Elmwood News

The Greene Drug Co., has received another car of wall paper the past week which it is distributing over the west through its representatives. Kenneth West, who has been working at the barber shop of Carl Rosenow during the illness of Mr. Rosenow, returned to Elmwood last Saturday.

Morris Penterman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Penterman was over to Lincoln last Tuesday afternoon where he was looking after some business for a short time.

Leonard Parish who some time ago suffered a fracture of one of his ankles and which has caused him much grief since, is getting on now very nicely and is able to get about with the aid of a cane.

Del Taylor of Fairbury, representative of the state organization of the Farmers Union was a visitor in Elmwood and was conferring with Louis Bornemeier, manager of the store of the Farmers Union in Elmwood.

Miss Doris Dickerman, one of the teachers of the Elmwood school, teaching music and a few other lines has been quite ill for a time on account of excessive work. She is better now and has been able to return to her work.

N. G. Bothwell was in Omaha last Tuesday for a truck load of groceries for his store here. He stopped in Plattsmouth for a short time for a visit with John E. Turner and family as well as to look after some business matters.

The Smith bakery wagon, last Tuesday afternoon while traveling on the highway north of town, on account of the blinding snow storm ran off the roadway and into the ditch in a snow bank but the damage was small and the truck was soon placed on its wheels again and was soon on its way home to Lincoln.

F. P. Copeland of Lincoln, a representative of the Modern Woodmen of America, was a visitor in Elmwood last Tuesday afternoon and was looking after the interests of the order for which he is working and was visiting with Louis Bornemeier and other members of the order. He departed late in the afternoon for Plattsmouth where he was to attend a meeting of the order there.

Likes the West.

Jasper E. Golden from near Murdock was a visitor in Elmwood on Tuesday of this week looking after some business matters. He has recently returned from a trip to the west where he visited with two brothers and a sister in Wyoming and Utah. Mr. Golden says that while he was there the weather was very fine and mild and when he returned to Nebraska he found frigid weather to greet him, and thinks it would have been better if he had remained in the west until this severe winter had passed.

Frozen Pipes Cause Explosion.

The plumbing which is used in the Farmers Union produce station in Elmwood, during the exceedingly cold snap froze and when it was being used during the course of the day last Tuesday, exploded, causing fear that the building was being blown up. However, there was but little damage done and the injury to the plumbing was soon remedied.

Entertained for Birthday.

Charles West, whose birthday anniversary fell on January 24th, last Friday, and Mrs. George Frisby whose birthday was on the same day, were joined by Mrs. Milo Frisbie and wife who were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. West last Sunday. They all enjoyed the celebration of the anniversaries and an excellent dinner.

On Wednesday also was held a supper which was also at the home of Mr. and Mrs. West when Mr. Joseph Parsell and wife were members as Mr. Parsell whose birthday also fell on the same date.

Plattsmouth offers opportunities unexcelled anywhere to small factories. Natural gas, low cost electricity, nominal living wages, splendid shipping facilities, etc., all combine to make this possible.

Popular York

OBITUARY

Frank Lanning was born at Henry, Illinois, March 19, 1870. He died January 16, 1936, at the age of 65 years, 9 months and 28 days, after a month's illness at the St. Elizabeth hospital, in Lincoln, Nebr.

When eleven years old he came with his parents to Palmyra, Nebraska, where he grew to manhood. He was united in marriage to Mary E. Buntin, December 28th, 1892, and two sons were born to this union.

He was a farmer and stockman living between Eagle and Palmyra until 1915. He then moved into Eagle where he operated a garage and automobile agency for several years, later going into the real estate business.

He leaves to mourn his loving wife, Mary; two sons, Merl V., of Oklahoma City, and Orin W., of Eagle; two granddaughters and one grandson, an infant granddaughter having preceded him by five months to the great beyond; two brothers, George and William, of Palmyra; four sisters, Mrs. Emma Lewis, of Lincoln; Mrs. Hannah Weaver of Dexter, New Mexico; Mrs. Lora Shulta of Longmont, Colorado, and Miss Flossie Wemple, of Palmyra and one aunt, Mrs. Annie Dowling, of Palmyra; also a great many nieces, nephews and cousins and a host of friends.

Has Aged Work Bench
John Johnson came to America 40 years ago, bringing with him some vices with hand made wooden screws, which were used in the making of a work bench. The screws had been turned out more than a hundred years ago and were made of a fine grade of hard wood. Will O. Johnson has the bench, which is indeed a very complete work bench and which he is using almost daily and which he prizes very highly on account of its history.

Weeping Water

Bert Jamison was a business visitor in Wahoo the fore part of the week.

Van Allen, of Murray, was a visitor in Weeping Water for a short time last Tuesday, calling on his friend, Will Johnson.

Parr Young, of near Murray, was a visitor in Weeping Water on last Tuesday, having some business matters to look after here.

John Hill, of near Mynard, was a visitor in Weeping Water a few days ago and while here concluded the purchase of a new washing machine from one of the local dealers.

George Towle, who has been ill for a number of weeks, is reported as being much better and it is expected to be able to be down town again in the near future.

Wayne Wiles has purchased the wife a new Maytag washer from the local dealer that will go a long way toward making wash day one of ease and pleasure, rather than an occasion of drudgery.

A little eleven-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Colbert has been very sick at their farm home and has been nursed by Joan Carter, who is seeing that the best of care is taken of the little patient.

Harold Strabek has an egg which he thinks is just about the largest thing ever seen in the way of hen's eggs, being nine inches in circumference the long way, and seven inches around laterally. The egg weighs a little four ounces, which would make eggs pretty dear if sold by the pound or real cheap by the dozen—provided they were all that size. Harold would like to have anyone who thinks they can beat this egg for size, trot out their entry and let the world see what big eggs really look like.

Raising Some Early Chicks
W. J. Partridge received a thousand and baby chicks last Tuesday direct from the hatchery and will have another like shipment follow in a few days. Mr. Partridge has everything arranged to best advantage to take care of these early chicks, his brooders being electrically equipped and the very best of care exercised to get the chicks started in good manner, expecting to cash in on his work by having the earliest spring frites available anywhere in this part of the country.

Advised of Father's Death
Mrs. Con Phillips received the sad news of the passing of her father, Joseph Samsell, age 90, of Dunningan, Mo., where he spent his lifetime as a minister of the Methodist church and where he has resided following his retirement some five years ago. Immediately after receiving the news of her father's death, Mrs. Phillips left for the family home at Dunningan, to be with her mother, a brother and another sister, who are bereaved at the passing of the father.

Comparing Notes on Weather
George Spohn, who for a number of years kept a diary of important events in his life, looking over the diary recently found that the temperature of last Monday morning, January 27, being 34 degrees below zero, was just one degree lower than the same date thirty-four years ago, when the mercury tumbled to 33 degrees. Those who have been saying we don't have winters like the old fashioned kind any more, have certainly had their sails taken in a bit the past two weeks.

The Hamburger Inn
This is the name of a new cafe which has been opened just north of the Keckler Service station by Barthold and Nott, two gentlemen who came here from Nebraska City to establish this business, which is one of a string of eating houses which they have at this time.

Brother Dies in Omaha
The sad news came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Van Every of the death of a brother, De Lacey Van Every, age 59, of Omaha, last Friday after a lingering illness of some five or six years. The brother was married and is survived by his wife, but they had no children.

During his lifetime, Mr. Van Every had been a telegraph operator, but gave up that work some six years ago on account of poor health.

The funeral was held at Omaha on Monday and burial was at Dorchester, a former home of the family.

Mr. Van Every leaves another brother, also, he being Edward Van Every, who resides at Lincoln, and by a sister, Mrs. J. M. Creamer, who lives at Ogallala, Nebraska. The sister and two brothers were all present at the funeral and burial, which took place on Monday of this week.

Popular Man Called to Rest
Residents of this vicinity were greatly shocked Wednesday at news of the death of Jacob J. Meier, popular Weeping Water business man, at Bryan Memorial hospital in Lincoln, where he had been receiving treatment for but a short time. He had gone to the hospital for treatment of a sinus infection, and was suddenly taken with pneumonia which resulted in his death a few hours later.

He had been engaged in business in Weeping Water for the past 34 years, and was a leader in community affairs, one of the real spark-plugs of the town, responsible in a large measure for the success of such worth-while enterprises as the Cass county fair, etc., and was always to be found among the boosters for anything calculated to be for the good of the community.

A more complete account of his life and death will be found elsewhere in this issue of the Journal.

He said receivers of the railroad C. E. Ervin and T. M. Stevens, would have until 9:30 a. m. Wednesday to accede to the wage demands before the committee met to set a formal date for the strike.
