

The Plattsmouth Journal.

Kittenball League Starts Second Round

Schedule Completed and Opening Game Tonight Between Fords and U. S. Engineers.

The schedule committee of the kittenball league has completed their drawing for the second round of the season and which will carry the season to September 13th. The first game of the new round this evening should be one of the best of the season, the Ford V-8's and the U. S. Engineer, picked as two of the strongest teams in the loop.

- First Week
 July 22—Ford V-8's vs. U. S. Engineers.
 July 23—Norfolk Packers vs. South Park Rowdies.
 July 25—Mynard vs. Nu-Way Champions.
 July 26—Donat's Peerless vs. Chevrolet; Cardinals vs. Home Dairy.
 July 29—Ford V-8's vs. Norfolk Packers.
 July 30—U. S. Engineers vs. South Park Rowdies.
 Aug. 1—Mynard vs. Cardinals.
 Aug. 2—Nu-Way Champions vs. Chevrolet; Donat's Peerless vs. Home Dairy.
Third Week
 Aug. 5—Ford V-8's vs. South Park Rowdies.
 Aug. 6—U. S. Engineers vs. Nu-Way Champions.
 Aug. 8—Norfolk Packers vs. Cardinals.
 Aug. 9—Mynard vs. Donat's Peerless; Chevrolet vs. Home Dairy.
Fourth Week
 Aug. 12—South Park Rowdies vs. Cardinals; Ford V-8's vs. Mynard.
 Aug. 13—U. S. Engineers vs. Norfolk Packers.
 Aug. 15—South Park Rowdies vs. Chevrolet.
 Aug. 16—Nu-Way Champions vs. Home Dairy; Donat's Peerless vs. Cardinals.
Fifth Week
 Aug. 19—Ford V-8's vs. Nu-Way Champions; Chevrolet vs. Cardinals.
 Aug. 20—Norfolk Packers vs. Home Dairy.
 Aug. 22—South Park Rowdies vs. Mynard.
 Aug. 23—U. S. Engineers vs. Donat's Peerless; Norfolk Packers vs. Chevrolet.
Sixth Week
 Aug. 26—Ford V-8's vs. Donat's Peerless; South Park Rowdies vs. Home Dairy.
 Aug. 27—Norfolk Packers vs. Mynard.
 Aug. 29—U. S. Engineers vs. Chevrolet.
 Aug. 30—Nu-Way Champions vs. Cardinals; Ford V-8's vs. Home Dairy.
Seventh Week
 Sept. 2—U. S. Engineers vs. Cardinals; South Park Rowdies vs. Donat's Peerless.
 Sept. 3—Mynard vs. Home Dairy.
 Sept. 5—Ford V-8's vs. Chevrolet.
 Sept. 6—Norfolk Packers vs. Nu-Way Champions; U. S. Engineers vs. Mynard.
Eighth Week
 Sept. 9—Nu-Way Champions vs. Donat's Peerless; Ford V-8's vs. Cardinals.
 Sept. 10—Mynard vs. Chevrolet.
 Sept. 12—Norfolk Packers vs. Donat's Peerless.
 Sept. 13—U. S. Engineers vs. Home Dairy; South Park Rowdies vs. Nu-Way Champions.

SHOWER FOR BRIDE-TO-BE

Mrs. Otto Lushinsky entertained very pleasantly on Friday afternoon at her home on Wintersteen hill for Miss Maxine Edwards, whose marriage to George R. Lushinsky, Jr., is to take place in the early fall. The occasion was in the nature of a miscellaneous shower for the bride-to-be and who was presented with a large number of very handsome presents that will be reminders of the friends in her new home. At the close of the afternoon dainty refreshments were served to add to the pleasures of the occasion.

DRAWS DOWN FINE

Saturday afternoon Chief of Police Libersal placed under arrest George Tillman, who was charged with intoxication, the police having been notified that he had rather noisy tone at one of the local beer taverns. The case was heard Saturday evening at Judge C. L. Graves gave him a fine of $15 and costs which was paid.

FUNERAL OF JOHN WARGA

The funeral services of the late John Warga was held on Monday at the Holy Rosary church on west Pearl street and very largely attended by the many old friends and neighbors from this city as well as from the community south of here where he had made his home in later years. The requiem mass was celebrated by Father J. J. Kazmarek, pastor of the church and following the services the body was borne to the last resting place in the Catholic cemetery west of this city.

The large attendance and the floral tributes attested the deep regard that has been felt in the community for Mr. Warga and his family.

Adolph Geise is Called to the Last Long Rest

After Lingered Illness Well Known Resident of This City Passed Away Late Saturday.

Adolph Geise, 68, one of the well known residents of this community, passed away on Saturday night at 11 o'clock at a hospital at Omaha, following an illness of several weeks duration and during the last few days of which his death had been hourly expected as he failed very rapidly.

Mr. Geise had been a resident of Plattsmouth since 1916 and was a man held in the highest esteem by all those with whom he had come in contact, his genial and pleasant disposition being marked and to those who have known him he will be greatly missed.

Mr. Geise has largely been identified with the business life of the community and up until his last illness had been in active charge of his popular sandwich shop and refreshment tavern.

The deceased is survived by the widow, one daughter, Mrs. Ray Herold of this city as well as several step-daughters. His son was killed in the services of the United States in the world war in 1918, while serving in France.

RETURN FROM CHICAGO

Dr. and Mrs. Joe J. Stibal have returned from Chicago and both feel fit and ready for some good hard work. Mrs. Stibal with the assistance of a wonderful map of Down Town Chicago, put out by the Standard Oil Co., was able to see the most important places of interest with ease. The old car worked perfectly and as far as traffic was concerned, it was thick but the magnificent time signal system makes driving safe.

Dr. Stibal has had a thoro review of the up to date pointers in 17 scientific subjects and feels that the time was well spent, and states that he is going to specialize in his own line now more than ever because one can not be a doctor of everything and are one amounting to anything. There was a gathering of over 100 doctors of all the healing professions from 24 states in the union and three foreign countries.

ABBOTT-WILSON

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Abbott of Nebraska City announce the engagement of their daughter, Annabel, to William Lewis Wilson, son of Mrs. H. D. Wilson, also of Nebraska City. Miss Abbott attended the University of Nebraska where she was affiliated with Alpha Phi. Mr. Wilson attended Dartmouth college and Northwestern university. He is a member of Delta Upsilon.

No definite date has been set for the wedding.

ENJOYING VACATION

Joseph F. Hadraba and children, Frances, Edward and Mary Ann, departed Tuesday for Mandan, North Dakota, where they will spend a vacation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Jiran, the latter a sister of Mr. Hadraba. They expect to visit the many points of interest in that section of the country before their return.

Sketch of Life of Mrs. George Weber of Stuart

Stuart Advocate Gives Interesting Story of Life of Long Time Resident of Northern Nebraska.

The following account of the life and funeral services of Mrs. George Weber, of Stuart, Nebraska, is taken from the Advocate of that place. Mrs. Weber was the mother of Mrs. John Bergmann and Joseph Weber of this city.

"Mrs. George Weber of Stuart was laid to rest in the St. Boniface Catholic cemetery here this morning. A huge gathering of relatives and friends followed the remains from the family home just southwest of Stuart to the St. Boniface Catholic church and thence to the cemetery.

"Pall bearers were: Frank Bigelow, T. E. McGuire, John Moeller, Joseph Wedge, P. E. Kozisek and Rudolph Kramer. The Christian Mothers, of which organization Mrs. Weber was a devoted member, were present en masse.

"Requiem High Mass was read at the church by the Rev. Father J. P. Hill. The Rev. Father Barry of Long Pine was present in the sanctuary.

"Mrs. Weber was suddenly stricken by a heart attack Monday evening July 15, 1935 at her home. The ambulance was called and she was borne to the hospital where all efforts to save her life failed and she passed away the same evening.

Obituary

"Mary Bahl was born May 13, 1872 in Cham, Bavaria, Germany. She came to this country at the age of fifteen years and at nineteen was married on October 5, 1891 to Mr. Geo. Weber at Columbus, Neb. In 1900 the family moved from Plattsmouth to near Stuart, and resided in Sand Creek precinct northeast of the town for twenty-two years. From there they moved to the present family home southwest of Stuart where they lived for fourteen years together.

"Thirteen children were born to the union and twelve of them were in attendance at the funeral, along with their father. One daughter, Mrs. Mary Nachtmann died seven years ago. The remaining children are Lena (Mrs. Joseph Winkler) of Emmet, Neb.; Sophia (Mrs. John Shald) of Stuart; Frank and George Jr., both of Long Pine, Neb.; Edward of Stuart; John of Crookston, Neb.; Clara (Mrs. John Bergmann) of Plattsmouth, Neb.; Joseph of Plattsmouth; Sr. M. Carla and Sr. M. George of Milwaukee, Wis.; and Ottilla, at home.

"At the time of her death Mrs. Weber was 63 years, 2 months and 2 days old.

"There remain two sisters, Mrs. Anton Wallinger and Mrs. John Braun, Sr., both of Stuart; a brother Joseph Bahl of Stuart, and a brother Alois Bahl of Newport, Neb.; and two sisters and two brothers in Germany. There are also 32 grandchildren.

"Mr. Weber was a lady of Christian character and of amiable disposition, and her energy was an inspiration to many. She will be sorely missed by her husband, children, other loved ones and many true friends. The bereft have the sincere sympathy of the entire community. The entire populace was shocked and saddened by Mrs. Weber's sudden passing."

NEBRASKA CITY PEOPLE WED

On Saturday afternoon at the office of County Judge A. H. Duxbury occurred the marriage of Miss Viola Virginia Sammons and Mr. Milo Arthur Longwell, both of Nebraska City.

The marriage lines were read by Judge Duxbury in his usual impressive manner and witnessed by Mrs. L. R. Sammons and Thomas R. Sammons, relatives of the bride. Following the wedding they returned to Nebraska City.

VISITS AT ST. LOUIS

Warren Reed is spending some time at St. Louis where he is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. S. A. Reed, and his aunt, Mrs. Josephine Bogges, and while there will have the opportunity of visiting the many points of interest in and near that city.

PLAY AT LINCOLN

The members of the Plattsmouth tennis team were at Lincoln Sunday to play with the best of the Lincoln club in several interesting matches. The Lincoln group held the edge 8 to 1 on the Plattsmouth netsters, however.

The scores of the matches were as follows:
 Larson-Griffith, 6-2, 6-0 (L).
 Mason-Mills, 7-5, 6-2 (L).
 Root-Warner, 8-6, 6-4 (L).
 Giles-Riddle, 6-2, 6-1 (L).
 Fitch-Bruce, 7-5, 6-0 (L).
 Comstock-Welsh, 6-3, 6-4 (L).
 Doubles:
 Miles-Miles (L), won from Mason-Larson (P.) 6-2, 7-5.
 Riddle-Warner (L) won from Root-Giles, (P) 6-1, 6-2.
 Comstock-Fitch won from Bruce-Welsh (L) 6-3, 10-8.

Sarpy County Young Man Dies While Swimming

Edward Kelley, 17, of Avery, Stricken While in the Waters at Plamore Park Pool Monday.

Monday evening Sheriff Homer Sylvester and Deputy Sheriff Tom Walling were called to Plamore park, southeast of La Platte where the death of Edward Kelley, 17, of Avery was reported.

The young man, who was not an expert swimmer had ventured out into the deeper water of the swimming pool and was suddenly missed by the other bathers at the beach and the alarm was at once given and assistance called to try and rescue him. It was not until close to 9:30 that the body was discovered by Robert Fitch, Cass county surveyor, who had joined the searching party, a hook locating the body and which was brought to the surface of the pool.

Efforts were made to revive the young man, but without success as he had apparently been dead for some time. It is thought that perhaps he had suffered a heart attack from the water and which caused his death, as no water was recovered from the lungs altho the body was thoroughly pumped.

The dead youth was later taken on to South Omaha where funeral will be held.

ENTERTAIN FRIENDS

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Buhs from Pekin, Ill., were visitors at the home of W. H. Meisinger and family for a week, coming July 12. Last Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Meisinger had a gathering of old friends and relatives at their home and had a werner roast and lots of other good things to eat.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Taylor, F. J. Hennings, Adam Meisinger, A. F. Meisinger, Herman Hennings and son, Harlan, Clarence Meisinger and daughter, Lucille, Louie Born, S. G. Buhs and hostess, W. H. Meisinger and son, Merrill.

On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Buhs departed on the Burlington at 9:02 and a number of friends and relatives were at the station to bid them farewell. They were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Meisinger and son, Merrill, Mrs. Allie Meisinger and son, Marion, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Taylor and daughter, Ha, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schiessl and Mrs. Louie Born, Miss Thelma Kohrell.

CHILD DROWNS AT LOUISVILLE

Janice Lorensen, 5, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lorensen, Weeping Water, drowned in the sand-pit lake at the state recreational park at Louisville on Wednesday night at about 8:30.

The little girl was night bathing with a group of Weeping Water people including her father. She was missed in the darkness and a search made by the frantic members of the party failed to reveal any trace and the members of the group realized that the hand of tragedy had fallen on their pleasure party.

The body was recovered by Glen Pankonin, Louisville, in deep water off the north shore of the lake about twenty minutes after the child was missed. Dr. H. W. Worthman and several assistants attempted resuscitation, but without success.

Funeral of August Stander Held at Manley

One of Largest Held in That Section of County With Friends From Many Points Present.

The funeral services of the late August Stander, 73, was held on Tuesday morning at the St. Patrick's Catholic church at Manley, where for many years he had been a worshiper since the building of the church structure.

The attendance was the largest that has been gathered to pay the last respects to the departed friend and the church structure was inadequate to hold the old friends and neighbors from all parts of the county.

The requiem high mass was celebrated by the Rev. Father Patrick Harte, pastor of the church, who was assisted by Father Hennessey, of Palmyra, a former pastor of Manley who came to attend the services of his old friend.

The choir, composed of girls from the St. John's church of Plattsmouth sang the mass with two solo numbers by John J. Cloidt of this city. "Sweetly and Tenderly Jesus is Calling" and "Face to Face."

The burial was at the College Hill cemetery southeast of Louisville where rest others of this pioneer family of Cass county.

The deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Stander who crossed the Missouri river at this city on May 31, 1859 on their westward journey from Wisconsin, they later settling on a farm in Louisville precinct and where on March 20, 1862, August Stander was born and has made his home in Cass county for his lifetime. He was one of the most extensive land owners in Cass county and led a life of energy and leaves a fine heritage to the members of the family that he leaves behind.

The survivors are five daughters, Mrs. Will Sieker and Mrs. Albert Sieker, of Elmwood; Mrs. Aaron Rauth, York; Sister Mary Redempta, of Sioux Falls, South Dakota; Sister Alexine, Omaha; two sons, Andrew of Weeping Water and John of Manley. There is also one brother, Frank H. Stander of Omaha and two sisters, Mrs. William Erhart and Mrs. Chris Mockenhaupt of Manley surviving.

IN SERIOUS CONDITION

From Wednesday's Daily
 Charles E. Hartford, former city treasurer and for many years one of the prominent figures in the city activities, is very critically ill and was taken this morning to Omaha where he was placed in a hospital for treatment.

Mr. Hartford has been gradually failing for the past year and his condition grew so grave today that it was found necessary that he be taken to Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Curien, the latter a sister, of Boone, Iowa, arrived this morning to be with the family.

PROVIDE ADDITIONAL SERVICE

The Missouri Pacific has arranged additional service at their local station that will be much appreciated by the patrons of the company. The railroad has placed an additional clerk at the station who will handle the business for southbound passenger train due here at 5:27 p. m. caring for the sale of tickets and the flagging of the train for passengers from this point for the south. This is one of the fine new air conditioner and strictly modern trains of the system and its stopping here makes it a great improvement in the schedule for the traveler for the south.

WILL UNDERGO EXAMINATION

From Tuesday's Daily
 This afternoon George R. Lushinsky, popular clerk at the Hinky-Dinky store, was taken to Omaha where he will be examined by a specialist in regard to his condition. George has not been well for several days and his case in the last few days has been such that it is thought that an examination will be necessary to determine the cause of the illness. It is thought that he may be suffering from an approaching attack of appendicitis.

RECEIVES APPOINTMENT

Sterling Amick, one of the leading young democrats of Cass county, has been announced as the new postmaster for the city of Weeping Water. The appointment has been pending for some time as the various candidates took their examination here in the first part of the year.

Mr. Amick is one of the popular young men of the central portion of Cass county and has been largely identified with the business activities of Weeping Water since reaching maturity. He is also one of the leaders in the American Legion in Cass county and his friends who are many in all sections will be pleased to learn of his selection. Mr. Amick will make an excellent official for the Weeping Water patrons there is no doubt.

Rain Brings Relief from Heat in This Section

Southern Part of Cass County Reported with Heavy Rains and 40.1 Inches in Plattsmouth.

The dry period that has covered the past several weeks, was broken Tuesday afternoon by a fine rain that will be of much benefit to the corn and as well lowering the temperature very much.

The storm broke here shortly after 5 o'clock and the rain was very heavy for several minutes and accompanied by a heavy wind that swept the rain along in sheets.

South of this city the rain was much heavier and from the outskirts of the fall ranged from an inch on to two inches reported from the vicinity of Union and Nehawka and east toward the Weeping Water neighborhoods.

North and east of this city and along the Missouri river the wind reported to have created considerable damage to the trees and small buildings. The Kansas City Bridge Co., doing river improvement work north of the city on the Iowa side of the river had a battle with the wind that did some damage to their equipment but nothing of a nature to seriously halt the work.

Residents along the Missouri river east and south of the city also report that the wind tore out small trees and did minor damage during the short time that the wind raged.

In Omaha a very heavy rain and electrical storm did more or less damage and two homes, a street car and a grocery store are reported as victims of lightning bolts from the storm.

ATTEND 4-H CAMP

A group of the Plattsmouth girls are in attendance at the 4-H camp that is being held this week at Camp Brewster, a district gathering at which are present young people from Cass, Otoe, Sarpy and Douglas counties. The members of the camp arrived Sunday and will carry on their activities until Wednesday. Those from this city to attend are: Anna Marie Rea, Ruth Ann Hatt, Kathryn and Helen Barkus, Elizabeth Ann Wiles, Rosalyn Mark, Beany McKisick.

The local girls represent a number of clubs and will have a fine report of their activities to give them when they return home.

VERY HAPPY EVENT

Sunday morning at 7 o'clock at the Methodist hospital at Omaha there was born to Mr. and Mrs. William W. Wetenkamp, Jr., of Mynard, a fine seven pound daughter. The mother and little one are doing nicely and the occasion has brought the greatest of happiness to all of the members of the family circle, Grandpa William Wetenkamp, Sr., being able to still smoke his pipe. Mrs. Wetenkamp was formerly Miss Mary Adam of this city and the little one is a granddaughter also of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Adam. The little lady has been christened Joan Agnes.

Mrs. Hattie Kirker, who has been visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Long, north of Pacific Junction, returned Friday after a most delightful stay on the farm.

Adolph Geise is Laid to Last Rest Tuesday

Services at Sattler Funeral Home Are Largely Attended by the Many Friends in City.

The funeral of Adolph Geise, a resident here for a great many years, was held on Tuesday afternoon at the chapel of the Sattler funeral home, where had gathered a very large number of the old time friends and associates to pay their last tributes of respect and esteem to the memory of the departed.

The Rev. G. A. Pahl, pastor of the St. Paul's Evangelical church, had charge of the services and brought to the members of the family circle words of consolation in the calling away of their loved one.

The male quartet composed of Frank A. Cloidt, R. W. Knorr, Rev. Pahl, and L. D. Hlatt, gave three of the old hymns during the service, "Rock of Ages," "Going Down the Valley" and "It Is Well With My Soul."

The members of the Sons of Herman of which Mr. Geise had been secretary for a long period of years, were present at the service to pay their last honors to his memory.

The interment was at the Oak Hill cemetery west of this city.

The pall bearers at the funeral were from the old friends, August Rakow, Edward Gabelman, John E. Schutz, Glen Vallery, Henry Timm and B. G. Wurl.

Adolph Geise was born April 28, 1867, in the province of Schleswig-Holstein, Germany and growing to manhood in his native land later came to the United States where he has since made his home. He came to Plattsmouth in 1916 and has since been a well known and highly esteemed resident of the community. He is survived by his wife, one daughter, Mrs. Ray Herold, two step-daughters, Mrs. Harold Schafer and Mrs. Ellsworth Taylor, four grandchildren, Darlene, Ernest, Raymond, and Kenneth Herold, all of this city, also one brother, August Geise, Emerson, Neb. A wife and one son have preceded him in death.

COURT ISSUES ORDER

From Wednesday's Daily
 This morning in the district court Judge D. W. Livingston entered a number of orders in motions arising from the recent sale of delinquent tax property in this city in the case of the City of Plattsmouth vs. John E. Hazzard, et al.

The court entered an order setting aside deeds obtained by purchasers to west half lot 2, block 33; lots 7 and 8, block 59, lot 12, block 93. Plaintiff was given leave to secure service on the Standard Loan & Building association, title holders, as the defendants were not served in the first action with notice.

In the sale of lots 10 and 11 in block 40, stipulation was entered allowing purchaser to withdraw amount paid and deed ordered reassigned to city.

The court also sustained objection of Attorney J. M. Leyda to the sale of lots 10, 11 and 12 in block 59 and deed was ordered set aside by the court.

The properties set aside will again be subject to sale by the city unless the matter is adjusted as to the taxes due.

VISIT IN WEST

Word has been received that Mrs. William Alexander and children will be in Lincoln soon to be house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mulliner. Mrs. Alexander was formerly Miss Helen Herold. She will also visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Herold, and sister, Mrs. A. V. Larson of Peru.—Lincoln Journal.

UNDERGO TONSILECTOMY

From Tuesday's Daily.
 This morning Delores Ruse was operated on at the office of a local physician for the removal of her tonsils as was also Donald Adams. The patients came through the tonsilectomy in fine shape and both patients were returned to their homes to recuperate for a short time.