

Murray

John Frans was called to Platts-mouth on last Saturday to look after some business matters.

Gus White is moving to the farm on the other side of the highway a few miles north of the filling station east of Murray.

John Frans has been painting and papering the house inside so as to be ready when Mr. White and family are ready to move in.

Harvey Gregg and Ralph Kennedy are at this time trimming the interior of the house which has recently been built by Thomas Tilson.

M. G. Churchill was down to Nehawka for the past few days where he has been papering for some householders in that vicinity.

Henry Klinger of Platts-mouth was in Murray the early portion of this week and was looking after some business matters here for a short time.

On Tuesday of this week the Murray lumber yard received and unloaded a car of cement, the work being done by the Murray Tranter company.

Mrs. Berger who has been visiting at the home of her daughter and husband, J. H. Browne at Omaha for some time past, returned home Sunday evening.

Van Allen was looking after some business matters in Omaha last Tuesday afternoon, making purchases for the garage and repair shop which he maintains in Murray.

George Ray shelled and delivered his corn on Tuesday afternoon of this week, a portion of the grain going to Platts-mouth where it is being fed at the feed yards there.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Brubacher and their little daughter were visiting for the day last Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brubacher where all enjoyed a very fine visit.

Mrs. A. A. Young who a few days ago purchased some 200 baby chicks has provided for them an electric brooder which will care for their comfort and growth, keeping the heat steady and uniform.

Sherman Cole and Royal Smith, from near Mynard, were business visitors in Murray last Tuesday morning, driving over in their auto and visiting with their many friends here as well as looking after some shopping.

Grandmother Redden who has been rather poorly to some time past on account of an attack of flu which kept her to her bed for some time, is at this time feeling better and is able to be out and about her daily activities.

Mrs. W. F. Moore and daughter, Miss Margaret, who have been making their home in Council Bluffs for some time past and where Mrs. Moore was very ill, with her improvement they have returned and are making their home on the farm. Mrs. Moore is still gaining in health.

Van Allen sold a car last week, the same being purchased by Jacob Exline. The car was advertised in the Journal, and Mr. Exline reading the ad went and Mr. Allen to see the car he advertised in the Journal and when the car was displayed a trade was made in a few minutes.

John A. Davis and O. A. Davis were over to Weeping Water on last Monday where they were looking after some business matters at the office of the county agent, investigating the varieties of seed oats. They however waited for a shipment from northern Iowa, which was brought by Frank Mrasek.

James Smith, the musician, who was instrumental in the organization of the Lewiston band and the perfecting of their musical training has rented some twenty acres of ground a short distance from Murray and will place it all in peas which he will sell to the Norfolk Packing company at Platts-mouth.

George S. Ray and Henry Rice with a truck of C. M. Read, were over to northern Iowa late last week where they purchased some 110 bushels of excellent seed oats for 46c per bushel, bringing the same to Murray. Monday of this week Frank Mrasek also went with the big truck and brought home some 300 bushels of seed oats.

J. A. Scotten was over to Lincoln Wednesday of this week where he was called to meet with the committee having in hand the matter of building better homes and also received some literature on the subject of the government aiding in the building of better homes and in which many are interested. There will appear a synopsis of the plans of this federal assistance in the building homes in the appear soon.

Wm. Wehrbein Very Sick. Wm. Wehrbein who has been in poor health for some time past and has been in the hospital a number of times and when better returned home only to have to be taken to the institution again and being very seriously ill was taken to the hospital again early this week and his condition is considered very serious. The many friends of this excellent citizen are hoping that he may soon be better and able to return home.

Funeral of Babe. The funeral of the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Albin, Larry D. Albin a few months of age, died last Tuesday and was buried last Thursday, the funeral being held from the home of the parents and conducted by Rev. W. A. Taylor of Union. Interment was at Lewiston cemetery. The little fellow is survived by a brother, Delbert Lee and a sister, Marline, besides his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Albin.

Visited in Iowa. State Representative George E. Nickles and wife came to Murray last Sunday morning for a short time to look after some matters and immediately departed for Shenandoah, Iowa, where they went to spend the day with Mrs. Nickles' aunt, Mrs. J. D. Nelsey of that place.

Will Build a Barn. W. J. Keil of Cedar Creek was a visitor in Murray and was looking after the construction of a barn on his place southeast of Murray and was making arrangements for the immediate starting of the structure.

Getting Ready to Build. Workmen are at this time completing the excavations for the foundation of the new home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Carroll which is to replace the one which was burned several weeks ago. They are now waiting until the new house is completed in order that they may have a place to live.

Two Murray Couples Also. At the celebration of the fourteen couples who were married at the radio wedding last Saturday at KFNF the Henry Field broadcasting station at Shenandoah, were two couples from Murray. They were Miss Nava Lancaster and Mr. Malvern Read; Miss Dora Mathewson and Paul Richter. The Murray people helped swell the number and also enjoyed the occasion.

The wedding proved very popular as the spacious arcade and studio of the broadcasting station could not hold half the crowd attracted to see the marrying party. A picture of the entire group was presented to each couple so they could remember the big wedding.

John Iverson of Platts-mouth and Blanch Paulson of Omaha made the third couple from Cass county.

Are Now Getting Settled. Mr. and Mrs. Malvern Read will occupy the Mrs. Ada Paris eighty when they shall have gotten the house appropriately decorated. The young folks have a complement of new household furnishings which they are having delivered to the new home. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Richter are settled in their home, as Paul has been living there heretofore and the bride was his housekeeper. They are now appropriately settled and all are happy. The Journal wishes with the many friends of both couples to extend congratulations.

Taken Suddenly Very Ill. Wallace Nelson, son of Mrs. Harry Nelson, was taken very suddenly and seriously ill last Monday and was hastened to the hospital at Omaha.

DR. C. W. ALEXANDER, Omaha Ophthalmologist, will be in Murray for one day each month starting Tuesday, March 26. Dr. Alexander has practiced in Nebraska for 17 years and will be glad to meet his many friends and also make new ones. Eyes examined; Glasses fitted; Repairs of all kinds. Work guaranteed. Located at J. W. Berger's where he is being treated. The case was one of great seriousness as the patient's temperature was 106 when they started with him for the hospital and he was delirious from the high fever, but traveling fast as they did he was normal when they arrived at the hospital. Wallace, however, had a stoppage in one lung but the fears were somewhat allayed when his fever subsided.

Charivari Newlyweds. A large crowd of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Richter who were married at Shenandoah during the afternoon Saturday, and as the radio announced the fact, the friends were ready for the arrival of the bride and groom and came in due time only to be welcomed by a large number of the friends with all manner of musical instruments, even cow bells. Paul went to the door and greeted the merry makers and provided a substantial treat for them. Best of wishes for the happiness and prosperity of the newlyweds was expressed and the crowd returned to their homes, leaving the happy newlyweds to their home.

Friends Greet Newlyweds. A number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Malvern Read went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lancaster where they greeted the newlyweds with best wishes and congratulations, remaining only for a short time, departing for their homes after the congratulations, as they were awaiting until they had gotten moved to their new home when a real charivari with all the trimmings will be celebrated.

In Rapid Succession. On Thursday of last week, March 14, the stork in his generosity made a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Woods, living a number of miles west of Murray and with Dr. R. W. Tyson as assistant brought a delightful baby girl to his happy home, the little miss weighing ten pounds and all are happy over the advent. On the day following, Friday, the same bird and the doctor welcomed another girl baby, this time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vinton Plunket, all doing nicely. Then again on Saturday they assisted in the arrival of a very fine boy, tipping the beam at ten pounds to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Murdoch.

Close Country School. The school of District 7 which is southeast of Murray, has been closed for the present by the board of education, because there has been a great deal of illness in the district.

Relief Committee Meets. The members of the relief committee of Murray and vicinity met last Monday evening at the Crosser Hall in Murray, where a large representation was present and a number of projects recommended. One was signed by 144 members of the community, this being for the grading and graveling of four miles of roadway beginning at Murray at the garage of L. D. Crosser and running south two miles, thence two miles west, making four miles of roadway and touching a large amount of good country. Another was for the building of hard surfaced road in the neighborhood of Eight Mile Grove, this being signed by some 26 men, while a third was for the graveling of the road beginning on Main street of highway No. 1 at the west side of the railway crossing, running north to the stock yards and thence west until it intersected with the gravelled road running north of Murray. All three are good projects and will be recommended to the board of county commissioners.

In Very Poor Health. Mrs. Earl Lancaster who has not been in the best of health for several months is at this time not feeling the best and will as soon as it can be arranged, go to the hospital for a thorough clinic and treatment, and if necessary will undergo an operation for the restoration of her health. She is now much better.
