MYNARD CHURCH NOTES

Mother's Day Program.
Mother's Day. With what mingled feelings we enter upon the celebration of this Mother's day.

To some it is a day of new purposes, and consecration, to others it is a time of tender recollections and empty sentimentality, to some a day of regrets and remorse, tinged with sadness and melancholy.

To others a time of thankfulness and holy remembrances.

Whether the thought of our mothers is to be more than a mere wave of feeling depends upon our own mentality, and the sacredness with which we hold the memory of our mothers. It is for each one of us to decide.

The day has marvelous possibilities for our development and its close should find us better men and women than we were at its beginning.

It would be to our disgrace if we had to have a Mother's day to remind us of our mothers, should ever be considered necessary.

Mothers today both living and departed will be made happier by this response by their loving children.

Do your mother honor by being present at the Mother's day program at the Mynard United Brethren church Sunday, May 19 at 11 o'clock. L. S. Devoe, superintendent of the Plattsmouth schools will deliver the address in memory of our mothers.

Don't fail to honor your mother on this Mother's day.

H. A. McKELVEY,

Pastor.

places in Nebraska. Among those living in and near Union to attend were Misses Nola Banning, Edith, Dorothy and Louise Foster and their mother Mrs. R. E. Foster as an honored guest.
