VISIT AT LINCOLN

From Tuesday's Daily
This morning Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Lillie departed for Lincoln where they will spend the day with friends and Mr. Lillie in looking after some business at the state capitol. They were accompanied by Harvey EGGling, who during the time the city schools are closed will spend the time at the farm home of his uncle, John Ottjenburns, near Lincoln.

ENTERS VETERANS' HOSPITAL

From Wednesday's Daily
Gus Whitley departed this morning for Lincoln where he will enter the U. S. Veterans' hospital at that place. Mr. Whitley has suffered for some time from an affliction that has become so severe that an operation will be necessary and which it is hoped will clear up his condition and restore him to his former good health.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to thank our many friends for their sympathy and assistance in the hour of our sorrow at the death of our father and grandfather, Harry Johnson. Especially do we wish to thank the members of Plattsmouth lodge A. F. & A. M. and all who took part in the funeral services.—Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Cole and Family, Mrs. Mary Louise Manning.

VISITS IN THE CITY

Mrs. Belle Stoner of Glenwood, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Grassman and son, Billy, Joseph Manacek and Miss Laura Grassman of Omaha, were in the city Sunday to spend a short time at the home of Mrs. R. A. Bates and with Mr. and Mrs. Hillard Grassman and family. The visitors returned home Sunday evening.

VISITS IN THE CITY

Mrs. Kittle Bates of Kansas City, Missouri, who is visiting with her family at Florence, was in the city Monday afternoon for a short time. Mrs. Bates was accompanied by her brother, Jay Smith, and while here they were guests of Mrs. R. A. Bates and Mr. and Mrs. Milford Bates.

From Wednesday's Daily
Attorney V. E. Tyler of Nebraska City, was here today for a short time looking after some legal matters in the county and district courts in which he was interested.

W. G. Boedeker, president of the Murray State bank, was in the city Monday for a few hours attending to some matters of business and visiting with his many friends.

A. L. Becker, one of the prominent residents of Union, was in the city Monday afternoon to spend a short time here visiting with the many friends and looking after some matters of business.
