Edward Woods last week painted, decorated and papered the cafe which is conducted by Mrs. Lyle Kruger and since the completion of the work the place is surely looking very fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wehrlein and Mrs. Wm. Wehrlein were over to Omaha last Saturday where Mrs. Wm. Wehrlein received a new Plymouth car which she has recently purchased.

Miller Christensen and family were visiting with friends in Omaha for over the week end, returning last Sunday evening and report no rain until they arrived in Plattsmouth.

Louis C. Todd of Los Angeles, accompanied by two of his daughters were visiting in Nehawka and vicinity at well as at Murray, Union and Plattsmouth with friends, Mr. Todd having but recently driven in from the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Cisney were enjoying a very pleasant visit from Mr. Cisney's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Kinney Cisney who were for a number of days visiting here from their home at Colebridge in the northern part of the state.

Max Cunningham with some additional help was making some substantial repairs on the air dumph of the Farmers Elevator, as notwithstanding the reports of black rust there is going to be an abundance of wheat to handle in the next few weeks for there are many pieces looking very fine.

John H. Steffens and family and Albert Anderson and family were enjoying a visit last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Steffens and wife of Lorton where they visited, they being parents of Mr. Steffens and Mrs. Anderson. They report no rain there and were surprised to return to Nehawka and find so heavy a downpour as was here Sunday afternoon.

Installation of Officers Monday. The newly elected officers of the I. O. O. F. lodge and the Rebekah Assembly were duly inducted into their respective offices last Monday evening. District Deputy Grand Master George Shackley and his staff of deputy grand officers were over from Avoca.

The officers installed for the subordinate lodge of the I. O. O. F. were Henry Johnson, noble grand and C. Aubin, vice grand; John G. Wunderlich secretary and Martin Ross treasurer. The names of the appointive officers were not obtained. There was a very fine program with eats and a general good time following the session of the lodge.

Enjoyed Picnic Sunday.

Ole Lundberg and family, Verner Lundberg and family, Harold Dodson and family and Alvo Dodson and family all went to the woods north of Nehawka last Sunday where they enjoyed an outing, with all the free out of doors to enjoy which they did and enjoyed the excellent dinner which they took along. The time slipped away and before they were aware the thunder clours looked threatening and they hastened to get home. They had a neck and neck race with the storm to get under cover before the real storm broke, but as they came into town and were crossing the bridge west of town, the water came in torrents.

Very Heavy Rain Sunday.

Last Sunday there was plenty of rain at Nehawka and vicinity. In town there was about an inch and a half while west of town the rain was much heavier, the Weeping Water creek being full and overflowing its banks. While the water was not as high as when Dr. Hansen was drowned there was more water up the creek than at that time.

Had Infection of Throat.

Grover C. Hoback who is the efficient salesman at the Sheldon Department store was off for a week on account of an infection in his throat which prevented him from working. The gathering broke on last Saturday and Mr. Hoback was able to return to his labors at the store on Monday of this week.

Entertained for Sunday Dinner.

Mrs. Laura Flaischman and daughter, were hostesses to a number of the members of the Flaischman family last Sunday where they entertained for dinner at their home Clyde Flaischman and family, Jack Hull who is employed at the Clyde Flaischman farm.

Making Some Progress Now.

Mrs. John Opp who had to be returned to the hospital at Lincoln some time ago, is reported as being some better at this time. Mr. Opp was over to Lincoln to see the wife last Sunday and found her making very good progress towards recovery.

Roan Calf Strayed Away.

A roan heifer calf, weighing about 285 pounds strayed away from my place at Snyderville, four miles west of Nehawka. Any information as to its whereabouts will be gratefully received. Phone 2665. Virgil Ruby, Nehawka. Itw

Hold Directors Meeting.

On last Monday evening the officers of the Farmers Oil company of Nehawka held a meeting at which they heard the reports of the officers. One special item in the report of Manager R. C. Pollard was that the company had sold 86,949 gallons of gasoline, 13,851 of kerosene, 46,533 tractor fuel and 3,577 gallons of lubricating oils, an increase over the former year of 3,180 gallons during the six months from January 1st to July 1st. The six months business has shown a profit of $2,180.20. Now who says that hard times are worse than last year.

Visiting for Summer at Nehawka.

Grandfather and Grandmother Sturm are enjoying a visit for the summer from their grandchildren, John or Jack and Andy Yeiser of Omaha who are taking an outing and sure having some fun for we saw the boys chasing about on their bicycles hunting Indians and such on last Monday. Mrs. Yeiser with the kiddies started for Nehawka last Sunday afternoon and when the storm had gotten as far as Plattsmouth it broke in all its fury. They continued enjoying the ride in the rain, arriving in Nehawka while it was still at its height and sat in the car in front of the house until it stopped before apprising the folks of their arrival. Mrs. Yeiser returned to Omaha Monday while the young men are staying to entertain the grandparents and Uncle Victor.

EXCAVATE MAMMOTH TUSKS

Aurora, Neb.—The work of excavating and removing the tusks and other bones of a prehistoric mammoth was completed Friday on the William S. Seiver farm northwest of Marquette. Henry P. Reider of the university museum at Lincoln directed the removal.

The remains were discovered last spring on the slope of a hill on the Platte river bluffs following weeks of windy and dusty weather. Seiver reported his find to Joe E. Gunner-son and Charles A. Russell, Aurora, who have spent much time collecting historical and geological exhibits.

The Aurora chamber of commerce is financing the expense of removal and mounting. The tusks measure about ten inches in diameter at the base and are about six feet long.

BALL ENTERTAINS JUNIORS

Columbus, O.—With a new president elected and the site of next year's meeting chosen, delegates to the sixteenth annual convention of the United States Junior chamber of commerce attended an inaugural ball.

Allen Whitefield of Des Moines, Ia., chief executive of the Iowa Junior chamber, became national president of the second ballot, later defeating Clifford Hendricks of Atlanta, Ga. After considering bids from Houston, Tex., Denver, Colo., and Memphis, Tenn., for the 1936 meeting, the delegates chose the Tennessee city.

Set Trial July 22

Gerald Thompson

Gerald Thompson, confessed ravisher and murderer of Mildred Hallmark, pretty cafe hostess of Peoria, Ill., was spirited away to a secret destination by authorities to avoid mob violence after July 22 was fixed as the date of his trial.

Elmwood News

Clifford Preston and wife are spending the Fourth in Lincoln where they are celebrating at Antelope park.

Ed Earnest of the Farmers Grain and Oil Co., was looking after some business matters in Lincoln last Tuesday afternoon.

Louis Bornemeier was out of the cream station last Tuesday and was looking after the plowing of some corn which he has.

T. C. Sherwood was called to Plattsmouth to look after some business matters at the court house a few days ago, driving over to the county seat in his car.

Mrs. Lucy Lyle, manager of the Elmwood telephone exchange and her operator, Miss Opal Thimman, were over to Plattsmouth last Tuesday where they were enjoying the county picnic of telephone employees.

While Harry Kroll was working with the crew which was loading machinery used by the paving crew a long rod swiped him in the side, causing a fracture of three of his ribs. While the injury was very painful the ribs are healing, but still quite painful.

The fire fighters of the city of Elmwood were in conference at their meeting place last Monday evening, having some business matters to look after. However they did not remain in session long as the evening was rather warm.

Reports have come to Elmwood of the illness and death of Mrs. Haith who with the husband conducted a bakery here some time ago and who later moved to Talmage, and where Mrs. Haith became ill and was taken to the St. Mary's hospital in Nebraska City where after an operation she died. A number were attending the funeral from here.

Taking Census of Elmwood.

That he might know for sure the number of people in Elmwood, George Wilson was taking a census of the town, going to all the houses in town, both business and residences to ascertain the exact number and the names of the people who reside in town. Mr. Wilson is being very careful in taking the number of the people as it is of much concern to him to know the exact number of people in town. He is expecting to be through with the work by the middle of the week.

A Little More Work to Do.

The enterprising young men have still a small amount of work to do on their new airplane, the Maxwell House, and are doing it as they find time to put in on the completion of the big bird.

Pass Ordinance Monday.

The city council of Elmwood at their regular meeting last Monday, considered an ordinance regulating the sale of beer which was given the third reading and passed by a majority vote. The argument in favor of the passage of the ordinance was that the sale of beer in other towns and not in Elmwood, was keeping trade and business from the city. However the bill will lay over for a week before it is signed. The state has the matter of licensing the places and the city regulating the sale.

Undergoes Operation at Lincoln.

Mrs. Emil Myers of Fairbury and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gillett who was visiting for a week in Elmwood with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gillett, was taken very severely ill with an affection of her liver and by advice of her physician was immediately taken to the Bryan Memorial hospital in Lincoln, where it was decided that an operation was necessary for the removal of pus which gathered. The operation was performed last Tuesday morning. The parents hastened to the hospital to be with the daughter. While they were away Henry Westfall was looking after the cream station.

Making Repairs at Farm.

The farm which was recently purchased, the McCrory estate, where Iva McCrory has been living for a number of years, has been needing some repairs as to the outbuildings as well as the house and the same are being made by Donald Gonzales with other help. However more extensive repairs will be made later.

Visiting in Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Greene were visiting for over the week end and for a few days during this week with friends and relatives at Missouri Valley, Iowa, driving in their car and while there were guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Dearing.

Seeing the Northwest.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cobb, president of the American Exchange bank of Elmwood, accompanied by Charles

J. Howard Davis Attorney at Law Plattsmouth

Aldrich as one of the party as well as their driver, departed last week for Buffalo Gap, North Dakota, where they were spending a week, and returning home on Wednesday of this week, enjoying a fine trip as well as seeing much country.

Many Attend Funeral at Lincoln.

The Rev. Father John Bickert, a priest of the Catholic church at Heartwell while on a vacation with his housekeeper and her two children, met with a serious automobile collision at Elmo, Mo., which resulted in the death of Father Bickert and the serious injury of the housekeeper. The funeral of Father Bickert was held at Lincoln last Wednesday morning and was attended by a large number of the friends from Elmwood and vicinity and where he spent most of his life until he entered the ministry. He was a brother of George Bickert and other members of the family. He was a very earnest and devoted Christian and has many friends who were pained to learn of his death.

Visited Here the Fourth.

John McFall, brother of Mrs. George Hall and the McFall sisters who left Elmwood some thirty-four years ago when a young man and who has not returned until this July 3rd when he and wife drove in from Ontario, Oregon to visit for over the Fourth and as well for a time longer. They will be guests of the sisters here and will drive to Brunswick later to visit at the home of a brother, George McFall, who resides there and will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Hall and the McFall sisters.

The visit at Brunswick for Mr. and Mrs. Hall will be of more than special interest as they will visit their son, Sumner Hall who also resides there, and on their return home will come via Pender where they will visit at the home of a brother of Mr. George Hall, Mr. Sumner Hall, sr. They are all enjoying this visit very much and should, as thirty-four years of their lives have slipped away during which they have not been able to enjoy each others company and it is like a bit of heaven that they can all see each other again.

Enjoyed Family Gathering.

Coming like a story from some old fairy book was a story of a gathering of the family of the late William De Les Dernier, prominent attorney of Cass county a few years ago.

At the age of twenty-four years Chester De Les Dernier was a student in the University of Nebraska and was completing his second year when he disappeared and for some two years was looking here and there, having a disposition to travel and see things and places. After some two years he found himself employed by the U. S. government in the capacity of a member of their great secret service work, and with many a mission here, there and elsewhere, sometimes rounding up some smugglers of narcotics and other goods and being detailed to work on many things and to which position he has stuck during the years and is still located in San Francisco.

During the time he has been away the father and one brother have passed away. The mother has gone to Sugar City, Colo., where she has been making her home with a daughter, Mrs. Wm. Langhorst and where she still is making her home. Two other brothers have found their homes, Reynolds at Kansas City and Harold at Tacoma, Wash.; Stella a sister, now Mrs. McNamee, at Lincoln; Glady, Mrs. Langhorst, at Sugar City, Colorado, and Betty, now Mrs. Penterman at Fort Dodge, Iowa, where the story of the family gathering which was held at Kansas City at the home of a brother, was held on June 20th.

Chester De Les Dernier, or Chet, as he was called when a lad, conceiving a family gathering after he has been away for so many years and by the nature of his work kept from the world and home, called the other members of the family and asked that they attend the family meeting at Kansas City and also saying that they would get a formal written invitation containing fare for attending the gathering. However, the story goes that he secured an airplane and took the mother and sister, Mrs. Langhorst, via air to Kansas City and returned them home again.

Mr. De Les Dernier will have completed his period of service the coming November when he will be removed from the service on a very substantial pension following his twenty-seven years in the service. Chester went out as a young man in the full vigor of young manhood and has given of his service his very life for over a quarter of a century and retires a man past the meridian of life and is planning another family gathering at which a most Merry Christmas will be celebrated and from that on will expect to see more of the family and especially of the dear mother which to him, and to many others, is the dearest thing in this world.

FALLS CITY CLUB RAIDED

Falls City, Neb.—A party at the Falls City country club was brought to an abrupt halt early Sunday morning as federal, state, county and city officers combined forces for a surprise raid.

A quantity of alcohol and beer was confiscated and Charles Jahns, club operator, was ordered to appear in Sheriff Irvin Gates' office Monday morning. The several hundred revelers were not molested as the officers conducted their search of the building.

Gates led the raid. He was accompanied by Deputy Sheriff Ramsey, Police Chief Ankrom, two state officers and two federal men. The liquor was loaded into a motor truck and brought to Falls City. A dice machine also was confiscated.

County Attorney Falloon listed seven charges which might arise from the raid. They are: Evasion of revenue tax under state and federal laws; selling liquor without a federal license; selling liquor without a state license; selling tobacco without a license; operating a restaurant without a license and operating a gambling device.
