

EAGLE NEWS ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. August Rosenow, of Lincoln were in Eagle last Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Sarah Keil and Dorothea spent Tuesday of this week in Nehawka visiting relatives.

Mrs. Oscar Anderson, of Lincoln, visited her mother, Mrs. Emma Judkins, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bivens are the proud parents of a baby girl born Monday, September 16th.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Oberle and George Trimble called Sunday evening at the Carl Oberle home.

W. L. Hobson of Weeping Water was in town on Tuesday of this week, shaking hands with old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Wall, Melva and Pauline, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thomson, near Palmyra.

Mrs. Isabel Jack entertained the members of the Methodist Ladies Aid at her home last Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Anna Earl spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. George Hoffmeister and Mr. Hoffmeister and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Beige, of Long Beach, California, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Trimble, Mrs. Beige and Mrs. Trimble being sisters.

W. E. Muenchau, G. H. Palmer and George Youngberg attended the Friday session of the annual Methodist conference held in Omaha last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wyers and Mrs. Herman Wolken were in Syracuse on Wednesday of last week, taking care of some matters of business.

The annual mission festival was celebrated at the Immanuel Lutheran church last Sunday, with special morning services and a noon luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Muenchau and sons Orville and Keith were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Muenchau and family near Alvo.

Henry Snoke, who has been treated at the Bryan Memorial hospital for several weeks, was brought to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Raymond Norris, last Sunday.

O. C. Kaatz and family moved into their new home, which they recently purchased in Lincoln, on Monday of this week. Eagle residents are sorry to lose the Kaatz family.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Nelson and daughter, Helen, were guests Sunday at the home of Mrs. Nelson's sister, Mrs. John Finnigan and Mr. Finnigan and family near Ceresco.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Allen and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Allen and Jack and R. B. Morgan drove out from Lincoln Sunday and spent the day with Mrs. S. E. Allen and Mrs. Morgan.

Mr. and Mrs. Beige, of Long Beach, California, accompanied by Mrs. Waite of Palmyra, and Mrs. George Trimble, drove to Valentine, Neb., and visited over Sunday with Supt. and Mrs. Warwick and family.

Mrs. Will Caddy enjoyed a short visit Thursday morning from Will Wright and family and Jim Wright of Butte, Nebraska, who were en route to Missouri. Will and Jim Wright are nephews of Mrs. Caddy.

Donna Belle Judkins, Faye Ellen Rudolph, Ora Lee Fischer, Faye Arlene Scattergood and Ernest Jack had a part in the Friday afternoon program at the Cass county fair. The Eagle band played Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stewart stopped several days last week at the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Stewart and family. They returned to their home at Ames, Iowa, Saturday, after having spent an enjoyable vacation with relatives in Nebraska and a motor trip to Denver.

Eagle people are pleased that two of the Eagle babies who were entered in the Cass county better baby contest received high scores. Jill Caddy, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Caddy, champion in her class, and Dale Oberle, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Oberle was placed second in his class.

Anniversaries Celebrated
Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Scattergood were guests of honor at a family dinner last Wednesday evening at their home. The event was planned in celebration of Mrs. Scattergood's birthday as well as their 45th wedding anniversary. During the evening, a number of old friends and neighbors gathered at the home and helped to make the day a memorable one.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harry West, of Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ransford of Palmyra, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Scattergood and family, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Scattergood and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Piersol, Mrs. McFall, Mrs. Jake Umland, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Stall and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lanning.

CHIROPRACTORS TO MEET

York, Neb.—Members of the Nebraska Association of Chiropractors will hold their annual meeting here Sept. 26 and 27. Approximately 150 are expected to attend. Dr. B. O. Callahan, Dr. Elsie Requarte and Dr. Kenneth F. Wirt, local representatives of the association, will have charge of arrangements. Odd Fellow and Rebekah lodges, beside the W. C. T. U. also are planning state sessions here in October.

DEFIES POTATO REGULATION

Geneseo, N. Y.—Porter R. Chandler, gentleman farmer, told President Roosevelt he intends to sell potatoes without the government's permission despite the federal potato control act.

"You can either put me in jail or send the secretary of agriculture to take over my farm," he wrote the chief executive. "But if you send him you had better send along some marines to keep him company."

ELKS RULER INVITED

McCook, Neb.—James T. Halliman of Queensborough, N. Y., grand exalted ruler of the Elks lodge, will be invited to attend the restoration jubilee here next month, members of the McCook Elks lodge said an invitation already gone to Halliman from Governor Cochran. The occasion is to celebrate the recovery of the Republican river valley from the floods of last June.

CROSSING CRASH KILLS SIX

Churchville, Pa.—A railroad train smashed into a sedan and killed six occupants on the Bristol road crossing about 20 miles northeast of Philadelphia. Four of the dead are women. The car bore Camden county, New Jersey, license plates. Two of the dead are believed to be Franz G. Schoenfeld and Mabella G. Schoenfeld, South Langhorne.

MOTORISTS ROBBED

Marshalltown, Ia.—Two bandits held up C. C. Baldwin, St. Paul, representative of a fair concession, and John Wayne, Omaha, early Saturday and robbed them of $281. The bandits entered Baldwin's car in the business district here and forced him and Wayne to drive outside the city, where they took $275 from Baldwin and $6 from Wayne.

FLAYS PACIFIST INFLUENCES

Atlantic City, N. J.—Linking pacifist "influences" to communism, Admiral Standley asserted that organized "opposition to preparedness" has penetrated into schools, churches and such organizations as the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. "It is obvious that such subversive influences are jeopardizing our national security," Standley said.

EXPAND ARMS FACTORY

Melbourne, Australia.—The munitions supply board recommended that the cabinet expand the munitions factory at Maribyrnong, Victoria, to provide for the doubling of the production of heavy field guns and for an increased output of anti-aircraft guns. At present the factory is said to be working at capacity.

YORK RESIDENT DIES

York.—Benjamin F. Pordon, 53, died Sunday night at his home here following a long illness. He was born in Lewisburg, Tenn., and came to York in 1912. He is survived by his wife, two daughters, one son, two brothers and two sisters. Burial will be at Bradshaw.

GRADUATE BUYS PAPER

Fairfield, Neb.—The Fairfield Auxiliary, a weekly newspaper, was purchased Tuesday by H. Vaughan of Chester, a journalism graduate of the University of Nebraska. Irvin Hague of Fairfield formerly owned the paper.

TAXES RUN OVER ESTIMATE

Washington.—Income tax collections above estimates and exceeding last year's figures were reported by the treasury as it counted up results of another quarterly installment date.

GOLD ORE AT EUSTIS

Eustis, Neb.—Gold ore shipped from the Denver mint will be on exhibit in the merchants and manufacturers display during the annual corn show to be held here Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

A navigable channel by 1937 is the promise of Missouri river development boosters.

AVOCA NEWS

Jordan Kojker entered Doane college at Crete for the continuing of his studies there.

John Marquardt was over to Palmyra last Monday where he traded his car for another, a Chevrolet.

The Avoca high school went over to Nehawka and played, losing to the Nehawka lads by a score of 7 to 8.

Charles and Loy Hathaway of Union were in Avoca with a load of peaches grown near Union and which looked very good.

Mrs. Frad W. Hall was over to Lincoln for a number of days during the week where she was having some dental work done.

Carl Maseaman and wife of Lincoln were visiting in Avoca last Sunday and were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Maseaman.

They played the Otee team where they can play ball and have challenged the Canadilla team where they will play on the coming Friday.

Fred Marquardt was on the market at South Omaha last Monday with a load of hogs which brought him $10.15 per hundred and averaged 375 pounds each.

The city of Avoca is at this time grading the streets and putting them in excellent condition before the coming winter and are hoping they will remain so during the winter.

Mrs. Lida Johnson and Mrs. Rose Loomis were over to Lincoln last Tuesday where they were looking after some shopping for the day, being driven over by Clyde Hollenberger with the car.

Elmer Corbin and wife entertained at their home for the day and a very fine dinner last Sunday and had a number of their friends as guests and among whom were Frank Dean and family of Murdock.

A number of the people of Avoca were over to Weeping Water last Tuesday at the Constitution day meeting at the Congregational church.

Among those from here were M. J. Kohler, Rev. Fred Hall, Senator Fred L. Carsten and Carl Tefft.

While in the western portion of the state looking after some business matters E. J. Hallstrom, the banker, was taken suddenly ill and had to rush home and has been kept to his bed since, but is reported as, feeling somewhat better at this time.

Ed Shackley was over to Lincoln last Monday, going to take Miss Wilma Stutz who was entering the state university. Those attending the state university from Avoca this year are Frances Marquardt, Warren Payer, Stirling Baier, Reuben Dehning and Wilma Stutz.

A. Z. Thomas and family of Shenandoah were visiting in Avoca last Sunday at the home of W. H. Bogard, father of Mrs. Thomas where they all enjoyed the visit very much.

On the coming Sunday Mr. W. H. Bogard and son, Clyde, will visit in Shenandoah with the sister and daughter.

John Bruerwaser and Adolph Koster from Cassie Park, Illinois, have been visiting for the past few days at the home of Fred Koster and were visiting near Hastings before coming here. They report crops very bad in the west with many sunflowers and say the crops here are as good as they found anywhere. The crops in Illinois are very spotted.

Reports Auto Burned.
The radio from Lincoln reported the burning of an auto of a man named McCormick residing in the vicinity of Avoca. Just how the car caught fire is not known as it was blazing when discovered.

First Meeting of Season.
On Friday of this week, Sept. 20, the Woman's club of Avoca will hold their first meeting of the fall and will begin their activities for the winter. The first meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. W. Brendel.

Install New Street Light.
The city of Avoca has installed a new light at the corner of the store of Lloyd Behrens which is placed there for the purpose of providing more light when needed for some out of doors program such as a band concert and other things of this nature.

Played Kittenball.
The fats and the leans, otherwise the slims and the wide outs organized a kittenball game for last Saturday night and played. At the beginning it was thought to keep tally of the score but during the game the tally was lost so it was decided that the score for the fats was the number of inches around the largest one, the score of the leans the inches in height for the tallest of them which happened to be $9 for the fats and 73 for the leans. Fred Carsten was put in to pitch for the leans and the first

DURING The Carnival WE ARE KEEPING Open House to All Our Friends

We invite you to make our store your headquarters. Perhaps you would like to leave your measure for that New Fall Suit. Our tape line is "all tuned up" and ready.

WESCOTT'S
Since 1879

Inning they secured 13 runs and Fred said he would rather be in the state senate than to try and pitch kittenball. However they had a good game and a good time.

Ed Shackley run a man off third base for the leans and there was no place to go but home, so he ran, and added one more score to their tally.

Married Eighteen Years.
The fact being known to the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wessell that they were married just eighteen years ago on last Wednesday, an even hundred of their friends and relatives congregated at the Wessell home with plenty of good things to eat and properly celebrated the event. They also left a well filled purse as a token of their friendship and good feeling. This was accompanied by the wish for many long years of happiness and prosperity for the happy couple.

BRIDAL COUPLE INURED
Albion, Neb.—Four persons, including a bridal couple married an hour and a half were injured Monday night in an automobile-oil truck collision twelve miles west of here. Fred Hamblin, 60, and his bride, the former Mertie Warford, 54, both of Arcadia, were in a hospital here, while a sister of the bride, Mrs. William Bowers, 65, Cedar Rapids, was confined to her home. Art Witzel, Albion truck driver, was likewise at his home suffering minor injuries.

Mrs. Hamblin suffered a deep gash in her forehead, a broken knee cap, fractured rib and collarbone and cuts and bruises. Mr. Hamblin was cut about the head, his chest badly bruised, both knees cut and breast bone displaced, hospital attendants said.

SOCIAL CREDIT DEFERRED
Detroit.—Premier William Aberhart of Alberta said it may be eighteen months before his plan to pay every citizen of the Canadian province $25 a month in credit is put into effect.

The premier, whose social credit party recently scored a smashing victory, conferred here with Father Coughlin, who has long been an exponent of monetary reform.

"Both Premier Aberhart and Alberta are to be congratulated on this forward step," Father Coughlin said in a statement issued after the conference.

RELEASED ON BOND
From Tuesday's Daily:
Everett Odom, against whom a charge of assault to commit great bodily injury was filed Monday, was released today on bond for the hearing. The case is set for September 28th and the amount of the cash bond fixed at $1,500.

HERE FROM CHICAGO
From Monday's Daily:
Mrs. James Ptacek and daughters, Maxine and Gertrude, arrived this morning from their home at Chicago and will spend a short time here with the old friends and neighbors and also enjoy the King Korn Carnival.

HERE FROM WEEPING WATER
From Wednesday's Daily
Mrs. Ralph Keckler and Mrs. Clinton Wilkinson of Weeping Water, were in the city today, bringing with them a fine collection of flowers to be added to the flower show in the room east of the Journal.

HERE FROM PEORIA, ILL.
Mr. and Mrs. Leo Schmidt and small son, also Mr. Henry Weisert from Peoria, Illinois, are here visiting at the home of Mrs. Schmidt's and Mr. Weisert's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Forno.

TO SPEAK FRIDAY
R. Foster Patterson, former principal of the high school, will speak to the student body of the school on Friday morning at 11:30. Mr. Patterson will talk on the constitution.

FROM TUESDAY'S DAILY:
Glen Rutledge of the Nehawka Enterprise was in the city today to look after some matters of business for a short time, going from here to Lincoln on business.

Improved crop conditions and higher prices for farm products will stimulate business. Shrewd advertisers recognize this and will go after increased trade.

Phone the news to No. 5.

FOR Dependable Insurance and Surety Bonds in the Largest and Oldest Companies in America

SEE

INSURANCE AND BONDS

DUXBURY & DAVIS

PHONE 16 PLATTSMOUTH

HI-JACK LIQUOR STORE

From Wednesday's Daily
Sheriff Sylvester and Deputy Sheriff Walling were called to Eagle last night on the report of the robbery of one of the business houses of the west Cass county town. It was found on arrival that hi-jackers had visited the liquor store of that place and made off with several quarts of whiskey, leaving a few quarts of the lower grades. The officers failed to find any trace of the parties that staged the robbery and who are still at large, enjoying the fruits of their raid.

VISIT OLD FRIENDS

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leosis, who for a number of years were located in this city, engaged in the restaurant business, were in the city Tuesday. They are now located at Council Bluffs where Mr. Leosis has a large restaurant and tavern on upper Broadway. They had the pleasure of meeting many of the old friends while in the city.

VISIT AT NORTH PLATTE

Roy Olson, storekeeper of the BREQ departed Saturday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Olson and Maxine Olson, for North Platte, where they visited with a brother and sister of Mr. T. E. Olson. They spent Saturday evening at Gothenburg and last evening returned home to this city after a most pleasant visit with the relatives.

VISITS WITH OLD FRIENDS

Ewing Sharp, eldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sharp, is spending a few days in this city with the old time friends of his school day associations. Mr. Sharp is now residing at Wenatchee, Washington, the family locating in the west after the death of Mr. Sharp. While here he is guest of the old school friends.

HERE FROM CHICAGO

From Wednesday's Daily
Robert Burkle, of Chicago, arrived this morning from Chicago and will spend a few days here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Val Burkle. While here Robert will have the opportunity of meeting many of the old school friends and associates.

VISIT WITH RELATIVES HERE

Mr. and Mrs. James Gilmour of near Ulysses, Nebraska are here for a visit at the home of their relatives and old time friends in this section of Cass county. They are visiting at the Sam Gilmour home as well as the A. J. Snyder family and a number of the old time friends.

SIAMESE TWIN MELONS

Clyde Jackson and family were at Thurman, Iowa, Sunday to visit at the home of a brother-in-law, A. D. Batchler, near that place. They brought with them on their return a Siamese twin muskmelon, two large and perfectly formed melons being united and the melons of a very luscious flavor and quality.

VERY HAPPY EVENT

Sunday at the St. Catherine's hospital at Omaha a fine little daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Snyder, Jr., who with the mother is doing nicely and the occasion brought much pleasure to the members of the family. The little one has been named Margaret Corrine.

VISITS IN CITY

N. C. Abbott, superintendent of the Nebraska School for the Blind, at Nebraska City, was here for a short time Tuesday, visiting with the old friends and to attend the local Rotary meeting. Mr. Abbott was en route to Omaha and stopped off to greet old acquaintances of back in the days when he served as the superintendent of the city schools here.

A REAL PEACH

Gene Mason, of this city has brought to the Journal a fine peach that was grown at his home in this city and which is one of the largest and finest that has been seen this season. It is given a place in the Journal's collection of fruits.

What a Value

IGA GELATINE DESSERT

6 PKGS. 23¢

What an opportunity to economize on your desserts! You will want a dozen packages or more at this low price.

SPECIAL FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

"DOUBLE ACTING" BAKING POWDER

CALUMET 1-LB. CAN 21c

RED "A" COFFEE 3 LBS. 54c

BAKER'S PREMIUM NO. 1 CHOCOLATE CAKE 14c

IGA SLICED HAWAIIAN PINEAPPLE NO. 2 1/2 CAN 21c

Crackers, Soda or Graham, 2-lb. . 19c

Hominy, large No. 2 1/2 cans, 3 for . 25c

Pork & Beans, large No. 2 1/2 can . 10c
First Prize Brand—Norfolk Pack

Peaches, home grown, bu. . . . 75c to $1

Del Monte Coffee, lb. 27c

Tokay Grapes, 3 lbs. 25c

Head Lettuce, solid Iceberg, 2 for . 15c

Fresh Pork Brains, lb. 12 1/2c

Summer Sausage, per lb. 22 1/2c
Swift's Essex Cervelat Brand

Black & White

SIAMESE TWIN MELONS

Clyde Jackson and family were at Thurman, Iowa, Sunday to visit at the home of a brother-in-law, A. D. Batchler, near that place. They brought with them on their return a Siamese twin muskmelon, two large and perfectly formed melons being united and the melons of a very luscious flavor and quality.

VERY HAPPY EVENT

Sunday at the St. Catherine's hospital at Omaha a fine little daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Snyder, Jr., who with the mother is doing nicely and the occasion brought much pleasure to the members of the family. The little one has been named Margaret Corrine.

VISITS IN CITY

N. C. Abbott, superintendent of the Nebraska School for the Blind, at Nebraska City, was here for a short time Tuesday, visiting with the old friends and to attend the local Rotary meeting. Mr. Abbott was en route to Omaha and stopped off to greet old acquaintances of back in the days when he served as the superintendent of the city schools here.

A REAL PEACH

Gene Mason, of this city has brought to the Journal a fine peach that was grown at his home in this city and which is one of the largest and finest that has been seen this season. It is given a place in the Journal's collection of fruits.

Mullen's Market

THESE PRICES GOOD FRIDAY - SATURDAY

Prunes, med. size, 2-lb. box 20c

Pork and Beans, large 31-oz. can . 10c

Palmolive Soap, 6 bars for 25c

Ginger Snaps, 1-lb. box 15c

Fluted Coconut Cookies, lb. 19c

MJB "Safety-Sealed" Cofee

1b. 30c

OATMEAL

Kamo Brand

Quick or Regular—Large

48-oz. Tube, Only

19c

Small Pkg. 10c

Oranges, 252 size, doz. 27c

Jar Rubbers, red, 3 doz. 10c

Hershey Cocoa, 1 lb. can 13c

Quality Meats

Beef Roast, lb. 15c

Plate/Boil, lb. 12c

Sirloin or Round Steak, lb. 23c

Lard Compound, lb. 16c

Chili Brick, 1-lb. size 23c