

MORE THAN 35,000 CHICKS HATCHED IN THREE MONTHS

Brink's Hatchery has just completed its third month of operation for this season. The first hatch was placed on the market February 20. During the three months 20,450 chicks have been hatched from eggs purchased by the hatchery. 14,130 chicks came from custom hatching. Beside the chick business, W. N. Brink and his son, William, Jr., have done an extensive feed business. Although the season was rather lax this year because of the scarcity of feed, Mr. Brink feels that there will be a number of late chickens raised. He looks forward to a good year next year if good crops are raised in this section this season.

DEANERY CONVENTION HERE

Plattsmouth will be hostess to the annual convention of the Plattsmouth Deanery of the D.C.C.W. at the K. of C. hall May 24. The women of St. John's parish are entertaining. Registration will begin at 9:30 in the morning. At noon a luncheon will be served to the delegates and visitors by the P.T.A. There will be reports of officers and various talks by the priests of the deanery. Music to be furnished by the girls and boys quartets at the lunch hour. A program of musical numbers, readings and a short playlet are also on the program.

IN CRITICAL CONDITION

Mrs. W. T. Adams, one of the long time residents of this community, is reported as being very critically ill at the home of her son, Maxwell Adams, at Lincoln where she has been making her home. Mrs. Adams has suffered a bronchial affliction for several years and which has grown much worse in the past week. She has been here visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Nielsen and with a son, J. E. Adams, when she was taken ill and returned to Lincoln where she has since been.

HAVE SCHOOL PICNIC

The Rock Bluffs school Friday celebrated the close of the school year with a community picnic at the school house. The patrons came with well laden baskets and a fine luncheon was enjoyed as well as an afternoon of sports and in which a baseball game between the school children and the men of the community was staged. Alice Campbell, one of the pupils was on the mound and succeeded in fanning a number of the old time ball players. However the men won by the score of 20 to 20.

VISIT AT ELMWOOD

County Treasurer and Mrs. John E. Turner and daughter, Dorothy Jean, were at Elmwood Wednesday night visiting with relatives for a few hours. They report N. D. Bothwell, Elmwood merchant and brother-in-law of Mr. Turner, as recovering from his recent operation for appendicitis, but is still unable to carry on his daily tasks.

RECEIVES GOOD NEWS

Friends here have received the announcement of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Zimmer, of Elizabeth, New Jersey, on May 17th. Mrs. Zimmer was formerly Miss Theresa Haley, instructor in home economics at the Plattsmouth high school.

WNERS IN CREW RACE

James Robertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Robertson of this city, was a member of the winning crew in the inter-battalion crew races at Annapolis this week. The 8-men crews represent the four battalions. James is a member of Crew No. 1. The races are held on the Chesapeake Bay.

Pioneer Cemetery Day
Sponsored by Young Cemetery Assn. Public is invited to a Memorial Gathering at old home of the late David and Anna Young—Sunday, May 30 Basket Dinner at 12 Program at 2 P. M.—This is not for purpose of raising funds

GOOD USED MACHINERY
John Deere hay loader, also a used Bailor 2-row cultivator. At—
Murray Hardware
Murray, Nebr.

FUNERAL OF CHILD

From Thursday's Daily—
This afternoon at the First Presbyterian church was held the funeral services of Mary Jane LaHoda, whose death has come as such a severe blow to the members of the family and the friends of the little one. Dr. H. G. McClusky, pastor of the church, conducted the services and spoke comfortingly of the little life that had returned to the Master in the yet tender years of life. Frank A. Cloldt gave two numbers during the services. "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" an "Sometime We'll Understand." Mrs. H. F. Goos playing the accompaniment.

The body was laid at rest in the Oak Hill cemetery. The Streight funeral home had charge of the services.

STEALS HOG

Sheriff Homer Sylvester was out in the west part of the county Friday to look after the report of the theft of a hog from the farm of Schuyler Kellogg, east and north of Alvo. The animal was missed early Friday and had apparently been taken during the night. It was a large animal weighing 250 pounds. It is thought that the hog was butchered and taken on into some nearby town for cold storage.

HORSE TRAINER IS HERE

From Friday's Daily—
Floyd Flynn, well known horse trainer of Papillion, was here today for a few hours with his famous trained horse, "Mose" which was shown here at the King Korn Carnival for the past two years. Mr. Flynn is now exhibiting the horse at the various community entertainments.

REJOICE IN FINE SON

From Friday's Daily—
Mr. and Mrs. Clair Shellenbarger are the happy parents of an eight and a quarter pound son that arrived at their home last evening. The mother and son are doing nicely. Mrs. Shellenbarger is the former Miss Lola Dow.

BIRTH OF DAUGHTER

The announcement has been received here by relatives and friends of the birth of a daughter, Barbara Louise, to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Blunt, of Omaha. The little one was born on May 14th and with the mother is doing nicely. Mrs. Blunt was formerly Miss Gretchen Warner of this city.

HAILS PLATTSMOUTH FOR RIVER TERMINAL

Commenting on the city of Plattsmouth's decision to build a terminal for river traffic, C. E. Childe, transportation counsel and member of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce waterways committee, wrote the Plattsmouth Chamber of Commerce as follows: "Congratulations to Plattsmouth for being the first Nebraska city to start a river dock, as reported in this afternoon's World-Herald. I hope, as a result of this progressive step, you will grow so fast we will have to have a boundary commission to determine where Plattsmouth leaves off and Omaha begins; or maybe we will have to decide by an election whether to merge the two municipalities into Greater Plattsmouth or Greater Omaha."

RECEIVES CONGRATULATIONS

Sheriff Homer Sylvester Thursday evening just after the close of the banquet given honoring himself and his brother, Cass, received a pleasant surprise in a belated telegram. This was a personal message from J. Edgar Hoover, chief of the federal bureau of investigation, expressing his appreciation of the services of the Cass county officers. The message was supposed to have been read at the banquet but was delayed a few hours.

RECEIVES FINE RECOGNITION

Floyd Sealock, who is engaged at the Omaha National bank at Omaha, has been selected as one of the representatives of the bank to attend a meeting to be held by a group of the banks at Minneapolis, Minnesota. Mr. Sealock, a former resident here, has been with the Omaha National for a number of years and is recognized as one of their efficient workers and his excellent record aided in his selection for the convention to be held the coming week. Mr. Sealock is a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Sitzman of this city and is well known to a large number of friends in the community.

MRS. McDONALD DIES

Mrs. Elmira Ellen McDonald, wife of the late Hiram McDonald, died at her home east of Murray at 10:30 a. m. today. Mrs. McDonald was the daughter of Levinus Patterson and was born at Rock Bluff, Sept. 17, 1857. Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Wednesday at the Christian church at Murray. Interment at Horning cemetery.

ELMWOOD HOST TO SOCIETY

Elmwood is host to the Cass county historical society for its fourth quarterly meeting. The society was organized a year ago at Weeping Water. Mrs. Emily Gonzales has charge of the program Saturday, May 22, at 1:30 p. m. at the G.A.R. hall. Mrs. C. F. Payne, state historical society librarian, and Judge Paul Jessen, president of the Otoe Historical society, will be speakers.

VISIT IN THE CITY

From Saturday's Daily—
Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rogge, of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Creamer of Waverly were here today to look after some matters of business. While here Mr. Rogge called at the Journal to renew his subscription to the semi-weekly edition. Mr. and Mrs. Rogge are former residents of Elmwood where Mr. Rogge was engaged in the lumber business for some years.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

Old time friends of Robert W. Sherwood will be interested in learning that he is now at the Community hospital at Riverside, California. Mr. Sherwood has been on the west coast for some time and suffered an attack of ulcers of the stomach. He was taken to the hospital and operated on and at the last reports was resting very well.

HERE FROM OMAHA

From Thursday's Daily—
Mrs. Josephine Clifford, who has been at Omaha for the past several months came here this morning to spend a few days with the old friends in the community where she was born. Miss Clifford has suffered from the effects of a fall sustained in the early part of 1936, a fractured hip having rendered her an invalid and made it impossible for her to get around as formerly.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this means of expressing our deepest gratitude to the many kind friends and neighbors for their acts of loving kindness and sympathy in the death of our little one. We wish also to thank those who sent the beautiful flowers and assisted in the funeral services.—Mr. and Mrs. Antone LaHoda and family.

IOWA PEOPLE WEDDED

Wednesday afternoon at the parsonage of the First Christian church occurred the wedding of Taylor Lloyd Harper and Mrs. Ethel Gay Hill, both of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa. The marriage lines were read by the Rev. J. W. Taenzler, pastor of the church and witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. Everett Nelson of Omaha. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson were brother and sister of the bride and groom.

ATTEND COMMENCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Donat, Mrs. Vern Hendricks, Mrs. Hamilton Mark, and Mrs. Joseph Faith, were at Wahoo Friday evening where they attended the graduation exercises of the high school at that place. Miss Eleanor Havelka, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Havelka, a niece of the Plattsmouth party, was a member of the graduating class.

ON THE SICK LIST

Paul Vandervoort, county assistance director, has been confined to his home for the past few days by a severe cold and complications that has made it impossible for him to look after his usual duties. The office work is being looked after by Miss Lillian Sedak and Miss Rita Libershal, the efficient clerks in the office.

PURCHASE PIANO

Members of the Plattsmouth Woman's club have purchased a piano for the public library. The piano has been tuned and is now in fine condition for the use of meetings in the library basement. As a means of raising money to pay the balance on the piano, the club members are sponsoring a card party Friday evening at the Eagles hall.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all those who so generously offered their time and talents to the presentation of the play "Crazy Mike." We also wish to express our appreciation to L. D. Hiatt for the use of his furniture and piano.—Ladies of the Christian Church.

LEAVES FOR YELLOWSTONE

Stephen Davis is leaving by train from Omaha Friday evening for Yellowstone National park. Stephen plans to spend the summer there.

CHARGED WITH PERJURY

Nebraska City.—Otoe County Attorney Edwin Moran late Wednesday filed perjury charges against Floyd Clark, Jr., who Tuesday confessed on a witness stand it was he and not his father who burglarized a grocery store here March 31. Sheriff Ryder said Clark was returned to the state industrial school at Kearney, for violating his parole. He will be tried on the perjury charges upon his release from Kearney, the sheriff indicated.

HERE FOR GRADUATION

Mrs. William Hendricks, of Fairbault, Minnesota, is here to enjoy a visit at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Lepert, south of this city. Mrs. Hendricks is here to attend the graduation of her granddaughter, Miss Dorothy Lepert, a member of the class of 1937 of the Plattsmouth high school.

SOMEWHAT IMPROVED

From Friday's Daily—
Mrs. Wade Porter who has been seriously ill at her home is reported as being slightly improved today. Mrs. W. R. Willis of Weeping Water spent Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Porter.

APPENDECTOMY

From Thursday's Daily—
Junior Devoe became ill at school yesterday morning with an attack of appendicitis. He was taken to the Clarkson hospital last evening at 8 p. m. and an operation was made at 9 o'clock. He is reported to be getting along very nicely this morning.

DENTAL X-Ray Pictures

WE make them legible, angle the films properly, and develop them carefully. The prices are fair and the pictures are yours.

Dr. Joe J. Stibal
Chiropractor
Phone No. 3 Res. 657-W

ALBION HOMESTEADER DIES

Albion, Neb.—Arthur Hare, 85, a native of Ireland who settled in Boone county in 1879, died at his home here. Long prominent as a farmer in this territory, Hare formerly was president of the Old Settlers association here. His brother Robert was the first Boone county homesteader. Hare, last of the 10 children in his family to die, suffered a paralytic stroke about a year ago but had been confined to his bed only a week. His wife and six children survive.

MRS. SMITH ILL

Mrs. A. Baxter Smith, who has been making her home in Omaha, is reported as being ill there at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Hanna and family. The many old friends will regret to learn of her indisposition.

HAS OPERATION

From Saturday's Daily—
Mrs. Paul Campbell of Minnare had an operation at the Immanuel hospital in Omaha this morning. Mrs. Campbell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bajock of this city.

Black & White

WE DELIVER—PHONE 42

Wednesday Specials

- Shurfine Gelatine, all flavors, 4 pkgs. 19c
- Prunes, 40-50 size, 3 lbs. 25c
- Peaberry Coffee, per lb. 19c
- Shurfine Cake Flour, each 23c
- Marshmallows, cellophane bag, lb. 15c
- Pineapple, large No. 2 1/2 can 19c
- Milk, all varieties, 2 cans for 15c

2 lb. Caddy 32c
1 lb. Caddy 17c

- Mackerel, 1-lb. tall can 10c
- Oil Sardines, 6 for 25c
- Mustard, full quart 12c
- Rippled Wheat, each 10c
- Mile High Green Beans, No. 2 can 10c
- Standard Sweet Corn, No. 2 can 10c
- Blue Bell Rolled Oats, large size 18c

Meat Department

WHERE QUALITY PREVAILS

- Dold's Sterling Bacon, per lb. 31c
- Clix, a 100% Pure Lard, 2-lb. carton 31c
- Full Cream Longhorn Cheese, lb. 20c

Fresh Pork Liver }
Fresh Pork Hocks } 12 1/2c
Fresh Calf Hearts }

Van Camp's PORK & BEANS

4 No. 300 Cans 25c

HINKY DINKY

Plattsmouth, Tues., Wed., May 25-26

Del Monte Sliced or Half PEARS No. 2 1/2 Can 19c Rocket Pears No. 10 Can 47c

Kuner's Fancy TOMATOES No. 303 3 for 23c

Sunrise Brand COFFEE 3 lbs., 55 19c

Glenn Valley CATSUP Lge. 14-oz. Bottle 10c

BUTTER Gold Brick 1-lb. Ctn. 32c CASCO 1-lb. Ctn. 33c

- OXTAILS, Serve braised or in soups, lb. 6c
- BEEF BRAINS, Selected, 2 sets 15c
- HAMBURGER, freshly ground Beef cuts, 2 lbs. 27c
- STEAK, choice Beef Shoulder, lb. 23c
- MINCED LUNCHEON or Ring Bologna, lb. 15c
- SUMMER SAUSAGE, Swift's fancy assorted, lb. 23c
- CHEESE, Roberts fancy American Cream, lb. 22c
- SALMON or Fillets of Fish, Selected, 2 lbs. 25c

Sunlight Margarine 2 1-lb. Cartons 35c

Domestic Oil Sardines 6 No. 1/4 Cans 25c

Knox Jell Assorted 4 Pkgs. 19c

- CUCUMBERS, fancy green Texas for slicing, ea. 5c
- TOMATOES, firm, red ripe Texas, 2-lb. basket 25c
- GREEN BEANS, round stringless, lb. 9c
- NEW POTATOES, U. S. No. 1, 10 lbs. 33c
- CABBAGE, fresh solid new crop Texas, lb. 4c
- CELERY, fresh tender Florida, large stalk 10c
- ORANGES, Florida Valencias, jumbo size, doz. 45c
- Calif. Sunkist Oranges, Sweet, Juicy, Doz. 15c

Van Camp's Tomato Juice or Tomato Cocktail 23-oz. Can 10c

Balloon Brand Soap Flakes Large 5-lb. Pkg. 35c

SUMMER DRESS SPECIAL
STARTING WEDNESDAY
A Hat to Match FREE!
• Featuring Washable Crepes, Printed Bernberg, Chiffons and Nets with Taffeta Slips.
$2.95 AND $4.95
OUR SPECIAL FOR THIS EVENT—
A Smart Summer Hat to match FREE with your Dress costing $2.95 or more —
YOUR CHOICE
of our New Summer Hats in Straws, Felts, Fabrics—in white and summer colors.

In Our Children's Department for This Special Event
All of Our Shirely Temple Dresses . . . $1.48
Regular $1.95 Values
PEASE STYLE SHOP
PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA
Cass County's Largest Exclusive Ladies' Store

Brink's Hatchery
WILL REMAIN OPEN ALL SUMMER . . . OFFERING
Feed, Remedies and SERVICE to Our Customers
Baby Chicks Hatched until June 15 on Advance Orders
Ready for Delivery Every Monday
Brink Hatchery
Phone 107 Plattsmouth, Nebr 333 Main St.