

Nehawka

A. G. Cisney was a visitor in Syracuse last Wednesday, going over to attend the weekly sale there.

William Baier and wife, of near Avoca were guests last Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Schlichtemeier.

The Bestrice Creamery has opened a produce station in the Sutphan building, in charge of Miss Suanna Buskirk, of near Greenwood.

A. G. Cisney and wife were guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Peck, who reside east of Avoca. The ladies are sisters.

Mrs. Jack Burtch, formerly Miss Harriet Leach, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Troop, north of Nehawka, last Friday.

Leonard Lutz has moved to the Cameron Cathay farm where Clifton Meisinger farmed during the past summer and will live there this year.

John L. Young has been unable to get around and do his farm work in the usual painstaking manner on account of a severe attack of rheumatism.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anderson and their young son were guests at a six o'clock dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lemon last Sunday evening.

T. M. Patterson, of Plattsmouth, was a visitor in Nehawka last Monday, having business matters to transact with J. H. Steffens and Albert Anderson.

The Martin & Day quarry opened for business Monday of this week. Lyle Kruger has charge of the loading dock at the quarry and they put out some ten cars the opening day.

Lois Troop, Dorothy Yost and John Young, all students at the University of Nebraska, enjoyed a week end visit at the home of their respective parents in this vicinity, returning to their studies on Monday morning.

James McVey, who was so severely injured when a tractor ran over his leg last fall, is so far recovered that he has been able to come down town by himself, driving his car. However, he is still suffering a great deal from his injuries.

Henry A. Schwartz moved during the early part of last week to the farm between Nehawka and Murray which he purchased last year. He has been busy with the erection of a number of buildings to be used in his farming operations.

W. H. Kruger, who operates the Trunkenholz service station, has just completed painting the pumps and station a very beautiful red, thus brightening up that entire section of town. The Trunkenholz station at Union is also looking greatly improved as a result of being repainted and having other improvements made.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davis have accepted a position with the Earl May Seed company of Shenandoah as entertainers from their broadcasting station KMA and began work last week. Petteer known as "Billy and Chuck," Mr. and Mrs. Davis are very clever entertainers and will be listened to by their friends over the country with a great deal of pleasure.

Elmer Philpot was a visitor in Plattsmouth Monday. He reports that some one drained his car of nearly all the gasoline Sunday night, causing him much inconvenience and delay on the trip. It is bad enough to steal one's gas, but worse when such an act lets them get out on the road away from a filling station, and then run out, having to go a long distance for a new supply.

The three children of Lawrence Kruger, Joan, Joyce and Mitzie, who have been staying at the home of the grandparents, Lyle Kruger and wife, during the time the parents were at the hospital in Omaha with their little son, Johnnie, are now staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Guede, the little patient having been taken to his home in Avoca, where he is reported as showing satisfactory improvement.

Olaf Lundberg who was so severely injured when crowded against the large door by an auto, bruising and Harold Dodson shelled and delivered corn to the farm of W. O. Troop where he and C. R. Troop are feeding cattle, on last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vilas Kettlehut who have been residing in the country have moved into Nehawka and Mrs. Kettlehut has been assisting in the conduct of the Kruger cafe.

Frank Lemon and Albert Anderson were down to Nebraska City on last Sunday where they were trying out their golf sticks in the breaking in of the season of 1936. They enjoyed the initial game notwithstanding it made them a little sore and tired.

lavorating one of his legs which kept him from the garage for some time, is now working again altho the leg is not as yet entirely well, but is getting on nicely.

Methodist Brotherhood.
With the severe ether some weeks ago making it difficult to attend the proposed meeting of the Brotherhood of the Methodist church which was then postponed, the members got together on Tuesday evening of this week when they presented a very fine program of addresses, song and music as well as eats at the conclusion of the program, all enjoying the very fine evening.

Home From Hospital.
W. T. Schlichtemeier who has been at an hospital in Omaha for several months, was able to come home last Saturday and as he was accompanied by the good wife they both returned home. Mr. Schlichtemeier is feeling much improved. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wessell were over to visit their friends Sunday and to welcome them home again.

Married Last Summer.
The friends of Miss Polly Pollard, as she has been very pleasantly known, were surprised when the announcement came of the wedding of this very popular young lady on August 24th to Robert (Bob) Benson of Pender, the ceremony uniting this Nebraska University co-ed and one of the Cornhusker football stars. The young couple are of the very best families and their many friends while pleased to know of the marriage of these young people, were greatly surprised when the announcement was made.

The Journal with their many friends joins in extending congratulations and best wishes for Mr. and Mrs. Benson in their new estate.

Henry Wessell Shows Corn.
Henry Wessell has a box of corn in his store window which is growing very thrifty which came from the 1934 crop during the early winter when the weather was so cold. His test showed 95 percent, while that he is now growing shows 98 percent. The corn is growing in the store window where all can see it and it looks very nice, assuring that there is some good seed corn yet to be had.

OMAHA SCHOOLS WILL LOSE
Omaha.—W. Ross King, president of the Omaha school board, said Omaha will lose about $40,000 rightfully due it if the state superintendent of public instruction continues to apportion liquor license fees among all counties of the state on the same basis as was used in the year just ending.

King said the board would go to court if necessary to force Superintendent Taylor to return to Douglas county all package, wholesale, distributor and brewery license fees collected here. The fees are paid to the state liquor commission and turned over to Taylor.

MANY KNOW CANDIDATE

The candidacy of Buchler Metcalfe, of Omaha, for the democratic nomination for state railway commissioner, has attracted much attention here among the old friends of Mr. Metcalfe. With the outbreak of the world war, Mr. Metcalfe was one of those instrumental in the organization of the Sixth Nebraska infantry, being made captain of the machine gun company.

In the machine gun company was a considerable group of Plattsmouth and Cass county men, who were under the command of Captain Metcalfe until in October, 1917, when in the reorganization of the 34th division on a world war basis, they were transferred to the 126th machine gun battalion. Among those who served in the 6th under Metcalfe were M. D. Brown, H. G. Soennichsen, Otto E. Lutz, Matthew Jirousek, Richard Wells, Albert Kearns, Emil Finder, Arthur Sampson, Frank Smith, Carl Wohlforth Floyd Stone Ernest L. Trumble, Warren Trumble, Roy A. Vickers, Eagle, Daniel B. Cooney, Raymond Larson, Lloyd Gilmore, Murray, James R. Applegate, Frank Meade, George F. and Bruce Wolfe, Union; Albert E. Cool, Roy A. Wade, Harold Hulfish, Elmwood; George S. Spain, Murray; Edgar Glaze, Percy Warthen.
