

Murdock Jottings

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Green, of La-Seuer, Minn., visited in Murdock last week, being guests while here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Weddell. G. Bauer, who was a recent visitor in Minnesota, where he has two daughters, tells of doing considerable fishing and says the fish were biting splendidly. He enjoyed his visit a great deal.

Cash Sylvester, representative of the Claude A. Ruse Motor company, of Plattsmouth, distributors of Ford products, was looking after some business matters in Murdock last Wednesday.

Otto Miller plans to have the barn located on his east property in Murdock torn down and removed, as he has more use for the lumber which it contains than he has for the barn where it now stands.

W. O. Gillespie was painting the roof of the porch in front of the hotel, doing an excellent job. This is but the second time the roof has been painted in eighteen years and it is still in good condition.

Louis Hornbeck and family, of Lincoln, were visiting in Murdock last Sunday, being guests at the home of Mrs. Charles Backemeyer and also of I. G. Hornbeck, where they all enjoyed a very fine visit.

O. J. Hitchcock and family, of Havelock, dropped in on the L. Neitzel family last Sunday evening and found a very warm reception, all enjoying an excellent visit and the fine supper that was served.

W. Bourke, who is working in Manley, assisting his friend, O. E. McDonald with the conduct of the latter's business there, still has his rooms in Murdock and drives to and from his work each day.

A crew of field men representing the World-Herald was in Murdock last Wednesday, soliciting subscribers for that newspaper. The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Buck is the carrier here and is prompt and courteous as well as most efficient in her work.

Fay Nelson has moved his cream station to the building formerly used by O. E. McDonald for his amusement parlor. The Harding Cream company have rented the building adjoining the Murdock Co-Operative Credit association's building, apparently with a view to establishing another cream station here.

There is much joy at the home of

Mr. and Mrs. William Straich over the arrival of a fine baby boy who came to reside with them last Saturday evening. All are doing nicely and the pleasure extends to the homes of the grandparents, Albert Straich and Howard Capwell and wife, the latter parents of Mrs. Wm. Straich.

G. Bauer and L. Neitzel were at Louisville Sunday, where they attended Sunday school at the Methodist church and later listened to the sermon of Rev. Carter, pastor of that church. The church there was just starting an evangelistic campaign to last until October 6th. Gipsy Smith, a noted evangelist, is conducting the meetings.

Flies Cause Much Trouble
While working with his team, W. O. Schewe was kicked by one of the horses on the knee, making a severe wound. This was caused by the flies, which are unusually bad for this time of year. The warm weather has made them very bothersome. Later, a cow which he was milking, kicked him on the ankle, adding to his disabilities. The first good frost will wither the bothersome flies, but until it arrives all livestock is being pestered with them.

Farm Brings Nice Price
The farm formerly owned by Herman R. Schmidt has been sold by John Gakemeier and Henry Crozier to Louis Siekjest, of Eustis, for the sum of $16,000. The farm originally contained 160 acres, but the Rock Island right of way cuts across the land, reducing its area by some seven acres. The 153 acres sold, brought in excess of $100 per acre.

A number of farms have changed hands during the past few months, indicating an increasing demand for farm land among investors.

Will Make Home in Iowa

Some time since, C. A. Kupke was over near Grand Junction, Iowa, doing some plowing and sowing of fall wheat on the land which he will farm there this coming year. He will be located on one of the farms of W. G. Renwanz, Sr., who recently purchased two farms in that vicinity. Mr. Kupke is now getting ready for the sowing of wheat on the farm here and has also been busy cutting alfalfa. When this last crop of alfalfa is out of the way, he will plow up the field and sow it to wheat, so it will not have to be cultivated the coming season. They expect to move to Iowa during the month of March.

Mr. Kupke had intended to harvest his alfalfa crop here for seed, but the grasshoppers got into it and as a result he has found it more profitable to cut it for the hay.

Takes Over Lumber Yard
T. W. Engle, of the Engle Lumber company, which operates yards at Auburn, Elmwood and other towns in southeastern Nebraska, came to Murdock to look after taking over the yard here which they recently purchased from H. W. Tool. He has arranged for W. T. Weddell to operate the yard as well as the service station which they acquired in the transaction.

Mr. Goerthy remained in the east until he was 20 years of age, but has resided in Nebraska during the past 28 years. In this time, he has been back to the old home but twice, and on his last trip there during the past summer, he brought his mother, Mrs. Carrie Goerthy home with him for a visit of a year. This is the first time she has had the privilege of being with her son on his birthday for 28 years, and they enjoyed the day together. With all the family as guests, they partook of a fine birthday dinner which was prepared by the wife of the guest of honor. Congratulations, and may you live to enjoy many more happy birthdays, Mr. Goerthy.

Will Make Home in Denver
H. W. Tool, who recently disposed of his lumber business in Murdock, departed last Sunday for the west and will be located in Denver, where he has accepted a position as traveling salesman for a large lumber firm with headquarters in the west and a whole-sale office in Denver. He will cover a large territory for this concern, being out of the city most of the time.

Kittenball Results
With the season drawing rapidly to a close, interest in kittenball is still very keen and good crowds are out for the games that are played under the flood lights. Last Tuesday night the following were the results: In the opening game the Stags defeated Wabash, 8 to 4; the second contest was between the Fire Department and a team from Ithica, the former winning by a score of 9 to 3, while the concluding game was between Elmwood and the Lutherans, being won by the former, 4 to 3.

Here on Their Vacation
Rev. George A. Clarke and wife, who are located at Beaver City, have been enjoying their annual vacation and visited in Murdock with Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Ward, Mrs. Clarke, a sister of Mrs. Ward. From here they went to Beatrice for a visit with M. G. Keedy and family, and afterwards on to Kansas City, where they were guests at the home of Troy Ward and family. On their return home, they passed through Kansas and visited at several points en route. After some two weeks of vacationing, they are returning to their home at Beaver City, where Rev. Clarke will resume his work as pastor of the Christian church of that place.

Combining Better Portions
J. H. Buck, who is a worker and not afraid to tackle any job, no matter how difficult, has secured two automobiles, a Nash and a Chrysler, and is taking the better portions of each car with which to make a new automobile for himself. The vehicle will be a coupe and when completed will serve the purpose for which it is intended in splendid manner.

Working at Lumber Yard
G. Bauer, who has been working on the power line extension of the Nebraska Power company in the vicinity of Weeping Water, clearing a right-of-way for the lines being run to provide rural service, with the curtailing of the force, was laid off recently and immediately secured a position cleaning up the shrubbery that has been allowed to grow up about the lumber yard which was recently purchased by the T. W. Engle Lumber company.

Mr. Bauer is doing a very fine piece of work in straightening up the yard and clearing away the growth of shrubbery. W. T. Weddell, who has been placed in charge of the yard and service station, is making some important changes in the arrangement and will receive a large shipment of lumber, bringing the stock up to a state where patrons can get almost anything they want in this line.

Resettlement Administration Work in County

Jean H. Spangler, Local Director—Regional Director Explains Purpose of Relief Measure.

Work of the new Resettlement Administration in the handling of rehabilitation and resettlement problems in the following Nebraska counties, Cass, Otoe and Nemaha will be cared for under the direction of Mr. Jean H. Spangler, working in closest co-operation with County Agent D. D. Wainwright, it was announced Thursday by Cal A. Ward, regional director of rural resettlement for the states of North and South Dakota, Nebraska and Kansas. Mr. D. P. Moulton was named district supervisor for 16 counties in the 3rd district, with headquarters at Lincoln.

With this announcement the procedure for applying for benefits under the Resettlement Administration were outlined by Mr. Ward as follows: First, the applicant for a properly secured loan must be deserving and have the desire, character and ability to repay such loan under a period of from two to five years. Second, the applicant will call on the local representative named above, will present his problems and the local representative will assist him in mapping out a farm budget plan looking to the re-establishment of the applicant on a self-sustaining basis. Third, the plan will be passed upon by the County Advisory Committee and, if approved, will then be submitted to the regional office for final action. In each case the needs of the individual applicant are of first consideration and the budgeted farm management plan will be based on the individual case.

"The Resettlement Administration," said Mr. Ward, "is not a relief agency. Of course, the relief problem is of paramount importance at this time and will be met through our regional, state and county organizations but our ultimate goal is the re-establishment of the worthy and deserving farmers to a self-sustaining basis. We know there are many farmers who have been too proud to ask for relief and who have now reached the point where they simply have to have help. We are particularly interested in that group who, with a comparatively small loan, could purchase the necessary farm equipment or livestock or other capital goods and get back on their feet. We are in the field to help a farming population who have suffered intensely during the last years of drought. Their rehabilitation we know will be of the greatest possible benefit to the individual farmer, to the state and to the nation as a whole.

Woman Has Key to Long Power

Mrs. Alice Lee Grosjean Tharpe
A woman, the former secretary to Senator Huey Pierce Long, is due to play a vital part in the future fate of the political empire that was sent into temporary chaos with the assassination of Long at Baton Rouge, La. She is Mrs. Alice Lee Grosjean Tharpe, Louisiana's commissioner of public accounts, with unlimited authority to administer the state's finances as she pleases. Mrs. Tharpe has been with Long ever since she was 17, first as his secretary when he was public service commissioner.

Cass, Otoe and Nemaha counties is a two-fold program, that of rehabilitation and that of resettlement. The rehabilitation program is regarded as a more or less temporary phase of the work. The resettlement program is the more permanent and will deal with four types of farmers: Families living on land which cannot be made to yield a satisfactory living. The second type of farm family which will furnish candidates for resettlement is the farm tenant class. It is estimated that at least ten per cent of the tenant farmers are potential candidates for resettlement. The third type, young couples just starting out in life who because of economic conditions would probably have to start their agricultural life as hired servants or tenants. And the fourth class under the resettlement program will be taken from rehabilitation applicants to prove their merit under the rehabilitation loan plan.

"Thus it is in rehabilitation moderate sums will be loaned to rehabilitants to be invested in capital goods and will be expended under a budgeted farm management plan for a short period until such families are able to provide their own subsistence and under the resettlement plan will be included purchase of land or its lease on a long term basis upon which to establish farm families of the four types outlined above with farm ownership the ultimate goal.

"Ways and means of meeting the immediate rural relief problem are under consideration and will be announced in the near future," Mr. Ward said.

Further information concerning the work of rural resettlement may be obtained through County Agent D. D. Wainwright or Mr. Jean H. Spangler, local representative of the Resettlement Administration at the offices of County Agent, at Weeping Water. The local representative's offices are at Nebraska City.
