

Nehawka

George Pollard is the owner of a new Plymouth car.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fleischman are the parents of a fine baby son, born last week. The young man has been named Clarence James.

Albert Anderson and Leo Switzer were in Plattsburgh last Monday, being among those drawn for jury service at the April term of the district court.

James M. Palmer is still in charge of the elevator during the indisposition of Stuart Rough, who has been in rather poor health for the past few days.

Hallis Akins, salesman for the Ruse Motor company, of Plattsburgh, was in Nehawka last Friday calling on some prospective purchasers of Ford V-8 cars, which he is selling.

Miss Leona Pollard was looking after business at the oil station while her father, R. C. Pollard, was in attendance at a dinner given by Mrs. Gertrude Wolph on last Monday.

Master Wallace Kuntz was passing his seventh birthday anniversary on last Saturday and as a fitting feature of the celebration, had his teacher, Miss Hughes, as a guest of himself and family at a six o'clock dinner on Sunday evening.

Ed South, of Nebraska City, was a business caller in Nehawka one day this week. Mr. South is engaged in the manufacture of crates for the shipment of eggs, chickens, hogs or what have you, and is finding considerable demand for his product.

Mrs. Lyle Kruger, who during the past week was visiting with friends and relatives at Palmyra, where she had resided during the past few years, returned home Sunday, being accompanied by Henry Miller and Ralph Kruger, who came up to spend the day with E. J. Kruger, father of Ralph.

C. W. Johnson, formerly of Weeping Water, who is conducting a picture show at Friend was in Nehawka a few days ago and negotiated purchase of a new Chrysler from the local dealer, Clarence Hansen. The two men went to Omaha after the car, bringing it back with them and from here Mr. Johnson drove to Weeping Water for a short visit before continuing on to his home in Friend.

Entertained for Relatives

Mrs. Gertrude Wolph and daughter, Miss Evelyn, entertained at their farm home last Monday at a one o'clock dinner, with Mrs. Adoline Arcler and son, Earl, of Vermont, who have been visiting in California and stopped off here while en route home, to attend the wedding of Miss Virginia Pollard, as guests of honor. Other guests at the dinner included Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Pollard, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Pollard, Mrs. Emma Sheldon and George C. Sheldon and family, all of Nehawka, together with Mrs. Lottie Shottwell, a sister of R. C. Pollard, who has been here visiting with her brother and family.

Have a Wonderful Home

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McReynolds were in Nebraska City Monday afternoon, where they were doing some shopping and as well securing some electrical supplies for the new home they are now completing. The home has been under process of remodeling for several months, the work including the making of many important changes. They now have an entirely modern home, with all the conveniences of the city, including lights, water, furnace, plumbing, etc.

The plans for the remodeling of the old and new home have been printed in the farm magazine, showing what can be done in the way of remodeling.

At Weeping Water the Brotherhood meets on the second Thursday evening of the month. Visitors from Nehawka welcome at all times, as well as to the Weeping Water church services which include preaching at 10, Bible school at 11, E. L. at 6:30 and the evening preaching service at 7:30.—Rev. E. S. Pangborn, Pastor.

Passing of Mrs. J. Stuart Rough

The funeral of the late Mrs. J. Stuart Rough, whose death occurred last Thursday evening at the Bryan Memorial hospital in Lincoln, was held at the M. E. church here Sunday afternoon. The church auditorium was filled to capacity with friends of the deceased and there was an overflow into the basement as well as a few who had to stand outside, so great was the attendance. A profusion of flowers piled high about the casket further attested the popularity of this beloved woman and the esteem in which she was held.

The funeral discourse was delivered by Rev. W. A. Taylor, of Union, an old friend of the family. Interment was in Mt. Pleasant cemetery.

OBITUARY

Frances Amelia Bates was born August 1, 1872, the only daughter of Walker and Eunice Bates. She was married to J. Stuart Rough February 10, 1891. At that time her parents moved to Nehawka and the newly married couple established their home on the farm where Mrs. Rough was born. In this home were born and reared the five children who with the husband survive her passing.

The husband and children were all with her during the last ten days of her life. The children are Mrs. H. J. Dane, of Iowa City, Iowa; Stewart Rough, Jr., of Montbello, California; Mrs. L. R. Benson, of Iowa City; Mrs. Martin Ross, of Nehawka, and Mrs. D. H. Wilson, of Alton, Illinois. These, with fourteen grandchildren, complete the family circle.

In February, 1921, Mr. and Mrs. Rough left the farm home and built themselves a home in Nehawka, having lived in our midst ever since. A day or two after last Christmas, Mrs. Rough underwent a major operation. Convalescence was slow but steady, but it was found necessary to operate again on April 2nd. From this second operation and its resulting complications, she was unable to survive and was taken from us Friday evening, April 12th.

Early in life, Mrs. Rough joined the church and for many years has been one of the supporters of this institution in Nehawka. She enjoyed, also, her membership in and social contact through the Eastern Star, Rebekahs, Daughters of the American Revolution and the Nehawka Women's club.

At a time like this, it is not possible to phrase a picture which will truly represent a great life. The daily acts of kindness, the unfailing sympathy, the great capacity for love and tenderness which belonged to Frances Rough made a record written in the lives of the people of this community which will live on long after any words spoken here are forgotten. Her physical passing from our midst

W. C. T. U. Has a Splendid Meeting Monday

Program Covers Many Important Phases of Temperance Work in the Nation at Large.

The W. C. T. U. met on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. W. Knorr, with a large number of the members in attendance to take part in the fine program that had been arranged.

Mrs. J. E. Wiles gave a very interesting review, "The News and the Views of the Union Signal," official publication of the society. This covered a number of different phases of the temperance work, "No Indictments for Smuggling Liquor from Canada to the United States," "Stanford Loses Fight to Oust Liquor from Campus," "Alcoholic Education for Popular Consumption."

Mrs. R. B. Hayes spoke on "Congress Started Us on a Toboggan Slide," which was followed by a general discussion of the matter by the ladies, some very interesting views being given.

Billy Knorr was heard in two very delightful vocal offerings, "Bless This House" and "When I Grow Too Old to Dream," the accompaniment being played by Mrs. R. W. Knorr.

Miss Jean Knorr also favored the members of the party with two delightful piano numbers that were much appreciated by the ladies.

The meeting was closed by the W. C. T. U. benediction and followed by the serving of light refreshments by Mrs. Knorr assisted by Miss Jean, bringing to the close a very much enjoyed occasion.

leaves a vacancy in our community which cannot be filled.

We shall meet, but we shall miss her; there will be one vacant chair, but as surely as we believe in this Holy week, as surely as we believe there is a life to come at which time we shall again meet and know our loved ones, just so surely do we know that Frances Rough will be with us again. And in the meantime, her spirit, her generosity, her kindness, her loving sympathy are engraved on the hearts of her family and her friends, cut to a depth that time will never erase.

To Mr. Rough, the son and daughters and the grandchildren, our hearts pour out their deepest sympathy and with that sympathy we say but just a word: "Frances Bates Rough, there was a real woman, wife, mother, friend, neighbor. God bless you!"
