Death of Mrs. Mathilda Hotz at Iowa City

Lifetime Resident of That Community Dies Suddenly—Sister of Mrs. L. B. Egenberger.

Mrs. Mathilda Ward Hotz, 76, well known in this city, died suddenly Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock at her home in Iowa City, Iowa. Mrs. Hotz had suffered a heart attack a few days ago but was improving and thought out of danger but last evening as one of the daughters had gone for a glass of water, she passed away. Her son, Dr. Harley Hotz of Omaha had been at Iowa City for a few days to look after the mother.

Mrs. Hotz is a member of one of the oldest families of Iowa City where she was born and spent her lifetime. She is to be buried on Friday morning from the St. Mary's Catholic church where she was baptized, confirmed and married and where she had been a worshiper for her lifetime.

The deceased lady was the mother of nine children, all of whom have received fine training from her hands that has enabled them to hold high positions in their professions and which they owe to her fine example.

She was a sister of Mrs. L. B. Egenberger of this city and has often in the years been a visitor here at the Egenberger home and has a large circle of friends who will deeply regret to learn of her death.

There is surviving the nine children, the husband preceding her in death, the children are Drs. Harley and Edward, Attorneys William J. Robert and Albert of Omaha; Miss Marcella Hotz, of Iowa City, for twenty years private secretary to the president of the University of Iowa; Mrs. Verda Blover, Waterloo, Iowa; Clifford of Lincoln, Nebraska and Miss Jessie, residing at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Egenberger and son, Henry A., of Omaha, will drive to Iowa City Thursday morning and remain until after the funeral.

hood meets on the second Thursday evening of the month. Visitors from Nehawka welcome at all times, as well as to the Weeping Water church services which include preaching at 10, Bible school at 11, E. L. at 6:20 and the evening preaching service at 7:30.—Rev. E. S. Pangborn, Pastor.

Married Fifty-three Years.
On Thursday (today) Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Nutzman are celebrating the passing of their 53rd wedding anniversary at their home four miles south of Nehawka. They were married at Nebraska City on April 25th, 1882, Mrs. Nutzman being then Miss Mary Gruber, the wedding occurring at the parsonage of the Methodist church at Nebraska City.

They have made their home on the farm a few miles south of Nehawka during the three years more than the past half century. A few years ago they had concluded to make a trip every year and this year they had thought they would see Alaska, but with the taxes high and the income during this past year of depression they have decided to forego the trip and to enjoy their anniversary at home.

DEATH OF MRS. EATON
From Monday's Daily
The message was received here Sunday of the death of Mrs. Frank Eaton, former resident of the vicinity of Union, which occurred on Saturday at the family home at Denver. The deceased lady was the mother of John Eaton of Union and the body was taken to that place where funeral services were being held this afternoon.

ENJOY FAMILY PARTY

Among the guests at the birthday party of Mrs. Adaha Moore on Sunday at the P. H. Wohlfarth home, was Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Fitch and their infant daughter. The little one is a great granddaughter of Mrs. Moore and as the youngest addition to the family circle was the source of a great deal of admiration from the various relatives.
