Death of Mrs. Mary G. Whelan Late Saturday

Resident of Plattsmouth Since 1882. Lady Highly Esteemed by a Large Circle of Friends.

Mrs. Mary Genevieve, widow of the late Michael C. Whelan passed away at her home on Wintersteen Hill, Saturday evening, March 9, 1935.

Mary Whelan was the daughter of the late Peter and Catherine Hanrahan and was born in Philadelphia, Penn., coming to Plattsmouth with her parents in 1882.

She was married Nov. 25, 1884 to Michael C. Whelan, who passed away on March 15, 1923. She leaves two children to mourn her demise, one daughter, Genevieve M. Whelan of this city and one son, Francis D. Whelan of Omaha.

OMAHA GIRL IS DOING WELL

Fall River, Mass.—The condition of Alyce Jane McHenry, 10 year old Omaha, Neb., girl who underwent an operation to correct her "upside-down" stomach at Truesdale hospital last Monday was "satisfactory." She "rested well" during the night. Two bulletins were issued during the day. The first said: "Temperature 99.4, pulse 110, respiration 20. Alyce rested well during the night. Her condition is satisfactory."

The second said: "Temperature, pulse and respiration unchanged, normal. General condition about the same."

A bulletin issued Sunday night revealed lessening of the need of a blood transfusion for the little girl because of her response to a greatly expanded diet. It was explained her anemic condition was caused by undernourishment because of her condition.

a very interesting and appealing request for renewed interest in churches. Several others followed on the subject of our foreign church work.

Mrs. Boedeker and Wohlfarth gave a pleasing duet. At the close of the devotional, election of officers for the coming year followed. Mrs. Rachel Faris, president; Mrs. Nellie Long, 1st vice; Mrs. C. D. Geary, 2nd vice; Mrs. Grace Kennedy, re-elected secretary-treasurer and Mrs. Lucian Carper corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Long, Geary, Faris and Kennedy served a delicious lunch, which closed a delightful afternoon.
