GRILLED ON DESERT CASE

Dallas, Tex.-Detectives doubtful of his guilt, but running down all possible evidence, grilled a 36 year 499.60 old New Mexico man in connection with the baffling desert disappearance of four Illinois tourists. The March 19 to May 19_____ 10.00 man, who officers said gave the name of Clement Tim Sikes, admitted he was a resident of Socorro, N. M., where the search for the missing party, believed slain, is centered. However, two Dallas residents who cashed travelers' checks under the 4.18 forged signature of George W. Lorius, missing East St. Louis, Ill., merchant, said Sikes was not the man who pre-7.85 sented the checks.

Detective Captain Will Fritz said 4.84 he had telephoned the sheriff at Socorro and learned the man held here left the vicinity about the same time the tourists-Lorius and his wife, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Heberer of Duquoin, Ill .- were reported

Six Dallas officers arrested the man for investigation of attempted

Searching parties, led by Governor Tingley of New Mexico, looked in Arroyos between Albuquerque and Socorro for a trace of the bodies, The search shifted to that section after 717,966.50; on $498,465 interest of articles from the missing tourists' automobile had been found.
