

Weeping Water

Bill Johnson has been redecorating and remodeling the interior of his cafe.

Peter H. Miller and son, Pete, were enjoying a visit on Easter at the home of James Miller and family of Plattsmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Murdock were visiting and looking after some business matters in Nebraska City Monday afternoon of this week.

The Cole Motor company sold a new Ford V-8 coupe to Marion Schewe of near Murdock which was delivered Friday of last week.

John Bender who makes his home at Sutton, was a visitor with friends in Weeping Water where he enjoyed the day with his many friends.

Miss Loterra Ring was a guest of her friend, Miss Norma Wolf of Bethany for over Easter and was pleased with the fine visit she had.

Mrs. Floyd Selock of Omaha and Mrs. Floyd Gerbeling, sisters, were visiting last Monday at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Citzman.

Rasmus Lawrensen who has been in bad health for some time, was taken to an Omaha hospital where he had one of his diseased kidneys removed. He is getting along nicely at this time and hopes to return home in a short time.

John Knabe was looking after some business matters in Weeping Water and visiting with his daughter, Mrs. Earl Murdock. Mr. Knabe makes his home in Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Shields were visiting friends for the day in Omaha last Sunday, driving up for the day and visit at the home of Louis Reese and family.

Mrs. Walter Lühring and little daughter were visiting in Howard, Kansas where they were guests for a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Taylor.

A. R. Birdsall who was home from last Thursday until Tuesday morning, went over to Plattsmouth to serve for the remainder of the term of the district court, as a jurymen.

Antone Jorgensen, the produce dealer, who has been in poor health for some time, was taken to an Omaha hospital where he is under treatment for prostate trouble, and is getting along fairly well, but not having an operation, but is being treated by an electrical method.

Ralph Binger was home for the Easter vacation from the University of Nebraska. He went to Omaha last Monday morning where he was to meet with his young lady friend at four o'clock, when she was passing through Omaha as stewardess on the United Air Lines.

Sang Over Station KFAB
By special invitation, Miss Lona, 13 and Miss Lorene Wagner, 18, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wagner, appeared in song and accompanied by their own music on their Hawaiian guitars at station KFAB in Omaha last Saturday. The thousands who listened to this very pleasing music were more than pleased with the presentation. They have been asked to appear again over the same station in another program on Saturday, May 4 at 12:30 p. m. on the noon program. All who would like to enjoy their numbers better keep the date, time and place in mind.

Enthusiastic Meet Monday Night.
The Brotherhood of the Congregational church of Weeping Water met at the church parlors last Monday night where they enjoyed a very fine program and supper. There were over one hundred covers spread and an excellent time was had.

Suffers Severe Injury.
George Olive who after closing his cafe last Saturday night, being after midnight, was going home to the south side, when as he was passing the service station of Sterling Amick was called to by Ralph Keckler who lives near Mr. Olive, asking him if he wanted a ride home. Mr. Olive ran into the street to get on the truck of Mr. Keckler, and tripped over the curb, falling in such a way as to fracture his right knee cap. He was taken home and Dr. Lloyd Kunkel called, who cleaned the wound as it was also cut badly and was the cheek when he struck the pavement. The leg was dressed and placed in an elevated position where it will have to remain for some. The accident was very distressing and it will be some time before the patient can be out again.

Dies in Omaha.
E. M. Munson, formerly living east of Weeping Water, but who has been making his home in Omaha for the past more than thirty years, died there last week and was buried on last Sunday. Troy Davis and O. C. Hinds of Weeping Water attended the funeral. Mr. Munson was still interested in Weeping Water he being a director of the First National bank. He was one of the firm of Woods Brothers Livestock commission of Omaha.

Making Modern Service Station.
Ralph Keckler who is owner of the property adjacent to his place of business and occupied heretofore by himself and the N. L. Grubbs blacksmith shop, has had the old blacksmith shop torn down to secure the lumber and is having the other building repaired and rebuilt, which he will use to service automobiles and also install a rest room.
