HOLD BIRTHDAY PARTY

The P. J. Wheeler home south of this city was the scene of a very pleasant birthday gathering on Tuesday, March 26th, this being the eighth anniversary of Shirley Jean Wheeler.

A number of the little friends of the guest of honor had been invited in to spend the after school hours and a most delightful time was enjoyed in many contests and games that added much to the enjoyment of the occasion. Miss Catherine Strickland, Helen Karas and Betty were the winners in the various games.

In honor of the birthday event Shirley Jean received many beautiful gifts as a remembrance of the day. At an appropriate hour dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Wheeler, assisted by Miss Velma Fulton, teacher of a number of the young guests.

Those who attended the event were Catherine Binstner, Betty Gayer, Phyllis Kene, Mary Phyllis Soennichen, Helen Karas, Elouise Cole, Beverly Ann Brubacher, Betty Henon, Annis Lee White, Mrs. G. E. Brubacher and Mrs. W. C. Soennichen. Charlene Patterson and Connie Hanson of Nehawka were unable to attend.

Death of Former Resident of This City in Oregon

Mrs. Rebecca Almara Thouvenel Dies at Portland—Came to Plattsmouth in Year 1878.

The announcement has been received here of the death of Mrs. Rebecca Thouvenel, for many years a resident of this city, the family living here from 1878 to 1904 when they moved to the west.

Rebecca Almara McCully Thouvenel was born in Clairfield county, Pennsylvania, May 2, 1865, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCully. She was married to Joseph Daniel Thouvenel in St. Joseph, Missouri, September 21, 1877. They moved to Plattsmouth, Nebraska in the spring of 1878, where their thirteen children were born. On May 9, 1904, they moved to Oregon where they made their home in Condon until the summer of 1927, when they moved to Portland.

Mr. Thouvenel died at the home in Portland, 4849 Bybee Blvd., April 4, 1928, and Mrs. Thouvenel continued living in Portland until her recent death, March 14, 1935. She is survived by six daughters, Mrs. Lessie E. Leaman of Oregon City, Mrs. Eva Cameron, Mrs. Alma Keeney, Mrs. Fern Russell, Mrs. Esther Ferguson, and Mrs. Thelma Allen, all of Plattsmouth, and three sons, Earl of Santa Monica, Calif., Lester of The Dalles, and J. D. of Condon; also survived by 23 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Saturday, March 16, at the conservatory chapel of A. J. Rose and Son, Portland, with Rev. Claude Neely of the Christian Temple and Rev. Ahrendt of the Church of God, officiating. Concluding services were held at the Rose City cemetery.

Death of Long Time Resident of Near Union

Renel E. Taylor Called to Rest Thursday at the Home near Nehawka, Where He Spent Last Years.

From Saturday's Daily
The death of Renel E. Taylor, 72, occurred on Thursday at the home near Nehawka where he had resided since retiring from active farming several years ago.

Mr. Taylor was a son of James W. and Earepta Taylor and was born in Meigs county, Ohio, November 1, 1861. When a youth the family came westward to Nebraska and located in the vicinity of Union where the greater part of his lifetime was spent in active farming until his retirement. He was married at Union to Miss Flora Grimes, a member of one of the old families of that community.

There is surviving, the widow and one daughter, Mrs. Henry Schwartz, of near Nehawka, as well as two brothers, Stephen M. Taylor and Rev. William A. Taylor, both of Union.
Mr. Taylor was a man held in the highest esteem by a large circle of friends over this portion of Cass county and who will share with the family the sorrow that his passing has occasioned.

The funeral services for Mr. Taylor were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Baptist church at Union. The funeral was under the direction of the Sattler funeral home of this city.

DIES AT OMAHA

From Thursday's Daily
This afternoon at 12:15 Mrs. Charles Lamphere of this city passed away at the Nicholas Senn hospital at Omaha after an illness of some duration. Mrs. Lamphere had been a sufferer from Bright's disease over a period of years, which in the last few weeks had reached an acute stage.

The deceased lady is survived by the husband and the parents, Mr. and Mrs. George McFarland of this city as well as several brothers and sisters.

Funeral arrangements will be in charge of the Sattler funeral home of this city, but date has not been set by the members of the family.

REDECORATE SHOPPE

The interior of Ann's Beauty Shoppe on North 5th street has been given a thorough redecorating and is now one of the most attractive in the city. The interior has been repapered and repainted in pastel shades that make it a very pleasant and attractive place for the patrons of this popular beauty salon.

Founders Day Program by the M. E. Society

Foreign Missionary Society Holds "Japanese at Home" at Church Parlors on Thursday.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church, held a very delightful observance of Founder's day on Thursday afternoon at the church parlors which was very largely attended by the membership and their friends.

The parlors of the church for the occasion had been arranged in true oriental style, the Japanese cherry blossoms and other decorative features being used in the adornment of the room.

The young ladies taking part in the program were all garbed in the Japanese costumes that added a pleasing touch to the scene as they carried out the pantomime, "Japanese Tea Ceremony."

The program of the afternoon was as follows:
Piano Music, Oriental
Mrs. L. S. Devoe
Japanese Greeting
History of Founders Day
Mrs. Frank Barkus, Mrs. C. C. Wescott
Address "Political Japan"
Mrs. George Mann
Japanese Songs—Mrs. E. H. Wescott
"Japanese Women at Home"
Song "Beautiful Japan"
Marguerite Yelick
"What Can the Matter Be"
Marvin and Warren Lillie
Japanese Tea Ceremony
Standard Bearer Girls
Mrs. Merritt Kerr, leader
Reader "Virginia Trively"
Hostess "Mamie Schwenneker"
Guests—Katherine Armstrong and Naomi Day
Servant "Louise Rishel"
"Facts About Japan"

At the close of the afternoon dainty refreshments were served to add to the pleasures of the occasion.

CONSULT SPECIALIST

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Klimm from south of this city, were in Omaha Wednesday to spend a few hours there looking after some business matters. Mr. Klimm has not been feeling in the best of health for some time and while in Omaha was consulting a specialist. It will be necessary for him to undergo another examination in a short time.

Wabash News

Cuy Hinds has been cutting down some trees at the Woods home, grubbing the roots out in order that the lawn may be smooth.

The demand for goods at the store called L. R. Stanley to Lincoln last Friday to secure some additional items of merchandise.

Henry H. Gerbeling and wife were in Elmwood last Friday, where they were looking after some business matters for a short time.

P. H. Clarke was sowing his oat crop during the latter part of the week. A large amount of oats are being sown in Cass county this year.

John C. Browne, manager of the Wabash elevator, disposed of a number of truck loads of corn to parties from near Beatrice, who came here for the grain.

Henry Crozier, of Weeping Water, was looking after some business matters in Wabash Tuesday afternoon of last week, and while here was calling on his friend, Sherman Hardway.

Mrs. Guy Hinds was spending the day last Tuesday at the home of her mother, Mrs. Ellen Smith of west of Elmwood, where they both enjoyed a very nice visit for the afternoon.

Homer H. Lawton, of Murdock, was a visitor in Wabash last week, coming to see his mother, Mrs. Henrietta Lawton, who has been spending the winter in the south and who arrived home but recently.

L. R. Standley, who suffered from a series of boils some months ago, has had a recurrence of the same during the past week, having to have them lanced by a physician. Following the lancing, he has been feeling much better.

Wabash is exceptionally well situated for service from outside oil companies as A. H. Ward and Charles Schaeffer, of Murdock and Martin McCrorey and the Farmers Oil company of Elmwood pay the town a visit every few days.

A number of the boys and men of Wabash were at Plattsmouth one day last week to register for work this summer, having been advised that extensive river work would be started in a short time. Among those going over to register were Louis Reese, Guy Hinds and W. S. Murlin.

New Located in New Home

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. McCoy are now located in their new home in Lincoln, departing for the capital city a few days after the wedding. Mrs. McCoy was formerly Miss Alecie Gerbeling, and their wedding some ten days ago was one of the pleasant social events of the spring season. Their friends extend best wishes to this popular young couple in their new home.

Will Close Station Here

The Missouri Pacific railroad station in Wabash, which has been in charge of Frank Reese as caretaker, has been closed as a part of the road's general retrenchment program and Mr. Reese is now out of the job that paid the stupendous sum of $15 per month.

Camp Boys Put on Good Boxing Show Last Night

Members of Local Camp Contend with Entries from Bellevue Vocational School in Good Bouts.

From Friday's Daily
The smack of leather was the chief feature at the Boys camp north of this city Thursday night when members of the camp and others from the vocational school at Bellevue met in the ring.

There was a very large attendance and the fight fans had a good evening of entertainment as the boys mixed it plenty in the roped arena.

In the opening bout Buddy Barrett, who hails from way down south in Memphis, was technically knocked out in the third round of the four round bout by R. Nason of this city.

Casey of the Bellevue school was the winner over Steeman of the local camp in a decision at the end of the four rounds of good fast fighting and in which both boys showed their stuff for the benefit of the patrons.

Jimmy Rogers, whose home port is "Chi," was the winner in the third round on a technical knockout over R. Minter, coming from way down at St. Louis, in a good bout.

In the semi-final of the evening, Jack Reno, coming from the Golden Gate city and Jimmy McGovern, Chicago, a student at Bellevue, took the route for a decision at the end of the four rounds.

The main event of the card was the bout between Bobby Carter, 120, of Philadelphia, now at the Bellevue school and Hymie Spiegel, 125, of Omaha. The boys had four rounds of good fast mixing and which brought them a draw from the referee, Thompson of Bellevue.

The athletic directors at the camp are trying to arrange an old home town card for the coming week in which only the local camp boys and Plattsmouth boxers will be featured and some good bouts are in prospect for the fans. Watch for the list of events.

Edward Flynn is Advanced by the Burlington

Well Known Figure Long on Nebraska Lines, Named as Executive Vice-President.

Edward Flynn, for thirty years connected with the Burlington railroad, has been elected executive vice president of the system, Ralph Budd, the company's president, announced Friday. Flynn, who for the past four years was vice president in charge of operations, will continue to direct operations, Budd said.

Mr. Flynn was for many years with the company in Lincoln. He began in the train service and was promoted from time to time, going to other divisions, reaching the general superintendency about 1920. From Lincoln he went to Omaha as general manager and from Omaha to Chicago. He has been vice president in charge of operation for several years, and now executive duties have been added. In his service with the system he has held positions on many of the divisions east and west of the Missouri river. Mr. Flynn left the general superintendency of the road at Lincoln Dec. 1, 1922, immediately after the shop strike. He left Omaha for Chicago to accept a vice presidency of the road on Sept. 24, 1931, and has been there since.

From Friday's Daily
Edward Graves, of Peru, was in the city today for a few hours to look after some matters of business at the court house and also to visit for a short time with his uncle, Judge Charles L. Graves.

GREENWOOD

Emmitt Landon has purchased a new Plymouth car.

George Walling and wife, of Lincoln, were guests last Monday at the Fred Etheredge home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Etheredge were pleased last Sunday, when they were visited by Mr. and Mrs. George Bobbitt, of Lincoln.

B. Golding, of Plattsmouth, was a visitor in Greenwood Wednesday of last week, looking after some business connected with the properties which he has here.

Mrs. Fokey Gustafson and little daughter, who have been having a severe tussle with the flu during the past week, are reported as being much better at this time.

Don Klinzman and family, who have been making their home at Branson, Mo., and later resided at Geneva, moved last week to Greenwood and are occupying the Cline property.

R. E. Mathews was a visitor in Lincoln last Wednesday, where he was called to look after some business matters and also getting some auto parts for some cars which he has in the shop for repair.

Tracy A. McNurlin was in Omaha Friday of last week, where he was looking after some business matters as well as having some of his teeth that had been giving him considerable trouble of late, removed.

Mrs. W. E. Hand, who has been residing in Lincoln at the home of her grandson, Glen Hand, in company with the latter were visiting here on Wednesday and were doing some work around the Hand place.

Pearl Sanborn was a visitor in Omaha and Council Bluffs last Tuesday, where he was called to look after some business matters and also was visiting with his son, Clayton Sanborn, who is making his home in the Iowa city.

Messrs and Mesdames Henry Wilkins and Fred Etheredge were visiting in Omaha last Tuesday, where they were looking after some business matters for a short time as well as calling on numerous friends in the metropolis.

Don Kluzman and family, who formerly came from Missouri, but who have been residing in Lincoln for a few months, moved to Greenwood last Wednesday and are snugly housed in the Cline building, where they will make their home.

Fred W. Etheredge, the mail messenger, who carried the mail from the Burlington station to and from the postoffice in Greenwood, has been feeling quite poorly of late, and although he has been able to continue his work, it has taken a good deal of grit to do so.

Birthday Dinner for Twins

Mrs. Paul Kelley, Greenwood post-mistress, gave a dinner last Sunday in honor of the seventeenth birthdays of her two daughters, Misses Irene and Lucele, which occurred that day. Besides the members of the immediate household, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Parks, the latter a sister of the young ladies, were present. A most enjoyable time was had.

In Honor of Husband

Mrs. Goodhart Vant invited a number of friends in last Wednesday evening, March 27th, to help celebrate the birthday of her husband. A most enjoyable time was had, with games, music and song, climaxed with the serving of refreshments. All joined in wishing Mr. Vant many more pleasant anniversaries.

Rebekahs Enjoy Gathering

The Daughters of Rebekah met on their regular meeting night last Monday, having as their guests members of the I. O. O. F., and a most pleasant evening was spent, with cards, music and a splendid program, climaxed with the serving of delicious refreshments.

Attended District Convention

A goodly number of the members of the local American Legion post attended the Twelfth district convention held at Syracuse on March 13th. A Cass county man, "Bill" Kruger, of Nehawka, was elected to the office of district commander after a spirited session of balloting. Those present from Greenwood were Dewey Headley, John Downing, Ray McNurlin, Doc Clarke and a number of others whose names we failed to secure.

Many Making Improvements

having the roof on the house where his son, Elmer Mathews and family reside, repaired so it too will ward off the impending rains. Alexis Nelson, residing east of town, is another who does not believe in the logic of the Arkansas householder, and is having a new roof put on his home now so as to be ready for the spring showers.

Organized New Legion Post

The town of Ashland, which has been without a Legion post for a number of years, organized a new post at a meeting held last Tuesday evening, and which was attended by a goodly number of the ex-service men of that community as well as visiting guests from nearby towns. A splendid meeting was held and there was much enthusiasm for the new post. At the election of officers, Doc Clarke was named commander, Earl Miller adjutant, Oscar Reese service officer and Ed Fricke, finance officer. The meeting was climaxed with the serving of refreshments.

These from Greenwood who attended were Dewey Headley, John Downing, Earl Stradley and Ray McNurlin.

Making Some Furniture

Henry Wilkins, who enjoys keeping busy at something when he is not occupied with his regular vocation of tonsorialist, has during quiet spells at the barber shop, made some neat chairs for his little niece, who often comes to the shop to pay him a visit. With a coping saw, he has made cut out designs in the sides of cuts and other animals and the chairs made a very appreciable gift to the little miss. Just now he is busy making a magazine rack from native walnut, that will be a very beautiful piece of furniture. See these articles of his handiwork next time you are at the barber shop.

Many Join in Celebration

Last Sunday being the birthday of Louis Wright, in recognition of the event the members of the Coleman families of Greenwood gathered to aid him in properly celebrating the occasion. There were music and song, as well as a delicious feed and Louis received a number of remembrances in token of the high esteem in which he is held.

Happy Birthday Celebration

Phillip Reese, with the aid of his friends, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Copes, at their home, entertained a number of the friends of both in recognition of the passing of the birthday of Phillip, a dinner being served and a most pleasant evening's entertainment provided. Numerous games were played, but the one most enjoyed was the game of Five Hundred. All joined in wishing Mr. Reese many more happy birthdays.

Appraisers Visit Greenwood

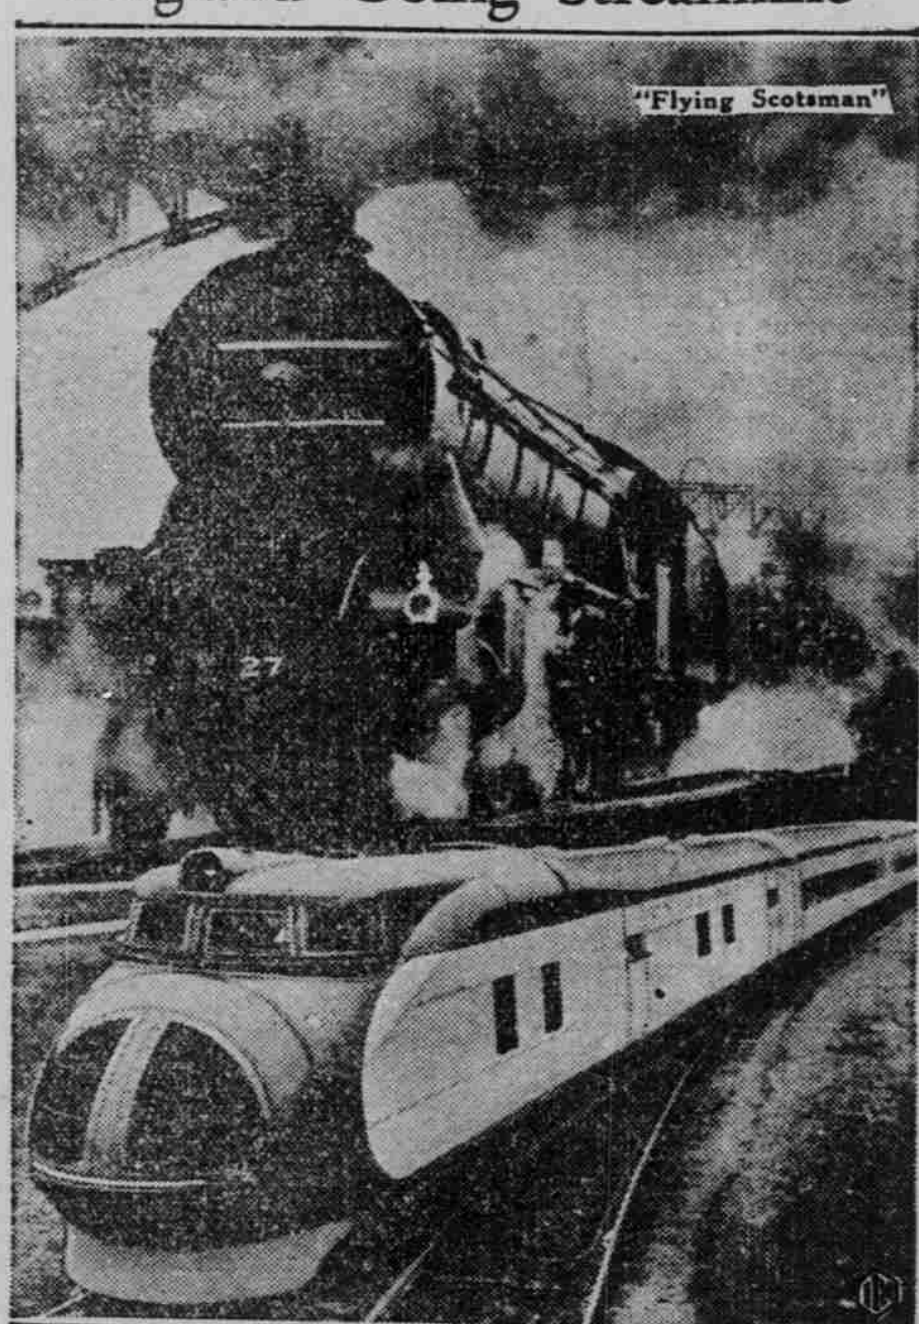

The board of appraisers for Salt Creek, who pass on the lands to be taken out of cultivation for the growing of corn and also having to do with the hog restrictions, were in Greenwood looking after their duties during the past week. The board having this in charge for Salt Creek precinct are Turner McKinnon, Charles Ayres, Lloyd Grady and Carl Johnson. The board are a set of careful and painstaking gentlemen and are well qualified for the work which they have been selected to do.

Hustling for Business

Dwight Talcott, who has engaged in the life insurance business, is on the go most of the time making trips out over the state in the interest of his work. During the past week he made trips to Omaha, Tilden, Lincoln and York and was busy hustling for business. That's what it takes nowadays to make a success of any line of work.

England Going Streamline
"Flying Scotsman"

The record breaking trans-continental trip of Union Pacific's streamlined train so impressed British observers that a similar train is now being built in England for possible service between London and Glasgow the run now made by the famous "Flying Scotsman" and "Royal Scot," two of the world's fastest trains. British railroad speed record is held by a Great Western train that made the 77-mile run from Swindon to London at average of 81.6 miles per hour.
