

The Plattsmouth Journal

PUBLISHED SEMI-WEEKLY AT PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA
Entered at Postoffice, Plattsmouth, Neb., as second-class mail matter

MRS. R. A. BATES, Publisher

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE $2.00 A YEAR IN FIRST POSTAL ZONE
Subscribers living in Second Postal Zone, $2.50 per year. Beyond 600 miles, $3.00 per year. Rate to Canada and foreign countries, $3.50 per year. All subscriptions are payable strictly in advance.

LEARNS OF DEATH

H. T. Batten of this city, one of the old residents of the community, has just received the news of the death of a nephew which occurred a few days ago in an auto accident near Bucyrus, Ohio. The young man was "Red," a son of George Batten, brother of H. T. Batten, and with him at the time of the accident was another brother, namesake of our Mr. Batten, who fortunately escaped without dangerous injuries.

HEAR COMPENSATION CASE

From Tuesday's Daily
This morning a hearing was had in the case of Joseph Solomon against the A. W. Farney Co., arising out of injuries sustained by the plaintiff while in the employe of the contracting company on river work on the Iowa side of the river. The labor board had ruled that the plaintiff was entitled to have his case heard under the Nebraska compensation law. Mr. Solomon was represented by W. G. Kieck of this city and Clifford Rein of Lincoln.

HERE FROM ALVO

From Tuesday's Daily
R. W. Stewart and daughter, Mrs. Clara Stewart Madsen of Alvo were in the city for a few hours today looking after some matters of business and visiting with friends. They were called here on some matters in the country court.

HOUSE GUEST RETURNS

Miss Alice Gow of Omaha, who was here as the house guest of Miss Roberta Beverage of Tulsa Oklahoma, has returned to her home. Miss Beverage is a guest for the summer here at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Richey.

EAGLE NEWS ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Saphnie visited over Sunday at the J. B. Peterson home.

Jack Headley of Greenwood has been visiting relatives in Eagle for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sexson of Ravenna are visiting relatives in this community.

The O. S. C. club were entertained at the home of Mrs. Fred Root last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Oscar Anderson of Lincoln, made a short visit on Sunday with Mrs. Emma Judkins.

E. P. Betts, Carl Rodaway and Francis Walberg left Saturday for a motor trip to California.

Sunday guests of George Peckham and family were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Meyers and children.

Miss Edna Caddy, who has been in Grand Island for several weeks, returned home last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Trumble and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hursh spent Friday afternoon near Louisville.

Mrs. Stephen Taylor and daughter, Joyce, of Lincoln, visited relatives Wednesday evening and Thursday.

Mrs. J. B. Peterson visited her daughter, Mrs. Tom Spahnle and Mr. Spahnle from Thursday until Saturday.

Mrs. Sarah Kell enjoyed a visit with her niece, Mrs. Floyd Grunden and Mr. Grunden of North Platte on Sunday.

Clifford Doran, who had an appendicitis operation at the Bryan Memorial hospital in Lincoln last Tuesday is reported to be getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wall of Beaver City arrived Friday morning and visited with relatives. Mr. Wall returned home on Monday and Mrs. Wall will spend several weeks visiting in this community and Palmyra.

Dr. and Mrs. Stewart, Hubert and Jean Marie left Friday morning for Clinton, Illinois, where Mrs. Stewart will remain with her mother while the rest of the family attend a reunion of the Stewart family held in the old home neighborhood in Ohio.

Methodist Aid.

Mrs. Guy Jones was hostess to the Methodist Ladies Aid at her home on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Jack very ably presented the missionary lesson. During the business session plans were made for an ice cream social.

The annual election of officers resulted as follows: Mrs. Adea, president; Mrs. Kaatz, vice-president; Mrs. Jack, secretary; Mrs. Ben Root, treasurer.

The hostess served delightful refreshments at the close of the afternoon.

The visitors were Mrs. Marvin Carr, Mrs. Carl Bender, Mrs. Lawrence McMaster, Mrs. Orville Robertson, Miss Dorothea Keil and Mrs. Clarence Slosson, who became a welcome member.

Trinity Lutheran Aid.

The Trinity Lutheran Ladies Aid met with Mrs. Ivan Caddy, Thursday afternoon, August 8th.

After the regular business meeting, guessing games were enjoyed by all. Following the social hour, a lovely lunch was served by the hostess.

Visitors present were Mrs. Will Caddy, Mrs. Emma Judkins, Mrs. Dick Underwood, Mrs. Will Trunckenbolz, Mrs. Ester Kendle and Earl, Mrs. Valley Trumble, Rev. Rangler, Erna Adams and Donna Belle Judkins.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Glen Crandell on Sept. 5th.

Yum Yum Cooking Club.

The Yum Yum Cooking club met at the home of Miss Pearl Norris last Thursday. The secretary called the roll and then the club pledge was given.

Making of cream potato soup was demonstrated by Pearl Norris and Lois Jean Lytle.

We decided to hold a picnic in the near future. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Donna Bell Judkins, August 15.

Methodist Church Notes.

Sunday, Aug. 18
D. J. Schuyleman, pastor; G. H. Palmer, S. S. Supt.

10:00 a. m. Sunday school hour. Our attendance was up a little last Sunday morning. Let us keep up the good work and increase our attendance 15 this Sunday. Who have you invited to Sunday school and church?

11:00 a. m. Morning worship. Come and enjoy our fellowship. We have electric fans to help keep you comfortable. The pastor will deliver the morning address.

7:15 p. m. Young People's meeting

SALT

100 lbs. Crushed Rock. 45c
50-lb. Dark Block. 35c

PRINTS

for Dresses
Per yard. . . . 15c and 20c

Ladies Fine Rayon

BLOOMERS
Special, per pair. . . . 15c

Odd Sizes in Oxfords

at Special Prices

RIHN & GREENE
Telephone 29—Union

in the cool church basement (if it is a hot day). Come and enjoy our interesting meetings.

Swim Party: This Thursday evening at 7:00 p. m. The Young People are going on a swim party. They are to meet at the church. Call Sumner West, our new president, for details.

Sunday noon the official board had a dinner and fellowship together in the church basement. After that a very important meeting was held. Notice: The stewards will be going among you to inform you of the condition of our budget.

W. C. T. U. will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Della Hursh. It is important that all members be present, because this is for the election of officers.

Engineers and Packers Stage a Lively Battle

River Men Prove Victors, 7 to 2—Kennedy Pitches Fine Game—Allowing But Two Hits.

The U. S. Engineers and the Norfolk Packers were the features Tuesday night at Athletic park and in which the rivermen proved the winners, 7 to 2, in a good game, much better than the score would indicate.

The Engineers had a good batting eye and McGrath beamed one for a homer, Ashbaugh for a triple and Kennedy, the hurler, for a double. For the Packers, Nelson, the pitcher, doubled for the longest hit for his team. Kennedy for the Engineers allowed but two hits, that of Nelson and a single by Rolfs.

The box score of the game was as follows:

Engineers—	AB	R	H	PO	A	E
Ashbaugh, c	3	1	1	1	0	0
Hathaway, 2b	3	1	0	3	0	1
Malik, ss	4	1	0	1	2	1
Oliver, 1b	3	0	0	3	0	0
Marshall, rs	3	1	2	1	0	0
McGrath, 3b	3	1	1	0	1	0
Harrison, cf	3	1	1	0	0	0
Knoflicek, rf	3	0	0	1	0	0
Kennedy, p	3	1	1	2	0	0
Stevenson, lf	2	0	0	0	0	0
Muncil, if	1	0	0	0	0	0
	31	7	6	21	3	2

Packers—	AB	R	H	PO	A	E
Christy, cf	1	0	0	1	0	0
Scuroto, ss	3	0	0	1	3	0
Bourne, 2b	3	0	0	2	4	2
Brittain, lf	3	0	0	0	0	0
Rolfs, rf	2	1	0	2	1	1
Nelson, p	3	1	1	0	1	0
Shrader, 1b	3	0	0	1	1	0
Napier, c	2	0	0	3	0	0
Glaze, rs	1	0	0	1	0	0
Chandler, rs	1	0	0	0	0	0
	25	2	2	21	9	5

Plattsmouth offers a splendid market for farm produce of all kinds.

WHO PAYS for the damages to your car if you skid into another car? You do... unless you carry collision insurance. Why not check up today on this before you have a crash?

Searl S. Davis
OFFICES, 2ND FLOOR
Platts. State Bank Bldg.

UNION ITEMS.

Ted Connelly, who is located at Crete, was visiting with friends in Union last Sunday.

Miss Mariba Upton enters the St. Joseph hospital in Omaha in September to begin nurse training.

Mayor George A. Stites was a business visitor in Nebraska City for a short time last Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Schaffer has moved into their pretty bungalow just completed on their farm southeast of town.

Dr. R. R. Anderson was in Omaha last Sunday, where he was looking after some business matters and visiting with friends.

Clark Finney, who is a member of the C. M. T. C. at Fort Crook was a guest of his mother and other relatives in Union last Sunday.

Clifton Clarke and two of the children of Kansas City were visiting over the week end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clarke.

Joseph Banning was looking after the threshing of the small grain of Lucean Banning Monday of this week, Lucean being in the west at this time.

Rev. W. A. Taylor and the family of Charles W. Hoback were over to the home of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Roddy last Sunday, where they visited for the afternoon.

Mrs. L. M. Trombla and son James, who are spending the summer at the home of her parents, Rev. B. N. Kunkel, of Union, was visiting over the week end with relatives in Lincoln.

W. A. Taylor and wife and their three grandchildren were visiting a short time in Nebraska City last Monday morning, driving over and looking after some business matters as well.

The Church of Christ is holding meetings every evening in the Scotia school. It is conducted by several ladies of Missouri. Sunday afternoon a number of converts were baptized in the river.

The auxiliary of the Episcopal church was meeting with Miss Augusta Robb on last Friday and was looking after some matters of business for a short time in spite of the hot weather.

H. W. Griffin and family and Lester Schumacher and family were visiting at Shenandoah last Sunday, enjoying a picnic in the park there and also visiting the places of interest in the Iowa radio town.

Miss Dorothea Mullis, who has visited her parents and friends during the summer vacation expects to return to Nebraska City in September to finish a post graduate course she began last year.

Mrs. O. W. Finney, of Auburn, was a visitor here last Sunday, calling on her relative, Mrs. Edgar Newton, of Plattsmouth, who is in charge of the telephone exchange during the absence of her mother.

Will Visit in the West
Lucean Banning and Will Pearsley departed in the car of the former last sence of her mother, Mrs. Vesta Clarke, who is visiting at Lorraine, Ohio.

The Sciota school district has decided to show some civic pride. After 50 years without, they have decided to put in a much needed well. Also lower the school on more level ground, plaster, paint and clean it up. This school is one of the largest in the county.

The wheat continues to come in at the Union elevator every day in large quantities. While some of it is not of the finest quality, the general run is very good. The large amount being dumped on the market just now has resulted in depressing the price considerably.

Miss Helen Seelye, a cousin of Joseph Banning, of Lincoln, who arrived at the age of 75 years recently, passed away there and was taken to Afton, Iowa, for burial, last Monday. The funeral was attended by Miss Pearle Banning, of Union, John W. Banning and wife of Alvo, Mr. and Mrs. Marion N. Tucker of Nehawka. The home of Miss Seelye was formerly at Afton.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ross of Oak Park, Illinois, arrived in Union last Friday for a visit at the home of Frank and Anna Bauer and also with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bauer, they being respectively nephew and niece of the folks here. They remained for a few days as their guests and last Sunday evening all were over to Nebraska City, where they enjoyed the new Shirley Temple picture, "Curley Top," which was being shown there.

Receives Advancement
A. W. Carr, who has been with the Missouri Pacific as an extra operator, has been sent to Plattsmouth to act as temporary agent until such time as the office can be filled permanently by seniority, as the agent there, H. L. Thomas, who was agent at Nehawka a good number of years ago, is being transferred to Nebraska City to become permanent agent there, a considerable advancement over the Plattsmouth job, although that paid $160 a month and is drawing a good number of applicants from among those having seniority rights.

Visiting in the West
Misses Dorothy, Louise and Edith Foster were spending the week end in Omaha, where they were visiting their aunt, Miss Mary Foster and other relatives over the week end. Miss Mary left this week for Santa Cruz, where she will visit her friend, Miss Belle Gass for some time, they also going together to San Diego, where they will take in the sights of the exposition. The Misses Louise, Dorothy and Edith were also guests in Omaha on Sunday night, at the home of an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Franzen and son, Donald.

Will Visit in the West
Lucean Banning and Will Pearsley departed in the car of the former last Sunday morning for a trip to the west and will tour the coast states for some three weeks. They will spend the most time at Los Angeles, where they have friends whom they desire to pay a visit. They were enthusiastic about seeing the scenery and expected to miss nothing of importance along their route. They plan to be home in time for the state fair as Lucean has a position there again this year.

Met with Severe Accident

While Sonnie Browne, the eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Browne with some other lads of different ages were playing on the highway bridge west of town, he attempted to cross in front of a rapidly moving car from Illinois, and was struck and knocked down, breaking his jaw bone and both legs. The lad was taken to St. Mary's hospital at Nebraska City, where his injuries were cared for. Latest reports from there are to the effect he has a good chance to recover, but it will take a long time.

One cannot be too careful when in or about automobiles, as the death toll taken by them in increasing year after year.

Knot Hole Club Meets

The Knot Hole club met at the home of Charles McCarthy on Tuesday, August 6. Five members were present. The minutes were read and approved. Ted Clarke made a motion to have a ball team and Jack Burke seconded it. After the meeting, the members gave a few rope demonstrations.—Jack Burke, Reporter.

Hold Ice Cream Social.

The Good Will club held an ice cream social at the Sciota school last Wednesday evening. A large crowd attended. The ladies netted a nice sum for their trouble. A quilt made by the club was raffled off and Opal Griffin of Union was the lucky winner. The club is planning on holding monthly entertainments throughout the winter months.

Country School Teachers.

The schools around Union will be taught by the following young ladies: The Factoryville school by Mrs. Louise Foster; the Taylor school by Mrs. Evelyn Meade; the Sciota and Ervin schools by the two Misses Joy of Humboldt. Mrs. Sara McQuinn will teach the Swan school.

MARRIED AT CITY HALL

From Wednesday's Daily
Last evening at the city hall Judge C. L. Graves was called from the lure of cribbage, to join in the bonds of wedlock Miss Velma Barton and Mr. Claude Miller, both of Omaha.

The bridal couple were accompanied here by Miss Marie Ruge and E. J. Gray, who served as the witness for the ceremony which was carried out in the usual impressive manner of the court.

The Old Gentleman from Geneva and His White Flag of "Victory"!

