Death of Former Resident of Cass County

Mrs. Miles Standish Dies at Almena, Kansas, Where She Made Her Home in Recent Years.

Rachel Arvilla McNurlin was born near Tabor, Iowa, October 28, 1861, and was called from this life at Almena, Kansas, July 6, 1935.

She came with her parents into the young state of Nebraska, at a very early age, where she grew to womanhood, married, reared her family, and maintained a wonderful farm home and gathered about her a host of close friends and neighbors, most of whom have preceded her into the broader life eternal.

Miss McNurlin was given in marriage to Mr. Miles Standish in January, 1883. Her husband preceded her in death nine years ago.

To this union six children were born, three boys and three girls. Mrs. Standish was of a modest, retiring yet cheerful disposition, her first thought always being in the interest of others.

She early accepted the Christian faith and ever remained true to the principles of her belief. She was a member of the First Christian church of Holton, Kansas, and attended its services as often as her health permitted.

She is survived by all her children: Mr. Iver Standish, Almena, Kansas; Mrs. Myrtle Greenlee, Holton, Kansas; Mr. Fred Standish, Almena, Kansas; Mrs. Winnie Sorg, Sabetha, Kansas; and Mr. Leonard Standish, Holton, Kans. Also one brother, John McNurlin, Plattsmouth, Neb.; sixteen grandchildren and two great grandchildren, with a host of friends who will miss her.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Bess and interment made in the Holton cemetery.

Music was furnished by Mrs. K. C. Harris, accompanied by Miss Marjorie Bess.

Pall bearers were: Clarence Hogg, Harry Cabbage, William A. Brown, Tom Lyles, Oscar Piper and Vernon Greenlee.

MARRIED AT COURT HOUSE

The marriage of Miss Josephine E. Ban and Bernard W. Sommers, both of Omaha, took place on Friday afternoon at the office of County Judge A. H. Duxbury at the Cass county court house. The bridal couple and friends after the wedding returned to Omaha to receive the congratulations of the friends.

Discuss Plans for Additional Governm't Work

Setup of WPA Discussed at Lincoln; County to Contend for Right for Citizens to oWk.

A meeting was held at Lincoln Friday to discuss the matter of future employment in Nebraska on government projects set up under the WPA and as to the scope that will be filled by the FERA labor.

Mrs. C. A. Rosencrans, who has had charge of the relief work in Cass county has been selected as county certifying officer, but whether Cass county labor is to further benefit under new work contracts remains a matter of doubt.

There are some twenty-three counties of the state which took over their own relief burden and carried this in the last fall and winter and in a very successful manner, not participating in the FERA.

These counties are now threatened with being refused participation in any work on river or highway projects in which federal money is expended, the demand being that all work be done by FERA labor even if necessary to bring outside labor into counties where they may be a surplus that will not be engaged because of the fact of the non-participation in the FERA.

The counties that are affected in this part of the state are Cass and Nemaha both of which counties have carried their load of relief themselves in the past hard fall and winter.

The matter will be taken up in the hope that the differences may be ironed out and the government give recognition to the counties that have tried to save the federal government from expenditures for their people.

RECEIVES PLEASANT NEWS

Word has been received here of the graduation of Donald Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Wilson, Fort Pierce, Fla.

Improvements Made at Platts Water Plant

Install Laboratory for Taking Chemical Analysis Daily of Iron and Manganese Content.

A complete laboratory for taking chemical analyses daily to determine the iron and manganese content of the water supply has been installed by the local water works. These two chemicals are prevalent in well waters over the middle west and while harmless are troublesome when present in the tap water, as black manganese dioxide, chiefly, as the present method of filtration removes 95% of the iron, at the filters.

A study of conditions made recently by Chemist E. C. Goehring caused him to make certain recommendations which have been carried out and the installation of an aerator on the effluent pipe from the filters to the clear reservoirs a few days ago will further improve the quality of the water.

In addition to the regular removal of the manganese sediment that collects in the clear water reservoirs and system periodically, the reservoirs were given a white spray which not only greatly adds to the treatment of the water, but with the aerator presents an attractive appearance.

A continuation of the daily tests at the plant laboratory will be carried out to determine further methods of improvement.

The management extends a cordial invitation to water customers and visitors to inspect the pumping station, see the water as it comes from the wells, the removal of iron by purely mechanical methods without the use of chemicals thru the filters and find out the interesting manner in which the water is pumped by the three pumps each having a capacity of 1,000,000 gallons daily.

Early Harvest Returns

John C. Browne, manager of the Farmers Elevator company, of Wabash, reports that the early threshing yields in this community are showing yields in varying amounts from 5 to 15 bushels per acre and testing from 51 to 56 pounds to the bushel. This seems slightly lower than at other places not so far removed from here, but the lowest we have heard of anywhere in this territory was three bushels and the highest thus far 40 bushels, with a test of 61.

Be Sure They Properly Cleanse the Blood

YOUR kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as nature intended—fail to remove impurities that poison the system when retained.

Then you may suffer nagging backache, dizziness, scanty or too frequent urination, getting up at night, swollen limbs; feel nervous, miserable—all upset.
