PLAN FOR SEASON

The Plattsmouth Golf club are preparing to enter in what seems one of the most successful seasons that they have had for a number of years, the membership having shown a pleasing gain and much interest.

The club has selected J. W. Holmes as president and Claude Helm as the secretary, the new officers starting the work of organization off for what looks like a fine season.

The dues for the year have been set at $10 while the green fees are placed at 50c for local parties and 75c for persons from out of the city.

The club is planning to stage a tournament as soon as conditions permit and which it is hoped will create a much greater interest and competition among the members.

The club membership also entitles the members of his family the privilege of the club house.

FINE OPENING SERVICE

From Tuesday's Daily
A congregation that filled St. Luke's church to capacity heard an impassioned plea last night from the Rev. G. A. Pahl for Christian resolution in the various department of life. Contrasting the irresolute Pilate with what might have been, had he stood firm and shown himself a strong character, the speaker outlined some of the conditions under which we live and the opportunity they afford for bringing about the Kingdom of God on earth. The service tonight will be at St. Paul's Evangelical church, with Dr. H. H. McClusky preaching on "Peter's Pears." This service begins at 8 o'clock.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL

He was known through the state, having preached at Auburn when that town was called Sheridan, Elk Creek, Crab Orchard, Lewiston, Wahoo, Wymore, Harvard and Plattsmouth, where he was pastor in the years 1904-1905.

Nearly seventy-nine years ago he settled with his parents near Brownville where he grew to young manhood. He attended the state normal at Peru, being in the first session of that institution. He was born Oct. 22, 1851, in Bureau county, Ill., and was the son of John Wesley and Lucinda Swan.

After his wife's death Mr. Swan attended Garrett Biblical Institute, Northwestern university, and joined the Nebraska Methodist conference in 1881. In 1889, while pastor at Elk Creek, he married Miss Hattie McKim. From this union the following children survive: Ralph E., Harold W. and Richard E., all living in Nebraska; Eval Lane, Greeley, Colo.; Elsie and Dorothy of Sedalia. He moved to Sedalia in 1913.

He was a retired member of the Nebraska conference after serving regularly in the ministry for more than thirty years. His later years were given to the finding of homes for orphaned and neglected children.

He placed more than 1,200 children from New York in good homes in Nebraska, Missouri and Arkansas. He served one year with the Nebraska Anti-Saloon league, stationed at Omaha as superintendent of the Northern Nebraska division.

His funeral took place the past week from the First Methodist church of Sedalia with burial in Memorial Park cemetery there.

The defendant in the case failed to appear and a judgment was accordingly given the plaintiff, Lloyd Holman.

The jury term will probably be short as there are a number of cases for trial in which former Senator E. J. Burkett of Lincoln is attorney, and as he is seriously ill at Lincoln, these will be passed for the term, in all probability.

"IN THE SHADOW OF THE CROSS"

From Wednesday's Daily
A receptive congregation filled St. Paul's church last night, and heard the second of a series of addresses bearing the theme: "In the Shadow of the Cross," delivered by Dr. H. G. McClusky, who spoke on "Peter's Pears." Peter's character was marred by the inherent fear, the fruits of which, were repeated denials. Professing Christians today are in danger of denying the Master in times of crisis, because of moral weakness. A formal confession and an activated confession of Christ and His teachings, is the crying need for our day.

Hall, associate state director of the Federal Housing Administration, 670 Saunders-Kennedy Building, Omaha, Nebraska. The state winners will be based on content only. The two state winners, one boy and one girl, will have their entries mailed to Washington for finals. From 96 essays mailed to Washington, 4 boys and 4 girls will receive trips to the national capitol, all expenses paid to determine the winner.

The eight chosen to go to Washington will deliver their essays orally and be judged by a national board of judges chosen by the Federal Housing Administration. One boy and one girl of these eight will be declared the national winners. The finals will be based on 75% content and 25% delivery.
