Wallace Philpot was over to Omaha last Monday where he went to receive a few car loads of western feeding cattle which have been grown on their lands and ranches in the west and which found ready sale for feeders over the county.

Arthur Johnson and Leo McCann, the latter of Avoca, departed Wednesday for the west and will expect to go to the coast. They will hitchhike and enjoy the trip, seeing the country all along the way. They expect to be away about two months.

Lyle Reed, Richard Dill and Tommy Dickson departed last Tuesday for Sutherland where they are expecting to work on the project there for the remainder of the fall. They have just been employed on the CCC camp here and have the work completed.

Anton Jourgensen who has been rather poorly for some time and who was kept to his home and bed for a good portion of the time is at this time feeling much better and was able to be down town and walking around which was good news for his many friends.

Adam Schaeffer and William J. Patterson, living over near Murray, were visiting in Weeping Water last Tuesday and returned home in the evening. They were expecting to go to Plattsmouth Wednesday to see the opening of the King Korn Carnival which is to continue the remainder of the week.

Uncle Louis Nelson who is well advanced in years has been in very poor health for some time past and during recent days has been so that he has had to take to his bed a good portion of the time. He has been having medical attention but seems to remain very poorly and does not seem to regain his strength after the illness.

Louis F. Langhorst, postmaster of the house of representatives of the national congress, whose home is in Elmwood and who has just returned home after the closing of the congress was a visitor in Weeping Water last Friday, the last day of the fair, meeting and mingling with the people of Cass county which whom he has lived so long.

Round Table Discussion.
There was held at the Parlors of the Congregational church of Weeping Water on Tuesday of this week a round table discussion of a number of the leading thinkers and workers when they enjoyed a meeting where the question of the constitution was discussed and as well the question of our attitude towards war. Among the speakers for the evening were W. A. Taylor, Carl Teff, Fred Carsten, Wm. S. Murphy, Rev. Fred Hall, pastor of the Congregational church of Avoca, the Rev. Levi Wilson, pastor of the Congregational church at Weeping Water.

J. Howard Davis Attorney at Law Plattsmouth

Will See World's Series.
Ralph Keckler and wife have concluded as their vacation they will take in the World's series wherever it shall be played and they will with another couple from Weeping Water attend the games or that portion which will be played in one place. Mr. and Mrs. Keckler are both very fond of the national game and they are saving their vacation that they may see this event.

Attending National Convention.
Chris Rasmussen, a member of the Danish Brotherhood of Weeping Water, was selected as delegate to the national convention which is meeting in Denver this week. Mr. Rasmussen departed last Sunday for the convention.

Some Allotment of Ministers.

Carter, who has been pastor of the church at Louisville will again officiate there.

Banquet at Lincoln.
Congressman Henry C. Luckey from the first district of Nebraska is giving a homecoming banquet at a Lincoln hotel. To this banquet all good democrats are expected to come and enjoy each other's fellowship and counsel. If you are a good democrat, that is your invitation.

Entertained at Shower.
Miss Lenora Michelson entertained last Monday evening at her home in Weeping Water in honor of Mrs. Arthur Brockman, formerly Miss Maybelle Tuck, who were married last May, but which was kept a secret until last week.

Cards, games and a fine luncheon were enjoyed at the shower. The young people will make their home a mile south and a mile west of Elmwood.

Surprised on Anniversary.
Mr. and Mrs. S. Ray Smith were married on September 16th, 1910, and the fact being known to their friends, about one hundred went to the Smith home last Monday, the anniversary of their marriage, and made merry and taking along with them well filled baskets of good things to eat. As a testimonial of their excellent neighborliness the friends came in to properly celebrate the anniversary of this couple who have lived for a long time in Weeping Water. A purse was left for the purchase of a remembrance of the friends who so pleasantly called.

Entertained for Dinner Sunday.
Mrs. L. A. Spencer who resides in Weeping Water was hostess at a dinner on last Sunday which included her brothers, Judge A. J. Patterson and family, David Patterson and family, W. J. Patterson, the latter from Murray, when the former Mary Tiffany and her husband of Carroll, Iowa, came for a short time. The visitors from Iowa had not been here for ten years and the occasion was doubly enjoyed on that account. They remained during the afternoon and evening, departing late in the day for their home in Iowa.

Had a Warm Place.
Charles V. Seeley, publisher of the Weeping Water Republican, and as well a musician and a lover of band music, was allotted the position of the operation of the bass drum in the band when they played for the Cass county fair and his position was in the boiling sun and with the violent exercise and the uniform on, Mr. Seeley was well worked out and sweat like a harvester, but he manfully stuck to his post and produced his quota of music whenever called on. This is the kind of sacrificing efforts on the part of the people of Cass county and especially of Weeping Water which has gone to make the fair the great success which it has been.

The job of controlling old man river is no small undertaking, but continued appropriations of 24 million dollars will go a long way toward doing it.
