AVOCA NEWS

Thomas Akeson and wife were guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marquardt. H. M. Lum was looking after some business matters in Weeping Water last Monday, driving over in his car. Henry Heine has been selected as the new nightwatchman and is now busy with the duties of his office each night. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Weith, of Nebraska City, were guests for the day Sunday at the home of Oscar Zimmer and mother. Henry Huntman and Martin Jensen were at Grand Island last week, where they purchased a very fine bull to be placed at the head of their respective herds. Dorothy Gollner, who is attending a business college in Lincoln, was a visitor at home over Sunday, spending the time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Gollner. Francis Marquardt, who is a student at the University of Nebraska, visited at home over Sunday, returning to the capital city to resume his studies Monday morning. State Senator Fred L. Carstens, who is kept busy with legislative matters at Lincoln most of the time, was a visitor at home last Sunday, calling on his many loyal friends here. Charles Barsto of the faculty of the Avoca school was feeling quite poorly during the greater part of last week and was not able to teach until Monday of this week, when he was able to return to his work. Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Brendel entertained last Sunday, having as their guests Mrs. Catherine Marquardt and Mr. and Mrs. Carl O. Zaiser. A most appetizing dinner was served and a splendid time was had by all. Herman Brodenkamp, who has been employed at the Jourgenson service station, resigned his position last week and has gone to work on the farm of the late Otto Steubendeck, who recently died near North Branch. Elmer Wessel, who had a Farm-All which he had been using for some time, recently traded it in on a new one, the same being delivered to him last Saturday and is now being held in readiness for spring work to open up. Newton T. Parker, the well known lumber salesman, was in town Monday, calling on H. M. Lum. He is driving a Buick car that has gone 122,000 miles and still works fine, he declares. They are making better cars now—both the Buick people and other manufacturers as well.

DIES IN WASHINGTON
The many old time friends here of the Frank E. Hawkenbery family will regret to learn of the death of Mr. Hawkenbery which occurred on January 17, 1935, at the family home at Tacoma, Washington. The death was caused by a sudden attack of heart trouble. Mr. Hawkenbery was seventy years of age and had made his home in Tacoma for the past ten years, moving there from Plattsmouth. The family resided at 801 South Prospect street, Tacoma. He was a member of the Burlington Relief department for a great many years. There is surviving, the widow, Julia; three sons, Glenn, of Tacoma; Leonard W., of Pueblo, Colorado; Eugene B., of St. Louis; two daughters, Mrs. C. F. Gillman and Miss Dorothy Hawkenbery of Tacoma. There are six grandchildren. One daughter, Mrs. Ralph Smith, died September 19, 1933 and one son, Dallas, died September 19, 1934. The funeral services were held at Tacoma.

HERE FROM COOK
Mr. and Mrs. Howard Record and family and Mr. and Mrs. John Molar of Cook, Nebraska, were in the city Sunday as guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Bajack, parents of Mrs. Record and also at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Walling. The Cook guests were accompanied to this city by Miss Albert, who is engaged in teaching at Cook and who came home for the week end.

Cass County Farm Bureau Notes

Oats Being Shipped.
Distribution of the seed oats ordered by Cass county farmers is being made this week. The first carload was shipped to Greenwood last week, two carloads were received at Weeping Water this week, and further shipments will be made to Alvo and Weeping Water. The price for the oats is 75c instead of the 77c expected. Because of the failure of three elevator concerns to execute bonds, the Minneapolis office in charge of the disbursement of the federal seed oats, has ordered the shipment for those points re-routed to Weeping Water. Anyone having seed oats for sale should list them at the Farm Bureau office as there is a big demand for oats at this time.

Value and Experience of a 4-H Club Girl Making Yeast Bread.
$7 to $5 to apply on trips to annual 4-H Club Week at Lincoln will be awarded winners of an essay contest open to 4-H girls who completed the Hows and Whys of Cooking, or Meal Planning and Preparation for 1934 or is enrolled in either of the projects for 1935. The essay should contain 100 to 500 words on the subject "Value and Experiences of a 4-H Club Girl Making Yeast Bread." These essays must reach the state club office by April 15th. Funds for this contest are being furnished by the Northwestern Yeast company. If you are interested in a trip to Club Week it will pay you to get busy with pen and paper.

Corn-Hog Checks Coming.
Monday, March 11th was a busy day at Glendale church, three miles east of Louisa, and the Farm Bureau office. John B. Kaffenberger, treasurer of the Cass County Corn-Hog Ass'n distributed checks representing the second payment on corn-hog contracts at the church from 8 to 12 o'clock and at the Farm Bureau office from 1 to 4 p. m. These checks went to contract signers in Eight Mile Grove, Mt. Pleasant, Avoca, Weeping Water and Elmwood precincts. The payment of these checks amounted to $59,387.67. It was expected that more checks would be coming along and as fast as they are received notices are being put in the mail for farmers to call for their checks.

18,100 Trees Ordered.
Cass county farmers ordered a total of 18,100 evergreen and broadleaf tree seedlings for farm windbreak and woodland plantings in the next month. This is greatly in excess of the 12,400 trees planted last spring. The following shows the increase from 3,300 trees planted five years ago to the 18,100 ordered this spring: 1930, 3,300; 1931, 6,700; 1932, 7,100; 1933, 10,700; 1934, 12,400; 1935, 18,100.

Improvements at Lumberyard
H. M. Lum, of the Avoca lumber yard, has had some 30 tons of crushed rock spread about the interior of the yard, making it very easy to get around with a truck or wagon in all kinds of weather.

Home from the West
On the 8th day of last November, Mr. and Mrs. William Wolfe departed for Los Angeles, where they visited during the winter and enjoyed a very fine time. While there Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe called on Mr. and Mrs. William Morley, where they found them enjoying a good time. They have an excellent home in one of the best parts of the city. At the time of their visit, Mr. Morley was assisting in a store at which a sale was in progress. They were advised that former County Judge Allen J. Beeson and family are living there, but as they were starting for home they did not get to visit him or the family. Mr. Wolfe, who drove home in five and a half days, says the grass was nearly a foot high there as well as in Texas, where the people are busy with farming operations and summer is at hand. They were well pleased with their trip and expect to make another one this coming winter.

R. L. PROBST HONORED
Mr. Robert L. Probst, formerly of Plattsmouth, who has made his home in Lake Worth, Florida for the past 14 years, was honored recently with membership in the Octogenarian club in Lake Worth.

Many Attended Game
A large number of the basketball fans of Avoca went to Falls City last Friday evening to witness the game between the Avoca and Elk Creek for the regional class B honors. The local lads gave a splendid account of themselves, but were defeated by a slight margin and as a result will not play in the state tournament this year. In another regional tournament at Lincoln, Murdock, which ranked third in the Cass county tournament that was won by Avoca recently, won over their opponents and will play in the state tournament. It was a hard game to lose, but the Avoca team did their best and certainly have no reason to feel ashamed of their season's record, the Elk Creek game being their first one to lose.

RULING IN A LIQUOR CASE
Vieta, Okl.—Federal Judge Franklin Kenamer ruled a wholesale liquor company in a wet state may sell liquor to a licensed dealer in a dry state, declaring the wholesaler is not responsible for distribution of liquor sold to a person holding a federal license. Judge Kenamer, after sustaining a defense demurrer to a conspiracy charge against the Brookshire and O'Neal Wholesale Liquor company of Joplin, Mo., said: "It is hard to understand why the government will issue a license for the sale of liquor and the return around and punish the licensee for selling liquor."

Funeral of Mrs. Bates
The funeral services of the late Mrs. Fannie Bates was held on Monday afternoon at the Horton funeral home at Seventh and Vine streets, with Rev. C. O. Troy in charge of the religious services and bringing to the members of the family words of comfort. During the service there were two of the old hymns given by Mrs. E. G. Shellenbarger, "Asleep in Jesus" and "Abide With Me," Mr. E. H. Wescott being the accompanist for the numbers. The interment was at Oak Hill cemetery west of this city. Fannie Bates was born in Burrill, Winnebago county, Illinois, May 25, 1850, and lived there until 1870 when with her brother-in-law and sister, James and Mary Bates, she emigrated to Seward, Nebraska. On May 20th, 1871 she was united in marriage to Israel F. Bates. To this union was born six children, Mary E., Martha C., Charles L., John F., Ethel M., and Carrie B. She leaves to mourn her passing a brother, Mr. John Tape of Rockford, Ill., three daughters and two sons, one daughter having preceded the parents in death in 1902; sixteen grandchildren and fifteen great-grandchildren; a host of other relatives and a host of friends. She passed away March 8th, 1935, in Plattsmouth, Nebr., aged 84 years, 9 months and 11 days.

SHOWS IMPROVEMENT
The many old friends here will be interested in learning that Mrs. Kate Keltz, of Los Angeles, who was so severely injured in an auto accident in Kansas, is now gradually improving at an Omaha hospital. Mrs. Keltz who was formerly Miss Kate York of this city, is hoping that she may have the opportunity of a short visit here before returning to her home in the west. Don C. York was at Omaha Monday to spend a few hours with his sister at the hospital.
