

Weeping Water

E. G. Sheeley and family were guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Allen.

Louis Carstens, Jr., and family, were guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gibson.

Jack Jourgenson, having some business matters to look after at Plattsmouth, drove over Monday morning of this week.

Richard Cole and wife were enjoying a visit last Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Sheldon, of Nehawka.

Henry Mogensen left Sunday for St. Louis, where he has been attending the national convention of the American Legion this week.

P. H. Miller was in Plattsmouth last Friday, where he enjoyed a visit with his son, James Miller and wife, and also attended the King Korn carnival.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hobson were at Lincoln last Friday, where they spent the afternoon and where Richard was looking after some business matters.

Peter Miller was called to Council Bluffs last Sunday, where he was looking after some business matters and at the same time visited with friends there.

W. W. Davis, W. D. Dove and D. Range were busy placing a new roof on the Congregational church and are hopping to the work and getting along nicely, although it is a big job.

Mrs. D. T. Dudley, who is well advanced in years, has been sick at her home for the past few days, and although everything possible is being done for her, she is still feeling quite poorly.

A. E. Oldham and wife were at Plattsmouth Friday evening to attend the King Korn carnival, making the trip especially to witness the double wedding that was the feature attraction there that night.

Rev. J. A. Parcell, pastor of the Mennonite church, returned a few days since from a conference of the church which was held at Milford. He has been returned to the charge here for the coming year.

Mrs. E. J. DeWolf, who has been in apparent good health, was suddenly stricken with a critical illness and has been confined to her home the past few days, still being very ill. Her sons are caring for her at this time.

Bill Johnson, owner of the South side cafe, and who is also a capable sign painter, has made a transparent sign for the new liquor store, which is now in place on the front of the building in which that business is being conducted.

Glenn Heneger of Weeping Water and Russell Switzer of Nehawka, who have been in the western part of the state helping to harvest the large crop of potatoes grown there, with the conclusion of their work, arrived home on Monday of this week.

Adam Schaeffer and W. J. Patterson from east of town were in Weeping Water last Monday morning, Mr. Schaeffer going on to Lincoln, where he had some business, while Mr. Patterson visited in town and waited for Mr. Schaeffer to return and pick him up.

County Commissioner E. B. Chapman of the second district, was here last Monday looking after some business matters for the county, and was consulting with Commissioner Fred H. Gorder as to the best method of doing some work which they had in mind.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Ross of Weeping Water and Mr. and Mrs. Art Rough of Nehawka left Sunday for St. Louis, where they are attending the national convention of the American Legion this week and also expect to see one of the big league baseball games.

Frank B. Hubbard, of Taylor, where he has made his home for many years and is now highway commissioner, was a visitor in Weeping Water for a few days, extending his stay over Sunday. Mrs. William Jamison, who had been spending the summer with them at Taylor, returned home with Mr. Hubbard on his trip here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Oldham were enjoying a visit last Sunday from Lee Phillips and family of near Plattsmouth. The two families have kept in touch with each other for many years, they both having resided as neighbors at Fairplay, Mo., more than forty years ago. It is safe to say they greatly enjoyed their visit together.

To Work at CCC Camp

Newton L. Grubbs, Rex Wade, Dixie Kirkpatrick and Lane Christensen were all engaged as instructors in the CCC camps were given the physical examination as well as the required vaccinations. They will be called to their work October 1st.

Home from Convention

Chris Rasmussen, was a delegate gate to the national convention of the Danish Brotherhood which was held in Denver last week, was away for some ten days, going on Sunday and returning home on Monday. He says there was a large and very enthusiastic attendance at the convention. Following adjournment of the meeting, he visited a number of the places of interest in the mile high city of the west, one of them being the grave of the late William F. Cody, known as Buffalo Bill, who was one of the noted frontiersmen of the early days. Chris enjoyed every minute of the time he spent in the west, and was well tired out from being on the go all the time, being glad to get back home again.

Weeping Water Citizen Dies

Thomas Anderson Dixon was born in the state of Missouri on January 30, 1873, and lived there until he was about twenty years of age, when he came with his family to Nebraska, they locating in the vicinity of Weeping Water, where he has resided ever since. Their former home had been near Fairplay, Mo. During the past year he has not been in the best of health and he passed away on Friday, September 20th, at his home in this city.

Mr. Dixon had long been a faithful member of the Mennonite church, from whence the funeral was held on Monday afternoon of this week, the services being conducted by the Rev. J. A. Parcell, pastor of the church. Interment was in Oakwood cemetery.

Besides the aged wife, he leaves nine children to mourn his departure, they being: L. C., Guy, Herman, Frank, William A., Victor C. and Thomas Dixon, Jr., Mrs. Carrie and Daisy Baker.

Played on Town Hall Program

Last Sunday, Dr. Kintner, in his auto, and accompanied by F. H. Harmon, wife and son, Duane, left for a trip to New York City. Duane, who was winner of the Mid-West amateur contest, was scheduled to play on the "Town Hall" amateur hour Wednesday night, direct from Radio City, broadcasting headquarters of the NBC. Also, on arrival in the east, they expected to apply for a place on the Major Bowes amateur hour, but we do not know if this has been arranged or not. In case it is, his date would probably be Sunday evening, October 20th, which is designated as Omaha night on the Bowes program.

Duane is a very talented young cornetist and won the Mid-west contest over a large number of contestants in all lines. He appeared on the closing night's program of the King Korn carnival at Plattsmouth Saturday and received much applause.

A further account of his playing on the Town Hall program will be found elsewhere in this issue.

Has Won a Trip

J. J. Meier, the druggist, who also sells Norge refrigerators, was winner of a trip to be taken some time in January as a result of his splendid salesmanship ability in disposing of a greater number of refrigerators than others in his division. There are a total of 75 Norge dealers who are to make this trip as guests of the company and Mr. Meier is looking forward to a splendid time.

Displayed a Friendly Spirit

Citizens of all parts of Cass county are well pleased with the great success attained by this year's county fair, with its large number of entries in all classes and the fine attendance on each of the four days. The weather was perfect and the great success is pleasing to all. The same is likewise true of the Korn Carnival at Plattsmouth, which this year rose to new heights of attendance and interest, having the same fine weather all of the four days it was conducted.

Another thing in connection with these two feature exhibitions that has impressed us greatly is the fine spirit of co-operation that was manifested. During the fair, a large delegation of Plattsmouth boosters accompanied by their Junior drum corps, came over to fraternize with the Weeping Water people on Plattsmouth day and had a splendid time. Then last week, on Friday, while the Korn Carnival was at its height, the Weeping Water folks repaid the visit, going in a large group and marching in the parade. Each of the delegations wore distinguishing ribbons and it was inspiring to note the co-operation that exists. It is such co-operation that brings about success and is responsible for the large crowds that attended the two exhibitions this year. Let's keep up the good work and all join hands in boosting for the continued success of each show during the succeeding years.

From Monday's Daily
Mrs. Elizabeth Nodeke of Mitchell, Nebraska, was in the city today as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Robinson and family.

School Classes Organized for the Coming Year

Select Officers and Sponsors to Guide Them Through the Many Class Activities for the Term.

The classes of the Plattsmouth high school have completed their organization for the forthcoming term and are now fully launched on the program of class activities under their officers and the class sponsors.

This is one of the big events of the school year and the students have maintained a keen interest in the organization of their groups that they may attain the very best results from the various activities that will from now on mark each class.

The seniors, who the coming spring will leave the old high school as graduates have selected as their officers, Joe Hendrix as president; Betty Bullin, vice-president; Kathryn Armstrong as the secretary-treasurer, while J. R. Reeder, the principal of the high school, will be the senior sponsor.

The juniors, who always face a very strenuous program that will include the annual Junior-Senior banquet, have named as the officers, William Carey as president; Rachel Robertson, vice-president; Ruth Newland, secretary; Marjorie Tidball treasurer, and Miss Beighley and Mr. Gerner as their sponsors to assist in the many activities of the class.

The sophomores in their meeting selected as their officers for the year, Robert Woest as president; Dick Hall, vice-president; Jane Rebal, secretary-treasurer; with Mr. Alvord as the sponsor.

The freshmen in launching their class for the first year in the high school, have named a full list of officers and are now ready with the rest of the school for the program of the year. The officers named were: James Webb, president; John Tidball, vice-president; Maxine Nielsen, secretary; Ronald Rebal, treasurer and Mr. Hoyt Griffin as the class mentor.

VERY HAPPY EVENT

A fine seven pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Streich, near Murdock, on Saturday afternoon, who with the mother is doing very nicely at the family home. Mr. Streich was formerly Miss Mary Capwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Capwell of Elmwood and she is a niece of Attorney J. A. Capwell of this city. The little son has been christened Dayle Edward. The parents will receive the heartiest congratulations on the new happiness that has come to them.

ENTERTAIN FRIENDS

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Emmons J. Richey was the scene of a very delightful gathering of their friends on Sunday evening, the occasion being a costume party as well as a house warming.

The Richey home has during the past summer been remodeled and is now one of the most attractive in the city, making a charming setting for the jolly gathering. Throughout the rooms the fall flowers added their beauty to the scene.

The guests arriving in costume created a great deal of merriment as each of the members of the party was introduced and the party presented a wide array of the gowns and suits of other days as well as those of more modern time.

During the evening a delightful buffet supper was served to the members of the jolly group. A number of the friends from Omaha were in attendance at the event.

TWIN PUMPKINS

This seems to be a season for twins in the vegetable kingdom and W. P. Albee of this city has at his home a fine twin pumpkin, two perfectly formed and joined as Siamese twins. The freak was discovered a few days ago when he was working in his garden.
