

Former Platts-mouth Girl Weds at Omaha Monday

Miss Cecilia Janda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Janda, Married to L. C. Dutch.

Monday at 9 o'clock at the Holy Name church at Omaha Miss Cecilia Janda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Janda, formerly of Platts-mouth, became the bride of Louis C. Dutch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver J. Dutch. The Rev. E. L. Buhler, pastor of Holy Redeemer church, Detroit, performed the ceremony, preceding which Mrs. Frederick Rossback sang, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Genevieve Rossback.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gowned in ivory satin made with long, puffed sleeves. The skirt was fashioned with a fullness at the back that formed a long train, and the bodice, buttoned up the back, had a high neckline caught in front with satin rosebuds. Her bouquet was bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

The Misses Veronica and Edythe Janda, sisters of the bride, served as bridesmaids, and wore gowns of net with a long full skirt and a puffed-sleeved bodice. Miss Veronica Janda's gown was peach colored and she carried Talisman roses and two matching roses in her hair. Miss Edythe Janda's gown was green in shade and her flowers were yellow roses.

Oliver Dutch Jr., brother of the groom, was best man, and the usher was William Whalen. Yellow Talisman and white roses were used in the decorations at the breakfast which was served at the Blackstone hotel.

After a trip to Salt Lake City and Denver, the couple will reside at 4204 Bedford Ave., Omaha.

The bride is granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Janda of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius A. Pitz and daughter, Pauline, of this city were at the wedding Monday. Mrs. Pitz is an aunt of the bride.

FARMERS CALL FOR POISON

Twenty tons of grasshopper poison were delivered to farmers of Cass county last week. The price of the poison is $1.15 per sack of 80 lbs. County Agent D. D. Wainwright estimates that one hundred pounds will treat 160 acres of land at the present time. He reports that grasshoppers are thicker in the west end of the county than they were last year.

IN OMAHA HOSPITAL

Mrs. F. R. Barkus, who is at the Methodist hospital in Omaha, had an operation performed Saturday and is reported to be doing very nicely. Mrs. Barkus was taken to the hospital Friday. She will probably remain two weeks or longer.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN GAKEMEIER CELEBRATE

Mr. and Mrs. John Gakemeier celebrated their silver wedding anniversary at their home Saturday evening, May 15. The couple were married by Rev. Theodore Hartman on May 15, 1912. The evening was spent playing games and singing and Rev. Hartman gave a short but effective talk. Lunch was served shortly before midnight, consisting of buns, pickles, cake and sherbet ice cream. After lunch, Mrs. Gakemeier cut a large beautiful silver wedding cake which was decorated with silver leaves and pink roses.

Many useful and beautiful gifts were received.

Those present included Messrs. Cecil Hobbs, Leroy Morley and Theodore Washoltz, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Kamrofske and sons Karl and Elmer, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kroening and Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Gehrke, all of Omaha; John and Clyde Jones, South Bend; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Neuman, Wabash; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Roebber and son Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Neuman and son, Walter, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Baumgartner and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stroy, all of Murdoch; Rev. and Mrs. Theodore Hartman, Mrs. Marie Sals, Mrs. Sophie Meier, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Neuman and daughters, Lucille and Doris and son Francis, Mrs. Wm. Neuman, Sr., and daughter Selma, Miss Catherine Gakemeier, Miss Henrietta Gaebel, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Gaebel and daughters, LaVerne, Lucille and Clarice and son LeRau, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gaebel and daughter, Verla, and sons, Charles and Billy, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Gakemeier and daughters Laverna, Geraldine and Eugenia and son Norman, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Roebber, all of Louisville.

The Misses Veronica and Edythe Janda, sisters of the bride, served as bridesmaids, and wore gowns of net with a long full skirt and a puffed-sleeved bodice. Miss Veronica Janda's gown was peach colored and she carried Talisman roses and two matching roses in her hair. Miss Edythe Janda's gown was green in shade and her flowers were yellow roses.

Oliver Dutch Jr., brother of the groom, was best man, and the usher was William Whalen. Yellow Talisman and white roses were used in the decorations at the breakfast which was served at the Blackstone hotel.

HEARS OF DEATH OF FATHER

Mrs. Thomas Cacy, making her home in the second ward, received the sad news recently of the passing of her father, M. H. Gipson at Stockton, Mo., where he was born January 13, 1849 and where he made his home for his lifetime, 88 years. He was married there more than sixty-one years ago. He has been a devoted member of the Christian church since boyhood.

He leaves the wife, who is 81 years of age, five daughters and two sons. Mrs. Cacy has the sympathy of her many friends here in her loss.

TO RETURN SOON

Miss Josephine Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Josephine Campbell who was taken to the Kani hospital in Omaha recently for an appendix operation is reported getting along fine and is expected to return home the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Campbell, Miss Idabel Thompson, Miss Wilma Potts and Mr. Albertus Campbell drove to Omaha to call upon Miss Josephine Sunday.

ENJOY BIRTHDAY DINNER

The charming home of Dr. and Mrs. Carl F. Schmidtman, 72nd and Loveland at Omaha, was the scene of a very delightful birthday dinner party Tuesday evening. The happy event had been arranged by Mrs. Schmidtman in honor of Dr. Carl and the delicious dinner and the traditional birthday cake was thoroughly appreciated by the family group. Spring flowers were used in the decorative scheme.

The members of the party spent the evening in enjoying the time in visiting and admiring the handsome settings of the home, located at the outskirts of the city.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. William Schmidtman, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Goos and Miss Harriett, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Schmidtman and daughter, Janis of this city and who were joined at Omaha by Dr. George F. Schmidtman.

BANKERS TOUR STATE

From Tuesday's Daily—H. A. Schneider, president of the Plattsmouth State bank of this city and president of the Nebraska State Bankers association, departed this morning for Nebraska City. Mr. Schneider will join the delegation of the members of the state association who are making a tour of the state and attending group meetings of the association. The party is traveling by special train and will have a very fine time in the trip that takes them from southeast Nebraska to Alliance.

The party will attend the meeting at Nebraska City today and Wednesday will be at Holdrege for a session, Thursday at Alliance and on Friday at Grand Island.

The trip will enable the bankers to gain a fine view of the state and the present crop outlook in all sections.

VISIT AT KEARNEY

Mrs. Wm. Gorder, Mrs. Victor Wehrlein, Mrs. Kenneth McCarthy, and George Troop drove to Kearney Monday to visit Mrs. George Troop who is in the state T. B. hospital there. Mrs. Troop has been in the hospital during the past ten months and is reported to be about the same.

Mrs. Troop was greatly pleased last Friday when a card shower arrived from her friends in Platts-mouth and sends greetings and thanks to the ladies of this community.

MANY ENJOY GOLF

Sunday was a most delightful day at the course of the Plattsmouth Golf club and one of the largest crowds of the season was present to enjoy the day in their play and the pleasant surroundings.

Frank Horsack, No. 1 golfer of the city, was having a field day and made two rounds of the nine hole course in two over par and the third even.

Wallace Arnold is Discharged by Judge C. E. Tefft

Preliminary Hearing Takes Up Monday Afternoon and Culminates in Discharge of Defendant.

Wallace Arnold, charged with assault with attempt to commit rape, was discharged Monday afternoon in the preliminary hearing before Judge C. E. Tefft after an afternoon of testimony.

The complaining witness, Eleanor Balthazer was the chief witness for the prosecution and complained that Mr. Arnold had forced his attentions on her in spite of her protest but that she had finally released herself and without any blows being struck. She had not called for help and was able to help herself out of the alleged situation.

The defense offered several witnesses but the testimony was held strictly to the issues of the case and only the pertinent facts were admitted by Judge Tefft.

The defendant, Arnold, admitted calling at the Balthazer home and had been received there and spent some time listening to a radio and conversing with the complaining witness. He had spent the night at the Balthazer home and had gone on down town with Mr. Balthazer and returned later to the home in the south part of the city. He claimed to have used no violence and had desisted in his attentions to the complainant when she so requested.

Judge Tefft stated the facts in the case raised a doubt as to the probability of conviction in the district court and that under the facts submitted that the court felt that the defendant be discharged from custody.

RECEIVES $15 AND COSTS

From Monday's Daily—This morning in the county court before C. E. Tefft, special county judge, Frank Markland, of Auburn was arraigned and charged with operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated. The defendant pleaded guilty to the charge as preferred and was given a fine of $15 and costs by Judge Tefft, totaling $28 and which was settled and the defendant released. The driver's license of Mr. Markland was also suspended for a period of two weeks.

SUFFERS INJURED KNEE

Jack Chadwick, one of the employees of the A. W. Farney Co., on the local river work, was injured Monday very severely. While at work Jack was struck on the knee by a large and heavy rope and which bruised and injured the member very severely and will make it necessary for his remaining off duty for some time.
