

MURDOCK ITEMS

George A. Miller was at Nehawka, where he arranged to return and work on the road project being carried out north of that town.

Parker Otte of Wabash was looking after business matters in Murdock last Wednesday and was meeting many of his friends while here.

Miss Wilma Panaka was a guest over the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Meyers of Fairbury, Mr. Meyers being a brother of Miss Wilma.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bornemeier were in Central City last week, visiting for a short time at the home of a sister of Mrs. Bornemeier, who resides there.

Mrs. Merle Gillespie departed last week for Stevens Point, Michigan, where her parents reside and where she will spend three weeks or a month visiting.

Henry Meierjürgen was at Brownville last week to see about securing peaches, but found none ripe. He arranged to return later, however, and get what he wanted.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Miller were at Brownville last week, where they bought a quantity of peaches, sufficient for their own needs and some of their friends as well.

Bert Austin, of Wabash, was looking after business matters in Murdock Wednesday of last week, meeting many of his friends of earlier days when he was employed in this vicinity.

Glen Buck, Frank Dean and Walter Stroy of the neighborhood of Murdock together with a number of workmen from Elmwood and vicinity are working for the Power company on a line now being built in Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Way of Lincoln were visiting in Murdock last week, being guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Eisele. They also looked after business matters. Mrs. Way was formerly Miss Mary Ruch.

Mrs. A. C. Blattspeller and daughters, Misses Ruth and Mary, of Tobias, visited in Murdock several days during the past week. At the same time, Dr. Blattspeller and their two sons were enjoying a vacation in the Colorado mountains.

The Ladies Aid of the Murdock church met at the home of Mrs. Carl Schlaphoff Thursday last week, with Miss Loretta Schlaphoff as assistant hostess. A large number of the members were present and much business was transacted.

Mrs. Una McHugh, who has been visiting at North Platte with her daughter, Mary Catherine, for some time past, on the conclusion of her stay there was brought home by the daughter who also visited here for a short time before returning to her home in the west.

Ray Gamlin was in Council Bluffs last Wednesday, where he went to secure a truck load of oats for W. O. Schewe. Later he transported a horse in his truck to the home of George Meyers, southwest of Manley, the animal having been sold to Mr. Meyers to replace one he had lost, by Paul Stock.

Elmer Sundstrom, of Plattsmouth, visited in Murdock last Monday and while here made arrangements with the kittenball team here for the Plattsmouth team to play in Murdock Friday night, and a return game to be played at Plattsmouth one of the nights of the Korn Carnival, September 22 to 25, inclusive.

Rev. George Clarke, pastor of the Christian church at Beaver City, Nebraska, accompanied by his wife, are spending their vacation in Murdock at the home of Mrs. Clarke's brother, A. H. Ward and family. While here, Rev. Clarke has been painting the property owned by Mrs. Clarke at Elmwood. They will remain through a portion of the present week, returning home in time for Rev. Clarke to conduct services next Sunday.

Visited Daughter Here

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Smith, of Naperville, Ill., visited in Murdock for a time last week with their daughter, Mrs. Harvey A. Schwab and family. Later they went out in the central part of Nebraska for a visit with friends, finding the drought very severe out that way. They returned to their home in Illinois with a deep sense of gratitude for the bountiful crops being raised in their home state.

Home from Long Trip

Miss Ruth E. Bornemeier has just returned from a 7,000 mile trip into the northern and western parts of the United States. She left the first part of June and while gone was in Canada and Old Mexico, besides sixteen of our own states. Ruth says that, although she spent most of her time in California, she liked Washington and Oregon best. It was indeed an interesting trip. She will return to the University of Nebraska this fall.

Eat Fish with Friends

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Rikli, who but a short time since returned from a visit in northern Minnesota, where they spent a week enjoying a vacation and fishing in the lakes with abundant success, were able to entertain a group of friends at a fish supper last Monday. Everyone enjoyed the deliciously fresh fish from the Minnesota waters. Were there not restrictions on the amount that can be taken out of the state, they could have brought back several times more than they did.

Moved to Lancaster County

Mrs. Minnie Broeckhage and family recently moved to a farm near the town of Davey, where they will reside this coming year. This places the family much nearer their two daughters, who manage the telephone exchange at Colon, where they have been located during the past year.

A Real Gormand

Henry Carlson, the elevator man, tells of a grasshopper slipping into the elevator office last week and perching himself in a cigar box that contained samples of some extra fancy wheat grown in this vicinity. The "hopper" started in to eat the grain ravenously, disproving the oft heard claim that they will not devour grain when there is plenty of green stuff around. Henry let him eat until fully satisfied and says he took on a real meal.

Leaves for Atlanta

Douglass Tool, superintendent of schools at Atlanta, Nebraska, who has been home for the summer, departed last Wednesday for that place, to resume his school work there at the beginning of the present week.

Back in Business Again

A. H. Ward, who has been a citizen of Murdock for more than twenty years, first as operator of a garage and repair shop, and later as manager of a number of different oil companies, until of late when he has had no regular employment, has rented the garage workshop belonging to I. C. McCrorey and again engaged in business for himself. Since starting anew he has just turned out a very fine job of painting on the auto of Albert Theil, driver of one of the busses that transports scholars to and from the Murdock schools.

Played at Syracuse Fair

The Weeping Water band of which C. I. Long is a member, played during the fair at Syracuse last week, their music being one of the attractions at the fair, which was attended by a large number of people from Otoe and adjoining counties.

Visited in Iowa and Illinois

Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Reichman returned last week from an extended visit in Illinois, where they visited friends and relatives at Aurora and Geneva. On their return, they came via Grand Junction, Iowa, where they stopped for a visit at the homes of Chris Kupke and Henry Rueter and families. They found both these former Cass county families enjoying good health and well pleased with crop prospects. It will be recalled that last year the vicinity of Grand Junction was one of the favored spots in the west where an abundance of moisture produced a fine crop and this year again, nature has bestowed her fondest smiles upon that locality. They also found bumper crop prospects in Illinois, but only fair across the state of Iowa, except in scattered localities. They made the trip in the new Chevrolet which they recently purchased and had a most pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hall were in Lincoln last Tuesday afternoon, where they visited with friends, as this was the half-holiday for Mr. Hall, who takes one half day off every week.

Mrs. William Flaishman has not been feeling the best during the heated season and has been compelled to remain home from the cafe and in bed a part of the time. However, she is reported somewhat improved of late.

Walter Willits and wife are enjoying a vacation in the west, going as far as Idaho. They expect to be gone a full month. During their absence, the place is being cared for by Albert Alford, who is making his home there until they return.

Charles E. Wood and wife spent last Sunday afternoon and evening at the home of their son, Walter Woods and family at their home on the farm seven miles west and two miles north of Murray, enjoying a most pleasant visit there.

Mrs. Lucy Lyle, the manager of the Telephone exchange, who has been away on her vacation for some two weeks returned home last week and again is looking after the affairs of the exchange. However, it has been in very competent hands during her absence.

Charles E. Woods and wife were over to the home of their son, Walter Woods and family last Sunday, driving over to spend the evening and finding the family feeling fine, but with the weather very hot, as it has been throughout the state during the latter part of August.

A crew of Missouri Pacific carpenters arrived in Elmwood the first part of the week to rebuild a bridge north of town. As there has been a general filling up of all the empty houses in town, it was with difficulty that available quarters could be found for the extra men here.

Quite a dust was stirred up on Main street in Elmwood when some 41 equipment trucks and 84 passenger trucks transporting a portion of the U. S. Army and some CCC boys back from the army maneuvers held at Fort Reley, Kansas, passed thru town bound for Fort Crook on last Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Wood took a few days off last week and drove over to Clearwater, the home of Mrs. Wood's parents, spending the latter few days of last week and over the week end visiting them, and while there also attended a carnival that was playing there. They arrived home in time to resume their regular duties again Monday morning.

Miss Gertrude Fanders Poorly Miss Gertrude Fanders, who was taken to the hospital at Lincoln recently, continues in nearly the same serious condition, although a slight improvement is noted. She is still seriously ill and apprehension is felt for her recovery.

Home from the West

Morris Penterman, who has been spending some time in the west, in the vicinity of Los Angeles and elsewhere on the Pacific coast, arrived home a few days ago.

Will Work in Havelock

Kenneth and Cloyd West, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Charles West, have secured employment in the Burlington shops at Havelock, reporting for work last Wednesday. Kenneth has purchased a new Chevrolet car which he will use to provide transportation to and from work for himself and his brother as well as Loren Dennis, who has just returned from a trip to Los Angeles and will also be employed at Havelock.

Race Family Now Located

When Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Race left for Los Angeles recently, they were accompanied by Loren Dennis and Miss Deloris Dennis, brother and sister of Mrs. Race. Upon arrival in the west coast city, Mr. Race immediately leased a service station and went to work. Miss Deloris also was able to secure employment out there and will remain in the west. Loren, after a brief visit there, returned to Elmwood and has accepted employment in the Burlington shops at Havelock, but will reside here and go back and forth to his work with the West boys, who have bought a new Chevrolet to use for that purpose.

Peaches Plentiful at Brownville

Norville D. Bothwell made a trip to Brownville last week, where he secured a load of peaches. He had intended to bring back 50 bushels in order to supply the demand here, but was unable to get that many, as there were many others waiting for the fruit as fast as it could be picked. He brought back a partial load and on Wednesday returned for another load. He reports an abundance of peaches at Brownville, as well as apples and other fruits.

Laughing Around the World With IRVIN S. COBB

An Earnest Cry for Help

By IRVIN S. COBB

OUR town—I mean the one where I was born—formerly abounded in characters—"types" they'd call them in a larger place. One of our local institutions twenty years ago was a black driver named Abe, but called Old Abe for short. Abe was popular with both races, good natured, loud mouthed and friendly. He had one social shortcoming, though. About once in so often he would slip out on a dark night and acquire something of value without the formality of speaking to the owner about it. For awhile he escaped a penitentiary sentence.

But eventually he was caught with what the Grand Jury and the prosecuting attorney regarded as the goods—the said goods consisting of a stray calf. He was lodged in the Blue Eagle jail to await trial. His cell was in the upper tier. On the Sunday afternoon following his incarceration his wife, accompanied by five or six of Abe's pickaninies came to pay him a visit. It was the first time she had seen him since his arrest.

On her way out she was halted by the deputy jailer, whose name was Grady.

"Dora," he said, "have you hired a lawyer for Abe yet?" "Naw, seh," she said, "effen Abe was guilty, right away I'd git him a lawyer. But he p'intedly tells me he ain't de least bit guilty. So, of co'se, dat bein' de case, he ain't needin' no lawyer to git him clear."

From the floor above, down the iron stairway, came floating the voice of Abe:

"Mr. Grady, oh, Mr. Grady!—you tell 'at foot nigger woman down thar to git a lawyer—'an' git a damn good one, too."

Ralph Richards was in Murdock the first of last week, purchasing a trailer for use behind his car in transporting light loads.

Bert Austin and Parker Otte were in Murdock last Wednesday, where they were looking after business matters for a short time.

Lois Schmidt was constructing a pit silo at the home of Wm. Stock last week, and the latter is now busy filling it with ensilage, as he desires to get the most possible feed out of his corn crop, and believes this method will prove most satisfactory.

Hobart Hansen was at Brownville a few days ago and brought back a number of bushels of very fine peaches with him, which he distributed among his friends. A considerable portion of the lot went to Sherman Hardaway and Mrs. Hardaway was busy several days canning the luscious fruit.

Wabash Schools are Open

The schools at Wabash opened on Monday, August 29, with Miss Celesta Schlanker as the teacher, with an enrollment of sixteen students. The school is getting off to a good start and has a promising year to look forward to.

Believes Rain will Come

Henry H. Gerbeling, who is an optimist, believes that all things will come out for the best, and in so doing that rain will fall plentifully over this section of the country. So strong is his faith in this belief that he has been busy making repairs on the roofs of his farm buildings, getting them in readiness for the down-pour.

Babe Getting on Nicely

The 15-months-old daughter of Mrs. Fred Patzel, who suffered a fractured collar bone in a recent auto accident and was taken to a Lincoln hospital for treatment is reported as getting along very nicely, by Mrs. Patzel, the mother, who has returned to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Stanley, here in Wabash, after being in Lincoln at the bedside of the baby.

Dog Crazy by Heat

Fred Wevers, who has a husky dog to which he had become much attached, went home Tuesday evening and was in the act of feeding the horse when the canine dashed out from where it had been lying and attacked Fred in a vicious manner. Taken unawares, Fred was at a decided disadvantage, but was able to shake the dog off without being bitten. He then proceeded to the house and took down his rusty old shotgun, one charge from which put the crazed canine out of existence.

Attended Family Gathering

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Walters and children were down below Nebraska City, where they attended a family reunion at the home of Cadwallider Walters, brother of Willard. Among those present were Theobald Walters of Childers, Texas, who is the grandfather of the Walters boys residing here. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bardeen took the Walters family down for the reunion and enjoyed their visit as well. In all, there were 43 present at the reunion.

REJOICE IN NEW SON

Mr. and Mrs. James Murray are the happy parents of a fine son, born Wednesday night at the St. Joseph hospital at Omaha. The mother and son are doing nicely and the occasion has brought a great deal of happiness to the father. Mr. Murray is engaged in the meat department at the Hinky-Dinky store.

Plattsmouth offers a splendid market for farm produce. Local dealers always pay top prices.

Newspaper Folks Guests at KOIL Dinner

and program here will take place from the King Korn Carnival platform at 5th and Main.

Besides the Salute broadcast here on September 14, KOIL may broadcast Korn Carnival highlights, according to announcement made by Mr. Henry and his staff yesterday. The cost of installing the equipment here is no greater if left intact for a month than if only used for one day, and serious consideration is being given to leaving the lines up for this, our sixth annual Korn Carnival, little more than a week later. In the event national chain programs do not interfere, the Coronation will be selected for the broadcast, but if that is impossible, the Farmers day parade will probably be put on the air, as afternoon time is more readily available than evening.

Those from Plattsmouth attending the dinner were Mrs. R. A. Bates, Journal publisher, and Elmer Webb, member of the Journal force and erstwhile Journal radio editor in the old days of head phones.

As the only lady publisher present, Mrs. Bates was presented with a bouquet by Mr. Henry, station manager.

While there we enjoyed meeting C. J. Thelene, former district manager of the Iowa-Nebraska offices in Plattsmouth, now located at Missouri Valley, which town he officially represented at the pre-view dinner.
