Thinks of Land of Youth.

Mrs. Phillip Fleming who came to America to make her home and has been living here for many years, necessarily thinks of the land of her youth and years, too the folks and scenes which were hers during her girlhood days. She has written a few verses telling of that desire which she has called:

LONESOME

I sit by my window and look in the sky
There I see the clouds sailing by;
I wonder if they come from a far off strand,
Which was my dear old fatherland?

I sit at my window and look in the sky,
There I see the moon shining right in my eye;
They some way cause me to understand,
They are greeting me from my fatherland.

I sit at my window and look in the sky,
Where the stars are shining way up high;
In their glory they make me understand,
America is as good as my old fatherland.

TREES WOULD HAVE HELPED

Shelterbelts would have conserved much of the snow which blew off fields during the blizzard in Nebraska and Kansas, shelterbelt officials of six midwestern states agreed at a conference at Lincoln. C. A. Scott of Manhattan, director of the federal government's big tree planting project, said shelterbelts on farms would have prevented much of the heavy snow from drifting away.

"I think 15 or 20 percent of the snow would have been saved by shelterbelts," Scott said. "The tree belts would have caused the snow to drift 150 yards into the fields, from several feet deep to a feather edge."

A. E. Anderson, state and federal agricultural statistician, reported the snow drifted so much "as to be of questionable value from a moisture standpoint."

State directors and assistants from North and South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas are attending a conference at the national shelterbelt headquarters at Lincoln with Paul H. Roberts, acting national director.

To Seek Share of Money for Public Works

Cass County Committee Appointed to Line Up Projects That Might Be Adapted for Local Work.

The Cass county committee that has held two meetings to line up what Cass county might have to offer in the new public works program, is now preparing to take up the several projects that may be offered for their consideration.

The request was made by Congressman Henry C. Luckey that the various counties get a line on what projects they might wish included in the program, which could be presented to the government officials in a concrete form for consideration.

Chairman Elmer Hallstrom has had two meetings on the subject and at the last a committee was appointed consisting of Hon. W. B. Banning, Union, chairman; County Judge A. H. Duxbury, Plattsmouth; F. A. Melvin, Murdock; W. J. O'Brien, South Bend; D. D. Wainstrot, Weeping Water with Mr. Hallstrom as an ex-officio member.

The new committee is asking that all projects that may be presented be prepared in a form that will permit their being placed in the hands of the PWA officials, blue prints and facts and figures on the scope of the various projects.

There are a number of projects suggested among which is that of the surfacing of the Rock Bluffs road which could be arranged to be presented to the PWA officials as a recommendation of one of the public works moves as well as several at various points over the county that would add to the general work program.

MENCKEN ON GOLD DECISION

New York.—The gold decision of the supreme court, H. L. Mencken declared, "not only knocked the constitution into a cocked hat; it also repealed the eighth and tenth commandments." The writer in an address said it is a fact that the supreme court upheld the "brain trust."

"But," he continued, "consider on what grounds. Go and read the majority decisions for yourself, and especially the decision in the liberty bond case. There you will find the unequivocal admission (made by the highest tribunal in the land. That the government of the United States has repudiated a contract and robbed its own citizens. No other word fits the transaction. It has been made unlawful for the holders of the bonds to collect what is admittedly due them, and was solemnly promised to them. In one breath, they are told that it is theirs, and in the next they are invited cynically to collect if they can."

"The 'brain trust,'" he said, "is still pouring out money on a thousand crazy enterprises and every few months it will need more. What is to prevent it from taking another nick, and then another, and so on until the last dollar of the savings of the people is gone."

RIGHT OF MERGER ARGUED

Cleveland.—The Republic Steel corporation filed a general denial in federal court to the department of justice suit which charges that republic's plan to acquire the Corrigan-McKinney and Trucon steel companies would violate the Clayton anti-trust act. The department of justice suit seeks a permanent injunction against the transaction. A hearing is scheduled for March 18. Republic's answer said that its ingot capacity is only 7.2 percent of the total of the industry and Corrigan-McKinney's only 1.5 percent.

"The proposed purchase of the assets of Corrigan by Republic," the answer said, "is not based on any purpose to eliminate or lessen competition or merely to create a larger unit in the steel industry, but rests on sound business considerations."

If the merger were completed, Republic argued, Republic's plants in Cleveland, Youngstown, Canton, Massillon and Warren, O., would provide "easily available" outlets for pig iron and semi-finished steel produced in Corrigan, McKinney's Cleveland plant.

DUST STORM DAMAGE

Washington.—Six western states were reported by the soil erosion service to have suffered serious dust storm damage to 34 million acres. H. H. Bennett, director of the interior department service, gave the figure. Recently, he estimated recent wind erosion damage throughout the country at 60 million acres.
