

Murray

Charles L. Greene and family, of Union, were enjoying the dinner at Lewiston last Sunday, and also called on friends in Murray while up this way.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dysart were at Plattsmouth last Monday morning, where they were looking after some matters of business for a short time.

The Murray lumber yard received a car of Spadra and one of hard coal on Monday, a considerable part of each car being delivered direct to buyers.

Messrs and Mesdames George Troop and Dan Wagner were in Plattsmouth last Sunday evening, where they attended the feature picture being shown at the Ritz.

Mrs. M. L. Craig, who has been visiting for the past week with Mrs. Sadie Oldham and Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Young, departed last Monday for her home in Kansas.

Will S. Smith was a visitor in Nebraska City last Monday morning, going down after a load of goods for the grocery store and bringing the same back with him.

Mrs. John Royer and son, Henry Royer and family and Mrs. Harry McCulloch were down near Oteo last Sunday, where Mrs. Royer was visiting with her children.

John W. Murdock and wife, of near Nehawka, were visiting in Murray a short time while en route home from Plattsmouth, where they had been called to look after some matters of business.

James Smith who was engaged in extensive gardening during the past summer, among other things, raised a large crop of potatoes, which he is now engaged in digging, assisted by Dan Wagner.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora A. Davis were guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Davis, who reside a few miles south of Union, where a splendid dinner was served and all enjoyed a fine time visiting together.

Good progress is being made with the construction of the new Presbyterian parsonage and with continued good weather the frame work will be up and enclosed soon, after which the workmen can proceed in almost any kind of weather.

W. T. Schlichtemeier, wife and daughter of near Nehawka, were in Murray last Monday, where they were looking after some business matters connected with the execution of a lease between Mrs. Tucker and Alfred Gansmer and sons on certain lands west of Murray.

The Frank Mrasek fleet of trucks were hauling material to the Boedecker farm east of Murray to be used in the repair of the cribs and feed bunks, as there is to be much feeding of cattle there the coming months, and a good average crop of corn to be put in the cribs with which to do the feeding.

E. C. Harris and family, of Plattsmouth, were visiting in Murray, as Mrs. Harris, who was formerly Mrs. Morton Bartlett, resided here in years gone by, and enjoyed renewing acquaintances and visiting with the old friends. They also drove over to the Lewiston community center, where they enjoyed the fine dinner that was served.

Notwithstanding the general truth of the old saying that the shoemaker's wife has to go without shoes and the blacksmith's horse has to go unshod, Albert Young, a carpenter, has found time to build a porch and lay some new floors at his own home, which makes the place look much different, to say nothing of the added convenience.

Rena Allen Tennes, of Florida, who has been here visiting with friends in and about Murray during the past few weeks and will remain for some time, is spending this week at the home of her close friend, Mrs. Charles Wolfe. They were school girls together some forty years ago and have enjoyed living over the happy days of long ago.

R. A. Troop recently received a number of car loads of cattle which he placed on feed at the various farms he has between Murray and Nehawka. Mr. Troop is of the opinion that this is a good time to feed cattle and that there will be money in it during the next few years as prices are staging a comeback. The cattle were brought down from the South Omaha yards by the Mrasek Transfer company.

Roy Cole, who is known far and near for the excellent sorghum he turns out from cane raised on his farm, finding he would have some spare time, arranged to use his machinery in the manufacture of sorghum for a few of his neighbors as well.

Mont Shrader, who raised a large field of cane this year, is hauling the same to the evaporators of Mr. Cole, where it will be converted into that fine tasting sorghum that Mr. Cole is noted for making.

Home From Colorado. Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Tyson and their little one were enjoying a visit in the western portion of the state and Colorado last week, and as they were going stopped at Elmwood and picked up his father and mother, taking them along, they all having an excellent time visiting with three of the brothers of Dr. Tyson and one sister. They arrived home last Tuesday afternoon.

Have Tonsils Removed. Frank Dill who had been troubled with his tonsils last week had them removed by Dr. R. W. Tyson. Alvin Harris, the little son of Vance Harris, also had his removed late last week and this week the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Engelkemler had hers removed. All are getting along very nicely.

Hold Community Dinner. The Lewiston Community club, who served Sunday dinner and provided a good program with readings and musical numbers at the Lewiston Community Center, were repaid by a net income of slightly over $200 which will be spent on the Community Center and the cemetery nearby.

Visited Friends Here. Emil Hild and family and Mrs. Mary Hesseflow and the children, both families making their home in Council Bluffs, were guests at the home of the ladies' mother, Mrs. Frank Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Art Hansen and enjoyed the dinner which was served at Lewiston on last Sunday.

Celebrate Passing Birthday. Martin Sporer last Sunday had attained his 38th birthday anniversary and as a proper way of celebrating the same, his aunt, Mrs. A. G. Long, had Martin and family and the parents, Wm. Sporer and wife, Charles Sporer, Joe Long and family, Homer Miller and wife of Plainview and son, Charles Ferguson and family and Robert Ferguson of Nebraska City at her home for dinner. A very fine time was enjoyed by all those present.

Having Storage Water Tank. Parr Young, who feeds many cattle and requires much water for them, has arranged to have a tank ten feet square built of concrete which is to be twelve feet high. The material is being supplied by the Nickles Lumber yard and the work of construction being done by James Miller and son with their crew of workmen.

See the goods you buy. Catalog descriptions are flowery enough, but how about the goods when you get them?

HOLD SOCIAL MEETING

Tuesday evening the members of the Catholic Daughters of America held their social meeting at the home of Mrs. John Bergmann, with Miss Elizabeth Bergmann, Mrs. Elizabeth Meisinger, Mrs. Joseph Libershal and Mrs. A. G. Bach as the associate hostesses.

The ladies spent the evening very pleasantly at cards and in which Mrs. Henry Starkjohn was the winner of the first honors in bridge and Mrs. Ruth Koukal of the pinocle contests.

The hostesses at the conclusion of the evening served a dainty and delicious luncheon that added a great deal to the pleasure of the evening.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR MEETS

From Wednesday's Daily. The members of the Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church held a very pleasant meeting last evening at the church and which was attended by a pleasing number of the young people. The evening was spent in games of all kinds and which were much enjoyed. The evening culminated in the serving of doughnuts and coffee by the refreshment committee.

DEPART FOR SOUTH

From Monday's Daily. Mrs. Virginia Frady and son, Mott, with Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wetenkamp, departed this morning for Montecello, Arkansas, where they will visit at the home of Mrs. Margaret Swan, a daughter of Mrs. Frady. This city is the former home of the Frady family.
