Noah Parker of Plattsmouth, was a visitor here last Tuesday, visiting with his brother while here.

Henry Stubbendick and wife of Otoe were visiting and looking after some business matters in Weeping Water last Tuesday afternoon.

Peter H. Miller was quite ill on Sunday of last week and was kept to his room and bed for a few days but is feeling much improved at this time and is looking after his work at the cream station.

Dr. W. H. Tuck who has not been feeling the best for some time and was kept to his bed for a time, is now feeling much improved and is able to be down town most every day visiting with his friends.

On Tuesday Pete Miller, Jr., was in Omaha with a load of cream and chickens which he took to the wholesale house. He stopped in Plattsmouth for a short time at the home of his brother, James Miller.

Sheriff Homer Sylvester and Deputy Thomas Walling were in Weeping Water last Tuesday to attend the funeral of the late C. D. Quinton, former sheriff of Cass county. While here they were also visiting with their many friends.

John M. Creamer and wife and daughter, Ruth, of Ogallala, were visiting with friends in Weeping Water, guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Van Every, Mrs. Creamer being sister of Mr. Van Every. They enjoyed their visit here very much.

W. W. Davis was called to Plattsmouth on Tuesday of this week to look after some business matters at the court house, and says that the office of the county treasurer was a very busy place with the application for auto license and the payment of taxes.

Carroll D. Quinton at Rest.

Carroll D. Quinton was born and reared near Avoca, where he grew to manhood and then farmed, and during the campaign of 1906 he was elected county sheriff of Cass county, which office he retained for eighteen years. He attended school in the neighborhood of Avoca and then became a member of the Congregational church. Mr. Quinton has been a member of the I. O. O. F. for the past more than forty years. During his term of office he made his home in Plattsmouth and was married there to Miss Anna Karvonak. In 1924 they moved from Plattsmouth to Lincoln where he was employed by the state of Nebraska until his failing health precluded his working and for the past few years has been in poor health. Last Sunday the former sheriff passed away at his home in Lincoln.

The funeral was held from the Congregational church in Weeping Water Tuesday afternoon, conducted by Dr. H. G. McClusky, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Plattsmouth, a long time friend of the deceased. Interment was at Oakwood cemetery in Weeping Water. Pallbearers were members of the I. O. O. F. of the Avoca lodge, using their beautiful ritualistic ceremony in consigning his mortal remains to rest in the tomb.

George Towle Poorly.

George W. Towle was taken suddenly ill a few days ago and has been kept to his bed since and while he has but slight use of the limbs on one side, is feeling some better and is hoping that he may soon be able to be up and about again.

Conducted Funeral Tuesday.

Dr. H. G. McClusky, pastor of the Plattsmouth Presbyterian church, and George L. Farley, also of Plattsmouth were in Weeping Water last Tuesday, the former to conduct the funeral of the late C. D. Quinton and the latter to attend the services.

On Trip to East.

J. J. Meier, who has been a rustler in the sale of the Norge refrigerator was awarded a trip with some 70 others to the manufacturing plant at Detroit, he departing from Omaha last Saturday and will return this Friday. The company is paying the expenses of the salesmen who disposed of the largest number of machines during the past year.

LICENSES 964 COUPLES

Papillon, Neb.—County Judge Collins reported Sunday 964 couples were granted licenses to wed in Sarpy county during 1935. He said this was about average for the county, which does one of the biggest marriage license businesses of the state. Judge Collins himself performed the wedding ceremony for 560 of the couples.

Sketch of Life of Mrs. Lee Brown of Weeping Water

Life Long Resident of Cass County Called to the Last Long Rest; Funeral Held Thursday.

Lottie Evalena Philpot, daughter of Charles and Cecelia Philpot, was born August 29, 1884 near Weeping Water on the old Philpot homestead, and departed this life December 31, 1935 at the age of 51 years, 4 months and 2 days.

On February 24, 1903, she was united in marriage to Lee Brown and to this union was born four children, Gertrude, Deforest, Crede and Ellsworth. Two daughters, Gertrude Resso and Crede M. preceded her in death Nov. 19 1928. She leaves to mourn her death her husband, Lee Brown; two sons, Deforest L., and wife and Ellsworth D.; three grandsons, Robert( Donald and Melvin Resso, and one granddaughter, Nancy Lee Brown. Her aged father, Charles Philpot, six brothers, William J., Wallace M., John W., Elmer C., Bert L., and Deforest Philpot, all living in the vicinity of Weeping Water; two sisters, Mrs. Ella Cook and Mrs. Jennie Dawson of Gandy, Neb.

Mrs. Brown with her husband and family have always lived in the vicinity of Weeping Water. She was a kind and loving mother and neighbor, always willing to lend a helping hand when needed. She will be greatly missed by her husband, children and two grandsons, Robert and Melvin, who made their home with them since the death of their mother. Also her aged father who made his home with them the past few years.

Our Mother

Farewell dear mother, Our last farewell; Your sorrows and sufferings are o'er, May each of us live To join you at last, On that beautiful heavenly shore.

The funeral services were held on Thursday, January 2, at the Weeping Water Congregational church, attended by a concourse of friends. The Rev. W. A. Taylor of Union, a long time friend of the family, conducted the services. Interment was at the Weeping Water cemetery.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ELECTION

From Wednesday's Daily Last evening the annual meeting of the official board of the Methodist Sunday school was held at the church and attended by the staff of officers and teachers to take part. The monthly meeting was held first and then turned into the annual meeting with Rev. V. C. Wright presiding. J. Howard Davis was re-elected as superintendent, this being his sixth term in the office that he has so efficiently filled.

Another of the officers who has served for a term of years and has a splendid record of efficiency is William L. Heinrich, re-elected treasurer for the eleventh term. Other officers selected were: J. A. Capwell, assistant superintendent; Mrs. J. Howard Davis, secretary; Mrs. H. B. Perry, beginners department; Mrs. Don Seiver, primary; Mrs. V. T. Arn, junior; Mrs. Adelaide Boynton, intermediate; C. C. Westcott, senior and adult; Mrs. E. H. Westcott, music department.

The Methodist Sunday school is very efficiently organized and provides a place for all ages from the tots to the mature adults and has a fine force of teachers.

Elmwood News

George Blessing was called to Lincoln last Friday to look after some business matters.

C. H. Gibson receiver of the Elmwood State bank was in town last Tuesday and was looking after the affairs of the defunct state bank.

Mrs. Lucy Lyle, manager of the Elmwood telephone exchange, was a visitor in Lincoln last Sunday visiting with her sister, Mrs. Earl Leavitt. Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Cook was over to Greenwood last Friday where they were attending a birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Mathis.

L. A. Tyson and a number of others were over to Weeping Water last Tuesday attending the funeral of C. D. Quinton, former sheriff of Cass county.

Miss Doris Greene who is a teacher in the schools of Callaway and who was visiting at home during the holidays, returned to her school work last Sunday.

Mrs. Elmer Preston, who has been in poor health for some time, was taken to a Lincoln hospital where she is receiving treatment and is under observation.

Willard Clapp of the firm of Shreve and Clapp, was over to Plattsmouth last Friday where he was called to look after some business matters.

Miss Denice Greene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Greene, departed last Friday for Chicago where she is studying art at one of the art schools there.

Mrs. Lottie Lane who has been visiting here for the past two weeks with relatives and friends, departed early this week for her home at Crawford, in the northwestern part of the state.

The family of Guy Clements have been ill for the past few days and while they are some improved they are wondering as to the nature of the malady which caused their illness.

While R. J. Miller, residing on the O street road, was assisting in butchering a beef for his brother he received a cut on one of his hands that has caused the hand to be very sore, but is getting on all right.

Charles Schaeffer of Murdock, representative of the Trunkbolz Oil company, was a visitor in Elmwood and was looking after some business matters, coming to consult with the representative here, Emil Rosenow.

Dr. G. G. Douglas was a visitor in Weeping Water last Tuesday afternoon where he went to pay tribute to a time honored friend, the late C. D. Quinton who died in Lincoln last Sunday and was buried at Weeping Water Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Mable Houtsen of Chadron, who has been visiting here for the past three weeks with friends and relatives, spending some time at the home of John Lane, departed early this week for her home in the northwest after having enjoyed a very pleasant time here.

A little excitement was created when the house of James Taylor was discovered to be on fire, but the alarm soon brought the fire department who soon had the fire extinguished and all was serene again. The Elmwood fire fighters are a band of rugged, efficient and dependable men.

Fred Blatt and family, who formerly came to this part of the state from Western, in Saline county, was a visitor there for a short visit recently and reports things there not so good on account of the short crops they had the past year. Their home was visited by Dr. A. C. Blattspeller of Western, who was going to Murdock to visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Gillespie, Mrs. Gillespie being very ill at the present time.

Dr. J. S. Dearing and wife of Missouri Valley, Ia., formerly of Elmwood where the doctor was a practicing physician before going to Iowa to establish a hospital which he has conducted for a number of years, decided to spend a few months in sunny Texas and accordingly drove from their Iowa home to Elmwood where they visited for over night with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Greene before continuing on to the south.

Has Nine Bulldogs.

Charles West, the barber, who is a fancier of a good dog has now nine dogs, eight puppies and their mother. This makes a very fine family and one which Mr. West is very proud of.

Visited Friend Here.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Teubner now of Crete, where he is agent of the Missouri Pacific and who for a number of years was the agent in Elmwood, were visiting here last Sunday with their many friends. They have been away from here for many years.

Land Sells at $112.50.

Loren Parish recently disposed of his eighty acres of land a mile and a half east of Elmwood for the sum of $9,000, the purchaser being James Barto, which shows that there is some money to be placed in good farm land.

Many Auto Accidents.

While Harry A. Williams was driving over to Plattsmouth one day recently and was going on at a deliberate rate of speed, a car shot out of a side road and it was impossible for Mr. Williams to avoid an accident. With each day some new mode of accident comes to view. The accidents are costing thousands of lives and millions of dollars. Cannot there be some way of avoiding the killing of innocent people and much property?

Taken Seriously Ill.

Byron I. Clements who has for a long time been a citizen of Elmwood and has not been in the very best of health for some time was stricken a few days ago with a pain in his stomach which was pronounced ulcers of the stomach. He was put to bed while he was being treated. He is receiving the best of treatment and while he is still very ill is faring somewhat better. His many friends are hoping that he may soon be in better health and that the malady may soon be cured.
