yeiser returning home and leaving the boys here. Early Monday morning, she drove down after them, expecting to get them back to Omaha in time for school, but when she got here she could not locate the boys and was unable to find them until about noon, when it was too late for school and they were all to go up the following day in time for school. The boys had gone on a walnuting expedition and you know what joy that is to the heart of a boy. Whether they got back Tuesday morning in time for school we do not know.

No Bark on the Trees

One of the members of the town board of Nehawka and withal a very progressive business man, he and his two children concluded they would make a trip to a not far distant town, which they did, and there enjoyed a very fine visit. A little after the noon hour they decided they would return home and as the weather was clear and the roads good they thought they would have no trouble getting back, as the aforesaid business man had traveled the same road many times before. But as they journeyed along chatting and looking at the very poor crops, they found themselves surrounded by strange landscape and a discussion arose as to where they were. The more they talked the more perplexed they were and finally they decided to ask advice at one of the farm houses along the road and were told that they were many miles south of Union, whereas their original destination had been southwest of Nehawka. Well, they reached home all right, considerably later than they had anticipated and so had to tell the joke on themselves. Better luck, next time.

Gave Entertainment.

A gospel team from York college, accompanied by the president of the college were at the Otterbein and Nehawka churches on last Sunday and Sunday evening where they gave a very interesting program at each place.

Nehawka Club Meets.

The Nehawka Woman's club held the first meeting of the new year at the beautiful country home of Miss Evelyn Wolph on Friday afternoon, Oct. 5. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Nelson Berger. Flag salute was given. Members were glad to receive their new year books and to find out what their roll call for the year was. Minutes and correspondence were read by the secretary, Mrs. Sumner. A report of the Nehawka library fund was given by Mrs. Isadore Tucker and motions were made and carried whereby the debt on the building might be cleared. Several made donations to this worthy cause and new books will be placed therein immediately.

The program was under the direction of Mrs. August who had as her subject "Edgar Guest." Edgar Guest, the famous "newspaper poet" was born in England. The program was interspersed with Mrs. Julian Pollard reading some of his best known verses, such as "They Are Waiting for Us Over There," "Life's Canvas" and "A Heap of Livin'." Mrs. Hall Pollard read a paper, "Edgar Guest Before the Microphone." Mrs. Stimbirt a paper on "Edgar Guest's Wife," Mrs. Eugene Nutzman a poem "Her Awful Brother," "Home, Sweet Home" was sung. As a fitting tribute to Guest's life as he always thinks so much of his home and family. Report of county convention at Avoca was given by Mrs. Henry Ross. There were 31 members present and 18 guests. Among the guests were Mrs. Fred Gorder of Weeping Water, Mrs. R. E. Foster of Union, and Mrs. Harmon of Avoca, who gave short talks.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Several assisted Miss Evelyn with the serving. The November meeting will be at the Mrs. Frank Sheldon and Mrs. Marion Tucker home. The program will be "Tropical Fruits," with Mrs. Gertrude Pollard leader.
