Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wessel were guests for the day and a very fine dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Baler, who reside a short distance south of Avoca.

Harry Perry, who some time ago went to Lincoln, where he was married, has returned to Nehawka and taken a position with the stone quarries here, starting work Monday.

Mrs. W. A. Eustridge and small son were enjoying a visit for a few days last week, extending over the Thanksgiving day, enjoying the visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Miller.

Miss Mildred Burton was enjoying the passing of her twenty-second anniversary on Tuesday of this week, December 4th. Her many friends congratulate her on the passing of her anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Lloyd, of Omaha, were called to Nehawka last week to attend the funeral of the late Peter Opp, who died the latter part of last week. Mr. Opp was past 85 years of age and had been poorly for some time.

Eugene Hicks, who was at the hospital for a week, returned home about a week ago and on last Saturday night went to Council Bluffs, where he visited over Sunday with friends, returning to Nehawka early Monday. He is expecting to return to work in a short time.

Rounds Out Seventy Years
Nelson Anderson, who conducts the amusement parlor, attained his allotted three score and ten years Monday, December 3, 1864, and came to America when he was 24 years old. During the intervening 46 years he has made a number of trips back to the homeland.

He was looking after business as usual on the occasion of his birthday Monday and at the noon hour his wife brought his dinner down to him and they enjoyed eating it together. He is enjoying good health and expects to celebrate many more birthdays before giving up active duties.

Thomas E. Fulton Poorly
Thomas E. Fulton, who is well past the three-quarter century mark and who has been engaged in the blacksmith business in Nehawka for a good many years, as well as for a long time at the corner five miles north of town and three and a half west of Murray, where he began his trade away back in the nineteenth century, is at this time in very poor health at his home here. He is receiving the best of medical care and nursing, but is not making the desired progress towards recovery.

Insurance Papers were Lost
Charles Meredith, of Union, who has been carrying an insurance paper with the Omaha Bee-News, suffered an injury while employed at the stone quarries near Union that prevented his working for a time. He had the

Sketch of Life of a Long Time Nehawka Man

Peter Opp Called to Last Rest at Age of Eighty-five Years—Laid to Rest at Mt. Pleasant.

Peter Opp, one of the oldest and best known citizens of the Nehawka community, answered death's summons on Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 27th, at 2:15 o'clock.

Mr. Opp was born in Neiderhauser, near Coblenz, Germany, on May 31, 1849. In 1866 he came to St. Louis with an uncle, Jake Gruber, and his family, the voyage taking thirty-one days. In 1868 he came with his uncle to Nebraska City, the trip by boat, requiring twenty-one days. Locating in what is now Union, he broke prairie for others, using a team of oxen.

In 1876 he married Barbara Mohr, the wedding taking place at Dexter, Iowa. The couple lived in Dexter for about a year, and then came to Cass county in 1877. A dug-out was their first pioneer home.

In 1877, Mr. Opp bought the first piece of land in the block where the Opp meat market now stands. It was then a field of cornstalks. He opened a meat market, the shop being the first building in Nehawka. He continued in the business until 1919 when he retired and his son, John Opp, took over the business.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Opp were the parents of seven children. One passed away in his early youth, another died at the age of thirty. Surviving children are: Mrs. Claude Chapman, Ashland, Neb.; Herbert Opp, Lincoln, Nebraska; Mrs. Walter Lloyd, Omaha, Nebraska; and Mrs. Wm. Black, Chicago, Illinois; John Opp, Nehawka.

Mrs. Opp died on July 6, 1914. After her death, Mr. Opp made his home with his son, John and family, where he has lived with the exception of five years spent with a daughter in Omaha.

For the past four years, Mr. Opp had experienced failing health. He died at the age of eighty-five years, five months and twenty-seven days.

At the time of his burial all his children were present but his daughter, Mrs. Wm. Black, of Chicago, who was, because of poor health, unable to be there. She had visited him three weeks before his passing. In addition to the sons and daughters he leaves to mourn for him sixteen grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, many other relatives and a host of friends.

The funeral services were held on Thursday, November 29, at the Methodist church in Nehawka. Rev. W. A. Taylor of Union, officiated. Mr. Opp was a member of the German Evangelical church, having been confirmed in that faith when sixteen years of age. Grandsons acted as pallbearers. A niece, Mrs. John Hansen, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Herbert Kuntz, sang two beautiful solos. Mr. Opp was ever a lover of music and especially of sacred music.

Interment was made in the Mount Pleasant cemetery of Nehawka. Out of town relatives other than the immediate family who were present were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Boedeker, of Council Bluffs, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Maseman, Mr. and Mrs. John Nitzman, Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Kokjers, Mrs. John Ruge, all of Avoca, and all nieces and nephews of the deceased.

With the passing of this aged man Nehawka loses one more of the early pioneers, one who was interested and active in the upward growth of the community. He was greatly interested in the Community Library recently erected in memory of the pioneers who founded the town and community, and was helpful in giving authentic data to the committee in charge. His meat market, as the first building, was represented in the dedication pageant.

Nehawka citizens lose a kindly friend. One who met adversities uncomplainingly, who retained a pleasant humor, who was always extended a cheery word and helping hand. His passing leaves an empty place in the community as well as in his family group.

Our Thanksgiving missionary offering was given Sunday. Each S. S. has given enough to pay the tuition of a high school student in our mission school next year. I am sure this is a concrete way of doing missionary work and our Sunday schools are to be commended for this great work.
Let us remember our Christmas offering for our orphans and old people.
