MANLEY NEWS

Miss Anna Rauth, of Omaha, and John Murphy were in Manley for the funeral of the late August Stander last Tuesday.

James M. Carper and wife and Mrs. Edward Murphy, of Lincoln, were here to attend the funeral of the late August Stander.

Mrs. Harry Haws departed for Clay Center, Kansas, early last week, where she went to cook for threshers who were threshing the wheat crop on their place there.

Joe Habel returned home last week from Clay Center, Kansas, at which place he had been assisting with the wheat harvest on the farm of Harry Haws and wife.

Buddy Bergman was spending a number of days at Camp Brewster, near Omaha, which is a very popular camping and recreation place for the youth and women folks of eastern Nebraska.

Mrs. Fred Fleischman was going into his chicken house after dark, he felt a spider's web come across his face and placing his hand to his face to remove the web, he brushed it in such manner that the enraged spider bit him severely on his right wrist, inflicting a wound that quickly became inflamed. However, Fred was quick to give treatment, applying a generous quantity of iodine to counteract the poison of the spider's bite. In spite of this, the wrist has continued quite sore.

Mrs. O. E. McDonald was visiting for a number of days during the past week with her daughter, Mrs. William Meyers and family, who make their home near Ashland, all enjoying a very pleasant visit together.

Uncle Chris Mockenhaupt, who recently celebrated his 80th birthday, and who has not been in the best of health for some time, was quite poorly again last Tuesday evening, but is feeling some better at this time.

Little Pauline Tighe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tighe, of Jackson, has been visiting at the John C. Tighe home and as well at the home of another uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Sheldon, of Nehawka.

Father Hennessey, former priest of St. Patrick's church here, was in Manley to assist with the funeral service of the late August Stander. Father Hennessey is now located at Palmyra, as parish priest over a large Catholic congregation.

The chorus of the St. Johns Catholic church of Plattsmouth, were in Manley last Tuesday, coming over to sing at the funeral of the late August Stander. John Cloyd, a soloist with the choir, also sang a number of selections at the obsequies.

Teddy Harms, Jr., is spending some time visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. Elmer Eberding, of Topeka, Kansas. Mr. Harms took the train to Lincoln, where he was placed on a train for Topeka, where he was met by the sister and where he is expecting to spend several weeks.

David Brann was at Louisville on Tuesday afternoon, and as the storm came up quickly, he hastened to return home. On the way, the wiring of his car got wet and left him stalled right in the midst of the downpour. Later, he was able to get the coil to working and came on home.

A number of the young people of Manley and vicinity were attending and enjoying a picnic last Sunday at the North Branch church located southwest of Avoca. It is said some of the picnickers ate too heartily of the fried chicken and suffered considerable discomfort as a result of their indulgence. However, they soon recovered and are now ready for more.

A survey of the wheat yields in this neighborhood as shown by the threshing machine figures, give varying amounts from six to 35 bushels to the acre, and testing from 45 to 62 pounds to the struck bushel. While these figures are a bit disappointing, considering early season prospects, in view of the heavy rains that prevailed for a time, they may be considered very good and fully up to the average prevailing over this part of the state this summer.

The pallbearers selected to officiate at the funeral of August Stander last Tuesday were chosen from his life-long friends and associates, being Theo. Harms, William Sheehan, John Johns, John Bickart, John C. Rauth and Henry Hohman.

Twin Bill in Softball Loop Attracts Many

Chevrolets Win From Donats, 3 to 1 and Home Dairy From Cardinals 11 to 2.

From Saturday's Daily
The warm weather brought out a large group of the kitchball fans last evening to enjoy the double header arranged in the local loop, in which the Chevrolets were able to turn back the Donats' 3 to 1 while the Home Dairy was the winner over the Cardinals by the score of 11 to 2.

The first game was one that was close and both the teams were scoreless until the fifth when the Chevrolets made their three tallies. Dew safe on a fielders choice, McClanahan singling, Dr. Ryan being given a base on balls and Rod ending the agony with a double that scored his team mates.

In the seventh inning Ralph Wehrbeing of the Donats leaned on one of McClanahan's slants for a home run. The box score of the game:

FILE NOTICE OF APPEAL
Notice of appeal to the supreme court was filed in district court at Lincoln by the defendants in the suit of the state against T. W. Bass, former state treasurer and others in which the state was given a judgment for $56,338. Recently the defendants filed motions in district court some of them containing three hundred reasons for a new trial. The motions were overruled by Judge Broady.

The other defendants were the Metropolitan Casualty and Insurance company, New York; Columbia Casualty company, and the Fidelity & Deposit company of Maryland. The former two were sureties of Bass and the latter surety of William Oelkers, former bond clerk for Bass. The state's judgment ran against Bass and Oelkers and the sureties, and they in turn were given judgment against the defendant Wachob Bender & Co., of Omaha, who were alleged to have benefited by an excess of coupons clipped from bonds purchased by the state board of educational lands and funds.

KITCHEN KLATTERS CLUB
On July 25, we met at the home of Kathryn Barkus. We had a demonstration on rolled cookies by Kathryn Barkus. Some of the girls brought cookies and were judged as good.

We had two of the girls to set a table for four for a breakfast. At the close of the meeting dainty refreshments were served by Mary Alice Ault and Kathryn Barkus, hostesses.

VETERAN NOTARY
Along back in 1887 a young lawyer from Weeping Water, John M. Leyda, applied to the secretary of state for a license as notary public. He is now applying to that official for another license and which will make forty-eight years that he has served in this capacity. That Mr. Leyda is the oldest notary in point of service in the county there is little doubt.

Lucky Again Asks Action in Relief Tangle

Burke Joins Representative in Demand for Certifying Unemployed in Nemaha County.

Representative Luckey (D.), Neb., at Washington Friday popped a new request for action in certifying Nemaha county, Neb., unemployed for the federal work relief program at relief officials Friday and received assurance a satisfactory solution would be reached.

Trouble was threatened in several Nebraska counties which carried their own relief load without federal assistance because under technical rules of the works progress administration, employment on the new program must be from relief rolls.

Luckey had been promised persons on county relief lists would be checked and made eligible for work if they would have been eligible in a county on federal relief.

Flares Into Action.
The Nebraskan flared into action when informed Ernest F. Witte, Nebraska federal emergency relief administrator, had announced no Nemaha county workers would be certified yet. Lawrence Westbrook, assistant to the federal relief administrator, had promised Luckey that Witte would be instructed to send a case worker to Nemaha county to certify those eligible.

As a result of Luckey's protest in which he said he was joined by Senator Burke (D.), Neb., Aubrey Williams, deputy relief administrator, discussed the situation by telephone Friday with Witte at Lincoln, Neb.

WORKS ON PLAN.
FERA officials said afterwards that Howard Hunter, regional FERA director, was in Lincoln studying the situation and that the method of handling the problem would be worked out by him.

Luckey said also they assured him it would be worked out satisfactorily to him. He was determined to press for action.

"People of county relief," he said, "are just as entitled to participate in this federal program as those in counties who were on federal relief."

MANY AVAILING SELVES OF SWIMMING LESSONS
A large number of persons are availing themselves of the opportunity of learning to swim or to improve their present swimming technique by attending the Red Cross periods of free swimming instruction at the Merritt sand pits this week. The different classifications allow for nearly all age limits, from the smallest of children up to adult men and women, also including instruction in Junior and Senior life saving.

John Warren Stander, of Louisville, a qualified Red Cross life saver and instructor is in charge, having previously conducted similar instruction at Louisville and Cedar Creek, and at the close of the present week goes to South Bend to instruct in swimming at the lakes there.

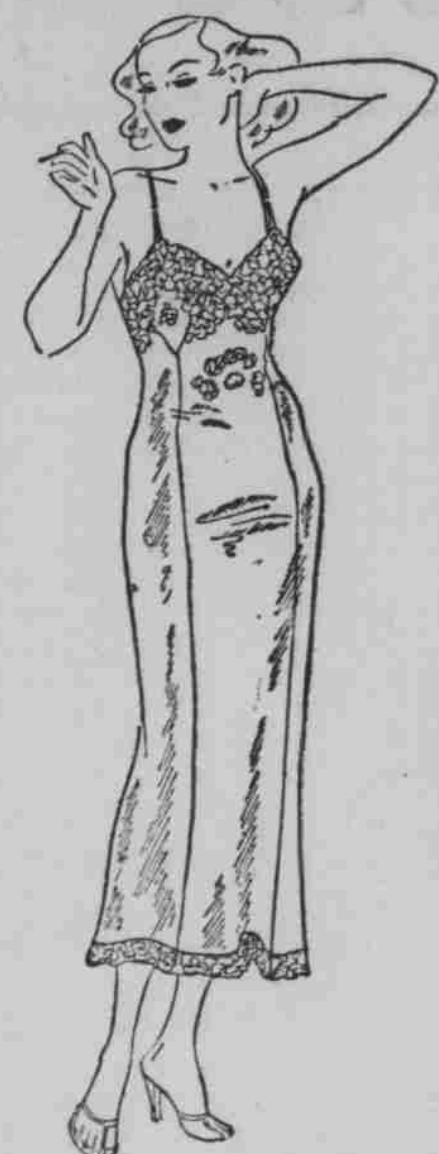

The large number enrolled proves the Red Cross course of instruction is even more popular than last year, and by Saturday night an unusually large number of persons will have been taught the rudiments of swimming. In addition, a considerable number will have become qualified to pass the standard Red Cross examination for life saving in either the Senior or Junior classification.

During the week of August 5 to August 11, the Red Cross will have an examiner in this county, visiting the different swimming places where instruction has been provided for the purpose of conducting examinations in life saving. It will be necessary to pass the requirements before this examiner before one can be awarded the Red Cross certificate of life saver.

LEAVE ON OUTING
From Friday's Daily
This morning at an early hour Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bourke and daughters and Miss Margaret Mrasek departed for a pleasure trip through the Black Hills country of South Dakota. They are making the trip by car and will stop at all of the places of interest along the way in this favorite outing place of the middle west.

DOING NICELY
Miss Jeanette Hirz, who several days ago was operated on for appendicitis, has shown a fine improvement and it is hoped that within a few days that she may be able to return to the home here to complete her recuperation. The many friends are looking for her return home with the greatest of anticipation.

Alvo News

A. B. Stromer was called to Lincoln last Wednesday to look after some business and was also visiting with friends.

Miss Corrine Kitzel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Kitzel, visited last week with her friend, Miss Josephine Stuart.

Elmer Nelson, who has undertaken to supply the community with ice, reports selling over 600 pounds in small quantities one day during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Skinner were at Lincoln Wednesday of last week, where they visited with friends and where John was looking after some business matters.

Miss Bessie Deigh, a former teacher in the Alvo schools, was a guest of friends here for a few days during the past week. Miss Deigh is to teach the coming year at Albion.

Frank Taylor, who resides south of Alvo, completed his threshing a few days ago and reports a yield of 25 bushels of wheat to the acre, the grain being of very good quality.

Roy Stuart was sinking a new well at the home of the Fanders sisters, northeast of Alvo, and although the weather has been very hot, he is getting along nicely with the work.

Harry Weichel has just completed the threshing of his wheat and was well pleased at the good return per acre and a test of 61½ pounds to the struck bushel. In a year when so much of the wheat is of low grade, this is exceptionally good.

Mrs. J. M. Armstrong, who has not been in the best of health, is also experiencing some trouble with her eyes. She was at Havelock for treatment of the optics during the past week, and visited at the home of her daughter while there. All are hoping the trouble may not prove of a serious nature.

Ervin Heier, who resides some three miles north of Alvo, has been busy with harvesting. He recently purchased a combine and has harvested nearly 300 acres with the new machine. He is well pleased with his own crop, which make 27 bushels to the acre, and tested 61 pounds to the struck bushel. And that is not bad for an off year.

Attended Lincoln Meeting
The ladies of the W. C. T. U. of Alvo went to Lincoln in a group, taking with them a covered dish luncheon, and attended a meeting of the Lincoln W. C. T. U. which was held at Grace Methodist church last Friday. The meeting continued through the day and the members enjoyed a most delicious noon-day repast. The Alvo ladies especially enjoyed their outing.

Inaugurated Story Hour
There has been inaugurated a story hour at the Methodist church in Alvo, it being held at ten o'clock each Wednesday morning. The first one was conducted by Mrs. Don McKenzie, with some twenty-one of the children of the Bible school present, and all of them intensely interested in the story related by Mrs. McKenzie, which was one of the series of Bible stories.
