SOCIAL

From Thursday's Daily—
Return From Outing—

Miss Pearl Staats and Amelia Martens returned home Wednesday afternoon from a very delightful outing on the Pacific coast. Miss Martens spent some time with her sister, Miss Henrietta, at San Francisco while Miss Staats was at Seattle, Washington, at the home of her brother, C. V. Staats and family. They greatly enjoyed the many places of interest and were especially delighted with the natural beauties of Washington.

Departs for the West—

Miss Maxine Clodt is leaving Friday morning for McCook, Nebraska, where she will resume her work as teacher in the high school at that place. She will motor to Lincoln and from there will go with a number of university friends who are also teaching in the west part of the state.

Standard Bearers Honored—

Last night the Mystery Mothers gave a banquet in honor of their daughters, the Standard Bearers. First each girl had to guess who her mystery mother was. Then they all were seated in the dining room, a Standard Bearer between her mother and her mystery mother. Mrs. E. H. Wescott, accompanied by Mr. Wescott, sang several solos. Then a delicious dinner was served. Mrs. Merritt Kerr, the girls' leader, Mrs. Hayes, Mamie Schwencker, and Ruth Ann Hatt spoke. They were followed by many of the other women who wished to offer their opinion of the year's work. The evening's fun was closed by singing songs and prayer by Rev. Wright.

Honor Recent Bride—

Misses Betty Kallina and Betty Ann McCarty gave a surprise shower for Mrs. Leland Laase, formerly Miss Genevieve Bloom, chosen Miss Plattsmouth. The shower was held in the Bekins building.

The guests were Misses Clara Weyrich, Estelle Baird, Wilhelmina Henrichson, Della Solomon, Harriet Goos, Vivian Terryberry, Mary Jane Mark, and Alice Hiatt, and the guest of honor, Mrs. Laase. Mrs. Cyril Kallina and Mrs. Ethel McCarty assisted with the lunch.

Games were played. Miss Weyrich won first prize in one game and Miss Baird won first in another. Then the gifts were opened by the bride and refreshments were served. Many fine gifts were received by the bride.

From Friday's Daily—
Will Enjoy Outing—

E. C. Harris and daughter, Jeanette, are enjoying a short visit with relatives and friends in Arkansas and where they will visit the various places of interest in that section of the south.

Names Coming Fast—

Names for the carnival babies are coming in fast. The committee is desirous of getting the names of all boys and girls born in Cass county in 1937, which was the year the carnival was born. They will be given special recognition on the carnival program.

Entertains at Bridge—

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Karl Brown of Papillion entertained her bridge club at Mrs. J. A. Donelan's apartment. Mrs. Brown took first prize and Mrs. F. R. Guthman took the second prize. Light refreshments were served.

St. Paul's Auxiliary—

The Ladies' Auxiliary meeting was held at the St. Paul's church yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Fred Tschirren and Mrs. John Kaffenberger, Sr., were the hostesses. There was a very fine crowd.

Has Birthday Party—

Dorothea Duxbury celebrated her thirteenth birthday last night. Guests were Mary Jean Hatt, Shirley Jean Martin, Peggy Wiles, Waunita Sigler, Patricia Clodt, Shirley Walling, Helen Barkus, Helen Minniear, June Griffin, Elizabeth Ann Wiles, Dorothy Jean Turner, Renee Brown, Willa Sylvester, Jacqueline Wetenkamp,

Betty Gayer, and Ruth Westover. Games were played and prizes were won by Waunita Sigler and June Griffin. The color scheme was pink and green. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Here From Indiana—

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Malo of Hammond, Indiana, arrived here Wednesday evening for a visit at the home of County Treasurer and Mrs. John E. Turner, Mrs. Malo being a sister of Mrs. Turner. They are on their way east after a visit at Hugo, Colorado, where they were guests of Judge and Mrs. C. M. Somerville, the latter a sister of Mrs. Malo.

Stitch and Nibble Club—

The Stitch and Nibble club met at the home of Beatrice Knofieck last evening. Irma Pittman, a former member, was a guest last night. It was too warm to stitch so the members of the club just talked and nibbled.

K. B. Card Club Meets—

The K. B. card club met last night at the home of Mrs. Fred Lugsch. Mrs. Lugsch won first prize and Mrs. F. R. Gobelman won second. Mrs. Emil Ptak won the birthday prize. Mrs. Avis Shellenbarger of Omaha was down for the meeting. Refreshments were served and everyone had a good time.

Entertains at Shower—

Mrs. James E. Warga entertained Thursday afternoon at her country home south of the city. The event was in the nature of a stork shower honoring Mrs. Newton Sullivan.

The home was very attractive with the decorative plan of yellow and pink, roses being used throughout the rooms, while the centerpiece of the large table was a bouquet of roses. Bud vases with a rose were used on the smaller table.

The afternoon was spent in games of various kinds and in which Mrs. Frank Hull was awarded the prize. Mrs. Sullivan was the recipient of a large number of very attractive gifts from the friends and which were cleverly presented. Little Miss Marilyn Irene Warga and Marilyn Mumm appeared drawing small wagons on which the gifts had been placed and which were then presented to the guest of honor.

At an appropriate hour Mrs. Warga served a dainty two course luncheon that was very attractively arranged and the ladies presented with favors of yellow and blue.

There were twenty-four in attendance.

From Saturday's Daily—
Return From Lakes—

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Petersen and daughters, Edna Mae and Shirley, returned Friday from a visit of several weeks in the lake country of Minnesota. They were at Battle Lake, popular spot for the Plattsmouth vacationers and had a very delightful time.

Entertains at Dinner—

Jacqueline Wetenkamp entertained twelve guests at a dinner party last night at her home. The color scheme was green and white. Games were played and everyone enjoyed themselves.

Methodist Federation Meets—

The Methodist Women's Federation met at the church Thursday afternoon. Reports were received from the officers for the past year, including circle leaders' reports. Plans were made for the new year. The Gleaners circle was the hostess.

The Standard Bearers presented their puppet show, "Little Red Riding Hood," after which refreshments were served.

PLATTSMOUTH WINS 7-2

From Saturday's Daily—
Behind 5 hit pitching by Kennedy the Plattsmouth softball team took the Murdock team into camp by a score of 7-2 at Murdock last night. Kennedy was in great form, striking out 12 of the Murdock sluggers and allowing only 5 hits. The infield clicked beautifully with O'Donnell on 1st, Stephenson on 2nd and Malek taking care of 3rd. Ashbaugh at shortstop and Ofe at roving short accounted for a good many put outs and played heads up ball, with Smith, March and Rhoades doing a very good job in the outfield and Spidell playing his usual brilliant game behind the plate, the Platters turned in a performance they can well be proud of.

The next game will be here at home on Sunday night and if you want a big evening's entertainment for a dime—take a tip and be on hand Sunday night to root for Plattsmouth.

OMAHA PARTIES WEDDED

From Saturday's Daily—
This morning Rev. J. W. Taenzler pastor of the First Christian church, was called upon to perform the marriage ceremony of Harold Alceson Rouse and Miss Pauline Elsie Rankin, both of Omaha. The ceremony was witnessed by the mother of the groom.

Young People are Wedded at M. E. Church

Miss Gladys Strayer of Cresco, Iowa, and Mr. Eugene Liggett of Rockford, Ill., Married.

Mr. Eugene Liggett of Rockford, Ill., and Miss Gladys Strayer of Cresco, Iowa were united in marriage at six o'clock Thursday evening at the Methodist church by Rev. V. C. Wright.

They were attended by the groom's uncle, Charles L. Pease, and Miss Ada Jayne Kinsel.

The bride wore a gold dress and black accessories.

Following the ceremony, they enjoyed a lovely wedding supper at the Pease residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Liggett attended the State University of Iowa at Iowa City, and were graduated there in June. The bride is a member of the Alpha Chi Omega sorority and the groom was halfback for Iowa University for three years. He is now employed with the Colgate-Palmolive-Peet company in Omaha, where the couple will make their home.

Friday the couple will leave for Rockford, Illinois to visit the groom's parents. Mr. Pease and Miss Kinsel will accompany them, Mr. Pease visiting his sisters, Mrs. W. L. Liggett and Mrs. Silas Thompson.

VISITS IN OLD HOME

Guy Hyers, a native son of Plattsmouth, former state sheriff of Nebraska under the McKelvie regime, was in the city Friday to visit with old friends and view the old home town where his family were very prominent in public affairs for many years.

Mr. Hyers is now living at Los Angeles and with Mrs. Hyers is visiting at Lincoln, taking advantage of the opportunity he came down Friday to look over once familiar scenes.

While here Mr. Hyers was a guest at the T. H. Pollock home, where many incidents of boyhood days were recounted by the two old schoolmates and friends.

Mr. Hyers is a son of R. W. Hyers, for many years sheriff of Cass county, and later warden of the state penitentiary as well as being a power in the republican party of Nebraska.

While R. W. Hyers was at the state penitentiary in the eighties as warden, one of the prisoners constructed a large hitching post that he presented to the warden. This post was surmounted by the head of a horse and was a real piece of work. It was brought here and later placed in front of the J. W. Sage residence at Sixth and Pearl streets, where it has stood for many years. While here Gus Hyers interviewed the owner of the property, Henry Trout, and secured permission to take the post back to Los Angeles. The post which is very heavy, required a number of men to load it on a truck for shipment to the west coast.

The visit here was much enjoyed by the old friends and associates of Mr. Hyers, who are getting very few as the years roll by.

LEAVES FOR OHIO

Mrs. Ida Sayles Seybert departed Wednesday for Dayton, Ohio, where she will spend the winter visiting at the home of her son, Jennings Seybert and her daughter, Mrs. Honor Young and family.

Mrs. Seybert has a pleasant surprise awaiting her as a fine son was born Thursday to Mr. and Mrs. Jennings Seybert and who will greet the grandmother on her arrival.

SOFT BALL TOURNAMENT

Wednesday night, September 8, 1937 will be a red letter day on the Murdock soft ball diamond. Three teams that have won fame over the country will play. A box of Wheaties will be given to every player making a home run.

P. M. Hogenmiller and family and sister and niece drove to Lincoln on Sunday, August 29. The Missouri visitors wanted to see the capitol building and other places of interest.

Uncle Charles Rawalt, grandfather of Verne Rawalt and father-in-law of Mrs. Emma Rawalt, who has been visiting in Avoca from the west for a few days, returned home last Tuesday, after a very pleasant visit here.

Miss Sophia Hogenmiller of St. Louis and niece, Miss Pearl Hogenmiller of Sainte Genevieve, Mo., visited at the P. M. Hogenmiller home from August 26 to August 30. They made the trip here over the Missouri Pacific railroad.

The family of Elmer Hallstrom, who have been vacationing at Mitchell, South Dakota, at the home of a sister of Mrs. Hallstrom, Mrs. Maude Test, returned home last week in time to have the children enter school Monday.

E. J. Hallstrom was called to Plattsmouth last Tuesday to look after some business matters connected with the bank here and was also visiting his father, who is now able to be out and around, following his recent stay in the hospital at Omaha.

Claude Hollenberger has been in Lincoln for some time, where he has been busily engaged in painting. He first went to the capital city for a visit, but finding plenty of work in the painting line there, remained to work, and has been kept busy ever since.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Tyrrell were spending some two weeks over near Union, where they were caring for the home and farm of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gobelman, who are taking their vacation in the Black Hills of South Dakota and other places in the northeast.

J. E. Everett and wife, of Omaha, were visiting in Avoca last Sunday, guests at the home of Mrs. Rachel Everetts, his mother, enjoying the day very nicely and returning home in the evening, taking their little son John, who has been spending a week with his grandmother, and who was returning home to enter school.

Earl Freeman, better known as "Doc," together with the family were guests last Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Freeman, over northeast of Weeping Water, where the remainder of the family were also spending the day. There was an abundance of good eats and ice cream, and a general good time was had by all.

Gave Musical Recital

Music pupils of Miss Wilma Stutt were presented in recital one evening last week. A very pleasing program was rendered, being attended by some forty of the parents and friends of the young folks.

Visited in Nebraska City

Mrs. Rachel Everett, her daughter,

Miss Leona, and son, Silas Everett, as the driver of the car, together with Miss Mattie Voyles and little John Everett of Omaha, who were visiting in Avoca, made up a merry party who visited and looked after business matters in Nebraska City last Saturday. They visited Miss Dona Belle Edminsten, who was injured when she attempted to remove a cork from a bottle containing acid which exploded and burned her mouth very badly. She is getting along very well, however. She is a cousin of Silas and Leona Everett.

Celebrated Birthday

Miss Dorothy Gollner, who is employed in Lincoln with the Government, was spending her week end at home with her parents. As this marked the passing of her birthday, the family and as well that of Marion Pittman were celebrating the occasion at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Gollner. Miss Jean Pittman, her cousin, was also assisting in the celebration.

Held Enthusiastic Meeting

At the Congregational church of Avoca last Sunday there was held a congregational meeting with a dinner at the noon hour and a general meeting. The principal speaker for the occasion was the secretary of the Congregational Missionary association of Nebraska. The meeting was well attended and was enjoyed by the large crowd present.

Celebrate Birthday

Last Sunday marked the passing of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Fred Meyers and the occasion was celebrated by having as their guests for the day Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Voyles and their daughter, Miss Mattie, with a very fine dinner followed by delicious ice cream and cake.

Entertained at Dinner Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCann entertained at dinner last Sunday at their home, having as guests for the occasion Harry Abkur and family of Syracuse, Charles Bassett and family of Unadilla, Fred Ruhga, Frank Greenrod and family and Uncle Louis Carsten, making a very pleasant gathering of friends for the Sunday and the fine dinner.

Makes Repairs on Scales

The heavy traffic and the exceedingly heavy rains during a portion of the summer flooding the pit of the scales at the elevator, together caused the scales to need some repairs. Fred Marquardt, the elevator manager, had the repairs made last week, again placing them in perfect condition. While the heavy run of the wheat is over, much continues to come in yet, giving Fred and Doc plenty to do.

Putting Up Ensilage

Marius Nelson secured a party from near Union with a field cutting silage machine, which cuts the feed up as it goes and elevates it into the wagons, all ready to be unloaded into the pit silo. This machine proved very interesting to the people about town, many of whom congregated to see it work. Mr. Nelson is having a considerable amount of feed thus stored for winter.

Hearing Strange Noises

Earl Freeman was awakened a few nights since by noises in the neighborhood of his chicken house, and slipping out found a man endeavoring to make an entrance into the building where his large flock of hens were peacefully roosting. As Mr. Freeman came out, he was evidently discovered by the intruder for he made a break to get away and did so, but not before Earl had taken a shot at him with his trusty shot gun. It is believed the would-be thief got a few buck shot lodged in his anatomy instead of the chickens he was after. It may even be that he will be unable to sit down without great discomfort for a while at least.

And even that sort of treatment is too good for such low down sneak-thieves who go about preying on the chicken roosts of honest, hard-work-

No Law for This!

Homer S. Cummings

Although Homer S. Cummings, United States attorney general, is supposed to be an authority on legal matters, he apparently decided there was no law to govern eating watermelon and proceeded to operate in a rather unconstitutional manner at the party for politicians given by Daniel C. Roper, secretary of commerce, at his home in Washington, D. C.

ing people, seeking to appropriate to themselves that which the other party has worked hard to acquire.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES

From Saturday's Daily—

Frank S. Gorton, a resident of Plattsmouth for a great many years, died this morning at 4 o'clock at his home in Dunbar, Nebraska. For the past thirty years Mr. Gorton has made his home in and near Dunbar, but will still be remembered by many of the older residents of this city.

He has been an active leader in the business life at Dunbar and will be greatly missed in his home community and among the many old time friends.

He is survived by a number of children by his first marriage and by his wife, formerly Miss Lillian Stout-enborough of this city.
