Mrs. Gust Gakemeier has been very ill at her home near Murdock, being nursed by her sisters, the Misses Bornemeier. At last reports she was still very ill, but showing much improvement.

Larry Lee, the young son of Dr. and Mrs. L. D. Lee, told the writer of having an animal show in his backyard, but at just that time we were busy with other matters and did not get to call and look the show over, although we are sure it must have been a worth-while exhibition in the eyes of youth. Go to it, Larry, and may you always have the same fervent zeal for all your undertakings in future life, which will almost guarantee their success.

Do Not Have New Car
There must have been a rumor that Carl Bornemeier was the possessor of a new auto, which they disclaim, saying they would be pleased if they could afford a new car, but the one they have meets with their requirements and there are so many other things claiming the elusive dollar that a new car cannot be considered.

Henry Rueter and Son Visit Here
Henry Rueter and son, Ernest, of Grand Junction, Iowa, where they have made their home during the past five or six years, following the purchase of a farm there by Mr. Rueter, accompanied a trucker that neighborhood who was coming to Nebraska for a load of farming implements belonging to C. The corn is also in good condition and has suffered very little from lack of moisture. They returned home that same evening, accompanying the trucker who had come after the farming implements.

With Los Angeles as their ultimate destination, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Eichhoff left Tuesday morning for the east, going to visit with friends and relatives in Illinois, after which they will drop down to St. Louis, where they will visit other relatives, and also go later to Kentucky and Tennessee before they finally turn westward, making the trip to the coast via the southern route. They disposed of the greater part of their household goods before leaving. At St. Louis they are visiting a son Eldon Eichhoff, who was but recently married, and at Los Angeles will be located close to their other children, who have been making their homes there for some time. We are hoping they will be well pleased with their new home in the west and find everything to their liking out there.

Wedded at Evangelical Church

The Murdock Evangelical church was the scene of a beautiful wedding Sunday afternoon, August 25, when Miss Harriette Leona Lawton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Lawton, of Murdock, was given in marriage to Mr. Simeon H. Sawyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Sawyer, of Lincoln. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Harvey A. Schwab.

The bride, carrying a gorgeous bouquet of gladiolus, wore a full length gown of white tulle, with a long, flowing white tulle veil. Miss Winnifred Lawton, sister of the bride, and maid of honor, carried an arm bouquet of gladiolus and was dressed in a white satin gown of jacket style.

The groom, attired in a white summer suit, was accompanied by Wade D. Sloan, of Sutton, Nebraska, who acted as best man. Frank R. Green, of Lincoln, pianist, accompanied throughout the ceremony. Mrs. Milo Frisbee, of Elmwood, sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because."

The church was beautifully decorated with sweet peas, white taper candles and white summer flowers.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Lawton, after the ceremony.

After a short wedding trip, the young couple will make their home in Lincoln. Congratulations and best wishes!

ALMOST A WHALE

George Barr, one of the veteran fishermen of this section, yesterday landed one of the big catches of the season in the Missouri river, a sixty-three pound yellow cat fish. The fish was a beauty and was brought up to the business section of the city where it was exhibited and attracted a great deal of attention. The fish will furnish many a fine fish fry when reduced to steaks. The fish was on display at Adolph's Tavern.

Legion Selects Boschult as New Commander

Lincoln Man Is Honored by State Meeting—Omaha Selected as 1936 Meeting Place.

Nebraska legionnaires Wednesday elected Edgar J. Boschult, commander of the Lincoln legion post, their state commander, at the state meet at Beatrice, decided to hold their 1936 convention in Omaha and adopted a resolution asking the WPA to change its rules so efficient workers can be given steady employment on its works.

Boschult was elected unanimously when George J. Hancock, district commander at Wauneta, withdrew from the race after tabulation of votes had started. Harry Kautz of West Point and A. J. Saville of Fullerton were elected vice-commanders and Rev. H. H. Marsden, Episcopal rector of Lincoln, was elected department chaplain.

Mrs. Armstrong Elected. Mrs. Robert Armstrong, Auburn, was elected president of the women's auxiliary and Mrs. Neil Krause of Newman Grove, retiring president, was elected national committee-woman from Nebraska. Mrs. Leah Bell of Lincoln was elected auxiliary historian.

Nebraska will have two candidates for national office at the legion convention in St. Louis next month. Both the legion and the auxiliary adopted resolutions supporting Mrs. Lorena Hahn, Wayne, for national president of the auxiliary.

The legion proposed Rev. George Jonaitis, Blair, for national chaplain. Featured speaker at the closing session was Harry Colmery of Topeka, Kans., a candidate for national commander. Colmery, active for years in legion work, is a former chairman of its national legislative committee.

Award Flood Citations. Hancock, commander of the legion district which did outstanding disaster relief work during the Republican river floods last June, was awarded a special citation for his heroism and bravery by the Nebraska department. H. H. Dudley, Lincoln, department adjutant, also announced the award of similar citations to families of six legionnaires drowned while engaged in disaster relief work in the valley. They are Glenn M. Anderson, Glenn C. Bell, Fred Swanson, Clark Colver, Ray Bickford and Fred E. Nordstrom.

Delegates at large to the national convention elected Wednesday are Fred Winter of Grand Island, retiring department commander; Boschult, Dudley, Marvin Meyers, of Falls City, Dwight Griswold of Gordon, Clinton Bromo of Omaha and R. R. Sommerville of McCook.

Alternates at large are Robert Armstrong of Auburn, H. C. Fitzpatrick of Norfolk, Lloyd Kain of Lexington, George Fiala of Howell, Verne Taylor of North Platte and Paul Martin of Sidney.

"Prevent Injustice." The resolution directed at WPA pointed to its employment regulations by taking men from relief rolls and charged this system was unfair and discriminating against the "honest, hard working and efficient men." It urged the WPA to reconsider and change its regulations to prevent an "injustice" to efficient workers.

Another resolution asked that there be no limits on the CCC quota for veterans. Another move to make the Daniel Freeman homestead, near Beatrice, a national monument was launched by the legion as it requested such action by congress.

Another resolution recommended the construction of a new ward of 164 beds at the veterans' bureau hospital in Lincoln to care for insane war veterans.

Meet Church Challenge. Colmery told the convention it is time for the legion to meet the challenge of the church on the national defense issue. He urged adequate preparedness and said it is the duty of every American to take up arms in defense of his country if it becomes necessary. He said true Americanism is found in the great plains states which he described as the heart of the America negion.

Boschult, in the navy during the world war, is assistant purchasing agent of the University of Nebraska. He has been connected since 1919 with the university from which he graduated.

RETURN FROM TEXAS

Mr. and Mrs. Merritt S. Kerr returned Friday from a motor trip to Texas and where they have spent the greater part of the time in their former home at Houston. They visited their son, Leslie Kerr, wife and little daughter, Marianne, as well as Mrs. Kerr's sister and brother, Mrs. Della Minor and John Wells. They report that section of the country as enjoying excellent times and every one busy and Houston alive with building projects. Oil interests in that section have added materially to the prosperity of the residents of south Texas along the Gulf coast. Mr. Kerr feels very much improved in health as the result of the trip.

MYNARD PICNIC ENJOYED

Friday at the noon hour the annual picnic staged by the residents of the Mynard community was held at the Spangler grove where a large crowd was on hand for the pleasures of the occasion. There were over 100 from this city to join in the trek to the place of good eats and the fried chicken, salads, pies and other tempting viands were disposed of and the well filled and happy picnickers returned to their homes.

The Mynard people and particularly the ladies are to be congratulated on the wonderful repast that had been provided and which was appreciated by all who had the privilege of being in attendance.
