U. S. Expenditures Soar; Income Also Up

Expenses Seventeen Millions a Day; Increase in Liquor and Income Taxes Help.

Washington, Oct. 22.—Federal spending for the past 114 days bounced over the two billion dollar mark today—a daily average of about $17,500,000—but alongside this the treasury recorded a sharp increase in tax collections.

Internal revenues for the first quarter of the fiscal year were nearly one-third larger than for the same period in 1933. Collections reached $804,878,165, exceeding last year's by $191,619,187.

More than 140 million dollars of the gain was accounted for by liquor taxes available only since repeal, and processing taxes which are earmarked for repayment to farmers.

Income Tax Increased.

Heavy increases in income and capital stock tax receipts and a fair size gain in tobacco revenues were reported for the quarter. They were offset in part by a large decline in stock transfer taxes and smaller collections from excise levies, reflecting largely the loss of the emergency one-half cent tax on gasoline last September.

Income taxes for the quarter were $215,809,559 as against $160,417,304 last year.

Liquor revenues reached $109,387,567. The 1933 quarter they were only $151,523,882. Last year, more than 80 per cent of revenues came from beer, but with repeal bringing in heavy distilled spirits taxes the percentage shrank to approximately 60.

Relief Takes 400 Million.

Expenditures through October 19 as reported by the treasury today, were $2,010,859,834, of which $1,049,508,633 represented emergency outgo and $961,351,200 general expenditures.

Emergency relief was responsible for $448,665,909 of expenditures with public highways coming second in the emergency column with $156,711,892. Emergency conservation work accounted for $123,303,603.

RESIGNS VETERANS POST

New York.—Condemning "hysterical congressional action" on veterans legislation, Donald A. Hobart announced his resignation as associate member of the board of veterans appeals of the veterans administration and his acceptance of the post of vice president in charge of the American Veterans association. Hobart was appointed by President Roosevelt to the board of veterans appeals about a year ago. He resigned from an insurance firm to serve on the board. His announcement was made public by Charles M. Kinsolving, national commander of the veterans association. In his letter of resignation to General Hines of the veterans administration, Hobart criticized what he said was the subservience of the veterans administration to outside influences "wholly contrary to the sound principles enunciated by the president."

Needs of University Listed President Agee

President of Nebraska Alumni Association Asks Aid in Explaining School Position.

Importance of creating a fuller understanding of the importance of the functions of the University of Nebraska and its growing needs was pointed out by John H. Agee, president of the Nebraska Alumni association, in an address to the members of the executive committee and board of the directors.

Agee made a special appeal to former students of the university to aid in the informing members of the legislature as to the needs of the institution.

"With a registration this fall of 600 more students than last year," Agee said, "the problem of providing proper and adequate equipment as well as qualified instructors, will be a most serious one which I believe the next legislature will fully recognize."

"While the strictest economy should be exercised in these times in the operation of all public institutions and every effort made to see that public money is spent efficiently so that the tax burden is made as light as possible upon the taxpayer, nevertheless, thinking people will most certainly agree that facilities for advanced education and training of future citizens of Nebraska should not be curtailed to the place where false economy results," he said.

Directors attending the meeting were as follows:

ATTACK ON GIRL CHARGED

Chicago.—Edward Causon, 29 was arrested a short time after he was reported to have kidnapped 9 year old Eva Cavot from in front of his home on the pretext of taking her for an auto ride. He was arrested a few blocks away as he sat in his car with the child. Police stated the child said she had been attacked, and authorities said the girl would be examined by a police physician. Several hundred Italians gathered about the outlying police station when news of Causon's arrest spread.

Threats of violence grew in volume until the prisoner was spirited out a rear door and taken to downtown detective headquarters. The mob then dispersed.

Pioneer Answers Call.

Miss Elizabeth Kamm was born April 8th, 1862 at Berea, Ohio, where she remained during her early childhood, coming west with the parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Kamm, they making their home here for a long time, when they came to Nebraska they settled on the place where the deceased lived her entire life.

Miss Kamm was united in marriage to James C. Easter, March 11, 1886, the husband passing away in 1916, as also one of the children. There were seven children born to bless this union, six of whom survive. Two daughters live at home. But a short time ago Mrs. Easter and daughters visited with a son in the western portion of the state. Returning home she was at the hospital in Omaha for a time, but returned home and sank very rapidly, passing away on October 16th. The funeral services were held October 19th from the late home, conducted by the Rev. B. N. Kunkel of the Methodist church of which she was in her earlier years, a member, later joining the Baptist church of which she was a member at the time of her death. She leaves three sisters and three brothers and a large number of grandchildren and many very fast friends.

Mrs. Easter was very active in civic work, being a member of the W. C. T. U., the Nehawka Rebekah lodge No. 190, the Baptist Missionary society. The funeral was held from the late home and interment made at Wyoming cemetery.

"He holds me when the billows snite, I shall not fall.
If sleep 'tis short or long, 'Tis slight. He tempers all.
Safe in the land. Safe in the land. The end is this,
And when I go with him hand in hand, Far into bliss.

VOTE—For GOVERNOR

✕ DWIGHT GRISWOLD

DWIGHT GRISWOLD
Republican Candidate for GOVERNOR

DWIGHT GRISWOLD'S RECORD

Dwight Griswold knows Nebraska's problems. He is the son of pioneer homesteaders, who located in Sioux County in the very northwest corner of the state 40 years ago—arriving there even before the railroad. He now lives at Gordon, in Sheridan County, a small town in the middle of a great agricultural section, where he is editor of the Gordon Journal.

Mr. Griswold comes from the west—from the "short grass" country—and he has brought to Nebraska politics the spirit of the West—a bigger, broader, cleaner type. He lives and pays taxes in a strictly agricultural community—everything he has invested there.

The election of Dwight Griswold as Governor will bring to that office a man who has the qualities of leadership that Nebraska needs today. His election means the removal of machine control methods from the operation of our state government and the establishment of honest, economical and common sense administration.

VOTE FOR DWIGHT GRISWOLD FOR GOVERNOR

(THIS ADVERTISEMENT IS BEING PAID FOR BY LOCAL FRIENDS OF DWIGHT GRISWOLD)

In the 1932 campaign Dwight Griswold assured the voters of Nebraska that, if elected, he would clean the political machine out of the State Capitol. Due to the Democratic landslide, he was defeated and the same machine is still operating. He now makes the same promise, and this year he must, and will, be elected.

He is clean, able, experienced and energetic, and living, as he does, in a farming and stock-raising community, HE KNOWS THE PROBLEMS OF THE FARMERS AND THE SMALL TOWNS.

Dwight Griswold's Program

No new forms of state taxation. They always mean additional taxes. We need tax reduction.—A strict budget law for every governmental unit.—Elimination of unnecessary state employees.—No bond issues or property tax levies for highways.—Return to Nebraska farmers the surplus Corn Loan inspection fees.—

Operate the State Highway Department upon an engineering basis and not upon a vote-getting basis. Spend the money for roads and labor—and less for traveling expenses.—Handle relief work without political considerations—give the relief to those who need it and not to political friends. Cooperate fully with the federal and local officials.—

Develop Nebraska's water and other natural resources on the basis of fact and merit and not upon the basis of political consideration. Defend Nebraska's irrigation rights against encroachment from other states.—

Reorganize and clean up the State Banking Department.—Remove politics from the Game and Park Commission, and insist that the funds raised from hunting and fishing permits be used entirely to support that work.—Abolish the office of Land Commissioner.—No boss control in Nebraska. No Governor should select his own successor.—

Control telephone and electric light rates by providing for a public utility commission in place of the State Railway Commission. This commission should be selected on the basis of ability and knowledge, and it should furnish advice and engineering service to the people of the state in the adjustment of telephone and electric light rates.

Very few new laws—and a short session of the Legislature. Remove the Bryan Political Machine from its control of our State Capitol.

Morgue Slab Marks Trail's End for "Pretty Boy" Floyd

Charles A. "Pretty Boy" Floyd is pictured in the East Liverpool, Ohio, morgue after the law caught up to notorious "Public Enemy No. 1" in a corn field at Sprucedale, Ohio, and dropped the midwest outlaw with seven lethal slugs. He had fled into the woods after being wounded by the Wellsville, Ohio, chief of police, seven miles from the farm where federal agents finally trapped him.
