Carl Tefft was having a beef dressed last Monday, which will supply the family with meat for a good length of time.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Brendel were host and hostess at a dinner which was served last Sunday, having as guests on this occasion, Rev. and Mrs. Fred W. Hall.

Otto Hoenchild was dressing a number of porkers for his summer's meat, and was rendering the lard and preserving much of the meat to have it available later.

Adolph Zimmer, of Nebraska City, was looking after some business matters in Avoca last Monday afternoon. He formerly resided near Avoca and has many friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Maseman, of Lincoln were guests for the day last Sunday at the William Maseman home in Avoca, where a very fine visit and an excellent dinner were enjoyed.

William Stubendick, of near North Branch church, who has been so ill with pneumonia, still remains in a critical condition, although he has passed the crisis and is given a good chance for recovery.

H. M. Lum, of the Avoca Lumber company, was a visitor in Omaha last Friday and Saturday, where he was attending the annual convention of the Nebraska Retail Lumbermen's association, enjoying a most excellent time.

William Steinhoff, living west of town on Highway No. 24, who has been looking after the cooking and housekeeping work, has secured a housekeeper, Mrs. Sophia Segelke, who will look after the work at the home in the future.

Mrs. E. J. Hallstrom and daughter, Corrine, were visiting on Monday at the hospital in Omaha, where they were visiting with the sister of Mrs. Hallstrom, Mrs. J. F. Sindelar, who some time ago underwent an operation from which she is convalescing.

Word comes to friends here from Matt McCann and Geo. Oblers, who arrived safely in Los Angeles week before last, that they are having a splendid time there and in company with A. J. Schaeffer, of Murray, will start home around the 1st of March.

Fred D. Buckman, who has been keeping house for himself has secured a Mrs. Smith of Syracuse for housekeeper. This will relieve Uncle Fred of a good deal of hard work, as he is getting well along in years and finds he is not as spry as in his younger days.

Carl Tefft, who resides north of Avoca, has been having a severe tussle with sciatic rheumatism and has been confined to his home for some time. He is feeling better at this writing, however, and was able to come to town to look after some matters of business this week.

George Ludwig, who has been ill the past few weeks, was taken to an Omaha hospital last Saturday for observation and treatment. It is quite probable he may have to undergo an operation. His many friends are hopeful that the treatment there will result in the restoration of his health.

Some fifty people of Avoca and vicinity, all friends of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hoback, who recently held a farm sale and expect to move to Nehawka to reside, gathered at their home last Sunday with well-filled baskets and provided a splendid dinner as well as a pleasant afternoon for everyone. It was a fine expression of the high esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Hoback are held by their friends here, and we trust they will meet the same friendly sort of people in their new home at Nehawka.

Oscar C. Hinds, the banker, who has been driving one of the Ford cars of an earlier model, last week bought a new V-8 of the very latest models. It was necessary to go to Omaha to get the new car, John Cole and Mr. Hinds going up Monday after it.

Five of the citizens of Weeping Water were in Plattsmouth last Saturday, where they took the examination for postmaster here. They were given their examination by Miss Gerber to 22, and finally trimmed Murdock by a 19 to 10 score. The fans are all hoping the boys will go on to greater victories, even to getting a chance at the state Class B title. Avoca continues to hold its reputation for turning out good basketball teams.

Getting back to our account of the Elmwood tournament, which occupied the last four days of last week, Avoca won its first game from Elmwood by a score of 34 to 14; then took Eagle in a very close battle, by a score of 23

Terms of sale, 10% cash at time of sale, balance on confirmation. W. A. ROBERTSON, Administrator c. t. a., of the Estate of Terrace Hennings Pitman, also known as Terrace H. Pitman, Deceased.

da Peterson, secretary of the Civil Service Board at Plattsmouth.

Those who took the examination were George Spohn, Richard Keckler, Harold Baker, Sterling Amick and Ed D. Freeman.

It will likely be some time before the standings are announced and the appointment made.

Attended Master Painters' Meet. Edward Heneger and Edward Bobbitt went to Omaha last Monday as guests of a paint company of that city, to attend the convention of the Master Painters of Nebraska, which was held there on Monday and Tuesday of this week. They have both been doing a nice business and are anxious to learn the latest wrinkles in exterior painting and interior decorating. Both are hustlers and are striving to do the very best work.

Enjoyed Very Fine Meet. The Weeping Water Fire department with two motives in view, held a benefit dance last Tuesday evening. One motive was to provide a splendid evening's enjoyment for those who enjoy tripping the light fantastic and the other was the securing of funds for the purchase of additional equipment for the work of fighting fires and protecting the property of citizens of Weeping Water and its surrounding territory. A large crowd of dancers was present to enjoy the dance.

Will Move Place of Business. Peter H. Miller, the proprietor of the cream and produce station, who has been operating on East Eldora avenue for many years, will on the first of March move to the room just west of the post office, which was occupied by I. N. Hunter when he conducted the Weeping Water Republican and later by the dry cleaning establishment of William Meyers prior to his departure for the north-west to farm. Mr. Miller believes he will have a better place for the business, being more centrally located. This will make the third move from that section, those besides Mr. Miller being L. P. Hanson, who moved to Oregon a short time since, and the Peoples Gas company.

Making Good Improvement. Chris Rasmussen, who was ill for so long a time, is now able to be up and about and comes down town every day. He is regaining his strength very rapidly and feels much improved, which will be good news to his many friends.

MADE WHITE HOUSE GUESTS. Washington.—The speaker and Mrs. Joseph W. Byrns attended the first state dinner in their honor at the white house. The U-shaped dining table, with its gold service, Rooseveltian china, and Monroe gold and mirror centerpiece, took on a rosy hue for the event—pink roses, snapdragons, sweet peas, freesia, combined with Balldi fern.

WHAT WOULD YOU DO IN THIS CASE. Two suits against Madelyn Marshall and Henry Marshall, one for $10,000.00 damages and the other for $4,000.00, as a result of an automobile collision, were filed Tuesday in District Court.
