Visited Here Sunday.
Miss Gertrude Chitenden, one of the very popular teachers of the Union schools in the past, now making her home at Clatonia, south of Lincoln, accompanied by her parents, who were going to Peru for a visit, Miss Gertrude stopping in Union to visit her many friends and was picked up by her parents as they returned in the evening.

Home From Vacation.
Miss August Robb who has for the past four weeks been visiting in the south where she was called a month ago to look after some business matters after which she remained for a visit with a cousin at Foley, Alabama and later visited a number of places before returning home. She visited at Pensecola, Florida and at New Orleans as she returned home. While there she was within a few miles of the gulf and often went to the beach. Miss Robb says the climate was delightful with the temperature rarely exceeding 85 degrees.

Back and Ready for School.
Professor Ralph Davis and wife, teacher in the Union schools whose home is at Waco, arrived here and are making their home in Union again. Also George Kuehl, one of the teaching force returned and is ready for the opening of school the first of next week.

Played Ball at Plattsmouth.
The Union ball team went over to the county seat last Sunday where they played the Plattsmouth Merchants in a very spirited contest. The final result was Plattsmouth 7 and Union 6.

Received Serious Injury.
While Miss August Robb was away Mrs. Kate Smith who had come from the northern part of the state to visit with Miss Robb, was prevailed upon to remain and care for the home during the absence of Miss Robb, and late last week as she knew of the return of Miss Robb Sunday, Mrs. Smith was cleaning and dusting the home when stepping on a rug on the polished floor, slipped and fractured one of the bones in her forearm, which was turned under her as she extended it to break the fall. She is getting along as well as possible, although suffering much from the injury.

Last of Open Air Meetings.
Last Sunday evening marked the last of the open air meetings at the Union park. Dr. H. G. McClusky of the Plattsmouth Presbyterian church conducted the services, assisted by Frank A. Cloldt doing the singing with Miss Estella Baird at the piano. Also a trio, Mrs. Louis Mougay, Miss Ira Mougay and Mrs. Ruth James sang. These meetings have proven very interesting, always having large audiences.

Union Couple United in Marriage.
During the past week two of the young people of Union slipped away and were quietly united in marriage, they being Miss Martha Upton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Upton, and Paul Pickering, son of Mrs. Martha Stuart of Union.

Miss Upton is a graduate of the Union high school and possessed of many very fine traits of character. Their many friends are extending congratulations and well wishes.

Visiting in Northwest.
