Wabash News

C. D. Ganz, Alvo attorney, was looking after some business matters in Wabash one day during the past week.

Louis Reese and Warren Richards were in Omaha last Tuesday, where they were looking after some business matters.

H. P. Hinds went to Eagle last Tuesday and will visit at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. L. Copple, for some time.

John J. Donelan and family, who have been residing in the country near here, moved last week to Bethany, where they will make their home for the present.

John Woods was a visitor in Clarinda, Iowa, where he went to obtain a truck load of coal at the Clarinda mines, which he has placed in the basement of his garage for fuel.

Adolph Menke, who has been in the east working on a farm in New York state during the winter, arrived in Wabash last Sunday and will make his home here in the future.

John C. Browne was quite ill last week and while he could not get out for a time is now feeling some better. His daughter, Mrs. Audra Stromer, of Alvo, was over for a time assisting in his care.

Frank Reese, who is caretaker of the Missouri Pacific station and grounds here reports that during the past few months the passenger business both in and out of Wabash has been on the increase.

Guy Hinds, who with his family, have been making their home at Avoca for some time, recently moved to Wabash and are making their home in the hotel property of his father. They will remain here until work opens up in the spring.

Warren Wickham and family, who have been residing in Omaha during the winter, have had their household goods returned to Wabash and placed in storage, where they will remain until work opens in the spring. Mr. Wickham and family will visit at the home of his parents, at Everett, Kansas, and will then return to Omaha to make their home.

Sheriff Homer Sylvester was looking after some business matters in Wabash last Monday, having with him a knife which was taken from the parties caught in the act of committing a burglary at Union. He was anxious to ascertain if the knife (one that was used for that purpose at Union) would unlock the store of Mr. Standley here. However, it would not work.

Sells Fine Team

H. H. Gerbeling, who is a fancier of horses, and who always has some very fine animals, sold a splendidly matched team to Mr. Melvin, horse-buyer from Syracuse, New York, last week, being loaded at Murdock for loading and shipment to Syracuse. It is expected that they will be sent to England along with others now being picked up over the country for that purpose.

Edward James had charge of the loading and shipment.

Real Estate Market Active

While many places are finding it difficult to sell real estate, the market here in Wabash has been very active, for during the past week there has been sold and paid for in cash some 25 town lots, or a total of an entire block and part of another. The transfer was from B. I. Colbert to L. R. Stanley. All the property is located along Main street in Wabash.

RIVERVIEW CLUB NOTES

The Riverview club held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Wm. Hike. Most of the members and one visitor were present.

A very nice lesson was given on "Meat Cookery and Meat Dishes." The leaders, Miss Hoyt and Mrs. Lewis prepared some of the dishes which were served with the lunch and was proclaimed delicious by everyone.

Plans were made for two members, Mrs. Hull and Mrs. Ganaway to attend the rug demonstration at Myard.

After roll call the meeting closed, to meet with Mrs. Harold Hull April 2nd.

YOUNG PEOPLE WEDDED

From Saturday's Daily
This morning at the residence of Rev. C. O. Troy, pastor of the First Methodist church, occurred the marriage of Miss Marsella Marie Ramel and Mr. Everett Ruble.

The marriage lines were read by Rev. Troy and the ceremony witnessed by Miss Vida Shiffer and Mr. Wyman C. Murphy.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Ramel and has grown to womanhood in this community and where she graduated from the local high school in the class of 1933.

The young people are expecting to make their home here for the present at least.

WHAT ABOUT SOFTBALL?

The fresh spring days that have been with us, the sport pages with their stories of the baseball training season, has turned the thoughts of many to the favorite Plattsmouth summer sport, that of softball games.

In the past two seasons Plattsmouth has had a large array of teams that have entertained great crowds for the entire summer at the kiten-

Dick Conn purchased two hundred baby chicks of the Leesley Hatchery of the celebrated White Leghorn variety during the past week.

Mrs. Joseph Kyles, who has been very poorly for some weeks past with a severe attack of flu, is at this time reported as being much better.

Edwin Leesley, of Plattsmouth, a cousin of W. H. Leesley, came over to assist with the work at the hatchery during the busy hatching season.

Miss Margaret Leesley, who was sick with a severe attack of flu last week, is reported as being some better and was able to return to school last week.

Walter Goings, who was on the sick list during the greater part of the winter, is reported as much improved and is making steady gains with each succeeding day.

Marjorie Newkirk was taken with the measles last Wednesday and went home until she shall have recovered from the malady. She is reported as getting along very nicely.

Ernest F. Smith, the druggist, was taking stock at the store and finding out just how the business stands and making preparations for a better business during the coming year.

John Mefford, who has been ill for so long at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Henry Kirk, is now considerably improved and is able to be up and around a good deal of the time.

Mr. C. R. Caley and Mr. Nickerson of Springfield, were business visitors last Tuesday and while here they also called on their old friends, Mr. W. A. White and G. E. Bucknell.

W. S. Karns was looking after some business matters in Lincoln on Tuesday of last week, having driven over to the big city in his car to attend to the matters claiming his attention.

Mrs. Harold Wise, who suffered a recent attack of appendicitis and went to the hospital at Fairbury for an operation, is now doing very well and is expected to be up and around again soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Marolf and Walter were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilkens Sunday.

The Misses Frieda and Greta Woltzel were visitors in Lincoln Saturday.

There are a number of the pupils of the Greenwood public schools absent at this time on account of having the measles. All are improving nicely and will be back in school again soon.

A. H. Ward, of Murdock, was a visitor in Greenwood last Wednesday, looking after some business matters. He was accompanied by Homer H. Lawton, who was also transacting business here.

Martin Doud, who has been sick during the past six weeks, being confined to his home practically all that time, is now able to be out again and was down town last Wednesday looking after some business.

Mrs. Elsie M. Peters and son, Norman, entertained at the Peters home for dinner last Sunday, having as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Glen Peters and the children and Leo Peters and family, where all enjoyed the day.

Last Wednesday, Harlan McCright, Wayne Amos and George Amos, who have been making their home at Linch, Nebraska, but spent the past few weeks at Plattsmouth, spent a short time in Greenwood while on their way to Oregon.

Miss Mina Jeffery and James and Lewis drove to Lincoln Sunday to visit their mother, Mrs. Lloyd Jeffery, who is at the Bailey Sanatorium where she had recently undergone a serious operation. They reported her getting along nicely.

Arthur Anderson, who has been very sick with an acute attack of flu and was kept to her home a number of days, has been showing good improvement and is feeling much better. Her many friends are pleased to note her improvement.

Mrs. W. A. Armstrong, who has been feeling very poorly for the past six weeks, suffering from an attack of flu which she just couldn't seem to shake off, is now considerably improved, although she has not yet regained her usual health.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lunciford, who have been residing near the lumber yard, moved last week to the Apphun property, which was formerly occupied by Robert Bourks, he having recently moved to the property where the cream station is located.

The Dorcas society of the Christian church was meeting last Friday at the church and enjoyed a fine program as well as locking after the welfare of the church and the matter of aiding in meeting the overhead expense. Delicious refreshments were served before they adjourned.

Walter W. Holt and wife were in Lincoln on last Wednesday morning, where Mrs. Holt visited for the day, while Walter went back to Greenwood where he looked after some business at the Burlington station, where he is local agent, and after his regular work was done, returned for the wife.

Pearl A. Sanborn, the implement dealer, was called to Omaha last Monday, where he was selecting and making purchases of goods of which he is to need immediately, as spring is here and farming operations will begin in the near future. He did not bring the goods back with him, but they will start arriving immediately.

At a meeting Monday evening, March 4th, the school board of the Greenwood public schools re-elected all of their teachers: Supt. H. E. Warren; principal, Miss Freida Woltzel; coach, Mr. Lee Knolle; grammar room, Miss Thelma Leesley; intermediate room, Miss Leonora Larsen; primary and kindergarten, Miss Helen Marvin. Mr. Dudley Clouse was re-elected as janitor.

W. H. Leesley was stricken with a sudden illness last Wednesday and has been unable to do much work, although he has been resting on a cot near the incubator and directing the care of the chicks there as well as looking after the incubation of some twelve hundred eggs that must be turned regularly. Much of the chicken surplus has been disposed of, thus cutting down the work somewhat.

Entertained the Rebekahs

Mesdames W. A. White and daughter, Mrs. George E. Bucknell, were hostesses to a gathering of the Daughters of Rebekah last Wednesday, with a quilting bee as one of the main features of the afternoon. A splendid time was had by the ladies and some good work was accomplished as they plied their busy needles to help provide another quilt that will be used to good advantage.

Star Kensington at Waverly

The Order of Eastern Star met last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Carl Huffman at Waverly, where they enjoyed a very fine day with a program and social hour, as well as partaking of a very delicious dinner served by the hostess.

Spent Very Enjoyable Evening

Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Coleman entertained the C. C. Kensington at their home on Friday evening of last week. The evening was one of great sociability with cards as the main attraction and there were several tables of Five Hundred players. A brief program also added to the pleasures of the evening.

Created Consternation

The Burlington Zephyr which goes through Greenwood after dark on its daily return run to Lincoln, in order to assure greater safety at the crossings, especially when cruising thru towns, has added a siren which was first put into use last week. As the train was approaching Greenwood the siren was sounded and W. G. Holt, Burlington agent, who was at home at the time, when he heard the siren, jumped to the telephone and asked the telephone operator where the fire was. A number of people from the country also called up and made similar inquiries.

The Burlington company, which is ever solicitous in the care of the public welfare as well as of their own property, has placed this extra safety device on the train in order that all might be protected. The siren is only used after dark and is for the protection of the public.

Streets in Fine Condition

Ben Howard, with the tractor and drag which is used for making the roads and streets in better condition for travel, has gone over the streets of the entire town and has placed them in excellent condition and with the drying of the ground, traveling over the city streets has been a delight. A little work just at the prop-
