When Methodism Came to Cass County in 50's

Pioneer History of Church Gathered by Rev. V. C. Wright as Part of 80th Anniversary.

The Methodist church of this city is observing the eightieth anniversary of its foundation this coming October and many very interesting pre-observance articles and talks have been given.

Rev. V. C. Wright recently gave a very fine talk on the church in Cass county in the early day.

He gave the text of the sermon given by Rev. Harrison Presson in 1850 at Omaha taken from Isa. 35:1. "The wilderness and the solitary places shall be glad for them and the desert shall rejoice and blossom as the rose. Trail blazers, home builders, rejoicing heart of a grateful people."

W. D. Gage was appointed head of the Nebraska City mission in 1854 and which included Rock Bluffs precinct. In 1855 a class was formed in the Morris neighborhood and the first sermon preached in Cass county was by Abram Townner, a local preacher, at the house of Thomas B. Ashley, in October 1854. Rev. Townner was one of the pioneer leaders of Cass county and grandfather of Mrs. B. W. Livingston and S. T. Gilmour of this community.

The first class formed in this neighborhood was at Braud Cole's cabin on the Perry Walker farm. The Rock Bluff circuit was organized in 1856 with W. D. Gage as pastor and J. T. Cannon as assistant, this comprising Rock Bluff, Rock Creek, Plattsmouth, Eight Mile Grove, Mt. Pleasant.

Plattsmouth appears in the minutes for the first time in 1857 with Hiram Burch as the pastor. Subsequent pastors were David Hart, Philo Gorton, Jesse L. Fort. In 1860 the Plattsmouth congregation numbered sixty-eight members, and succeeding pioneer pastors were Jerome Spillman, 1861, with Plattsmouth and Oreapolis as his charges, David Hart again, A. M. Amsbery in 1865 when the membership had risen to 144 and then J. J. Roberts served the charge until 1870.

Rev. Hart when pastor here performed the wedding ceremony for Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Buttery, parents of M. E. Buttery, the Buttery family still being active in the church work.

Interest Shown in Non-Interest Law

Opportunity to Pay Delinquent Tax without Penalty Appeals to Most of Delinquents.

A great deal of interest is being shown by taxpayers of Plattsmouth and Cass county in the campaign for the collection of delinquent taxes now under way, sponsored by the county commissioners and the city council, through the columns of the Journal.

County Treasurer John E. Turner said many taxpayers have written, telephoned or called at his office personally to get information on Legislative Bill No. 1, designed to save those who owe back taxes 7 per cent interest and accrued penalties—if paid as provided by the new law. Several taxpayers have sought figures on amounts they owe and general satisfaction of the terms of the act and its ability to actually save taxpayers money has been expressed.

The series of seven advertisements, designed to acquaint Cass county taxpayers of the amount of delinquent taxes due in Nebraska and how payment under terms of the legislative provision saves money, is continued in today's Journal. Read the ad (No. 2 in the series) and watch for later ones each week.
