JURY GIVEN HOLIDAY

From Friday's Daily
This morning when the district court was convened to take up the case of Lawrence C. Baldwin vs. Dr. W. H. Tuck, et al., the matter was dismissed and gave the jury a holiday until Monday morning when they will again take up their duties. The case which was settled was one for damages claimed in an auto collision near Weeping Water.

HAS SPLENDID RECORD

The local high school has received reports of the standing of Miss Jane Boedeker, graduate of the Plattsmouth high school, in the class of 1935, at William Woods college at Fulton, Missouri.

Miss Boedeker at William Woods has received on her reports for the first quarter all superior or excellent, the highest standing that it is possible to secure.

The high standing of this talented lady has brought the greatest pleasure to the local school faculty that had the task of assisting in her training while a student here.

SUFFERS BROKEN ARM

Henry Krejci, who has been engaged in working on the Missouri river projects for the past several months, Friday suffered a severe injury that will cause him to be out of active work for some time. Henry was cranking a car yesterday afternoon and which balked, the crank catching his arm and causing a fracture of the right forearm.

Platters Roll Over Oteans by 31 to 0 Score

Visitors Are Held at All Stages by Smooth Working Blue and White Platter Team.

The annual football battle of the Plattsmouth and Nebraska City high school teams drew out a good crowd of the fans at Athletic park Friday afternoon, these fans being given the opportunity of seeing an inspired Platter bunch "go to town" with the purple and gold warriors to a 31 to 0 score.

The Platters dominated the game at all stages and it was not until the last brief moments that Nebraska City penetrated into the Platter territory when two long passes were good to gain the visitors ground.

In the offensive William Carey, quarterback of the locals, shown forth as one of the many Platter stars that have in past years battled under the blue and white, his play being outstanding, his passing and the sweeping end runs providing the background for the five touchdowns that the locals registered.

The Plattsmouth line also was clicking perfectly and from the ends, Finney and Taylor there was a stone wall on defense and a swift moving attacking bunch on the offense when they blocked out the opponents to allow their speeding backs, Carey and Kriskey to get away on their trots down the field.

The game was quickly dominated by the Platters who started their march into the visitors territory and from the thirty yard stripe of the visitors Carey heaved a 20 yard pass to Earl Taylor and the Platters were knocking at the goal of their opponents. Kriskey battered his way through the N. C. line for the touchdown but the try for point was not good.

The second touchdown also occurred in the first quarter when Carey showed his skill as a broken field runner. Carey swept the Nebraska City end for twenty-five yards and once again he was away and the ball nestled in the shadow of Nebraska City's goal and from where Carey spun through the defense for the touchdown. Kriskey made good his extra point on a drive through the line.

The Platters in the second quarter added another score to their mounting list when Carey again thrilled the fans with his spectacular end runs and the Plattsmouth line gave a fine exhibition of smothering the visitors to pave the way for the ultimate victory. Carey took the ball to the Nebraska City fifteen yard line while Kriskey picked up to the five yard marker of the visitors and from there Carey took over the touchdown. The try for the extra counter was not good and the half ended with a 19 to 0 margin for the Platters.

With the opening of the half the defense of the Oteans stiffened but was gradually battered down by the smashing attacks of the Platters. In the third quarter the end runs of Carey again brought the ball deep into the Otean territory and from the ten yard stripe Kriskey registered for the Platters in their fourth rip over the visitors goal. The try for point failed.

With the fourth quarter well toward its close the Platters again started a march toward the purple and gold goal line. Wall made a spectacular end run but the burst of speed was useless as the Platters were off side and the play called back. The loss was not for long, however, as Kriskey was able to sneak out to the sidelines and received a beautifully heaved pass that netted the Platters some twenty yards and the Nebraska City eleven were backed up against the wall. The pass of Carey to Earl Taylor was good for the touchdown, Earl skirting the end for the score. The try for extra point was not good and the scoring spree of the Platters ended in the 31 to 0 score.

As the game was drawing to a close a long pass to King was good for Nebraska City and for the first time they were in the deep Platter territory as the game ended.

The result is the largest score that has been rolled up by either team in their twelve year annual meet, 31 to 0, the nearest to this being the Platters battering ram of 1933 that won by the score of 19 to 0.

At the Lewiston Center on Wednesday evening, November 27, there will be presented the three act play, "When a Woman Decides," which the public is invited to attend.

Benjamin Miller Gerlach

Our community was greatly shocked and deeply saddened on Sunday morning, November 19, to hear of the sudden death of Ben Gerlach. The family had just returned from Fremont where they had participated in the wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. William Grogan. Becoming suddenly ill, he rushed upstairs to the bathroom. From the dazed condition resulting from his sudden attack, it appears that Mr. Gerlach fell, striking his head against some projection of the bath fixtures, which it is thought was the direct cause of his death.

Mrs. Julia Killeen, who occupies an apartment at the Gerlach residence heard his fall and summoned Mrs. Gerlach who, after forcing the door to the bathroom, found Mr. Gerlach lying on the floor. Within a few minutes he had passed away.

Benjamin Miller Gerlach, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Gerlach, was born at Millersville, Pennsylvania, May 1, 1892. His departure from this life occurred Sunday morning, November 19, 1935, making his age 43 years, 6 months and 9 days.

On the 19th day of December, 1917, he was united in marriage to Isabel Shrader at Omaha. They made their home in Omaha until 1920, when they moved to North Bend and have since made their home there. Three children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Gerlach, Yvonne Pearl, who died in infancy; David Shrader Gerlach, aged 8 years, and Marilyn Georgia Ann, aged 20 months.

Besides his beloved wife and children, his departure is mourned by his mother, Mrs. Lydia Ann Gerlach, and four sisters, Mrs. Bertha Copeland, Mrs. Mary Whitmer, Mrs. Ralph Esbenshade and Miss Anna Gerlach, all of Millersville, Pennsylvania.

Mr. Gerlach was a blacksmith by trade, and has operated a shop in North Bend for the past fifteen years. He was recognized as an efficient, industrious craftsman.

He was a member of the Methodist church. He was also a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges.

Uniform Bottle Beer Price Now in Effect Here

Local Dealers Discontinue Sale of 10 Cent Pint Bottles—No Increase in the Standard Brands.

From Saturday's Daily:
Ten cent bottle beer in Plattsmouth is now a thing of the past. In an ad appearing elsewhere in today's Journal announcement is made of a uniform price of 15 cents for pint bottles at the places of business of all the eleven licensed on-sale dealers in this city.

This in no wise affects the prevailing price of those leading brands that have been selling regularly all the time at 15 cents and will continue to be sold at that price. Instead, it provides an increased price on some of the "competition" brands that have been selling at 10 cents.

Explanation of this increase is found in a statement of the dealers that 10 cent beer sold during the summer was a light beer or the second brand of leading breweries, brought out as a competition product, and while it enjoyed a large sale, there were many even then who preferred the regular priced 15 cent bottle beer.

Now, with all beers stepped up in content for cold weather drinking, the increased cost of the competition brands make it impossible to longer sell at a 10 cent price.

Dealers say purchasers will get a much better and heavier content bottle beer at the new price, having choice of all the leading brands that have sold regularly at 15 cents. To continue sale of the cheaper brands at any fair margin of profit would require selling them for the same price as top brands have always sold for, hence some of the competition brands will eliminate themselves as beer drinkers paying the 15 cent price will call for standard 15 cent brews.

The changed price policy does not affect the sale of tap beer.

In many towns, dealers have refused to handle 10 cent beer, even in summer, when cost is less and turnover greater, claiming the thin margin of profit was too small.

A. & O. CLASS

On Thursday evening, the members of the A. and O. Young Business Women's class of the Methodist Sunda school were entertained at the home of Miss Mildred Hall. This was the monthly social meeting and the guests spent the evening in working on the doll dressing project which was started the first year, and which is progressing very favorably according to the plans made for it at that time. Besides the regular members of the class, the following guests were present: Miss Lucille Hatt, Mrs. Harold Hilgardner, Mr. Roy Olson, and Mr. Wilber Hall. At a suitable hour delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Stanford Crushes California, 13 to 0!

STANFORD STADIUM, PALO ALTO, CAL., Nov. 23—Stanford turned on the heat here today for a few minutes and administered a surprising 13 to 0 defeat to California's hitherto undefeated and untied Golden Bears, while 90,000 spectators went wild. The Stanford running attack was fierce, beyond anything seen on the Pacific coast this year—at least for those flaming few minutes. After that the Bears fought back gallantly, even taking an edge over the Redskins, but failing to get into pay dirt. The Stanford Cardinals knocked the Bears out of the Coast Conference championship and a Rose Bowl bid. Bobby Grayson of Stanford was at his All-American best. So were "Bones" Hamilton, "Monk" Moscrip and little Jimmy Coffis of the Cardinals. Floyd Blower of California fought his heart out. Photo shows Blower trying an off tackle slash with Sparks of California (32) and Chapman of the Bears (48) running interference. Both were trying to take Moscrip (23) out of the play. Reynolds of Stanford can be seen under Chapman's arms. Roubie (5) and Muller (33) Cardinals' right guard and center, can be discerned coming into the play from the left. Meek (49) California quarterback, may be seen behind Muller. Blower made only a yard on the coast. Moscrip was knocked out twice, the second time for good.

UNDERGOES TREATMENT

From Saturday's Daily:
Mr. and Mrs. Guy C. White were in Omaha today where they placed their youngest child in the hospital for treatment. The little one has not been doing as well as she should for some time and it is hoped will improve with the course of treatment.
