

UNION ITEMS.

Hon. and Mrs. W. B. Banning were visiting in Union Saturday evening.

Charles Land and wife were visiting in Omaha last Monday, where they called on numerous friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCarroll were Union visitors Saturday afternoon. Harry remained over until Sunday morning.

Noah Parker, of Plattsmouth, was a visitor in Union last Monday, coming down to look after some matters of business.

Thomas Turner, who has been confined to his bed nearly four months on account of illness, still continues very poorly.

Edgar Newton and family, of Plattsmouth, were guests last Sunday at the home of the mother of Mrs. Newton, Mrs. Vesta Clarke.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Becker were in Plattsmouth last Sunday, where they visited at the home of Mrs. Becker's mother, Mrs. Robert Willis and son, Bert.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Morris and sons were in Louisville last Sunday, where they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Morris. The two men are brothers.

Mrs. W. A. Taylor and grandsons, Ivan and Donald Hoback, were in Nebraska City last Saturday, where they were visiting with friends and also did some shopping.

Miss Gwen Stites was a visitor with her friend, Miss Jo Davis, on New Year's day and on the following day attended a birthday party given in honor of Kathryn Propst.

A. B. Rutledge and son, Glenn, of Nehawka, were looking after some business matters in Union Monday, and from here went on to Plattsmouth to transact business.

Mrs. Frank Anderson is reported quite poorly at this time and is confined to her home and bed. Her many friends trust she may soon be restored to her usual good health.

Mrs. Grant Hackenberg, of near Mynard, spent the past week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Minnie Rihn and husband, P. F. Rihn. They took her back home Sunday in their car.

Rev. W. A. Taylor was in Weeping Water last Thursday, where he conducted the funeral of the late Mrs. Lee Brown. He was taken over and returned by Mr. and Mrs. Don Philpot.

Mrs. Nels Madsen, who had labored faithfully to raise a nice flock of chickens last summer, had about 80 of them stolen on New Year's eve while the family was away from home.

Mrs. Clara Davis, a shut-in, enjoyed a New Year's dinner of turkey and other delicacies sent her by Mrs. Marjorie Frans, whose thoughtfulness served to make the day a most pleasant one for this splendid woman.

George Stites was called to Omaha last Saturday to look after business matters for the Union Co-operative Credit association. Again on Monday, Mr. Stites and wife made a trip to Omaha to look after further business matters.

John Fitzpatrick and wife were in Plattsmouth Sunday, where they visited at the home of Mrs. Fitzpatrick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Rice. On Tuesday they went to Weeping Water, where they attended the birthday anniversary of Mr. Fitzpatrick's father, Grandfather Charles Fitzpatrick.

A. L. Becker has been busy with the work of building a bridge over the creek that runs through his farm land and timber tract. With the completion of the bridge a new road is provided to the Becker quarries, where a large amount of rock is now being quarried, as well as an abundance of stone stored up for delivery as soon as the road could be provided over which to haul it.

Moss McCarroll was called to the county seat Tuesday to look after some matters of business. He has had the household good removed from the place he has been farming to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Matison, until such time as they may be able to find a place in Union in which to make their home. The family are now temporarily located in a portion of the store building not needed for business purposes.

CCC Truck Hits Buggy

Last Saturday, while Henry A. Chilcott was coming to town with his horse and buggy, the vehicle was struck by a CCC truck and put out of commission. The horse ran away, adding to the dilemma. The buggy was badly broken up and Mr. Chilcott received a gash in his head as well as severe bruises. The horses were caught by some neighbors.

Mrs. Chilcott was so badly frightened that she collapsed for the time, but was able to pull herself together when she was assured that her husband was not seriously injured.

Firemen Enjoy Banquet

The Volunteer Fire Department of Union held a most pleasant get-together meeting last Friday evening. One of the high lights of the occasion was the serving of a delicious oyster supper which was prepared by the Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church and was thoroughly enjoyed

Hip Broken from Fall
Miss Wilhelmy, a sister of Leon

Wilhelmy, while at work about the home east of Union, had the misfortune to fall and fracture her hip. The injured member was placed in a cast. Miss Wilhelmy is 67 years of age and the severity of the fracture and its attendant confinement to her bed for a long period of time makes it pretty hard on her. She has the sympathy of her many friends, who hope the fracture may heal satisfactorily and in the shortest possible length of time.

Birth of Daughter

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Everett was made happy last Sunday, when a wee bit of humanity in the form of a fine daughter weighing some five pounds arrived by the stork route. Dr. R. R. Anderson was there to welcome the new comer.

Saw Mill is Kept Busy

Henry H. Becker, who has a saw mill, has been having a large amount of business in this line and his father, A. L. Becker has been kept busy with his big truck delivering logs from the Charles Boardman place to the saw mill, to be turned into lumber.

Home from Furlough

Henry Lidgett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lidgett, who has been in the navy for the past three years, arrived in Union Monday morning of this week for a visit of a month with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lidgett and other relatives and old friends in and about Union. Henry has been on the same ship as Justin Anderson, the West Virginia.

Methodist Church Notes

By B. N. Kunkel

UNION M. E. CHURCH

Church school at 10 a. m. Lee Paris, superintendent. Morning worship at 11 and evening worship at 7:30. Both sermons by Rev. Kunkel.

The Ladies Aid society met for an all day meeting at the church last Thursday.

WYOMING CHURCH

Church school at 10 a. m. Mrs. Harvey Barkhurst, superintendent.

The Ladies Aid society met for an all day session at the home of Chris Madsen Thursday.

There was a good attendance at both Sunday school and morning worship last Sunday morning. Every one seems to be happy that the services are to continue through the winter without break.

A PERSONAL WORD

from the Pastor

What I wish to say now is no longer news to most of you. I have been appointed pastor of the church at Plainview, Nebraska, in Pierce county. We are busy packing and getting ready to move. We will probably move Thursday or Friday of next week.

Mrs. Kunkel and I have enjoyed our four and a third year stay on the Union-Wyoming charge. We have found many fine people and many fine friends. It is a joy to know you all. Our relations with the Baptist people have been delightful and we appreciate them, too. We feel a great sadness at leaving. But we know that the new pastor, whoever he may be, will be gladly received. This is the Methodist way and a pretty good one. "He will work a work for the Lord, even as I." I pray that the work of the church may prosper and that everyone concerned will be happy.

Mrs. Trombla and Jimmie Lee will return to Lincoln Saturday with Mr. Trombla, where they will occupy their home in University Place.

Defeated by Nebr. City Team

The Trunkholz bowling team, which is sponsored by the Trunkholz Oil company, was at Nebraska City last Sunday afternoon, where they engaged in match play with one of the teams in the city league at that place, losing the contest, three to two.

by everyone present.

State Fire Marshal Davis, of Lincoln, attended the meeting and delivered an interesting talk, touching on such important matters as laws pertaining to fires, fire protection and its effect on insurance rates and the proper operation of a volunteer fire department for the best interests of the citizens of the community.

New Year's Day Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. D. Ray Frans were host and hostess to a group of friends on New Year's day, honoring the birthdays of Mrs. G. H. Gilmore and Dick Davis. The beautifully appointed table was graced by a 17 pound turkey, which, with the added delicacies, furnished the guests a real treat. A package of gifts was presented to each honor guest in addition to the handsome angel food cake, topped by two candles, which was the gift of Mrs. Davis.

Besides the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Frans, and son Jimmie, who assisted his mother with the serving, there were present Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Gilmore and son John, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Davis, Mrs. Jennie Frans and Mrs. G. L. Sherman, of Arkansas City, Kansas.

Will Make Home in North

The district superintendent of the Omaha district of the Methodist Episcopal church was in Union last Sunday and arranged for the transfer of Rev. B. N. Kunkel from Union to Plainview, where he will make his home for the balance of this conference year, which ends about September 1st.

Rev. Kunkel will remain here for the services this coming Sunday and will then move his household goods to the northern Nebraska town.

Rev. Kunkel has been located here about three years and has proven a very strong minister and will make a good man for the church at Plainview, which is a town of some 1,500 population, on U. S. highway 20, about 85 miles west of Sioux City.

The best wishes of their Union friends will accompany Rev. and Mrs. Kunkel to their new home.

Woman's Club Meets

The Woman's club met with Mrs. Lawrence Meisinger on Tuesday afternoon, at which time the thirteen members present enjoyed a splendid review of the book, "Merchants of Death," which was given by Mrs. John R. Pierson. A delicious luncheon was served by the hostess. One new member, Mrs. Anderson, was secured at this meeting.

An Appreciation

I was with mingled feelings of sadness and regret that the congregation of the Methodist church here learned that their pastor, Rev. B. N. Kunkel was to be transferred to a new field of activity at Plainview. The death of the minister of the Hanscom Park church in Omaha necessitated a shifting of several pastors and Rev. Kunkel was one of those to be moved. The church at Plainview has a membership of about three hundred.

While this change is in the nature of a promotion, yet it comes with some regret on the part of Rev. and Mrs. Kunkel and a great deal on the part of the congregation, as all had hoped they might be here for some time to come, but are pleased that they have received this advancement.

During the four years they have been in our midst, they have endeared themselves to the parishioners and other friends of the community that their removal will be felt as a distinct loss to the social and religious life into which they have fitted so well. We are sure the best wishes of all will go with this family to their new home, and we hope for a full measure of usefulness, happiness and contentment.

No definite arrangement has been made for a successor to Rev. Kunkel, but a student minister may be sent for a while, or even to complete the conference year's work.

SLAIN IN POLICE TRAP

Seattle.—A suspected safe-cracker was killed, a former Seattle policeman was among three companions wounded and a former special assistant U. S. attorney was held for questioning. The man killed in a police trap at a bakery was identified as Carl Thomas, 35. John F. Garvin, Seattle lawyer and former special assistant United States attorney, was held for questioning. Police said he was found in a house in which two safe-cracking suspects later took refuge only to be routed with tear gas.

Two women and three other men, including the suspected safe-cracker, were arrested, making a total of nine persons held. One critically wounded suspect was Joe Neil, 53, former Seattle policeman. He was discharged from the force in 1924 after his conviction of department store robbery.

Funeral of C. D. Quinton Held Tuesday

Large Number of Old Friends Attend Services That Are Held at Weeping Water.

The funeral of Carroll D. Quinton, 63, former sheriff of Cass county, was held on Tuesday afternoon at the Congregational church at Weeping Water. A very large concourse of old friends from all sections of the county were present to join the family in the sorrow that has come to them.

Dr. H. G. McClusky, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city, of which the Quinton family had been members when residents here, conducted the services while a mixed quartet composed of Mrs. Baldwin, Mrs. Davis, Leslie Wiles and S. J. Ambler, gave two of the loved hymns.

The burial was at Oakwood cemetery at Washington, the I. O. O. F. lodge of which Mr. Quinton had been a member, conducting their ritualistic services at the grave.

There were a large number from this city at Weeping Water to attend the late rites, Mr. Quinton and family having made their home here in the many years that he had served as sheriff and where they have a large number of friends.

In addition to the Odd Fellows, Mr. Quinton was a member of the A. F. & A. M. at Weeping Water, the Eastern Star, Scottish Rite and Shrine of Lincoln, as well as the Nebraska Peace Officers association.

Church Holds Meeting.

The Congregational church of Avoca last Sunday held their annual meeting at which they elected a new board of officers, adding only one new member, Mr. E. H. Hennings, thus making the board now read: Mrs. Clara Ruhge, chairman; Mrs. M. Hansen, clerk and Fred L. Carsten treasurer, while the remainder of the board of trustees are Elmer H. Hennings, E. J. Hallstrom.

Purchases a New Auto.

John Marquardt purchased a new 1936 Chevrolet which is indeed the last word in motor cars and sure it is a beauty and is very pleasing for John and the father, Harry H. Marquardt to ride in and as well the entire family.

Will Build New Station.

A new building will be erected where the fire burned the cream and poultry station some weeks ago. They are waiting until the weather moderates slightly that they may begin their work.

Win Over Plattsmouth.

The All Star basketball team of Avoca were victors over a team from Plattsmouth last Friday night at the Avoca gym. The game was closely contested and resulted in Avoca edging out a victory 43 to 42.

Not a Bad Crop.

John W. Creamer and wife of Ogallala were visiting here last week and were pleased to meet his old time friends. Speaking of crops out their way Mr. Creamer told of a brother who is an extensive wheat and potato farmer who had eight hundred acres of wheat that yielded 9,000 bushels and as well some three hundred acres of potatoes which also yielded nicely.

Brought Happiness.

The stork made a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Small and brought along a very precious gift in the form of a very fine little girl baby who with the mother is doing very nicely and joy reigns supreme in the Small home.

AVOCA NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marquardt were guests for the evening last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Akeson.

Wm. Kihlbrink was in town securing material for the construction of a double garage at his home. He is doing the work himself.

W. L. Hobson of Weeping Water was a visitor in Avoca last Monday and was looking after some business matters for a time.

Frank Dean and family of Murdock were guests on New Year's day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Corbin and Grandfather Marion Ross of Avoca.

Everett Carter was a visitor in Weeping Water last Tuesday afternoon to attend the funeral of his friend, C. D. Quinton, former sheriff of Cass county.

Elmer Freeman and family were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Freeman, his parents, living east of Weeping Water.

The school of Avoca which has been closed for the mid-winter holidays, was again convened on Monday, January 6th and the students are now back at their work.

Miss Jeanne Pitman, daughter of Marion Pitman and wife, is at home suffering from scarlet fever and during the time Marion is quarantined away from the home and cannot return until the quarantine is lifted.

Leona Everett the very capable and accommodating operator at the telephone exchange has not been feeling so well of late, suffering with a severe cold and while it was difficult for her to remain at the switchboard, she did so and finally wore out the cold.

George Trook, cartaker of the Avoca schools, was on the sick list this week and his duties were being looked after by his nephew, Paul Drerey who is well acquainted with the work and will care for it until Mr. Trook recovers his health.

Many Honor C. D. Quinton.

Many of the people of Avoca were in Weeping Water Tuesday afternoon to attend the funeral of Carroll D. Quinton. Mr. Quinton was a boy here many years ago and always held a very dear spot in the hearts of the citizens of Avoca and vicinity.

Among those who were in attendance at the funeral were Ralph Morley and mother, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Brendel, the officers of the Odd Fellows of which he was a member. The pall bearers were also members of the order. The I. O. O. F. was in charge of the ceremonies at the grave.
