

MANLEY NEWS

Edward Freeman was looking after some business matters in Ashland on Tuesday of last week.

Mrs. R. Bergmann was a visitor in Omaha last Friday, where she visited with friends and also looked after some shopping.

Mrs. Walter Mockenhaupt and sister, Mrs. Joseph Huse, who was here from Jackson, Nebr., were visiting in Lincoln last Saturday.

Scott McGrew, of Louisville, who is an employee of the Nebraska Power company, was looking after some business matters in Manley on Tuesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mockenhaupt and family were guests over Thanksgiving day at Jackson, Nebr., where they visited the Joseph Huse and Paul Tighe families.

Joseph Huse and family, who reside near Jackson, were visiting over the week end at the homes of Walter Mockenhaupt and John C. Rauth. The three ladies are sisters.

John F. Carper was in Murray one day last week, taking with him Mrs.

Paul Kirk and the baby, who will make their home there now, as Mr. Kirk is employed there as barber.

Paul Fleming was on the South Omaha market last Tuesday with a load of stock which he had Harold Krecklow truck to the yards. He accompanied Mr. Krecklow on the trip.

Herman Dall drove to Peru Wednesday after his daughter, Miss Lorene, and Miss Margaret Bergmann, both of whom are attending school there this year, and came home for the holiday vacation lasting until today.

Enjoyed Thanksgiving Here

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Rauth were host and hostess on Thanksgiving day, having as guests for the occasion Aaron Rauth and family, of York, Nebraska, who drove over to spend the day and remained for the balance of the week. Miss Anna Rauth, who is employed in Omaha, came home on Wednesday evening and remained for the rest of the week. All enjoyed the fine turkey dinner that was served on Thanksgiving day and the opportunity to visit together for the rest of the week.

Funeral of Joseph Macena
Joseph Macena, who for many years has resided in Manley and before that made his home on a farm east of town, having attained the advanced age of 79 years, passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Herman Gansemer, on last Friday, the funeral being held on Sunday afternoon. The funeral was conducted by Rev. H. G. McClusky, Presbyterian pastor at Plattsmouth. Some of the old familiar hymns were sung by a quartette from Plattsmouth. Interment was in Oakwood cemetery at Weeping Water.

Old-time friends of the deceased were selected for pall bearers, being Theo. Harms, Rudolph Bergmann, John Crane, David Brann, George Rau, W. J. Rau and Fred Fleischman. Others from Manley who were present at the funeral included Mrs. Theo. Harms, Mrs. R. Bergmann and Mrs. W. J. Rau.

Birthday Surprise

Last Tuesday being the birthday of William E. Casey, a number of his cousins gave him a jolly surprise. Those who came from Lincoln were

Attended Funeral at Alvo
Mr. and Mrs. Will Casey, of Manley, drove to Alvo Sunday, where they were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Boyles. In the afternoon they attended the funeral of Mrs. Ed Stone at the M. E. church. The ladies of the Woman's Reading club, of Alvo, of which Mrs. Casey is a member, attended Mrs. Stone's funeral in a body. Mrs. Stone was a charter member of the club, her membership therein dating back some thirty-five years.

HAVE ENJOYABLE MEETING

The Lewiston Social Circle club held their November meeting at the home of Mrs. Bruce Wolfe, who was assisted by Mrs. Louis Burbee in the entertaining.

The event was an all day gathering and the members of the party enjoyed a covered dish luncheon at the noon hour.

The business meeting was presided over by Mrs. Harry Gobelman, club president.

The club members planned card showers for Mrs. Earl Wolfe, a club member, who is in an Omaha hospital, and for Mrs. Thomas Jennings, of Murray, mother of one of the club leaders, Mrs. Hanni.

The club also voted to donate the sum of $1.00 to the Red Cross in the 1935 membership Roll Call now under way.

Mrs. Jennie Klimm presented each member with an envelope to keep their lessons in for future reference, she having made the envelopes herself.

The lesson, "Food Needs and Low Cost," was given by Miss Margaret Moore and Miss Gwendolyn Hansen. Mrs. Hanni was unable to be present on account of illness.

The next meeting of the club will be held on December 18th, at the home of Mrs. S. Y. Smith.

Missouri river development will put Plattsmouth on waterway's Main street.

ENJOYS HOLIDAY VISIT

Miss Mary Anne Rosencrans, who is attending the University of Nebraska, is home over the Thanksgiving vacation to enjoy the holiday season with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce A. Rosencrans and the other relatives and school friends. Miss Rosencrans had the pleasure also of a visit from a former classmate, Miss Emily Lorenz, who is a student at Drake and who visited at the Phi Beta Pi sorority house at Lincoln, where Miss Rosencrans makes her home.

HERE FROM IOWA
Dr. and Mrs. Charles M. Gradville and children, of Knoxville, Iowa, arrived here Wednesday evening from their home for a visit in this section of the state over the week end. They were holiday guests at Lincoln Thursday and expect to return here Saturday to spend a short time before returning home.

WEAK AND SKINNY MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN

Saved by new Vitamins of Cod Liver Oil in tasteless tablets.
Pounds of firm healthy flesh instead of bare scraggy bones! New vigor, vim and energy instead of tired listlessness! Steady, quiet nerves! That is what thousands of people are getting through scientific latest discovery—the Vitamins of Cod Liver Oil concentrated in little sugar coated tablets without any of its horrid, fishy taste or smell. McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets, they're called! "Cod Liver Oil in Tablets", and they simply work wonders. A little boy of 3, scarcely stak, got well and gained 10 1/2 lbs. in just one month. A girl of thirteen after the same disease, gained 3 lbs. the first week and 2 lbs. each week after. A young mother who could not eat or sleep after baby came put all her health back and gained 10 lbs. in less than a month.
You simply must try McCoy's at once. Remember if you don't gain at least 3 lbs. of firm healthy flesh in a month get your money back. Demand and get McCoy's—the original and genuine Cod Liver Oil Tablets and genuine Cod Liver Oil Tablets—approved by Good Housekeeping Institute. Before all substitutes—insist on the original McCoy's—there are none better.

"Baby Face" Slain by Government Agents

"Baby Face" Nelson paid with his life for the slaying of Federal Agents Cowley and Hollis, it was announced at Washington Wednesday. It was said that he died of wounds inflicted by the Federal agents in Tuesday's battle. His body was found in a ditch near Niles, Ill., with seventeen bullet wounds therein. Shown in the picture are Capt. A. C. Stollberg, William Manderick (police in uniform), and the body of Nelson on the slab. Note the self-devised bandage about the dead hoodlum's waist. Police are on the trail of Nelson's wife and a male companion, with them during the battle.

Royal Bride Poses in Her Wedding Gown

Copyright, Harper's Bazaar, Made by Merson.

The beautiful Princess Marina of Greece is shown in this exclusive photograph, posed in her bridal gown for her marriage to the Duke of Kent, youngest son of King George and Queen Mary of England, at a brilliant ceremony in London. The gown, created by Molyneux, noted Paris designer, shows to even greater advantage the beauty of the Grecian princess. It is of silver and white lame in English rose pattern, with long bell-sleeves. The bride is wearing long tulle cascades from the diamond-studded tiara and a priceless diamond necklace.

The first picture to be made and published of the infant, Jon Lindbergh, second son of Colonel and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh, is presented above by International Illustrated News. Jon, brother of the kidnaped and slain Lindbergh baby, Charles, Jr., was born August 16, 1932. He is pictured outside the kindergarten school in Englewood, N. J., he attends every morning.

Figures in Honeymoon Tragedy

Joseph L. Steinmetz is pictured, right, as he told how he allegedly shot and killed his bride, Ruth, and the Rev. Joseph J. Leonard, shown left, in a New York hotel following a drinking party. Steinmetz and his bride were on their honeymoon, having married in Tia Juana, Mexico, two weeks before the tragedy.
