

AVOCA NEWS

Leo McCann and his Four Aces orchestra are playing at a wedding dance at Syracuse this Thursday evening.

Miss Julia Jean Ruhge was a visitor for last week in Avoca where she was the guest of her aunt and uncle, Wm. Maseman and wife.

Miss Clara Meyers, who is employed in Lincoln, was spending the week end at Avoca, a guest of her mother, Mrs. Anna Meyers for over Sunday.

Van Allen of Murray, who is a friend of Leo McCann, desired to visit his friend and turned down toward Avoca from O street on last Tuesday, but traveling was so bad he never got to Avoca.

Simon Rehmeier and wife of Alvo, accompanied by their two sons, Fred and Frank, were over to Avoca last Thursday evening attending the basketball tournament with the Alvo team and visiting their many friends here.

A. H. Ward who many years ago was operator and agent for the Missouri Pacific at Avoca, some thirty years ago, but who has been making his home at Murdock for the past 26 years, was a business visitor in Avoca one day last week and was renewing acquaintance with the many friends here.

Found a Bad Spot.

As the writer and his driver were in the act of driving into the road leading to Avoca, an orange box in the middle of the road said "Closed." However we waited until a team came along and asked, "could we get thru?" and being assured we could if we drove right. Well, we tried, but the car slipped into the deep rut and while we did get thru, it took an hour and a half, not counting the hard work and mud over our clothes. But we did know a little more. The next time we will try and take good advice.

Making Home at Malcolm.

Mrs. Ella Barker who has been the manager of the telephone exchange at Murray for a number of years has been transferred to Malcolm where she has charge of the exchange. Dolores Barker, who has been staying with her grandmother, Mrs. Anna Meyers and attending the Avoca school has quit school and joined her mother at Malcolm and will assist with the work at the exchange there.

Find Bank in Fine Condition.

Two bank examiners, one Herman Sudman, formerly of Avoca, were here to examine and check up on the bank here and after going over the books and accounts found them in excellent condition. Mr. Sudman also enjoyed visiting his friends while here.

EARTHQUAKES ON THE COAST

Los Angeles. — Two moderate earthquakes, 15 minutes apart, were felt in wide areas of Los Angeles. Authorities reported no damage. The first shock at 11:28 a. m. was slight. The second, felt more sharply in the Inglewood district, was strong enough to rattle dishes and windows. The shocks were not felt in Long Beach, center of the disastrous 1933 earthquake. Residents in Inglewood, Baldwin Park, Huntington Park, Bell, South Gate and Lynwood reported some pictures knocked from walls.

Several persons attending services in Huntington Park rushed from churches after the first shock. The shocks also were felt in Glendale.

DANA COLLEGE BUYS FARM

Blair, Neb.—Students of Dana college have taken over operation of a 100 acre farm project just adjacent to the campus. They hope to grow enough vegetables and fruit, raise enough livestock for meats and dairy products, to provide for the college dining hall. Students will be given the opportunity of "working out" a greater part of their tuition, board and room expenses, during spare time. President Erlend Nelson will have supervision of the farm. Authorization of the purchase of the farm was made last June at the national convention of the United Danish Evangelical Lutheran church of America.

Used cars, livestock, household goods—all can be sold through inexpensive Journal Want Ads.

Liquor Flows in Every County of State but One

McPherson County Has Neither Beer Nor Liquor Selling Place With License.

Repeal has established a licensed liquor dealer for about every 1,000 Nebraskans and a licensed beer dealer for approximately every 400 persons in the state.

One county, McPherson with a population of 1,358, has neither beer nor liquor licenses. Loup county's 1,818 residents have no legal liquor dealers and only one licensed beer seller. Liquor commission files show there are six counties, with a total population of 13,672, which have no legal liquor purveyors. Ten others have only one liquor license each.

The commission estimated there are 1,200 liquor dealers and about 3,500 beer dealers in the state, but no figures are available for most counties. Liquor became legal last May 24.

All the six no-liquor license counties voted against repeal of prohibition in November 1934, but of the ten one-liquor license counties only two voted against repeal. The most populous county of the group was Kearney county, which has 8,094 residents (1930 census).

The no-liquor license counties are Keya Paha, Banner, Hayes, Logan, Loup and McPherson. Their aggregate population is 13,672.

One liquor license has been issued in each of the following counties: Grant, Arthur, Hooker, Thomas, Wheeler, Gosper, Sioux, Rock, Blaine and Kearney counties. A total of 29,758 persons live in this area.

If these two groups of 16 counties were contiguous—and most of them are neighbors—they would make an area equal to one of the smaller states of the union. The area would have a liquor license for every 4,343 persons. Since there are nine beer licenses in the no-liquor license counties and 38 beer licenses in the one-liquor license counties, the area would have a beer seller for every 924 inhabitants.

COUNTY FINANCE SURVEY

Omaha.—A survey of the financial administration of typical Nebraska counties, under the sponsorship of University of Nebraska and financed by WPA, is to begin immediately. Dr. J. P. Senning, chairman of the political science department of the university, announced after a conference with Douglas county commissioners.

Other counties where similar surveys will be made in the near future include Lancaster, Dodge, Gage, Madison, Scottsbluff, Platte, Richardson, Lincoln, Adams, Hall and Custer. Eventually, he said, it is planned to conduct studies or surveys in each of the 93 counties. The plan was approved by the last state convention of the Nebraska Association of County Officials.

J. G. Lewis, formerly connected with Wayne college, will assist Dr. Senning in the work. It is planned to use 130 men, all white collar employees, who must have had experience in accounting. Dr. Senning made it plain that the survey will not be an audit. It is being made, he said, for the purpose of obtaining trustworthy information thru which an interest in county government may be promoted.

THE SOCIAL CIRCLE CLUB

The Social Circle club met with Mrs. Joe Martis February 25 with Mrs. John Hobscheidt assistant hostess. The leaders being unable to get the February lesson, this was a continuation of the January lesson, also a social meeting. Just a few members were present, but everyone enjoyed the day greatly, visiting and learning the new waffle stitch in crocheting. The most enjoyable part was the wonderful dinner the hostesses prepared, with the covered dishes each member brought. There was plenty for a much larger crowd. All present had a wonderful time.

CONFESSES TO OLD CRIMES

Nebraska City.—Sheriff Ryder said he will not arrest a 26 year old Nebraska City farmer who voluntarily confessed a series of minor crimes which puzzled officers eight or ten years ago. The man said he "got religion" a few years ago. Ryder said the man will be permitted to make restitution. He pointed out the statute of limitations has run against the thefts and burglaries. The man, whose name was not disclosed, admitted several breakins in Nebraska and South Dakota.

Weeping Water

Pete Miller has been working for the Western Limestone company for the past week.

James Miller and wife of Plattsmouth were visiting for the week end at the home of his father, P. H. Miller and son, Pete.

Homer Abraham who is an automobile salesman at Central City, was visiting friends in Weeping Water for over the week end.

John Robinson and wife were guests at the home of Richard Hobson and wife last Sunday as well as for the afternoon and evening.

An ice jam on the Weeping Water creek above the town on last Tuesday caused a flooding, altho only temporary, of some of the low lands west of town.

George Wiles was a visitor in Plattsmouth last Monday and besides visiting with his friends he was looking after some business matters as well. He made the trip via Union and the pavement.

The Liberty theatre has just been redecorated on the interior and presents as fine a show room as can be found in a city the size of Weeping Water in the state. A new roof has been placed on the building also.

Ernest Pankonin who was in town last Wednesday afternoon attending the funeral of the late George Schafer speaking of the frost, said that a water pipe which he had to dig up showed frost and frozen ground to a depth of 5 feet and 4 inches.

The Weeping Water Woman's club was meeting at the home of their fellow member, Mrs. J. W. Ranney on Tuesday. A very pleasant as well as profitable meeting was held with a very fine program followed by a fine luncheon.

M. R. Helwig from southern Missouri has been appointed roadmaster for the lines of the Missouri Pacific in this territory to succeed G. W. Mates who has been placed on the retired list by reason of age and years of service.

George Schafer of Omaha, Leonard Schafer of Lincoln, Charles Schafer and family of Murdock, and Fred Schafer and family of Elmwood and Otto Schafer and family and Phillip Schafer and wife of Nehawka, were in attendance at the funeral of the late Geo. Schafer last Tuesday, as well as Miss Carrie Schafer of Manley and Edward Pankonin and family of Weeping Water.

Mrs. Ray Baldwin Better.

Mrs. Ray Baldwin who has been at one of the hospitals at Omaha for some time and where she underwent an operation for the restoration of her health, is feeling much better and is promised that she may return home in the near future. Mrs. Baldwin was very seriously ill for some time. Her many friends are pleased at her improvement.

Nominate Two Tickets.

The Citizens ticket, nominated last Monday night consists of the following: O. C. Hinds for mayor; H. N. Mogensen, treasurer; H. C. Wilkinson, clerk; A. J. Patterson, police
