1. Conserve the agricultural resources. 2. Tend to insure producers of agricultural products a fair share of the national income. We also favor a farmer's organization in each county that will cooperate with a state and national organization for better legislation and better marketing and also with the Extension Department.

How Much Moisture is Used in Growing Corn Crop. That it only takes five inches of available moisture to raise a 25 bushel per acre corn crop was one of the interesting things brought out at a meeting of county agents and CCC camp supervisors at Lincoln last week.

Believing Hidden Hunger. A few days ago a mother said that she could scarcely keep bread on hand because her family ate so much. She was asked what she served for breakfast and she replied, "Bread and coffee, and they eat a lot, but they are always hungry between meals."

Modern Hostess Serves Home Canned Products. What could be more gratifying, when company drops in unexpectedly, than to go to the emergency shelf and select from the canned foods a nice jar of pork, beef, or chicken as the basis of your meal.

New Zephyrs to Slash Time on the Denver Run

Overnight Trip Between Chicago and Denver Planned With the New "Denver Zephyrs." Chicago, Jan. 19.—Fulfilling the practical promise made by the original Burlington Zephyr in 1934 with its record breaking dash to dusk non-stop run of 1,015 miles in 785 minutes between Denver and Chicago, President Ralph Budd of the Burlington railroad today announced plans for Zephyr service between these two points to start next June. Two new streamlined stainless steel Zephyrs, to be christened the "Denver Zephyrs," are to be added to the fleet of four Burlington Zephyrs now in service. Super-Diesel powered, and operated over a right-of-way already prepared for high speed travel, these two "Silver Streaks" will offer overnight service between Denver and Chicago, slashing many hours from present schedules.

The Denver Zephyrs will be 10-car trains complete in every detail with de luxe reclining chair cars, parlor cars, lounges, diners and observation cars, the latter of the unique Zephyr design with its large expanse of safety glass permitting unobstructed vision of the landscape. Operating over the shortest line between Chicago and Denver, the Denver Zephyrs will make an easy overnight run of 1,039 miles. While the average running speed between the two terminals will be approximately 65 miles per hour, stops at some six or seven of the more important cities en route will call for a cruising speed of 90 miles an hour or better.

A tentative schedule of 16 hours calls for departure of the Denver-bound Zephyr from Chicago at the close of the business day and arrival in Denver at breakfast time. Here is the operating plan in prospect: Denver Zephyr out of Chicago—Leaving time, 5:30 p. m. (e. s. t.) Arrive Omaha, 12:15 a. m. (c. s. t.) Arrive Denver, 7:30 a. m. (M. t.) Denver Zephyr out of Denver—Leaving time, 5:00 p. m. (M. t.) Arrive Omaha, 1:15 a. m. (c. s. t.) Arrive Chicago, 9:00 a. m. (c. s. t.) Present running time between these two cities is 27 hours, 45 minutes westbound, and 25 hours, 15 minutes eastbound, which means that Denver-Chicago Zephyr service will result in the saving of a whole business day to travelers between the two terminals.

RFC DIRECTORS APPROVED. Washington.—Nominations of five directors of the RFC for terms of two years beginning Jan. 22 were approved by the senate banking and currency committee. The five: Jesse H. Jones of Texas, chairman; Charles B. Henderson of Nevada; C. B. Merdian of Kansas; Frederic H. Taber of Massachusetts and Charles T. Fisher, Jr., of Michigan. The committee also approved the nominations of Stewart McDonald of Missouri to be federal housing administrator and William O. Douglas of Connecticut to membership on the securities commission for the term ending June 5, 1939. Douglas replaces Joseph P. Kennedy, who resigned.

Nehawka

Fred Clarke from between Union and Murray was a visitor in Nehawka with his many friends here on last Tuesday. Mrs. John Campbell has purchased a new power washer which is a very marked feature in the getting the work done at the home. Granville Heebner and Glen Rutledge were over to Murray last Saturday where they were called to look after some business matters for a short time. Don Philpot has been about sick for the past two weeks and as well the good wife and their son have also been down with the flu but are now some better.

Van Allen was a visitor in Nehawka, Avoca, Elmwood and Weeping Water on last Tuesday, taking the writer with him on his rounds for that day and for which we say, many thanks Van. C. W. Burton tells of having a letter from his brother, L. H. Burton who makes his home at Johnson City, Oregon, saying that the weather is very fine there and that business is very good. Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wehrlein entertained on last Sunday and had as their guests for the day Miss Lois Troop who was home from her studies at the state university and also Mr. Robert Bestor of Plattsmouth. Tommy Troop and John Campbell were over to Plattsmouth on Saturday of last week where they were looking after some business matters and also visited Mrs. George Troop, who has been quite ill for some time at the home of her parents. Harry Bartholds and family of Avoca were guests for the day last Sunday staying over the week end at the home to Mrs. Barthold's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Kruger, where all enjoyed the visit very much. They returned home last Monday. Fred Nutzman who has been so ill at his home south of Nehawka where he has been kept to his bed for several weeks is reported as getting on nicely and is able to set up a portion of the time and is reported as gaining in strength with every succeeding day.

Olaf Lundberg, the service station man, has been almost out of the picture on account of a very serious wrench in his back which makes it very inconvenient for him to move about to pursue his ordinary work. However he is feeling some better at this time. Letters from Stuart Rough and daughter, Mrs. Harold J. Dane, the latter from Iowa City who last week departed for Monto Bello which is a suburb of Los Angeles tell of them arriving in safety and are visiting at the home of S. B. Raugh who is son of Stuart and brother of Mrs. Dane. They are enjoying a very fine visit there.

Wins on His Forkers. Harry M. Knaab who is the pre-eminent breeder and grower of Hampshire hogs had a shipment of his porkers at the Western Stock show which was held at Ogden, Utah last week, and won all the better prizes in his line. The hogs were taken and cared for by Walter Briggs of Seward. Among the winnings was a seven year old herd boar, Promoter which took grand champion.

Back to Her Studies. Little Marie Hamilton who some time ago was so severely injured when the car in which she was riding was hit by another one in the fog west of the home of her parents, and was taken to the hospital at Omaha where she has been since, has been showing good improvement and was able to return home during the past week and this week returned to her studies at school and is getting on nicely. The many friends of this young woman are pleased that she is getting along so well. Obituary. Edith Cecelia Hansen was born on a farm about five miles east of Weeping Water, October 9, 1903, and passed away January 3, 1936, age 32 years, 2 months and 25 days. At an early age, she with her parents and brother moved to the home where she grew to womanhood. In 1922 she was graduated from the Nehawka high school, following a year at Wesleyan college she entered the nurse training school at the Clarkson hospital in Omaha. Finishing this course, she went to Los Angeles, California, in 1927 and continued her work in a hospital there. In 1928 she was united in marriage to Sidney R. Unwin. The last twelve years of her life were largely given in the noble cause of ministering to the suffering. She was ever thoughtful and kind and all who knew her will greatly miss her. She leaves to mourn her passing her father, E. G. Hansen, and one brother, John and family, a host of relatives and friends. The mother preceded her in death just fifteen months before. When we go home, think you "his true" That we shall know as once we knew You speak with me and I with you, When we go home. When we go home I hope to see A loved one's face look straight at me, Unchanged from what it used to be, When we go home. When we go home, 't'will be to hear A kind voice speaking low and clear. Our hearts will thrill to know 'It's near' When we go home. When we go home, it must be so, From out the shades of long ago, Will come the friends we lost below, When we go home. Funeral services were held from the home of her father, E. G. Hansen, three miles northwest of Nehawka Friday, January 10th at 2:00 p. m., conducted by Rev. W. A. Taylor of Union a friend of the family. Interment was in the St. John's cemetery with Hobson and Son in charge. There was a large number of relatives and friends present and flowers in profusion.

Making Good Progress. Harry McVey and Forest R. Cunningham were over to Omaha last Sunday where they visited at the hospital with James McVey who is there for several weeks recovering from injuries suffered when a tractor ran over him. While he is getting on nicely it will be many weeks before he is able to return to his home here. However his many friends are greatly pleased that he is showing so much improvement. Makes Neat Office Now. Since the painting of the office of the Farmers Oil company in Nehawka by Edward Woods, the place is looking very fine, and makes a splendid addition to this place of business.

Cochran Invites Public to Attend Safety Session

Governor Plans a Conference February 13 for Studying Out in Auto Accidents. Governor Cochran has invited all Nebraskans to attend a conference at Lincoln, Feb. 13 to organize a permanent state safety council. Calling for efforts to reduce the mounting toll of fatal and near-fatal highway accidents in Nebraska, the governor, who for twelve years was state engineer, outlined a three point safety program. It is: 1. Enactment of motor vehicle laws. 2. Education of the public to make it "conscious not only of the laws but of the hazards of highway traffic." 3. A study of engineering and physical conditions of highways to correct unusual hazards. In his weekly radio address Sunday over KPAB, Cochran also outlined the expansion of the state sheriff's department into a highway patrol organization as another step in an attempt to stop "sudden death" on the highways. He said the state will start enforcement of laws giving the state highway department authority to set up inspection stations and to require regular inspection of brakes, lights, windshield wipers, rear view mirrors and other parts of automobiles. He said all Nebraskans will be required to bring their motor vehicles to a state inspection station for examination.

HOPE TO PROTECT PRIVATE PENSIONS

Washington, Jan. 17.—A congressional committee sought today to find a means to protect private pension plans under the vast old age pension program of the government. The committee was created at the close of the last session when the problem proved too complex to be solved in passing the social security law. It was called together today for the first time this session. Under the social security law, no exemption is made for companies where old age pension systems have already been in operation, some for years. Employers and employees in such companies would have to contribute to the national fund the same as those not covered by private systems.
