

MURDOCK ITEMS

Charles Schaefer has traded his old car off, securing a Pontiac, which he and the family are liking very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Tool, who make their home at Wahoo spent the day last Sunday at the home of the parents of Mr. Tool.

Lennie Lau and wife were in Omaha last Wednesday, where they looked after some business matters and made the purchase of some supplies for the beauty parlor which Mrs. Lau conducts in Murdock.

Henry A. Tool of the Murdock Co-operative Credit association was called to Omaha to look after some business matters for a short time on last Wednesday, and while he was away Mrs. Tool was looking after business at the bank.

Last week, after having enjoyed a very fine vacation and trip back to the old home in the east, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Gorthey and the children rolled into Murdock well pleased with their visit, but equally glad to get back home and visit the home friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Long and Mrs. Mathew Thingan were visiting relatives and friends at Columbus and Pierce for a few days during the past week, making the trip in the new Oldsmobile that Mr. and Mrs. Long recently purchased. Mesdames Long and Thingan are sisters.

The Rev. Harvey A. Schwab and Frank C. Weber and their families departed last week for Millford, where they are attending the church convention which is being held there for a number of days. There will be no church services in Murdock during the time of the convention.

Ed Rau was threshing and delivering his wheat last Wednesday, the grain make 24 bushels to the acre. Although it did not grade the highest it was fair for this year. Ed had some 17 acres which was his allowance. It looks as though this year one should have been allowed to raise as much as he had space for.

Cars Have an Affinity
That is they came together and mixed somewhat to their disadvantage however. I. G. Hornbeck and the Misses Elisa and Mary Bornemeier were going north near the Trinity Lutheran church when a car from Lincoln going east arrived at the intersection at the same time. Miss Mary Bornemeier was at the wheel of the Hornbeck car and made every effort to avoid the collision, but the driver of the other car swerved toward her as she slowed up, and the cars came together with much force. It was most lucky that no one was injured beyond a severe shaking up.

The Hornbeck car is in the hospital of A. H. Jacobson and will come out of the shop in the near future in as good a condition as before.

Visited at Sioux City
Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Tool took a little time off from the daily grind last week, driving over to Sioux City, where they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Meyers and family from Thursday of one week until the same time the following week and sure enjoyed the vacation which their trip gave them. Douglas looked after business at the store and kept house during their absence.

Mrs. Neitzel Doing Nicely
Mrs. L. Neitzel, who is at the home of their daughter following an operation on her eyes, is reported as getting along very nicely at this time. After a period of having her eyes shut off from light by being bandaged, she is expected to have her sight greatly improved as a result of the operation. Yesterday Mr. Neitzel was at Elmwood where he attended Sunday school and morning worship at the Methodist church, going on to Havelock to spend the rest of the day visiting with the wife and folks.

Had a Costly Experience
Bobbie McDonald, of Manley, was a visitor in Weeping Water one night last week, going to attend the band concert. Leaving his car parked on a side street, he was surprised to find that the gas had been extracted while he was enjoying himself listening to the band music. So he proceeded to put in some more gas and started for home only to find the parties had also drained the crank case as well and the lack of oil caused him to burn out a connecting rod. He brought the car to Murdock Wednesday to have the damage repaired. Bobbie is wiser, but not happier, as a result of the experience that came to him.

Work on Home Progressing
Every time the writer passes the new home on Highway No. 1 that is now under construction for Louis Wendt and wife, we notice Matt Thingan on the job, working alone at the task in a patient manner, and with some progress being made each day. It is a big undertaking for one man to build a large house, but keeping everlastingly at it brings results, and now the house is well along and it will not be long before it is completed and a happy and contented family will be living in it.

Missourians Congregate
A group of about a half hundred former Missourians now residing in Nebraska, gathered at Morton State Park at Nebraska City last Sunday for a jolly reunion, renewing friendships of long standing. Among those present was Ed Ganaway of this vicinity, who says Arbor Lodge is a fine place for holding such an event and they had a grand time. Horse-shoe pitching contests was one of the big attractions. Plattsmouth, Union, Murray and Nehawka were other Cass county towns that contributed to the size of the party, while there were a goodly number there from points below Nebraska City, directly across the river from the Show-Me state.

Killed in Wreck.
Paul Milz, husband of a former Murdock girl, Grace Schutz, a baker at Fort Crook, was killed when the auto in which they were riding left the roadway two miles north of Plattsmouth last Saturday evening and plunged into a ravine, overturning and killing Mr. Milz and seriously injuring the wife. She was taken to an Omaha hospital for treatment, where an operation was had, removing a rib which was pressing on the lung. Pneumonia is feared and all is being done to avert that.

Business House Changes
Last week, Wm. Zaezel and wife, who have made their home at Bennett, where they have been engaged in business, conducting a market and grocery, disposed of the same and came to Murdock, purchasing the market and cafe of Otto Eichoff, who has been doing a good business. Mr. and Mrs. Zaezel will conduct this business in the future, while Mr. and Mrs. Eichoff will leave in a short time for Los Angeles, where they have been desirous of locating for some time, thus being near their children, who are located in the west.

Pleased with Business Here
Frank Dean was assisting with the threshing at the home of Dan Schlaphof during the past week and has been kept pretty busy during the threshing season. Mr. and Mrs. Dean have been solicited by parties who desire to come to Murdock to reside and engage in business to sell them their store, but say they are well pleased with Murdock and its people and so have turned down the offers of the outside parties.

Return from Vacation
Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Craig, who spent some ten days at Valentine, returned home a week ago and went from here to Wymore, where they paid a short visit to Mr. Craig's father, B. A. Craig, whom they found feeling very well considering his advanced years.

They report a most pleasant outing at Valentine, where they did considerable fishing, and were able to bring home a number of very fine fish to show their friends here as proof of their angling ability. In fact, they went a step further than just showing their catch, for they had as guests at a fish dinner last Sunday, E. D. Friend and wife, parents of Mrs. Craig, and Sherman Wolfe and wife, who enjoyed eating the fish a great deal more than they would just looking at them.

Tuesday's Ball Games
In the softball games played under the flood lights last Tuesday night and witnessed by a large crowd, the Married Men were winners over the Lutherans by a score of 11 to 10. The lads from Murdock High scored 3 runs to 1 for Wabash.

Gave Friend a Shower
The Royal Neighbors of America is an organization that takes pride in living up to its name. As one of their members is just now to embark upon a voyage on life's connubial waters, by way of showing their "royal neighborliness," they held a shower and jolly get-together for Miss Harriett Lawton, who is soon to be wedded. A large number were present and everyone had a fine time. The guest of honor was the recipient of many useful gifts, in token of the esteem in which she is held by her fellow-members. In departing, all wished her great happiness.

Funeral of Miss Lewis
The funeral of the late Elizabeth Lewis, an account of whose life and death appeared in these columns last week, was held at the Methodist church in Alvo last Tuesday, the services being in charge of Rev. R. J. McKenzie. A large gathering of old

Mrs. S. C. Boyles, who has been recuperating at the hospital since her operation, is reported as getting along very nicely and was expected to return home the latter part of the week.

Uncle Peter Klyver, father of Elmer Klyver, who is making his home with the son and who has been seriously ill for some time, is reported as being slightly improved in health at this writing. Uncle Peter is 92 years of age.

Mrs. J. C. Ober, of Fullerton, who has been visiting here for some time with her daughter, Mrs. John B. Skinner, returned home last week and was accompanied by Mrs. Skinner and son Jack, who will visit there a short time.

Mrs. Minnie Petersen received word of the illness of her daughter, Miss Mary, at Wichita, Kansas. She was taken to Lincoln by Miss Doris Coatman in order to catch the bus for that place and care for the daughter during her illness.

During the past week the household effects of Superintendent and Mrs. L. M. Hauptman were moved to the recently completed house of P. J. Linch. The house of Mrs. Murty being vacated by the Hauptmans, is to be occupied by Otto Stuve and family.

Celebrated Passing Birthday
Mrs. L. M. Snavely was passing her birthday anniversary last Sunday, and to accord proper recognition of the occasion, her friends gathered to help her celebrate. A very merry evening was enjoyed, climaxed with some good things to eat, among them ice cream and a delicious birthday cake, for what would a birthday be without the cake? At a late hour, the guests departed, wishing her many more such happy anniversaries.

August E. Seikman Dies
Aurora, Neb.—August E. Seikman, 80, former chief treasurer of the Royal Highlanders, fraternal insurance order, died at his home here at noon Wednesday after an illness of two years.

Mr. Seikman came to Aurora in about 1880 and built a large fortune in banking and land transactions. He was president of the Fidelity state bank here which failed in August of 1932. Unable to pay the double liability on his large bank stock holdings, involuntary bankruptcy proceedings followed and wiped out the remaining assets of his once large estate.

time friends of this excellent woman and her family were present to pay her tribute at the last sad rites incident to her passing. Raymond Cook, of Plattsmouth, sang three numbers, Mrs. Roy Cole accompanying on the piano. The selections were "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," "Haven of Rest" and "Perfect Day." Burial was in the beautiful Elmwood cemetery.

Have Abundance of Work
Edward James was threshing last week and John B. Skinner was engaged in hauling the grain to Wymore, together with some corn. En route his truck broke down and he had to remain on the road the greater part of the day, as Roy Coatman was operating the tractor on a threshing job and could not get away until the day's work was concluded. He then drove out with another truck into which the load was transferred and taken on to its destination, while the other truck was pulled into a garage to be repaired.

This work, with the regular calls for delivery of stock to the South Omaha market, a car load of coal to be unloaded for the Alvo schools and A. B. Stromer wanting to take his vacation from the mail route, putting the duties on Mr. Coatman as substitute carrier, makes about all the work he can handle just at present. It would seem there should be more hours in a day.

Threshing Season About Over
Threshing was under way at the Simon Boyles farm near Alvo last Thursday. With the completion of this piece of threshing the big jobs are getting pretty well done and it will not be long until the hum of the separators will be over until another year rolls around. Billy Warner had a proposal to take one of his rigs to Eagle, where some two weeks' work was promised, but as he has to hire all the work done, Mr. Warner concluded it would not pay and so another machine was secured instead.

A check-up reveals there has been a usual spotted yield, with some fields producing a lot of grain while in others only a short distance away, the return has been small.

Care in preparation of the ground and seeding are important and more than repay the land owner or tenant in dollars and cents.

Promised Doctor and Hospital
The town of Alvo, which has been without a resident physician since the death of the late Dr. Muier, now bids fair to secure not only a doctor, but a hospital as well. A doctor, nurse and chemist came to town last week and made inquiry as to a suitable location for the establishment of a hospital. After looking the situation over, it was decided to come to Alvo to locate. It is hoped they will come here to locate and why not, as there is much demand throughout this section for hospital facilities, with patients being taken to both Lincoln and Omaha every week.

It will be like everything else, however, requiring the support of the community to keep it going after it has been located here. With such support, it could be made a success.

STANLEY HIGH A VISITOR
Stanley High, on his way to the coolness of Estes Park and later to go on to the Pacific coast, was in Lincoln Wednesday, visiting his parents, and gathering information for his radio addresses. He is just now making a survey of the political and industrial situation the country over. From what he learned in the east and in Chicago he is convinced that President Roosevelt, were the election to occur now, would easily win. He finds labor solidly with the administration, and he also finds many small business men and those dependent on agriculture favorable to him. It is entirely possible, he says, that a change may come but so far he thinks the president holds the balance of power with the voters.

Mr. High is inclined to believe the republicans began their campaign too early. He has discussed candidates all the way from the east to Nebraska. He finds Hoover sentiment, Knox sentiment and much talk of Landon of Kansas.

RULES FOR LOANS GIVEN

Washington.—Rules for making 100 millions of rural electrification loans to public and private organizations were laid down by President Roosevelt in an executive order. Preference for public borrowers and farm co-operatives was decreed.

The order stipulated that all the funds must be issued on a loan basis. Wage rates for persons employed on projects financed with these loans are to be determined "in accordance with local wage conditions."

Morris L. Cooke, the rural electrification administrator, called at the white house about the same time the rules were announced. He emphasized employment would be given to the fullest possible extent to labor from relief rolls.

Not less than 25 per cent of any loan made to a public body, for an electrification project must be expended for labor under the order. It was said authoritatively that additional funds will be provided, if necessary, to assure adequate financing for both the public and private projects. The same terms are contemplated for all classes of borrowers, officials said.

Plattsmouth offers a splendid market for farm produce of all kinds.
