Elizabeth Meisinger, daughter of Michael and Catherine Meisinger was born on September 10, 1855, in Tazewell county, Illinois. She spent her younger years there and in 1869 was brought by her parents to Cass county, the father settling on a farm in Eight Mile Grove precinct where they spent many years. On March 26, 1873, she was married to Wendell Heil and the young couple at once started farming in Eight Mile Grove where they remained until moving to Louisville where they have since resided.

HAVE EXCELLENT FISHING

County Treasurer John E. Turner, who has been enjoying a fishing trip in northern Minnesota, is back on the job, feeling fine, bronzed by the sun and a gain of four pounds in weight.

Mr. Turner was with a fishing party comprising Dr. Ernest Kieck, Dr. Ivins, Jack Yeager of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and Ed Hammond of Belle Plaine, Iowa.

The party were at McDonald lake near Dent, Michigan, and found the fishing excellent and the country looking the best for the past few years. Mr. Turner was lucky in beating at the lakes at the opening of the bass season and had a fine catch of these each day as well as the pickerel and other game fish.

He reports the crops between here and Minnesota as looking fine and in the northern part of Iowa and Minnesota the rye and wheat is looking the best and promises a bumper crop.

Death of Mrs. H. E. Weidman at Pekin, Ill.

Former Plattsmouth Resident Dies

Some Duration.

Sunday at Pekin, Illinois, where she has been gravely ill for a long period of time, Mrs. Mable Swearingen Weidman, 61, passed away and the funeral services were held at Pekin Tuesday afternoon and the burial in the cemetery there.

Mrs. Weidman was born in Sabetha, Kansas in 1876, and when a child was brought by her parents to Nebraska, the family locating in Weeping Water and where they made their home for a number of years, she growing to womanhood in that city.

She later located in Plattsmouth and was very active in the social and musical circles of the city and while a resident here was married to Henry E. Weidman, a member of one of the old time families of this community.

In later years Mr. and Mrs. Weidman have made their home in Chicago where they were engaged at the Palmer House until the failing health of Mrs. Weidman made necessary her retirement from the usual activities and later they moved to Pekin to reside.

She is survived by the husband and one sister, Mrs. Dora S. Francis, of Lockport, Ohio, and has been preceded in death by her parents, one sister, Mrs. Lillian K. Harsse, and two brothers.

Her long illness had given but little hope of her recovery and her passing brings a great relief after the brave and useless struggle with her malady.

Mrs. Fred Kroehler of Havelock, George Weidman of this city and Fred Weidman of Plainview, Nebraska, left Monday for Pekin for the funeral services.

OLD RESIDENT VISITING HERE

Since 1902 he has been located in Oklahoma where he was engaged in the mercantile business. He notes many changes since he left Cass county. He left Murray as a prairie town with no trees or shrubbery. He also remembers Plattsmouth as a town with the creek running down Main street.

Mr. Crosser reports fine crops in Oklahoma and through Kansas. When he left Woods county, two-thirds of the harvest was completed and the yield was from ten to twelve bushel per acre which is very good for that section. This is the first crop for five years.

Has Experience with Alligator Near Papillion

Lyle Horton Called Upon to Assist in Rounding Up a Large Sized Alligator.

From Wednesday's Daily—
Lyle Horton, local mortician, had a rather novel experience while he was driving home from Papillion this morning. Three miles east of the Sarpy county capitol city, he noticed a truck parked in the road and Mr. Horton stopped to see if he could be of assistance to the driver. A. H. Stickman, of the Central States Oil Co., of Council Bluffs.

The surprise of Mr. Horton was great when he found that the truck was not stalled but the owner was busy trying to capture a young alligator, several feet in length and who was trying to escape.

The alligator had been glimpsed by the trucker as he was driving along and an investigation made as to how the creature might have found its way along the Sarpy county highway.

Mr. Horton helped round up the alligator and which was grabbed by the trucker by the tail and then a real battle ensued, settled only by hitting the head of the alligator in the roadway and which seemed to partially stun it and enabled the trucker to grab it by the throat and prevent it snapping.

A passing farmer had a sack with him and this was used to place his alligatorship in and the trucker departed with his trophy.

Later it was learned that an alligator farm is being operated in that section and the young specimen evidently had made its escape from the farm.

Mr. Horton states that he would not care to mix with the amphibian reptile at close range and kept a safe distance from the alligator as it sought to avoid capture.
