Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Warren and son spent Sunday afternoon in Lincoln with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Leesley and Vedah visited Mr. and Mrs. Ben Conley Friday evening.

Mrs. Helen Lemon and Mrs. Harry Schroeder arrived last Friday from Long Beach, Calif., and then went on to Rochester, Minn., to visit Francis Lemon who is at the Mayo hospital at that place. At the latest report he is getting along nicely.

Friends here received word the first of the week that Mr. Herman Brunkow had been able to leave the hospital in Lincoln the latter part of the week. Mr. Brunkow had been in the hospital almost five months from injuries he had received in an automobile wreck.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. White and Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bucknell and sons went to Lincoln Sunday afternoon where they attended the Presentation of Oratorio, "The Elijah," by the University Choral Union at the university coliseum.

The members of the Epworth League met at the church basement Friday evening at which time they enjoyed a Christmas party. There was a good crowd present and the time was spent playing games. A lovely lunch was served at the close of the evening.

Rev. and Mrs. B. E. Gideon of Carleton visited over Wednesday evening and Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Warren. They had accompanied her mother, Mrs. Lucy Marsh to Lincoln to consult the doctors. They all returned to their home Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Curtis and son, Bobbie and Mrs. R. C. Wright and Kenneth Schneider stopped last Friday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stradley and family as they were on their way home from an extended visit in Pennsylvania. They left for their home at Hemingford on Sunday.

Mr. Lorenzo Lemon and his sister, Mrs. Harry Schroeder returned home from Rochester, Minn., the first of last week where they had been at the bedside of their brother, Francis Lemon who is at the Mayo hospital. They reported him as getting along nicely, although it will be some little time before he is able to return home.

On last Thursday a number of the neighbors and friends of Herman Brunkow, who has been in a Lincoln hospital for the past five months from an accident in an auto wreck, gathered at the farm which he was farming and husked his corn. There were about fifty men and twenty teams and wagons and the job was soon completed.

Hold Birthday Party.

BORN WITH TWO TEETH
Omaha.—Small wonder that Donna Rae Kavan cried. Altho her age can be measured in hours, the six and one-half pound mite already has had two teeth extracted, the first before she had her first nap. Two days later the second was pulled, when physicians feared she might swallow it in its loosened condition. Her mother, Mrs. Arthur Kavan, said the tiny teeth would start Donna Rae's keepsake collection.
